

THE SAYINGS GOSPEL Q WITHIN THE CONTEXTS OF THE THIRD AND RENEWED QUESTS FOR THE HISTORICAL JESUS:

Wisdom and Apocalypticism in the First Century

by

Llewellyn Howes

SUBMITTED IN FULFILMENT OF THE REQUIREMENTS
FOR THE DEGREE

PHILOSOPHIAE DOCTOR

IN

THE FACULTY OF THEOLOGY,

UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA

(8 October 2012)

Supervisor:

Prof. Dr. Andries G. van Aarde

UNIVERSITEIT VAN PRETORIA
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA
YUNIBESITHI YA PRETORIA

For my moonlight, Yolandi Havemann

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Chapter 1: The Research Gap: The Identity of Q's Jesus	1
1.1 Jack T. Sanders	1
1.2 A focused overview of the Old and New Quests	3
1.2.1 Liberal theology	3
1.2.2 Albert Schweitzer	5
1.2.3 Rudolf Bultmann and the "No Quest" period	8
1.2.4 The New Quest	16
1.3 The Third and Renewed Quests	19
1.3.1 A revival of Jesus studies	19
1.3.2 The Son of Man	23
1.3.3 The parables of Jesus	35
1.3.4 The Gospel of Thomas	40
1.3.5 The Jewishness of Jesus	46
1.3.6 The Sayings Gospel Q	50
1.3.7 A schism in contemporary scholarship	55
1.4 The research gap, focal point and central theory	71
Chapter 2: Q as a Document	76
2.1 The documentary status of Q	76
2.2 The stratification of Q	79
2.2.1 Introduction	79
2.2.2 Kloppenborg's proposed stratification	80
2.2.3 Kloppenborg's supposed assumptions	83
2.2.4 Kloppenborg's supposed methodological deficiencies	86
2.2.5 Findings	105
2.3 Family feuds	106
2.4 The Genre of Q	113
2.4.1 Introduction	113
2.4.2 Wisdom, prophecy or apocalypticism?	118
2.4.3 Kloppenborg and Sato	121
2.4.4 Scholarly confusion	125
2.4.5 The temptation story	130
2.5 Ethnicity and Q	131
2.5.1 Introduction	131
2.5.2 The geographical location of Q	134
2.5.3 Galilean ethnicity	137
2.5.4 Ethnicity in Q	143

2.6 The eschatology of Q	155
2.6.1 Futuristic eschatology in Q	155
2.6.2 Realised eschatology in Q	164
2.6.3 Findings	166
2.7 Findings	167
Chapter 3: Apocalyptic-Judgment and Son-of-Man Logia in Q	169
3.1 Son-of-Man logia in general	169
3.1.1 Authenticity	169
3.1.2 Maurice Casey	172
3.1.3 Casey criticised	179
3.2 A focused exegesis of Q	185
3.2.1 A synchronic approach to the Son-of-Man sayings	185
3.2.2 Two sapiential Son-of-Man sayings	187
3.2.3 A synchronic approach to the apocalyptic-judgment sayings	190
3.2.4 The beatitudes	192
3.2.5 The mission discourse	196
3.2.6 The Beelzebul accusation	198
3.2.7 The sign of Jonah	200
3.2.8 Sophia judges "this generation"	206
3.2.9 Proclaiming Jesus in public	208
3.2.10 The speed of lightning	216
3.2.11 Three parables: Be ready, judgment awaits!	219
3.2.12 Two more parables: Be ready, the court awaits!	224
3.3 Findings	227
3.3.1 Apocalyptic-judgment sayings	227
3.3.2 Son-of-Man sayings	228
Chapter 4: "Do not judge!" (μὴ κρίνετε) in Q (6:37-38)	234
4.1 Reconstructing the Q text	234
4.2 Micro-genre	244
4.3 The literary context	252
4.3.1 The inaugural sermon	252
4.3.2 Apocalyptic judgment in the rest of Q	263
4.3.3 Judicial judgment in the rest of Q	265
4.4 The intertextual context	272
4.4.1 The Old Testament	272
4.4.2 Other Jewish intertexts	283
4.4.3 Back to Q	299
4.5 Findings	304

Chapter 5: Findings: The Sayings Gospel Q and the Historical Jesus	306
5.1 Acceptability of the central theory: The identity of Q's Jesus	306
5.2 A response to the Renewed Quest	307
5.3 A response to the Third Quest	309
5.4 Building bridges and crossing ditches	311
5.5 The relevance of Jesus' wisdom and morality	315
5.6 Suggestions for further study	319
Appendix A: The Critical Edition of Q	323
Bibliography	341
Primary sources	341
Modern editions of ancient sources	345
Secondary sources	346
Research Summary	387
List of Key Terms	388