

Political Storm Brews Over Voortrekker Ceremony

OBJECTION TO GEN. HERTZOG TAKING PART

Daily Express Reporter

PRETORIA, Wednesday.

A FIRST-CLASS POLITICAL CRISIS IS THREATENING ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE VOORTREKKER CENTENARY CELEBRATIONS, WHICH ARE TO BE HELD IN PRETORIA IN DECEMBER, THE DAILY EXPRESS LEARNS.

The feelings of hundreds of thousands of South Africans—English and Afrikaans speaking—who are hoping to pay tribute to the memory of their Voortrekker ancestors will, it is learned, be ignored and seconded to politics.

It is understood that strong objections are being made to the Central Monument Committee by various branches of the Dingaan's Day Celebrations Commission against the invitation which has been extended to and accepted by General J. B. M. Hertzog, the Prime Minister, to lay the foundation stone of the monument on
