

...canning back asked the sufferer if he had taken it as instructed. No," replied the patient, "I tasted it and decided I'd sooner have the cough."

People say * * *

That Potgietersrust can pride itself on its new Town Hall.

* * *

That the three Pietersburg Councillors who were present at the opening ceremony must have reflected that at £7,000 for building and furniture it was better value than Pietersburg's municipal buildings and furniture at considerably over £20,000.

* * *

That Gerard Moerdyk the architect deserves well of the country for dothing it with buildings which are things of beauty, and will be a joy for ever instead of the gloomy edifices, suggestive of penal institutions, which so many architects seem to consider as suitable for public buildings.

* * *

That Pietersburg in particular is indebted to him for the beautifully-designed English medium school the recollection of which will always be pleasurable to past pupils as they progress through life.

* * *