As a republication of the Statute Law of the Colony has become necessary on account of the Edition issued in 1887 having been exhausted, it was deemed desirable to consider the form in which the new Edition should appear.

Representations having been made to us by many members of the Legal Profession that a chronological arrangement would be of more practical convenience than the existing alphabetical one, which requires constant revision, we decided to adopt the former method of publication.

Inasmuch as Section 86 of the Constitution Ordinance provides that all Acts of Parliament shall be "enrolled of record in the Office of the Registrar of the Supreme Court," we applied for and obtained permission from that Court to publish a Chronological Edition of Cape Statutes and the Yearly Edition of each Session's Acts, which will be accepted as authoritative by the Court.

It was originally intended that this Edition should comprise the whole of the Statute Law up to and including the Acts for 1894, but in consequence of circumstances over which we had no control the publication was delayed for some months beyond the time first fixed. We have now, therefore, been able to add the Acts for 1895 and to make the necessary alterations in the body of the work except as to Statutes which had been printed before the Session of 1895 was concluded, the amendments to these being given on the next page.

This Edition consists of three Volumes, the first two containing the text of the Acts, and the last a full Chronological Table with a complete Index.

We intend in future, simultaneously with the publication of the Sessional Acts, to produce a revised Edition of this Table and Index brought up to date.

ESTABLISHMENT OF THE DEBT REGISTRY. (1)

[June 19—1714.]

Maurits Pasques de Chavonnes, Councillor Extraordinary of Netherlands India and Governor on behalf of the United Netherlands Chartered East India Company at the Cape of Good Hope and its dependencies, and the Council thereof, make known :

How that it hath come to our knowledge, &c., &c. [The first part of the Placaat has reference to the Education of Minors, under guardianship of the Orphan Chamber, and is obsolete.]

Further, it having been experienced that there hath hitherto remained unused and not adopted in practice in this Government, the registration of Kusting Brieven, Obligations before Schepenen and Orphan Masters and other Bonds passed before Commissioners of the Court here, whereby from time to time, divers lands, houses, erven, and other property, are bound, as well specially as generally, in favour of the holders thereof, whereby not only many difficult lawsuits are caused, but likewise the good inhabitants, or the Company's servants, who are inclined to put out their money at a proper interest, are kept back, inasmuch as it can never be seen what may be due by any persons by Kusting Brieven or Obligations before Schepenen, Orphan Masters, and writings of Mortgage on their immovable property, which, for the welfare of the good inhabitants, ought not to be.

Preamble.

Now, therefore, we, desiring to provide by these presents in the premises, have considered it highly necessary to order and command all Company's servants, or inhabitants belonging to this Government, as we order and command all of them and each in particular and every one whom in any respect it may concern, that all persons shall be bound, within the period of four months, or before the 19th of the ensuing month of October, to exhibit at the Secretary's office at this place, all such Kusting Brieven, Obligations before Schepenen, Orphan Masters, and other writings of Mortgage, executed before Commissioners of the Court, whereby any immovable property has been bound or hypothecated, and to give in to the Secretary the amounts or contents of their writings of Mortgage and of such as may be from any cause in their possession, and which shall in future be required to take place in every case when any such writings of Mortgage shall be obtained, to the end that a proper Register may be formed and kept thereof, and it

PLACAAT. [April 22, 1779.

The States-General of the United Netherlands, unto all who shall see or hear read these presents, greeting :

Preamble.

Know ye that, although from the earliest times unto the present day, in the Colonies of this State, as well in the East as West

* This date is not filled in in the MSS.

Indies, comprised under the style and situated within the limits of the charter of the East and West India Companies, the power has been exercised of confiscation of goods of delinquents, who, in consequence of crime committed had forfeited liberty and life, yet it has appeared to us, not only that abuse might be made of that power, but likewise that, in its exercise, several disputes and difficulties constantly arise; and that, moreover, actual injustice is inherent in it, inasmuch as by such confiscation the wives, children, or near relations of such delinquents are made, although themselves innocent, to share in the punishments imposed on them by the loss of the goods confiscated.

Placaat—April 22,

That for these and other reasons, for the general good of the inhabitants, and in order to remove the aforesaid hardship in several Kingdoms and States, and especially in the Provinces of Holland and Zeeland, where heretofore this power was exercised in the same manner, it hath been disused or wholly abrogated.

Now, therefore, we, being desirous in like manner to provide therein for the welfare of our aforesaid Colonies and our inhabitants thereof, have been pleased, upon deliberation with the Council of State, after previous consultation and communication with His Highness the Prince of Orange and Nassau, our hereditary Stadtholder, to decree, as of our sovereign power and authority we do hereby decree, that from henceforth no confiscation of goods of delinquents, entire or partial, shall or may be ordered in our Colonies aforesaid, either by the Courts of Justice or by any other inferior Courts therein, for any reason or offence whatever, great or small, none excepted—and not even the Crimen Perduellionis or Læse Majestatis (treason)—abolishing, cancelling, and nullifying in so far, all laws, placaats, privileges, customs, and usages which might have an effect contrary hereto,—not desiring that the same shall in that particular be hereafter put to any further use, with instruction and express command to all judges, superior or inferior, within our aforesaid Colonies, to regulate themselves punctually according to this our placaat.

Confiscation of the property of criminals abolished in all Colonies.

In all cases, not excepting conviction for treason.

And in order that no person may pretend ignorance of the same, we order and command the authorities of the chartered East India Company, the representative of His Royal Highness and authorities of the West India Company, the Directors of the Colony of Suriname, as also the Directors of the Colony of Berbice to cause this our placaat to be published and affixed in all directions in the respective Colonies under their authority, at the places where it is customary to make such publications and affixions, and to cause the same to be observed and acted upon by all superior and inferior Courts of Justice of the aforesaid Colonies.

RENEWAL OF THE FOLLOWING WARNING, RESPECTING THE CARCASSES OF HORSES, OXEN, &c., ON AND NEAR THE PUBLIC ROADS. (1)

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is daily found that certain of the inhabitants, whose horses, oxen, and other beasts of burden, whether through weakness or otherwise, happen to fall down upon the public roads and die there, permit them to lie there and rot, without taking any further trouble about them, by which the air is infected, and other evils arise: Therefore, we, wishing to provide against this, have thought fit to ordain and direct, as we hereby ordain and direct, that whenever, as well in the Cape as in the country districts, any of the abovementioned animals or other cattle through sickness or other accident should happen to fall upon or about the public road, or are compelled to be left behind, so that there is nothing else to be expected but that such animal or animals will die there, such animals shall then be thrown into a hole, to be dug by those whom it may concern, whether Europeans or slaves, and be covered over with earth, under penalty that whoever shall be found neglectful herein shall be mulcted in a fine of fifty rixdollars; and masters of slaves who shall offend herein shall be liable for such slaves. ## REGULATIONS FOR THE PREVENTION OF CONFUSION IN THE DEBT REGISTRY. (1)

[April 22, 1793.]

PUBLICATION.

WHEREAS it hath been discovered and hath come to our knowledge that, in the registration of bonds passed before Magistrates and Orphan Masters whereby landed property is specially hypothecated, numerous abuses have heretofore taken place in the register, which is for this purpose kept at the Political Secretary's office, from which nothing but confusion and injury can result, as well to the creditors as debtors, and it has therefore become necessary for the public interest as well, that every one who has advanced money upon hypothec of landed property should have the certainty and knowledge that these hypothecs have been properly notified, in order to retain his right of preference; as also that every one of the inhabitants may be satisfied that in the aforesaid register of debts no other debts are entered against him than those actually due by him.

Preamble.

Therefore it is that we, in order to be able to rectify the aforesaid Register of Debts here, and to purify it of errors existing therein, in such manner that every one may henceforward be able to rely on it with perfect confidence, have resolved to ordain and enact, as is hereby ordained and enacted:

That all holders of mortgages, bonds before Magistrates, and of bonds passed for the residue of purchase money under which landed property hath been specially hypothecated, shall be held and bound to appear before commissioned members of the Court of Justice of this Government (who shall attend gratis for this purpose, to commence from the 8th of the next month of May, on Commission to examine bonds.

April 22, 1793.

Wednesdays and Fridays, in the Judicial Court-room, in the morning, from nine to twelve o'clock), to exhibit all the bonds passed before Magistrates (mortgages), and Kusting Brieven, and bonds passed before Orphan Masters belonging to them, in order that it may be examined whether all these obligations are found to be duly registered, so that, if this formality have been observed, proof thereof, under their signature, may be thereon endorsed, and those of which the registration may have been neglected, may at once be registered of the date on which the exhibition shall be made, and in like manner notice hereof under their hand shall be given by endorsement of the instruments.

Bonds not exhibited deprived of preference.

That, in order to give sufficient time and opportunity for this purpose to the inhabitants of this Colony, a period of six weeks be left to the inhabitants of the Cape Valley and its neighbourhood, and to the inhabitants of the country districts a period of three months,—but to count from the 8th May next, when commissioned members of the Court of Justice shall first attend for the purpose,—under the penalty, that those who neglect to cause the required examination to be done before the expiration of the beforementioned terms, shall henceforward be and remain deprived of the preference to which they would otherwise be entitled by virtue of the registration of the bonds of which they are holders; and that the debts which thereafter may be created on the property hypothecated to them, unless the forementioned hypothec already existing shall have been confirmed according to the manner above prescribed, shall be preferent before those which may have been previously contracted and shall be found to have remained unregistered through the fault of the holders of the bonds.

Cancellation of paid debts remaining uncanceled.

That all the inhabitants shall be at liberty within the above-mentioned periods, and at the said days and places, to address themselves to the commissioned members of the Court of Justice, in order to receive likewise gratis information of the debts with which they are burdened in the aforesaid Register of Debts, so that, if it be found that their settled debts have not been properly cancelled, these may be, on production of the evidence required thereto, cancelled, and their property relieved therefrom, of which, at the same time, due evidence shall be furnished them.

And in order that every one may be able to have the necessary use of our salutary intentions herein and enjoy their salutary effect, this shall be published and affixed in the ordinary place, wherever it is customary that such affixion is made.

Thus done and decreed in the Castle of Good Hope, the 22nd April, 1793, and published and affixed the day following.

RHENIUS.

REFORM OF THE DEBT REGISTRY. <sup>(1)</sup>

[May 23, 1805.]

PUBLICATION.

Jan Willem Janssens, Governor and General-in-Chief, and the Court of Policy for the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope and its dependencies in South Africa, &c., &c., &c., to all and each who may see and hear these presents: Greeting, make known:

That whereas, it appears from the past records of the Government Secretary's office, that the public Debt Registries, whereby all mortgages, legal hypothecations, and notarial or secretarial obligations are made public, are by no means in such order as that would be possible safely to rely on them, inasmuch as it has sometimes been found that not only have debts standing open been long since paid, but even that unpaid debts through the ordinary affix in the margin, "solvit," appeared in the registry as already liquidated, that hence, repeatedly, very great uncertainty and confusion, and besides ruinous lawsuits, must arise between the several inhabitants of the Colony, and, in addition, distrust in the public Debt Registry be created, by which the certainty of ownership and mutual confidence in private transactions would be weakened; that these same causes in the year 1793, led the Government of the day to issue a publication on the 23rd of April of that year to reform the abuses which had crept in, and to establish the public Debt Register on a more certain footing for the future; that this useful work was immediately begun and further accurately set forth, until, in the year 1795, it became necessary to stop it temporarily, on account of the attack on the Colony by the English, and after the surrender of the Colony it wholly ceased; that the manner in which the work was begun and continued was in every respect of a good tendency, and therefore, could at present be usefully proceeded with, were it not that from the time which has elapsed and during which the old Debt Registers have been continued, an entire retracing of steps and revision thereof became necessary; that the revision is the more necessary, because the increasing population of the Colony has enlarged the utility and the great importance of accurate public Debt Registers; while, on the contrary, the continuance of the present renders the evil, which has crept in, daily less capable of cure, and more and more endangers the certainty of ownership, hypothecs, &c.:

Preamble.

Now, therefore, the Governor and Council, in order to effectually provide herein, have considered it necessary to cause the public Debt Register to be revised with all possible accuracy, and thereafter to be brought into such order, that not only all uncertainty concerning the present registered debts may be removed, but in future, the danger of uncertainty and confusion as far as may be possible shall be prevented. And now, therefore, to this end, resolved to order and decree, and order and decree by these presents :

<sup>1</sup> See Foot Note on Page 1.

First commission appointed.

1. That during the ensuing months of June, July, and August, a Commission, consisting of a member of the Court of Policy, a member of the Court of Justice, and a member of the Colonial Orphan Chamber, expressly to be appointed thereto by these bodies respectively, shall twice a week attend in the Government Court-hall in the Castle, at such times as they among themselves shall agree and shall make known to the public, in order to examine whether the "Kusting Brieven," "Schepenen"—Orphan Masters—and Bank-Obligations, and likewise, other public writing acknowledgements of Debt are, or are not duly registered.

Bonds to be exhibited to the commission.

2. That for this purpose all holders of such bonds of which it is here customary to give notice at the public Debt Registry, shall be bound to exhibit the same, or to cause the same to be exhibited by duly qualified persons on the specified days to this Commission, in order to be compared with the Debt Register.

Certificate on bonds duly registered.

3. That the Commission shall, in the case of such bonds as they shall find to be properly registered, make known the finding on the back, or at the foot of all such bonds, under the signature of two members of the said Commission.

Registration of bonds not duly registered.

4. That whenever, on examination, any bonds are found to be unentered in the Debt Registry, the Commission shall redress this omission by formally making the registration, and in proof hereof, shall note on the back, or at the foot of the exhibited bond, with the addition of the signatures of the entire Commission, that the bond is registered, with the addition of the date of the exhibition.

New debts register.

5. That after the expiration of the aforesaid period of three months, the examination shall be held as concluded, and that then the Governor and Council shall nominate a second Commission in order to frame an entirely new Debt Register, in which shall only be entered such bonds as have been exhibited to the first Commission.

Bonds not exhibited—deprived of preference.

6. That all bonds not exhibited to the first Commission, and consequently not entered in the new Debt Registry, shall be deprived of the right of preference, unless the holders before the end of the present year shall, in a satisfactory manner, have caused it to appear to the Court of Justice, that they were prevented for reasons valid in law from satisfying this order, in which case the Commissioners of the Court of Justice who attend weekly for the purpose of having acts passed before them, shall be authorised to enter such bond in the new register.

How registrations and cancellations are to be signed.

7. That in future all registrations shall be signed by the Master of the Records and the first clerk in the Government Secretary's office, as likewise, all cancellations, which shall not be effected as heretofore by merely placing the word solvit in the margin of the registration, but, on the contrary, shall be effected by a proper counter entry on the opposite page of the Debt Registry, so that each debtor therein shall henceforth have a proper debit and credit side.

May 23, 1805.

8. That in like manner as takes place in the Loan Bank, according to the fifth article of the instructions thereon, immediately after the registration, the hypothec or burden shall be notified by endorsement by the Master of the Records and first clerk on the deed of transfer. Endorsement of hypothec on title deed.

9. [This section has reference to the mortgage of slaves and is no longer applicable.]

10. That during the session of the first Commission, and on the days to be by it fixed, every person shall be at liberty to inquire of the Commission for what debts he appears liable according to the Debt Registry; and if it be found that any person appears indebted in any amount which he, in a satisfactory manner, proves to the Commission to have been paid by him, on exhibition of such proof the debt shall be at once cancelled, which cancellation, in like manner as all further proceedings of the Commission, shall take place gratis. Cancellation of debts proved to have been paid.

And whereas, it hath further appeared to the Governor and Council that the registration of kinder-bewyzen, and antenuptial contracts, although expressly ordered by a proclamation of the 23rd April, 1793, does, notwithstanding, not take place universally, by which means it could easily occur that those ignorant of the legal hypothec might be misled in the valuation of the mortgage on which it is desired to raise money either with the Loan Bank or the Orphan Chamber, or with private individuals, they have resolved to order and decree, and order and decree by these presents. Registration of kinder-bewyzen and antenuptial Contracts.

11. That all those persons who have already obtained legal hypothecs on the property of their spouses by virtue of antenuptial contracts, shall also give notice thereof to the first Commission during the period fixed by article 1, in order that the same course may be followed as in respect to conventional hypothecs, under the penalty that those who do not give such notice shall be deprived of the right of legal hypothec, to which they would be otherwise entitled, and that consequently all conventional special hypothecs which are constituted after that date and are duly registered, shall be preferred to anterior non-registered antenuptial contracts. Conventional special hypothecs duly registered preferent to anterior non-registered antenuptial contracts.

12. That under a like penalty, all antenuptial contracts which shall be passed after this date must be publicly notified in the Debt Registry at the Government Secretary's Office. <sup>(1)</sup>

13. That of all deeds of Kinderbeweys, whether passed at the Orphan Chamber, or before a notary, or secretary and witnesses, due written notice shall be given within twenty-four hours after Notice of deeds of Kinderbeweys to be given by the Notaries before whom they are executed, within twenty-four hours of their execution.

May 23, 1805.

the execution of the deed by the secretary of the Orphan Chamber, the respective notaries, and the secretaries of the country districts, signed by the person before whom the deed has been passed, under penalty that in case of omission of such notices, the officers named in this article shall be responsible for all damages which the orphans may suffer through their negligence. The notices of the secretaries in the country districts shall be prepared within twenty-four hours, in order to be transmitted with the first safe opportunity that offers to the capital; and

Widowers and widows not entitled to publication of banns before due registration of the Kinderbewys.

14. That, finally, in order to secure the interests of minors by all possible means, the commissioners of marriage causes may grant no publication of banns of marriage to widowers, or widows, having children of a former marriage, unless it satisfactorily appears to them, that not only in accordance with the nineteenth article of the Marriage Ordinance proper security shall be given, but that the deed passed thereof has been duly registered at the office of the Government Secretary. (1)

We order and command the Court of Justice, the Attorney-General, and all whom it may concern, to obey and cause to be obeyed, this our publication, with all punctuality, for we have found such necessary for the welfare of this Colony.

And that no one may plead any ignorance hereof, this shall be published and affixed in all places where it is customary to make publication and affixion.

Thus resolved and decreed in the Court of Policy, at the Cape of Good Hope, the 15th May, 1805, and published the 23rd thereafter.

Governor and Council aforesaid.

CONVERSION OF LOAN PLACES TO PERPETUAL
QUITRENT. (1)

[Aug. 6, 1813.

PROCLAMATION

By His Excellency Lieutenant-General Sir JOHN FRANCIS
CRADOCK, &c., &c.

Preamble.

WHEREAS agriculture constitutes the chief source of prosperity in this Colony, and the full encouragement thereof must consequently have an immediate tendency to promote the real interests of its inhabitants: Whereas this encouragement chiefly depends on the certainty of tenures, and the confidence connected therewith, that all improvements of the soil, and all increase of fertility, should indisputably belong to the holder as his own, and that, in the ordinary course of things, all his arrangements, as well with respect to the produce as to the land itself, should, by the laws, be exclusively secured to him, his heirs, executors, assigns, or representatives: Whereas, although the establishment of loan leases might have been suitable to the early state of this Colony, when the wants of Government were not foreseen, it now appears from experience that the loan tenure is injurious to that certainty, so essential to the happiness and the interest of the inhabitants, and equally injurious to the public interest, by preventing the holders from appropriating as much of their means to the improvement and extension of agriculture as they would do, in case they had no right of re-assumption to apprehend, and might dispose of the ground as they please, by sub-dividing the same among their children, letting, selling, or otherwise alienating it in lots, cultivating it in the prospect of remote benefit, by the planting of timber, &c.: Whereas, notwithstanding a gradual re-assumption of loan lands and the re-granting of the same in lesser portions on a more certain tenure might considerably increase the colonial revenue; yet, having taken into consideration the great utility of no longer delaying the improved cultivation of land by giving security to title, and of making the same, as speedily as possible, a general measure, I have adopted the following determination: To grant to the holders of all lands on loan, who may regularly apply for the same, their places on perpetual quitrent, with the following rights and privileges, and on the following terms and conditions, namely.

Memorial to the Government for conversion of Loan Places to perpetual quitrent.

1. Every holder of a loan place, on his making application by memorial to Government for the purpose, shall have a grant of his place, on perpetual quitrent, to the same extent as he has hitherto legally possessed the same on loan.

Extent of grant.

2 No loan place shall exceed three thousand morgen; every addition to that quantity of land must be particularly mentioned to the surveyor and commission, and appear upon the face of the application, for His Excellency's consideration.

Proc.—Aug. 6, 1813.

3. The holder, by this grant, shall obtain the right "to hold the land hereditarily, and to do with the same as he may think proper, in like manner as with other immovable property; as also, should he deem advisable, to sell or otherwise alienate it, with the usual previous knowledge of Government, either partly or wholly, as free and allodial property."

Right to hold hereditarily and to alienate.

4. Government reserves no other rights but those on mines of precious stones, gold, or silver; as also the right of making and repairing public roads, and raising materials for that purpose on the premises: other mines of iron, lead, copper, tin, coals, slate, or limestone, are to belong to the proprietor. <sup>(1)</sup>

Government reservation of precious stones, gold and silver—and of right of making and repairing roads.

5. In all places adjoining to the sea, or communicating with the sea by inlets therefrom, the rights of the Crown are reserved, with the power of re-assumption of any quantity of land, not exceeding twenty morgen, paying the proprietor for such buildings as he may have erected, according to a fair valuation, provided such ground be wanted for public purposes; and if given up by the Crown, it shall not be transferred to another individual, but revert to the proprietor or his representatives.

Reservation of rights of Crown in places adjoining the sea.

6. In all judicial decisions regarding perpetual quitrent the same rights, laws, and usages shall be observed, which have hitherto been acted upon, or which may hereafter be established, enacted, and followed in judicial decisions, with respect to freehold lands.

Laws respecting freehold lands to govern decisions on perpetual quitrent.

7. That for this, in the common course of things, irrevocable title, the holders shall pay to the public revenue an increased yearly rent, to be prescribed according to the situation, fertility, and other favourable circumstances of the land; in no case, however, exceeding a sum of two hundred and fifty rixdollars.

Yearly rent not to exceed rixdollars two hundred and fifty.

8. For the survey of a loan place to be granted on perpetual quitrent, the land surveyor, exclusive of the diagram, travelling expenses, and wagon hire, shall not charge more than one hundred rixdollars, unless he may be obliged, from local difficulties, to appropriate more than five days to make the survey, in which case he shall be allowed to charge ten rixdollars for every day over and above that time: the respective landdrosts are therefore directed to pay strict attention hereto, when any account be presented to them to be paid out of the district treasury, as mentioned in the Government advertisement of the 16th July last.

Payment of surveyor.

9. <sup>(2)</sup> On the division of any place granted on perpetual quitrent, each part, and its holder, shall be severally bound and responsible for the full amount of the rent, in such manner, however, that he who makes the payment may recover from the other holders, for as far as regards their respective shares; unless at the request of the interested parties, on making the division, Government may have

Each holder, on division of a place, bound for the full amount of the rent.

Period within which applications may be made,—twelve months.

Issue of title deed.

been pleased to direct, that the rent shall be apportioned and registered proportionably at the time of the transfer.

10. That in order to ensure the necessary regularity, as well as the interest of the State, no alienation of any part of such place shall be considered as legal before the same shall be surveyed, a diagram made thereof, regularly transferred before Commissioners of the Court of Justice, as likewise duly registered in the office of land revenue.

11. This perpetual quitrent shall, further, not be liable to any other burthens but those to which all freehold lands are already subject, or which may hereafter be further prescribed.

12. All applications for the conversion of loan lands into perpetual quitrent, with the privileges attached thereto by this present proclamation, must be made within twelve months from the date hereof; after the expiration of which period the said rights, privileges, terms, and conditions, shall be subject to such alterations as circumstances shall be found to require.

13. The title deed (erfgrondbrief), on such application, shall be granted after the place shall have been surveyed, with the previous knowledge of, and if necessary pointed out by, the landdrost, by a sworn land surveyor, and a proper diagram of the same forwarded to Government by the landdrost, accompanied by his certificate, that the measurement was made without prejudice to any person; and also that the diagram does not contain any greater extent of ground than was legally possessed on loan by the holder.

14. By the regulations made in these presents, it is not to be understood that the right of re-assumption, increase of rent, or other arrangement regarding loan places, which undoubtedly belong to the Government of this Colony, and which have been, from time to time, exercised by the successive Governments of the same, are in anywise curtailed, or intended to be curtailed, unless when the parties obtain an alteration in their tenure on the terms proposed.

15. In order to prevent all misunderstanding, it is hereby specially declared, that the right which belongs to Government with respect to attached places is in nowise done away by this measure, and consequently, that those places remain subject to all such further regulations as they would have been liable to, in case this proclamation had not been issued.

16. Loan places attached to the respective drostdies, deputy landdrosts, or the parsonages of the clergy, remain, as they are, public property, to be transmitted to their successors. But where Field-cornets, or other public functionaries, are excused from paying rent for a loan lease of their own as part of the remuneration for their public services,—in all such cases where the party solicits and obtains a change of tenure, for the purpose of dividing it amongst his family, or other motives, he shall not be liable to the raised rent during the time he is employed in the public service, and a new rent shall commence at the expiration of such services by death or otherwise. Proc.—Aug 6, 1813.

17. The whole tenor of the foregoing regulations will manifest the paternal view His Majesty had taken of this Colony; and, in deeply considering the permanent interest of the occupiers of lands, to what extent the Crown has resolved to sacrifice its rights and prerogatives in order to place property upon that solid and secure foundation, without which fair adventure and speculation cannot arise, and even common industry and labour will lose much of its effect. General tenor of the regulations.

Thus at length is this great measure matured and brought forward. It is the one that has long engaged the attention and anxious wish of each preceding Government, but which could not well admit of conclusion, except in times like the present—of unexampled tranquillity, uniform progress in civilization and good order, and the unbounded prospect of universal prosperity.

I feel the highest gratification in giving effect to these beneficent and paternal designs of His Majesty's Government; and persuade myself that the gratitude of the inhabitants of this Colony will be equal to the value of the inestimable gift thus extended to them on the part of the Crown, which, by graciously offering to their acceptance a perfect title to lands, that enables them to provide for their children and descendants, and dispose of them as they please, grants to them, in fact, possession of an estate, and the high character and station of "a real landholder."

They will thereby abandon an unworthy tenure, unfitted to the growing prosperity of the Colony, and only suited to the earliest and rudest institutions of the settlement; and being thus placed in their territorial possessions on the same footing as their fellow-subjects in Europe, the Cape of Good Hope in future may, with fair pretension, take its rank with other countries.

And that no person may plead ignorance hereof, this shall be published and affixed as usual.

Cession of the Colony.

[Aug. 13, 1814.]

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General the Right Hon. Lord CHARLES
HENRY SOMERSET, &c., &c. [Dec. 23, 1814.

Preamble.

WHEREAS doubts have arisen with respect to the quantity of disposable Government ground in the vicinity of this town, and with respect to the limits of private property as affecting the same, a commission was appointed, in the year 1811, for the purpose of superintending a complete survey thereof, and examining the documents and titles to the land claimed and occupied as private property: Now, be it hereby made known that the survey of all the land situate and being to the right of the great road from Cape Town to Simon's Town, and extending from the military lines to the estate of Claassenbosch, now possessed by W. F. Versfeld, has been completed, and laid before me by the Government sworn surveyor, L. M. Thibault; and having personally examined the same, and compared the whole with the documents in support thereof, and the reports relative thereto, I do hereby declare my entire approbation of the same, and hereby recognise the boundaries as described thereon to be the true limits of the respective estates therein described.

Boundaries of land from Cape Town to Claassenbosch established.

Cession of ground near Cape Town, enclosed and cultivated in error, to occupiers, on title being taken out within six months.

And it appearing, moreover, that the occupiers of several of the estates alluded to have, either through error or inadvertence, enclosed or cultivated proportions of land, to which the former grants of this Government have not entitled them, I have resolved to cede to each of the parties alluded to the land so illegally held by them, upon due valuation thereof by the Magistrate of the Cape District, provided the parties interested take out, within six months from the date hereof, the usual title, authorising them to occupy the several spots of ground in question.

Titles to claimants of Government land.

And whereas it appears that within the limits of the survey under consideration, there are other persons who claim Government land, in virtue of certain resolutions of the former Governments, although they had not obtained regular titles thereto; and being desirous, whenever the interest of the Crown and local circumstances will admit of it, and no actual disposition has taken place, or been directed, to give favourable consideration to claims of the nature alluded to, I have given detailed instructions to the landdrost of the Cape district, to value such of the lands alluded to as are specified to him as being such as may, without detriment to public interest, be alienated, in order to their being ceded under regular title to the parties in question.

Delivery of diagrams to applicants.

And it is hereby recommended to all holders of land in the direction of the said survey, for the prevention of all future disputes with respect to the boundaries or extent of the land they occupy, to cause to be taken from the general survey under consideration, a diagram or chart of the lands they possess, which diagram, with a proper certificate from the Colonial Secretary, will be delivered to each applicant, free of expense, excepting the usual cost attending the land surveyor's copying the same.

Proc.—July 12, 1822.

And in order that no person may plead ignorance hereof, this shall be published and affixed in the usual manner.

Testamentary Dispositions of Natural-born Subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland resident within this Settlement. (1)

[July 12, 1822.]

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General the Right Hon. LORD CHARLES HENRY SOMERSET, &c., &c.

WHEREAS it has appeared to His Majesty's Government that the laws in force in this Colony relating to testamentary dispositions of property may, in their operation, defeat the expectations of those individuals who have emigrated and become settlers within the jurisdiction of this Government; and I have in consequence thereof received His Majesty's most gracious commands to make provision in the premises according to circumstances: I do therefore, in pursuance thereof, and by virtue of the authority in me vested, hereby make known, declare, and order that it shall be hereafter considered lawful, regular, and of full force, for all residents and settlers in this Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, being natural-born subjects of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, to enjoy the same rights of devising their property, both real and personal, as they would be entitled to exercise under the laws and customs of England; provided, however, that in case any such natural-born subject of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland shall enter into the marriage state within this settlement, without making a previous marriage settlement (called, in the colonial law term, antenuptial contract), his property, in such case, both real and personal, shall be administered and divided

Preamble.

All natural-born subjects of the United Kingdom entitled to devise their property as in England.

In case of marriage in this colony without previous marriage settlement property to be administered according to colonial law, unless a testamentary devise be made by the testator in conjunction with his wife.

according to Colonial law, notwithstanding any subsequent testamentary devise, unless such subsequent testamentary devise be made in conjunction with the wife of the party, according to the Colonial law on this head.

Wills to be deposited in the Orphan Chamber.

And it is hereby further made known and ordered that the original will or testament of any person dying in this Colony shall be deposited, as usual, in the Orphan Chamber; at Cape Town, in order to legalize the administration of the estate by the executor or administrator thereof.

The tenor of this proclamation to be explained by matrimonial courts.

And I do hereby further order and direct the president, or acting president, of any of the Matrimonial Courts of this Government, to explain clearly, to every natural-born subject of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland who shall be about to enter into matrimonial engagements, and appear for that purpose before such Court, the tenor of this my proclamation,—noting on their record their having so done, that no man may justly plead ignorance of this provision.

And in order still further to obviate the plea of not knowing the law on this head, I have caused this proclamation to be published and affixed as usual, and to appear in three successive Gazettes.

THE BOEKHOO PLANT.

PROCLAMATION.

By His Excellency General the Right Hon. Lord CHARLES
HENRY SOMERSET, &c., &c.

WHEREAS I have been given to understand that the medicinal qualities of the Boekhoo (Boego) plant are held in great estimation in Europe, and that it is probable the demand for that article may increase to an extent which may prove very beneficial to the interests of this Colony, provided the necessary measures be taken for its preservation ·

Preamble.

And whereas it has been represented to me that the persons employed in collecting this article, not satisfied with gathering the leaves, or even cutting the shoots, of this plant, are in the habit of pulling it up entirely by the roots, or of cutting and hewing it so low down and in such a manner as to destroy the plant itself; I have deemed it necessary, for the general interests of the Colony, to order and declare, and it is hereby ordered and declared accordingly, that any person who may be convicted before a competent tribunal, of tearing up the Boekhoo (Boego) plant by the roots, or of burning it, or cutting it in such a manner as to injure the further growth of the plant, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanour, and be fined in a penalty of not less than twenty nor more than fifty rixdollars for every such offence, one-third of which shall go to the informer (provided always, that the property so injured or destroyed be not the private property of individuals, and cut or pulled up or burnt by their orders): And in the event of the inability of the offender to pay the fine awarded, that he be liable to imprisonment at hard labour for a certain period not exceeding two months for every such offence.

Any person tearing up or burning the Boekhoo plant, to pay a fine of not less than 20 and not more than 50 rix-dollars.

In default, imprisonment with hard labour for two months.

And that no person may plead ignorance hereof, this shall be published and affixed in the usual manner.

26. And be it further enacted, that letters of administration granted to any person as testamentary executor, shall at all times be subject to be revoked and annulled by the decree of the Supreme or of any Circuit Court on the proof to the satisfaction of such Court that the deed in respect of which such letters have been granted to such persons is null, or has been revoked, either wholly or in so far as relates to the nomination and appointment of such executor: and that letters of administration granted to any person as executor dative shall be at all times subject to be revoked and annulled by the order of the Master of the Supreme Court, on production to him of any valid deed, by which any other, who shall then be legally capable and qualified, and who shall consent to act as executor, has been legally nominated and appointed testamentary executor to the estate to which such executor dative has been appointed to administer: Provided always, that, if the non-production of such deed, prior to letters of administration having been granted to the executor dative has been owing to

Preamble.

WHEREAS several persons have subscribed certain sums of money for the purpose of erecting a church at Cape Town for the celebration of divine service according to the rites of the United Church of England and Ireland as by law established, on the site consecrated for that purpose by the late Lord Bishop of Calcutta, upon the principle that such subscribers should have a right of property in the pews of the said church, and in or about the month of October, in the year of our Lord 1827, a committee of management was appointed for carrying their intention into effect, which committee hath received part of the said subscriptions together with several sums of money from various persons by way of donations for furthering the building of the said church: And whereas His Excellency the Governor hath agreed to grant from the treasury of this Colony towards the building and completing the said church, to the persons who shall undertake and become bound for completing the same, a sum not exceeding the sum of five thousand pounds sterling, in manner following,—that is to say, the sum of five hundred pounds when the foundations are up to the surface and completed; five hundred pounds when the walls are as high as the bottom of the windows; five hundred pounds when the walls are as high as the tops of the windows; one thousand pounds when the walls are roof high, the wall-plates on, and the roof in frame; one thousand pounds when the mason's and bricklayer's work is completed, including the tower; five hundred pounds when the plastering inside and outside is completed; five hundred pounds when the joiner's work is completed; and the remainder of the said sum of five thousand pounds to be paid when the whole building is taken over from the contractors in a complete state: And whereas the said committee have received and approved of a plan and specification for building the said church, together with tenders for the building thereof according to the said plan and specification, but the several sums before mentioned have been found to be insufficient for completing the said building; whereupon at a public meeting of the said subscribers and committee of management, holden pursuant to advertisement and notice thereof in the Commercial Advertiser newspaper on the twenty-seventh day of August now last, it was agreed and resolved by the said subscribers and committee of management (amongst other things) that the said scheme should be peremptorily relinquished, and that in order to raise a sum of money amounting together with the said sum to be granted by His Excellency the Governor as aforesaid and the said donations to the sum of twelve thousand and seventy pounds, being near or about the estimated cost of building and completing the said church, a certain number of shares should be disposed of,—that is to say, the number of two hundred and fifty shares at twenty-five pounds each: And whereas several of the said subscribers and other persons have agreed to take shares in the said loan as aforesaid,—that is to say, the Honourable Sir John Wyld, Knight (Chief Justice of this Colony), the Honourable Lieutenant-Colonel John Bell, C.B., and the Reverend George Hough, M.A., ten shares each; Lieutenant-Colonel William Hopper, eight shares; Rice Jones Jones and Hamilton Ross, six shares each; George Thompson and John Bardwell Ebdon, five shares each; William Hayward (Assistant Commissary-General), the Reverend Edward Judge, M.A., William Scott, Laurence Twentymen, Hudson, Donaldson, and Dixon, and William Hawkins, (agent to the Honourable the East India Company), four shares each; Ewan Christian and Samuel Olivier, three shares each; Thomas Kift Deane, William Hutchons, George Greig, John Deane, Francis Collison, James Horne, George Wilson Prince, John Blore, John Robert Thomson, William Heyward, Edward Durham & Co., Charles Baron de Lorentz, William Wilberforce Bird, Henry Buckton, John Barker, Joseph Simpson, John Thomas Buck, the Honourable William Westbrook Burton (one of the Judges of the Supreme Court), Antonio Chiappini, Edward Smith, William Hunt, Benjamin Phillips, Charles Mackenzie, Isaac Manuel, Carel Ferdinand Heinrich von Ludwig, Robert Waters, Edward George, Lieutenant James Bance (of the Royal Navy), Robert Reeves, Major George Jackman Rogers, the Honourable Joachim Willem Stoll, Anthony Oliphant (His Majesty's Attorney-General for this Colony), Charles Dixon, Daniel Jacob Cloete, Henry Hewitt, James Smith, William Billingsley, Thomas Fairclough, Clerke Burton (Master of the Supreme Court), the Honourable George Kekewich (one of the Judges of the Supreme Court), Hendrik Cloete, L.'s son, Herman Schutte, Major Charles Cornwallis Michell, Thomas and John Sinclair, Lieutenant-Colonel William Cuthbert Elphinstone Holloway (of the Royal Engineers), James Carfrae & Company, and James Carey, two shares each; William John Mackrill, Frederick Dickinson, William Lawson, John Hartfield Tredgold, George William Silberbauer, George Herbert, Frederick Stephanus Watermeyer, Hercules Tennant, Captain William Ronald, James Duff Watt (Deputy Assistant Commissary-General), William Benson, Pieter Gerhard Brink (Auditor-General), Joseph Dixie, John Brown, Mrs. Johanna Adriana Hardman, Samuel Capon, William Gadney, Thomas Elliott, Thomas Hall, Andries Thomas Stadler, Willem Anthon Joseph Liesching, Edwin Oldham, Andrew Steedman, Richard Stone, Joseph Sturgis, John Syme, Thomas Heyward, John William Lolley, Thomas Ausdell, Daniel Mills, jun., Robert Crozier, Pieter Donald Hohne, Joseph True-

Preamble.

WHEREAS it appears expedient that the inhabitants of Port Elizabeth and the parochial limits thereof being members of the United Church of England and Ireland as there by law established should be invested with the right and privilege of choosing and appointing under certain regulations a vestry and churchwardens for the better and more effectual administration and management of all matters connected with the Church at Port Elizabeth commonly called St. Mary's Church, and that the said vestry and churchwardens should possess certain powers and perform certain duties as the same are usually possessed and exercised by such officers according to the customs and usages of the said United Church of England and Ireland: And whereas on the appointment of the said vestry and churchwardens it appears expedient that the control over the affairs of the said church which has been hitherto exercised by the original church committee and since the dissolution of that body by the officiating minister and churchwardens or warden should cease and determine:

First election of vestry.

1. Now therefore be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, by the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that on the Easter Monday ensuing next after the passing of this Ordinance and on each succeeding Easter Monday a general meeting of the male inhabitants of Port Elizabeth and the parochial limits thereof being of the age of twenty years or upwards who shall be holders of sittings in St. Mary's Church aforesaid or who shall be entitled ex officio to occupy seats in the pews already set apart for the accommodation of the churchwardens and strangers, the officers of the garrison, and the Chief Civil Magistrate of the district, such ex officio holders of seats being members of the aforesaid United Church of England and Ireland, shall be holden in the vestry of St. Mary's Church in Port Elizabeth, fourteen days' notice whereof shall be given during divine service by the minister for the time being and by notice posted on the church doors for the purpose of electing a vestry; and it shall and may be lawful for the inhabitants aforesaid or a majority of them at such meeting assembled to elect from among themselves any number of persons not exceeding eight in the manner and subject to the provisions hereinafter mentioned, who together with the officiating minister for the time being shall form a vestry charged with the duties and invested with the powers hereafter specified.

Ord. 1—1842.

2. And be it further enacted that two other persons not being members of the said vestry shall likewise be elected at such meeting as aforesaid as auditors of the accounts of the said vestry.

Auditors of accounts.

3. And be it enacted that no male inhabitant shall be competent to vote at any such meeting for the election of a vestry who shall have allowed the rent of his pew or sitting to continue in arrear and unpaid for twenty-eight days after the same shall have become due and payable and shall have been legally demanded; nor shall any male inhabitant be qualified to be elected as a member of the vestry unless he be a resident householder in the town of Port Elizabeth or within the parochial limits thereof and unless he be a member of the United Church of England and Ireland.

Qualification of voters and of vestrymen.

4. And be it enacted that a list of all persons eligible according to the provisions of the foregoing sections shall be prepared by the officiating minister so long as there are no churchwardens appointed under the provisions of this Ordinance, and when churchwardens shall have been so appointed as is hereinafter provided then by the minister and churchwardens conjointly, which list shall be open for the inspection of all persons entitled to vote at the election of the said vestry and auditors at least fourteen days before any election is to take place.

6. And be it enacted that the officiating minister for the time being shall preside as chairman at all meetings of the said vestry, provided that in case of his being absent from any such meeting one of the other members shall be elected to act as chairman, and in case of the votes of the said vestry being equally divided the chairman or acting chairman shall have a casting vote in addition to his own.

And be it further enacted that it shall and may be lawful for the said vestry so from time to time constituted and appointed to frame, adopt, amend, alter, or rescind any rules, orders, or by-laws which may to them appear expedient for their guidance in the discharge of their duties and for more effectually executing the provisions of this Ordinance, and also to take such order for the management of the said church as they shall deem expedient: Provided that the said rules, orders, or by-laws contain nothing repugnant to law or to the tenor of this Ordinance or to the customs and usages of the United Church of England and Ireland as there by law established.

And be it enacted that the officiating minister and churchwardens or warden officiating at the time of the election of the first vestry under this Ordinance shall upon the appointment of the said vestry deliver or cause to be delivered over to the said vestry all deeds, accounts, documents, and papers relating to the church which shall be at the time in their custody or power, or authentic copies of the same, and all sums of money in their possession or subject to their control, and that their management of the affairs of the said church which since the dissolution of the church committee devolved upon them shall thereupon cease and determine.

- Election and powers, &c., of churchwardens. 11. And be it enacted that the said vestry shall forthwith on their appointment choose out of their own number two persons as churchwardens who shall perform and execute or cause to be performed and executed all lawful acts, matters and things for the good order and decency of behaviour to be observed in the said church by the congregation thereof, and for providing the said church (by order and at the charge of the said vestry) with necessary and customary furniture for the performance of divine service, and for keeping the same clean and in proper repair, and for furnishing the officiating minister with robes suited to his rank or degree in any university or college of the United Kingdom, and for preserving to all persons their rights in the pews and sittings in the said church, and for keeping the burial-ground appertaining to the said church in decent order, and for discharging all other duties which usually devolve on churchwardens of the United Church of England and Ireland so far as the same may be applicable to this Colony.

Ord. 1—1842.

And be it enacted, that any creditor or creditors of any company may, in like manner as aforesaid, petition against the partners of any such company, to have the estate of such company placed under sequestration; in case any such company have, by any one or more of its partners, committed any act of insolvency, with intent or in such manner as to defraud the creditors of such company, or to defeat or delay them in obtaining payment of the debts due by such company; or provided the sentence of any competent Court has been obtained against such company, and the partners thereof, being thereunto required, have not satisfied the same, or pointed out, to the officer charged with the execution of such sentence, sufficient disposable property to satisfy the same; and provided it shall appear from the return made by such officer, or his affidavit, that he has not found sufficient disposable property of such company to satisfy such sentence; and every order for sequestration issued upon such petition shall be valid, although it do not include all the partners of the company. And provided, also, that it shall be lawful, upon such petition and proof as last aforesaid, and such other proof, if any, as may be required, to include in the same order for sequestration, (should the Chief Justice or other Judge aforesaid making the same see fit so to do) as well the separate estate or estates of any partner or partners of any company as the joint estate of such company. But the separate estate of a partner shall not be entered upon or attached by virtue merely of an order for required, to order that the said sequestration shall be revived and be proceeded in, as if it had been originally obtained on the petition of the creditor or creditors last mentioned; and thereafter the said sequestration shall be revived with all the consequences and effects thereof, as if it had never been superseded; save only, that when the sequestration shall be revived after the same shall have been superseded, the validity of every alienation, transfer, gift, cession, delivery, mortgage, pledge, payment, acquittance, surrender and discharge made by such insolvent, and every payment to and dealing with the said insolvent between the time of the superseding of the order for sequestration and the time of the making of the order for reviving the same, shall be judged of and decided upon, on such and the like grounds and principles, and no other as would by law have been applicable to the same in case such order for revival were a primary and original order for sequestration.

21. And be it enacted, that if any person against whom any order for sequestration has been made, shall pay any money to the person who obtained the same, or give or deliver to any such person any satisfaction or security for his debt, or any part thereof, whereby such person may receive more in the pound in respect of his debt, than he would be entitled to receive if the sequestration were proceeded in, and the estate distributed among the creditors thereof, according to their legal rights and preferences, such payment, gift, delivery, satisfaction, or security, shall be a new act of insolvency. And every person so receiving such money, gift, delivery, satisfaction, or security, shall, in the event of the sequestration being afterwards proceeded in by any other creditor or creditors, in manner hereinbefore mentioned, or of a new order for sequestration being issued upon such new act of insolvency, deliver up such security, and shall repay the said money, gift, or the full value thereof to such person or persons as the Court shall appoint, for the benefit of the creditors of such insolvent, and shall pay all the costs which shall be incurred by any other creditor in obtaining the revival of the said sequestration, and shall forfeit the whole of the debt due and owing to him by such insolvent.

so far as the same is occasioned by reason of any such decree order, or arrest as aforesaid, by the order of the Supreme Court, or of any Judge thereof, or of any Circuit Court, in case such Court or Judge shall not see cause to refuse to make such order, shall be discharged therefrom. And it shall and may be lawful for the person having right to such judgment, to prove the debt, and costs secured thereby, against the sequestrated estate, and to take the benefit thereof upon distribution of the said estate; and where any property has been attached by legal process for satisfaction of any judgment, and has not been sold, or, having been sold, the proceeds thereof remain undistributed in the hands of the Sheriff or other Officer of the law, such property or such proceeds shall be placed under sequestration in the same manner as any other part of the insolvent estate, and the person holding such judgment, shall, on the distribution of the said estate, be entitled to be preferred over the proceeds of the property attached or sold, as the case may be, at the time of the lodgment, with the Sheriff or Deputy Sheriff, of the order aforesaid, for the costs incurred by him, for and in respect of the writ of execution, and the execution of the same, but not for the amount of his judgment debt, or of his costs of suit by him incurred before the suing out of such writ of execution.

Effect of order of sequestration upon actions against insolvent.

23. And be it enacted, that all actions pending against any insolvent for any debt or demand provable against his estate, and all proceedings therein, shall, upon any order being made for the sequestration of such estate, in virtue thereof, be stayed: and the insolvent, if in prison under any arrest granted in security of any debt or demand in regard to which any such action shall have been instituted, may, by the authority and under the condition in the last preceding section mentioned, be discharged therefrom, and it shall and may be lawful for the plaintiff in such action to prove his debt, together with the taxed costs of suit then incurred against the sequestrated estate, and to take the benefit thereof upon distribution of the said estate: Provided, however, that all actions pending against any insolvent for damages alleged to have been sustained from any injury or wrong, or breach of any contract, committed by him, such damages being uncertain, or for recovery of any claim unliquidated as to its amount, and all proceedings therein, shall, upon any order being made for the sequestration of his estate, be stayed until a trustee shall be elected for the administration thereof, if the sequestration shall remain in force so long; and thereupon, the plaintiff in such action, after summoning the trustee to take up and defend the said action, may proceed to obtain the judgment of the Court thereon, and the said judgment, when recovered, together with the taxed costs of suit, shall be a debt provable against the said estate.

Effect of order of sequestration upon actions by insolvent

24. And be it enacted, that all actions commenced by any person whose estate shall afterwards be placed under sequestration as insolvent, for any debt or demand due to the said estate, and all proceedings therein, shall, upon the order for such sequestration being made, be stayed, until the trustee thereafter chosen for the administration of the said estate shall make election to prosecute or discontinue the same, and the trustee shall be bound to make such election within six weeks after notice to that effect shall be served upon him by any defendant in any such action, or otherwise shall be deemed to have abandoned the same. Provided, however, that any insolvent shall be permitted to continue, in his own name and for his own benefit, any action commenced by him previous to his insolvency, for any personal injury or wrong done to himself, or any of his family, and any damages which may be recovered in any such action shall not go or belong to the insolvent estate, nor shall any property proved to have been purchased or obtained by the insolvent with any such damages.

Ord. 6—1843.

Damages for personal injury saved from sequestration.

25. And be it enacted, that the Master of the Supreme Court shall, after any estate has been placed under sequestration, upon surrender thereof as insolvent, or has been adjudged to be sequestrated, forthwith cause notice thereof to be given in the Government Gazette of this Colony, and shall thereby appoint two public meetings of the creditors of such estate, at such times and places as he shall deem most convenient for all the parties concerned, the first for receiving proof of debts against the said estate, and the second for the same purpose, and for electing a trustee for the collection, administration, and distribution thereof. And such publication shall be deemed notice thereof to all persons who may reasonably be presumed to have seen the same. And the times and places so fixed for the holding of any of the meetings aforesaid, may, on cause shown to the said Master, or to the Supreme Court, by any party dissatisfied with the appointment made by the said Master, be altered; of which alteration notice shall be forthwith given in the Government Gazette: Provided always, that if it shall appear to the said Master, before causing notice to be given as aforesaid, that the goods and effects of the insolvent available for the payment of his debts are not the value of seventy-five pounds sterling, he shall specify the same in the said advertisement: and shall therein also give notice, that unless it shall be shown at the first meeting, called as aforesaid, that the goods and effects of the insolvent exceed the value of seventy-five pounds sterling, the Master, or Resident Magistrate holding such meeting will summarily proceed to rank the debts which shall be proved at such meeting according to their respective preferences and to direct the proceeds of the insolvent estate to be forthwith distributed accordingly, by a trustee to be then elected by the greater part of the creditors in number and value attending at such meeting. And in such case, the said insolvent shall at such first meeting attend before the creditors to account for his insolvency, and shall, being thereunto required, do and perform thereat all such other matters and things as are hereinafter required to be done and performed by him at any meeting of creditors, under the provisions of this Ordinance. And if at the said first meeting, which meeting may be adjourned from time to time, if the said Master or Resident Magistrate shall deem it necessary to adjourn the same, it shall still appear to the said Master or Resident Magistrate, as the case may be, before whom the same is holden, that the available assets of the said estate do not exceed the amount of seventy-five pounds sterling, it shall and may be lawful for the said Master or Resident Magistrate to rank the creditors who shall prove their debts at such meeting, according to the legal order of their preference, and for the creditors to elect a trustee for the collection, administration, and distribution of the estate of the said insolvent according to the order of ranking; and to direct the said trustee forthwith to collect, administer, and distribute the same accordingly. And further at the said first meeting the said Master or Resident Magistrate shall and may respectively execute all the powers and authority which may be executed by them at any meeting of creditors under the provisions of this Ordinance, and shall also do and perform thereat all matters and things required to be done for the final settlement of the said estate. And the creditors present at the said first meeting shall then determine what part of the wearing apparel, bedding, household furniture, and tools of trade of the insolvent shall be excepted from the sale of his movable property, and shall be allowed to him; and shall also give to the said trustee such directions as to the management of the said estate as to them shall seem fit. And no other meeting shall be thereafter holden, unless, upon cause shown to the said Master by any trustee or creditor of the said estate, the said Master shall think fit to order the same.

Before whom meetings of creditors to be held.

26. And be it enacted that in all cases where any meeting of creditors for the proof of debts or for the election of trustees shall be appointed to be holden in Cape Town, the same shall take place before the Master of the Supreme Court; and if in any district of the Colony other than the Cape District, then before the Resident Magistrate of such district, under the direction of the said Master; and the said Master or Resident Magistrate shall respectively take the votes of the creditors, and declare the party so elected trustee of the said estate; and in all cases where such meeting shall be holden before the Resident Magistrate of any district, he shall forthwith certify to the said Master the proceedings thereat.

Proof of debts.

27. And be it enacted, that every creditor shall prove his debt against the said estate to the satisfaction of the Master or Resident Magistrate, as the case may be, who shall admit any debt, or reject the same as not proved. And every creditor shall prove his debt by affidavit, which shall be sworn before the Master or Resident Magistrate, or some commissioner appointed by the Supreme Court for taking affidavits, or some Justice of the Peace, and which shall state the nature of the alleged debt, and when such debt accrued originally to the deponent himself, that the same is a just, true and lawful debt, and, when such debt has accrued to the deponent by cession, or otherwise, from any other person, then that the said debt is a just, true, and lawful debt to the best of the deponent's knowledge and belief, and such affidavit shall state what other persons, if any, are, besides the insolvent, liable for the said debt or any part thereof, or that there are no such persons so liable, and shall state all pledges or security which the deponent, or any person for his use, holds from the insolvent for the said debt or any part thereof, and shall depose to the genuineness of all vouchers or evidences of debt which the deponent shall produce with his said affidavit. Provided always, that it shall be lawful for the said Master or Resident Magistrate, in case he shall find that any clerk, agent, or other person is more fully cognizant of the nature of the debt sought to be proved than the creditor is, to allow such clerk, agent, or other person to swear the affidavit aforesaid with such alterations as will thereby become necessary. And provided that any creditor who is out of or absent from this Colony may, in case he have no known agent or mandatory in this Colony cognizant of and capable of proving the alleged debt, make the necessary affidavit before some person duly qualified to administer oaths in the place where he resides, such person being certified to be so qualified by some sufficient authority in that behalf, should such creditor reside or be in any part of Her Majesty's dominions, and if such creditor should reside or be elsewhere than in those dominions, then the said person shall be certified as aforesaid by a British Minister, or a British Consul, or by a notary public; and provided that it shall and may be lawful for the Supreme Court, or any Circuit Court, on the application of any party interested, finally to admit or reject any debt admitted or rejected by the said Master or Resident Magistrate, or to allow any action, which may have been instituted for the proof or recovery of any such debt against the insolvent, prior to the sequestration, and which has, in consequence thereof, been stayed, to be proceeded in after the election of a trustee shall have taken place, and after the trustee so elected shall have been duly summoned to take up and defend such action; and if the plaintiff shall thereafter obtain judgment thereon, he shall be ranked on the insolvent estate for the amount of such judgment. And provided, also, that any such Court as aforesaid, before adjudging finally as to the admission or rejection of any debt, may remit such case to the Master or Resident Magistrate for further proof, or may direct any question of fact to be tried by pleadings and proofs, or adopt such other course as to such Court shall seem fit.

insolvent and any other person, upon which compensation can by law be pleaded on either side, the Master of the Court, or Resident Magistrate, taking the proof of debt, shall thereupon state the account between them, and shall set one debt or demand against the other; and what shall appear due on either side on the balance of such account, and no more, shall be allowed to be proved or claimed, or paid on either side respectively; Provided, that the person claiming the benefit of such set-off, had not, when such credit was given, or when the cause of his debt accrued, notice of the order for sequestration having been made, or of any act of insolvency in virtue of which such order shall have been made; and provided always, that it shall and may be lawful for the Supreme Court, on the application of any person interested, who shall consider himself aggrieved by any such decision of the said Master or Resident Magistrate, to review the same, and to pronounce such judgment or to direct or allow such further proceedings, as to the Court shall appear just and proper.

Proof of debts not yet due.

29. And be it enacted, that in all questions upon this Ordinance, every person, to whom the insolvent was, at the time of the surrender or adjudication or sequestration of his estate, under any legal obligation to pay money, at a certain future time, shall be accounted creditor de presenti, and shall be entitled to prove his debt for the amount of the money specified in the obligation. But in case the said debt shall not have become payable at the date of the order for sequestration, and shall not bear interest until the term of payment, or shall bear interest at a less rate than six per cent. per annum, the same debt shall be valued in voting, and such creditor shall receive payment thereof, or dividend thereon only, after deduction thereout of a rebate of interest of six per cent. per annum, or of so much per cent. per annum as shall correspond with the difference between the rate of interest payable on such debt and the rate of six per cent. per annum, as the case may be, to be computed from the date of the order for sequestration, to the time when such debt would have become payable according to the terms on which it was contracted.

Dividend on debts not yet due.

Creditors holding lien, their rights as to proof of debt, &c.

30. And be it enacted, that any creditor who shall hold a preferable security or lien upon any part of the insolvent estate, shall, when he is the petitioning creditor, be obliged upon oath in the affidavit accompanying the petition, and when he is not the petitioning creditor, in the affidavit produced by him at the time of proving his debt, to put a value upon such security, so far as his debt may thereby be covered, and to deduct such value from the debt proved by him, but shall have the right to vote for trustees and commissioners, and in all matters regarding the property over which he shall have such security or lien, both in number and value for the full and entire amount of his debt, and in all other matters respecting the insolvent estate he shall vote as creditor only for the balance; which balance shall be specified in his affidavit, without prejudice to such valuation being afterwards corrected, and without prejudice to the amount of the said debt, in other respects: And, in case any creditor shall hold any preferable security or lien for payment of his debt, obtained prior to the order for sequestration of the insolvent estate, and not liable to be set aside in virtue of this Ordinance, upon any part of the said estate, the amount or value of such security or lien shall be deducted from his debt, and he shall only be ranked for, or receive payment of, or a dividend for, the balance after such deduction; and if any dispute shall arise about the value of such security, the creditor or claimant shall, upon oath, put a value upon it, and the trustees shall then have an option, either of taking an assignment of the security for the benefit of the creditors at large, on payment of the value so estimated out of the first assets of the insolvent estate, or of reserving the full effect of it to the creditor himself; and, in either case, the creditor shall be ranked on the divisible fund for the balance of his debt, so ascertained, together with the other creditors, such creditor being, in no event, entitled to draw more than full payment of the debt, but being, at the same time, entitled to vote both in number and value, according to the provisions and within the limits hereinbefore set forth.

31. And be it enacted, that no person whose debt depends upon a contingency or an uncertain condition, shall be entitled to petition, or join in the petition, for sequestration of any estate, or to vote in the choice of trustee, or any of the other proceedings herein specified, so long as the contingency shall not happen, or the condition shall not be performed. Provided always, that the creditor in any such debt, contracted before the order for sequestration shall have been made, may if he think fit, while the contingency or condition upon which such debt depends shall not have happened, or shall not have been performed, apply to the trustee to set a value upon such debt, and the trustee is hereby required to ascertain the value thereof and to admit such creditor to prove the amount so ascertained; and such creditor shall thereafter be entitled to vote, and to receive dividends or payment, as in respect of a debt of the value of the amount so ascertained; but whether such value shall or shall not be so ascertained, before the contingency shall have happened, or the condition shall have been performed, such creditor may, whenever such contingency shall have happened, or such condition shall have been performed, prove in respect of his whole debt and receive dividends or payments, thereon with the other creditors. Provided always, that when the creditor in any such debt or claim, the contingency of which shall not have happened, or the condition of which shall not have been performed, and the value of which shall not have been ascertained, as aforesaid, shall enter a claim on the estate in respect of such debt, the trustee shall rank the claimant as if the contingency had happened, or the condition had been performed; and shall forthwith apply to the Supreme Court to make an order, and the said Court shall make such order, for securing the dividend or sum which the claimant would be entitled to draw until the contingency or condition upon which the debt depends, shall happen or be performed, or until it shall have become certain, that such contingency or condition shall never happen or be performed when the sum so secured shall be paid to the claimant, or to the other creditors, as the case may be; and any interest which may in the meantime arise and be received thereupon shall belong to and be paid to the other creditors. And provided, also, that the holder of any such contingent debt or claim, of which the value shall not have been ascertained, and who has been ranked as a claimant as if the contingency had happened or the condition been performed, shall, for the purpose of agreeing to or dissenting from any offer of composition, or the certificate of the insolvent as hereinafter mentioned, be deemed and taken to be creditor for whatever sum the Master of the Supreme Court shall, under the circumstances of the said debt, fix and allow, subject to appeal from his decision to the Supreme Court.

Allowance of claim where debt not yet proved.

32. And be it enacted, that, when by reason of the absence of any person from this Colony or for any other cause appearing to the Supreme Court, the said Court shall be of opinion, that a claimant who has not proved a debt to the satisfaction of the Court, may eventually be able to establish the same, it shall and may be lawful for the said Court to allow such claim to be entered on the proceedings in the insolvent estate, and to give reasonable time for proving the same; and in the meantime to make such order for securing the amount thereof, in case the said claim shall be afterwards established, as the said Court shall see fit.

How interest upon claims to be ranked and paid.

33. And be it enacted, that the mode of settling claims and the interest upon them shall be as follows, viz.: The principal sum of each debt on which interest is chargeable, together with the arrears of interest, if there be any due upon it, at the time the order for sequestration was made, shall be accumulated as at the date of the said order, for the purpose of the claimant being ranked for, and receiving payment of, such accumulated sum, together with the principal sums of such debts as do not bear interest, or from which there may be a rebate of interest, as not being payable till an after period; and the assets of the insolvent estate shall be applied.—1st. In payment according to the legal order of preference, of all the preferent debts and the interest which shall have been due thereon prior to the date of the said order to the extent to which such interest is, by law entitled to a preference; and every creditor shall have the same preference for the interest which shall have accrued on his debt between the date of the said order and the time of payment, to which he may be entitled for any part of the interest which may have become due prior to the said order. And 2dly, in payment of all the other accumulated sums so ranked, without allowing any interest upon them from and after the date of the said order, if the said assets shall not be sufficient to discharge all the claims due to the insolvent estate; but if after discharging the whole of such claims there shall be any residue left of the sequestrated estate, the creditors as well as those from whom interest has been deducted on account of the provisions of the twenty-ninth section of this Ordinance, as all others, shall be entitled to claim, out of such residue, any arrear of interest which may be due on them, as arising since the date of the order for sequestration, upon the respective sums ranked as hereinbefore mentioned.

Ord. 6—1844.

34. And be it enacted, that in every case in which it shall happen that the estate of any company, and the estate or estates of any one or more of the partners of such company, shall be concurrently under administration as insolvent,—the creditors of the said company shall prove their debts against, and rank upon the estate of the company, and the creditors of each partner, in respect of debts due by such partner separately from the other partners, shall prove their debts against and rank upon the estate belonging to their debtor separately from the other partners, and the estate of the company, shall be first applied in satisfaction of the creditors of the company and each separate estate shall be first applied in satisfaction of the separate creditors of that estate. And if the estate of the company shall prove insufficient to satisfy the creditors of the company, or if there be no such estate, then each creditor of the company shall rank upon the surplus of each separate estate, which may remain after satisfying the separate creditors of that estate, either for the residue or entire of his debt, as the case may be, but so, however, as not to receive, in all, more than the whole of their debts respectively. And if the separate estate of any partner shall prove insufficient to satisfy the separate creditors who have claimed upon it, then the separate creditors upon that separate estate shall rank upon the surplus, if any, of the company's estate which shall remain after satisfying the creditors of that estate in proportion to the share in such surplus belonging to, or claimable in right of, the particular partner whose separate estate has so as aforesaid proved deficient. And whenever the company's estate shall prove insufficient to satisfy the company's creditors, and the latter shall thereupon receive satisfaction, wholly or in part, out of the surplus of the separate estate of any of the partners of such company, the trustee of the separate estate so satisfying, wholly or in part, any of the creditors of the company shall be entitled to rank upon the separate estate of any other partner of such company for amount of whatever the contribution in respect of the debts of the company wholly or in part discharged, such trustee may, by law, be authorised to claim. Provided however, that no partner, if insolvent, and no trustee of the insolvent estate of any partner shall, under any circumstances, rank for the amount of any such claim for contribution, upon the insolvent estate of any other partner in competition or concurrence with any of the creditors of the company claiming upon any such last-mentioned estate, which creditors are hereby declared to be entitled to be paid in preference and priority to any such partner or trustee. And provided, also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to abridge or affect the rights which the creditors of any insolvent company may, by law, possess to seek satisfaction for their debts from any partner of such company whose estate shall not have been sequestrated, or to abridge or affect the rights which any such solvent partner may, by law, possess in regard either to the insolvent estate of the company or to that of any of his partners whose estate may have been sequestrated.

Company creditors may vote in sequestration of partners' estates.

35. And be it enacted, that in every case in which the separate estate of any partner of a company shall be sequestrated as insolvent, and whether the estate of such company shall also be or have been sequestrated or not, any creditor to whom the insolvent is indebted, jointly with the other partner or partners of the company, shall be entitled to prove his debt under the sequestration of such separate estate, for the purpose of voting in the election of trustees, and of agreeing to or dissenting from any offer of composition, and the certificate and discharge of the insolvent as hereafter mentioned, but no further. And such creditor shall not receive any dividend out of the separate estate of the insolvent until all the separate creditors shall have received the full amount of their respective debts; unless such creditor have been a petitioning creditor, in regard to the sequestration of such separate estate, in which case such creditor may vote and receive dividends in respect of his debt in the same manner as the separate creditor of such estate.

Law to prevail in cases not provided for as to competition between creditors of company and of partners.

36. And be it enacted, that in every case not hereinbefore expressly provided for, and relating to the ranking and priority of the joint creditors of any company, in competition with the separate creditors of any of the partners of such company, or relating to the reciprocal claims of any such insolvent estates in reference to or in relief of each other, the rule for the time being in respect of the like case, according to the law and administration of bankruptcy in England shall first be resorted to, and failing any such rule, the common law of the Colony shall be applied.

Within what period debts may be proved.

37. And be it enacted, that any debt which was due, or the cause of which arose prior to the order for sequestration of any estate may be proved at any meeting of the creditors appointed before the Master or a Resident Magistrate, at any time before the final distribution of the estate; and any creditor may, after the second meeting called by the Master of the Supreme Court in manner hereinbefore provided, at his own expense call such meeting expressly for the purpose of proving his debt: Provided always, that when any debt is so proved after any dividend has been paid to the creditors, such dividend shall not in any way be disturbed or affected by or in respect of any such debt : and provided also, that, when any such debt is proved after the plan of distribution of such estate has been confirmed, and in consequence of the proof of such debt, any alteration in such plan of distribution or any further proceedings in the sequestration shall be rendered necessary, the creditor proving such debt shall be liable for all expenses which may be incurred in consequence of any such alteration or proceedings.

Ord. 6—1843.

38. And be it enacted, that in all cases of votes given by creditors under this Ordinance, when the creditors are to be counted in number, no creditor whose debt is below thirty pounds sterling shall be reckoned in number, but the debt due to such creditor shall be computed in value ; and that, in all cases in which any deduction is directed by the provisions of this Ordinance, to be made from the amount of the debt of any creditor, the vote of such creditor shall still be counted in value to the extent of the balance remaining after such deduction ; and such creditor shall also be reckoned in number, provided such balance amounts to thirty pounds, and upwards.

How votes of creditors to be reckoned as to number and value.

39. And be it enacted, that in all cases where, under the provisions of this Ordinance, the creditors of any insolvent estate are required or entitled to meet and to vote in any matter regarding such estate, any creditor so entitled may attend and vote at such meeting personally, or by agent, authorised by any power of attorney to that effect duly executed, upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Master of the Supreme Court, Resident Magistrate, or other person presiding at such meeting, and all questions at any meeting of creditors shall be determined by a majority in value of those present and entitled to vote, in case a majority both of number and value shall not, in respect of any such question, be by law <sup>(1)</sup> specially required.

Vote of creditors by agent.

What votes to determine.

40. And be it enacted, that at the second meeting called as aforesaid, or any adjournment thereof, (if the said Master or Resident Magistrate shall find it necessary to adjourn the same, which they are hereby authorised and empowered to do,) a trustee, or trustees, not exceeding three in number, shall be chosen for the collection, administration, and distribution of the insolvent estate and effects ; and all creditors who have proved debts against the insolvent estate shall be entitled to vote in such choice ; and creditors holding any preferable security on lien shall vote in manner and form hereinbefore provided ; and the choice shall be made by the votes of the greater part in number and value of the creditors, or their agents present and entitled to vote : Provided, however, that it shall be competent to any person interested in any such insolvent estate, or the due administration thereof, and who shall complain of any such election, upon giving, within two days after the said election,

Persons disqualified from being trustee.

41. And be it enacted, that in no case shall it be competent for the creditors to elect as trustee, the insolvent himself, or any person related to the insolvent by consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree; nor any minor, nor any attorney, <sup>(1)</sup> nor any person, who having had his estate, at any time, placed under sequestration shall not have obtained the sequestration to be superseded, or who shall not have been rehabilitated under the provisions of the law heretofore in force within this Colony, or shall not have obtained his certificate and allowance thereof, as hereinafter provided, nor any person not resident within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court, nor any person having an interest opposed to the general interest of the creditors in the insolvent estate, nor any person declared to be incapable of being elected by virtue of the provisions in the next succeeding section contained.

Acts by trustee inferring his disqualification.

42. And be it enacted, that if any person elected a trustee shall be proved, to the satisfaction of the Supreme Court, or of any Circuit Court, holden for the district in which the election of trustee was had, to have procured or been privy to the omission from the schedule of the insolvent of the name of any creditor of the insolvent, with intent thereby to obtain some peculiar advantage in regard to the election of trustee, or to have, either directly or indirectly, given or promised to give to any creditor of the insolvent, any species of valuable consideration whatsoever, in order to obtain the vote of such creditor at the election of trustee, or to have agreed to secure and make good to any creditor some certain sum or dividend in discharge or diminution of his debt, upon condition or in order that such creditor should give his vote to such trustee; or to have offered or agreed, in case any creditor of the insolvent should consent to vote for such trustee, to abstain from opening up or investigating some previous transactions between such creditor and the insolvent, which were, or were supposed to be of questionable validity, or to have contrived, or been privy to, any plan or arrangement by which debts or securities really belonging to some one or more persons have been divided amongst a greater number of persons, for the purpose merely of increasing the number of votes at the election for trustee, and thereby influencing the same, or to have undertaken to share with any creditor or creditors of the insolvent, in return for his or their votes, the commission or remuneration to be awarded to him as such trustee;—then such Supreme or Circuit Court as aforesaid, shall, whether before or after the decree confirming the appointment of such trustee, declare such trustee to have forfeited the office of such trustee in regard to the insolvent estate for which he shall have been elected, and to be incapable of being again elected thereto, and it shall and may be lawful for such Court, if it should so think fit, to further declare, that the person so offending shall be incapable of being elected a trustee under the provisions of this Ordinance, for and during his natural life, or such period as such Court shall determine and adjudge: and any person interested in the due administration of the insolvent estate may apply by motion to such Supreme or Circuit Court as aforesaid, either before or after the decree confirming the appointment of any trustee, to declare any such trustee to have forfeited his office by reason of any such misconduct as aforesaid; and as often as a vacancy in the office of trustee shall be created by any such forfeiture, the Court declaring the same shall order a new trustee to be elected, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon as on the original election of trustee.

Ord. 6—1843.

43. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Supreme Court, or for any Judge thereof on circuit, and whether sitting in any Circuit Court or not, on cause shown by the Master of the said Court, or any person interested in the due administration of the insolvent estate, by order of Court to appoint one or more fit person or persons to be trustee or trustees of any insolvent estate provisionally, and until the creditors of the said estate shall make choice of a trustee; which trustee or trustees may be removed at the meeting of creditors for the choice of a trustee, if the said creditors shall think fit, but shall and may, until so removed, act in the collection, administration, and distribution of the said estate, in all respects the same as trustees elected by the creditors are by this Ordinance authorised or required to do. Provided however, that no such trustee or trustees shall proceed to make sale of any part of the said estate without the authority for that purpose of the Supreme Court, or of some Judge thereof, or of some Circuit Court, or of the Master of the Supreme Court, first had and obtained.

Confirmation of election of trustee.

45. And be it enacted, that so soon as the trustees elected by the creditors shall have accepted their office, it shall and may be lawful for the Supreme Court, upon the report of the Master, to make a decree confirming the appointment of such trustee.

Vesting of insolvent's rights in master of court.

46. And be it enacted, that every order made for placing any estate under sequestration as insolvent shall, so soon as made, have the effect in law to divest the insolvent and all persons administering the whole or any part of his estate for his use and behoof, and to vest in the Master of the Supreme Court, for the uses and purposes of the sequestration, all the present and future estate, movable and immovable, personal and real, and every right, title, and interest in and to any property, movable or immovable, personal or real, wheresoever the same may be known or found, which shall belong or be due to such insolvent at the date of making such order, or as to which any right of reversion shall then be vested in him, or which may thereafter be purchased or acquired by, or may revert, descend, or be devised, or come, to the insolvent, at any time before the making of the order of Court, allowing and confirming, as hereinafter mentioned, the account and plan of distribution to be framed by the trustees, (except as in the forty-ninth section is excepted), together with all deeds, vouchers, papers, or writings respecting the same: and after the said order for sequestration has been made, neither the insolvent nor any person claiming through or under him shall have power to alienate, give, cede, deliver, mortgage, pledge, or to recover, or to release or discharge the same, or of any part thereof; neither shall the same be attached by any person, as the property of or belonging to the insolvent.

Vesting of insolvent's rights in provisional trustee.

47. And be it enacted, that every order of Court appointing any provisional trustee or trustees shall, so soon as made, have the effect in law to divest the Master of the Supreme Court, and to vest in such provisional trustee or trustees, for the uses and purposes of the sequestration, and until their removal, or until the making of the order of Court, allowing and confirming as hereinafter mentioned the account and plan of distribution, (whichever shall first happen), all the present and future estate of the insolvent as fully, as completely, to all intents and purposes, as the said estate, is by virtue of the next succeeding section of this Ordinance, vested in the trustee or trustees elected by the creditors, by the decree of the Court confirming the appointment of the same. And whenever any provisional trustee or trustees shall die or be removed before the making of the decree aforesaid for confirming the appointment of any trustee or trustees elected by the creditors, then the whole present and future estate of the insolvent for the time being, shall vest again in the said Master, precisely as if the same had never been divested.

Ord. 6—1843.

Vesting of insolvent's rights in the permanent trustee.

48. And be it enacted, that every decree made as herein directed, for confirming any trustee or trustees, shall, so soon as made, have the effect in law, to divest the Master of the Supreme Court, or any provisional trustee, and to vest in the trustee or trustees thereby confirmed, for the uses and purposes of the sequestration, and so long as such trustee or trustees shall continue to hold their office, all the present and future estate, movable and immovable, personal or real, which shall have belonged or been due to such insolvent at the time when the order for placing his estate under sequestration was made, or as to which any right of reversion shall then be vested in him, or which may thereafter be purchased, or acquired by, or may revert, descend, or be devised, or come, to the insolvent, during the continuance of the sequestration, and before the making of the order of Court allowing and confirming the account and plan of distribution, as hereinafter provided, wheresoever the same may be found or known, (except as in the forty-ninth section is excepted) together with all deeds, vouchers, papers, or writings respecting the same; and the said trustee or trustees shall have the like remedy to recover the said estate of the insolvent, or any part thereof in their own names for the purposes of the sequestration, as the insolvent himself might have had if his estate had not been sequestrated; and all powers vested in any insolvent at the time the order for placing his estate under sequestration was made, or which may thereafter become vested during the continuance of the sequestration, and before the making of the said order allowing and confirming the account and plan aforesaid, which such insolvent might have legally executed for his benefit, shall, after the said order for placing his estate under sequestration, and until an order of Court appointing a provisional trustee or trustees, or until a decree be made for confirming the appointment of a trustee or trustees elected by the creditors, be executed by the Master of the Supreme Court, and may, after such order appointing a provisional trustee or trustees be executed by such provisional trustee or trustees until their removal, and may after their removal be executed by the said Master until a decree be made for confirming the appointment of such trustee or trustees as aforesaid, and after such decree is made for confirming such appointment as aforesaid may be executed by the trustee or trustees whose appointment is thereby confirmed, for the benefit of the creditors, in such manner as the insolvent might have executed the same, and the said insolvent is hereby declared to be incapable to exercise or execute any such powers, as aforesaid.

Execution after order for sequestration of powers vested in the insolvent.

49. And be it enacted, that during the time which shall intervene between the time of the making of the order for the sequestration of any insolvent estate and the making of the order allowing and confirming the account and plan of distribution, as hereinafter provided, the insolvent so long as he shall remain without his certificate, shall (except in the certain cases hereinafter excepted), be absolutely

And no such insolvent shall be deemed or taken to have any power to bind any such last-mentioned person, or the insolvent estate in him vested, by any sort or description of dealing, contract or transaction whatsoever, unless the same shall have been entered into by virtue of an authority to that effect from such person in writing: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent any such insolvent from passing a valid title by any such cession, transfer, or conveyance as aforesaid, while acting, so far as he shall be authorised in writing so to do, as the mandatory or agent of his trustee, or from acting as the mandatory or agent of any other person by whom such insolvent shall be authorised in writing so to act, and for whom he shall have been in writing permitted so to act by the person in whom, for the time being, the insolvent estate shall be vested: Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to prevent any insolvent whether acting as such mandatory or agent as aforesaid or not, from well and effectually passing title to any person whatever, by the delivering to him of any movable goods or effects which were next before such delivery in the actual possession of such insolvent, in pursuance of any real and bona fide purchase from such insolvent for a just price duly paid, or to prevent any such insolvent from well and effectually passing title to any money paid by him in cash down for any matter, or thing purchased by him at the time of such payment, or to prevent any such insolvent from receiving, suing for and recovering, in his own name and for his own personal and exclusive use, and free from the control of his trustee, the hire, wages, or reward of his work and labour, or that any of his

And during any period of time which shall elapse between the death or removal of any trustee, and the making of the decree for confirming the election of the trustee confirmed in his place, and no longer, the whole of the then existing insolvent estate shall, except when notwithstanding such death or removal there shall remain in office one or more of the trustees of the said estate, be vested in the Master of the Supreme Court.

80. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the commissioner, to call at any time, a general meeting of the creditors, and to make to such meeting such reports or representations in regard to any matter or question respecting the administration of the insolvent estate as he shall deem necessary or expedient; and the trustee shall pursue the directions of the greater part of the creditors attending such meeting: Provided always, that twenty-eight days' notice at the least, shall be given of every such meeting, and of the purpose thereof, in the Government Gazette.

Ord. 6—1843.

82. And be it enacted, that the trustee or trustees shall, after being confirmed, forthwith call in and collect all debts due to the estate, and, for that purpose, they shall, by advertisement in the Government Gazette, summon all debtors to pay, or cause the same to be paid to them at such time and place, as shall be therein appointed for that purpose; and any person neglecting or refusing to make such payment, and being afterwards sued for any such debt, shall, if the said trustee or trustees obtain a judgment against him, and if he shall not show cause, to the satisfaction of the Court awarding such judgment, for such neglect or refusal, pay to the said trustee or trustees double costs of suit, for the benefit of the said estate: and the said publication shall be deemed notice thereof to all persons who may reasonably be presumed to have seen the same. And the said trustee or trustees shall also proceed to set aside, and if necessary, by legal process, all such payments, alienations and pledges, made by any person whose estate shall be sequestrated as insolvent, as are hereinafter particularly described, and declared to be null and void, precisely as if the money, or other property delivered or pledged, had belonged to the said trustee or trustees at the time of the making of such payments, alienations or pledges respectively.

Getting in of debts by the trustee.

83. And be it enacted, that every alienation, transfer, gift, cession, delivery, mortgage, or pledge of any goods or effects, movable or immovable, personal or real, made by any insolvent, at a time when it shall be made to appear by proof, that his liabilities fairly calculated exceeded his assets fairly valued, shall, unless the same shall have been made bonâ fide, and upon just and valuable consideration, be null and void. And whenever the immediate and necessary effect of any such alienation, transfer, gift, cession, delivery, mortgage, or pledge, as aforesaid, shall be to cause such an excess of liabilities over assets, then the same, to the extent to which such excess shall have been thus produced, shall be null and void.

Gratuitous alienation by insolvent.

84. And be it enacted, that every alienation, transfer, cession, delivery, mortgage, or pledge of any goods or effects, movable or immovable, personal or real, and every payment made by any insolvent to any creditor, such insolvent at the time contemplating <sup>(2)</sup> the sequestration, either voluntary or otherwise, of his estate, and intending thereby to prefer directly or indirectly such creditor before his other creditors, shall be deemed to be an undue preference, and is hereby declared to be null and void. Undue preference of sureties for insolvent.

85. And be it enacted, that every alienation, transfer, cession, delivery, mortgage, or pledge of any goods or effects, movable or immovable, personal or real, and every payment made by any insolvent, with the intention of thereby benefiting any person, who, not being a creditor of such insolvent, would yet have become liable for the amount paid, satisfied, or secured by the insolvent, in case it had not been so paid, satisfied, or secured, either in the character of a surety for such insolvent, or in some character by law analogous thereto, such insolvent at the time contemplating <sup>(1)</sup> the sequestration, either voluntary or otherwise, of his estate, shall be deemed to be an undue preference, and the trustee or trustees shall be entitled to claim and recover from the person so intended to be benefited whatever amount the insolvent shall have paid, satisfied or secured, in discharge or relief of such persons' liability.

86. And be it enacted, that every alienation, transfer, cession, delivery, mortgage or pledge as aforesaid and every payment made by any insolvent to any creditor in the usual and ordinary course of trade or business, shall, prima facie, be held and taken to have been made or given bonâ fide, and without an intention to give to such creditor any preference, although such insolvent may, at the time, contemplate the sequestration of his estate as insolvent, and in every such case it shall be necessary for the trustee or trustees seeking to set the same aside, to show the existence of some collusive arrangement, mutual understanding, or common consent, between the insolvent and the creditor, the one to give and the other to get a preference over the other creditors of the insolvent, under colour of a transaction in the usual and ordinary course of trade or business.

Collusive payments to creditors under execution before sequestration.

87. And be it enacted, that every payment obtained by any creditor before the making of the order for sequestration, by means or under colour of legal process against the insolvent, shall be deemed an undue preference, and be null and void, when and as often as such payment shall have been obtained or facilitated by connivance of the insolvent, or by collusion between such insolvent and such creditor, such insolvent, when so conniving or colluding contemplating <sup>(1)</sup> the sequestration of his estate, and intending to give such creditor, or allow such creditor to get, a preference above the other creditors of such insolvent.

88. And be it enacted, that, in every case in which any person, whether actually a creditor or not, shall be obliged, by virtue of the eighty-fourth or eighty-fifth or eighty-seventh sections of this Ordinance, to restore or repay, as the case may be, for the benefit of the insolvent estate, any alienation, transfer, cession, delivery, mortgage or pledge, or any payment as having been an undue preference, such person shall not be allowed to claim or prove as a debt the amount of what he shall have so restored or repaid, but shall wholly forfeit such amount as regards the insolvent estate, in case such undue preference was received by such person by or through any collusive arrangement, mutual understanding, or common consent between such person and the insolvent, the one to give and the other to get such undue preference.

Ord. 6—1843.

89. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the trustee or trustees of any insolvent estate, in any suit or action which he may cause to be instituted against any person for the restoration or repayment of any matter, money or thing alleged to have been given or paid by the insolvent by way of undue preference, to claim amongst other things, that the defendant in such suit or action may be declared by the judgment of the Court in which such suit or action shall be pending, to have forfeited, in regard to the insolvent estate, the amount in which he shall be found to have been unduly preferred by reason of the collusive arrangement, mutual understanding, or common consent, in the last preceding section mentioned, and the question of such forfeiture shall be tried and determined together with the other questions in the case. And in case it shall not be necessary to institute any suit or action against persons who shall be alleged by the trustee or trustees to have been unduly preferred, the right of any such last-mentioned persons to prove a debt in respect of the amount or value of the matter, money, or thing by them restored or repaid shall, if disputed, be determined in manner and form as is hereinbefore provided for the regulation of the proof of debts.

How question as to forfeiture in 88th section may be raised.

90. And be it enacted, that in case any creditor of any insolvent shall have received from such insolvent an undue preference, but under circumstances which do not, by force and virtue of the eighty-eighth section of this Ordinance, occasion a forfeiture of the value or amount of such preference, then in case such creditor shall have received such undue preference in respect of any bill of exchange or promissory note, with recourse on other parties, which was payable by the insolvent, and held by such creditor, or in any respect of any debt of the insolvent for which such creditor had any security, which, by reason of the act of the insolvent constituting the undue preference, such creditor has bonâ fide given up, discharged, or in law, precluded himself from enforcing, such creditor shall not be liable to restore or repay to the trustee or trustees the value or amount of such undue preference, unless the trustee will indemnify and save him harmless in respect of

91. And be it enacted, that if any person shall lawfully, bonâ fide, and without notice, purchase or acquire any bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other securities for money, or any goods or effects, movable or immovable, personal or real, which have been alienated, transferred, given, ceded, or delivered by any insolvent, under circumstances or in a manner declared by any of the preceding or succeeding sections of this Ordinance to be null and void, from any person to whom such bills, notes, goods, or effects, were so alienated, transferred, given, ceded, or delivered, by any true bargain or agreement upon just and valuable consideration, nothing contained in this Ordinance shall extend or be construed to extend to annul or affect any right which any such person has lawfully, bonâ fide, and without notice, purchased or acquired in such bills or notes, goods, or effects. And in every case in which the person accepting from the insolvent any such acquittance, surrender or discharge as aforesaid had, at the time of accepting the same, actual knowledge or reasonable notice that the effect of the same, if undetected, would be to deprive the creditors in the insolvent estate of the debt or other matter or thing in question, such person, shall besides making good such debt, matter or thing to the trustee or trustees of the insolvent estate, be also bound and obliged to pay to such trustee or trustees a further sum equal to the value of the debt or other matter or thing, originally due and owing, and wrongfully acquitted, surrendered or discharged, or attempted so to be.

Offer of composition by or for insolvent.

106. And be it enacted, that, if at the third public meeting of the creditors, appointed by the Master of the Supreme Court, as aforesaid, or at any subsequent meeting of the creditors assembled together by advertisement in the Government Gazette, stating the purpose of such meeting, the insolvent, or any person on his behalf, shall make an offer of composition, or security for composition, which nine tenths of the creditors in number and value assembled at such meeting shall agree to accept, the trustee or trustees shall forthwith call another meeting for the purpose of deciding upon such offer, whereof at least forty-two days' notice shall be given by advertisement in the Government Gazette, specifying the time, place, and purpose of such meeting; and if, at such second meeting, nine tenths in number and value of the creditors then present shall also agree to accept such offer, then upon such acceptance being certified to the Supreme Court, by the Master of the said Court, and upon oath of the insolvent, that he has made a full and fair surrender of his estate, and has not granted or promised any preference or security, or made or promised any payment, or entered into any secret or collusive agreement or transaction, to obtain the concurrence of any creditor to the said offer of composition, it shall be lawful for the said Court, upon motion, to pronounce, if it should so think fit, a decree discharging the insolvent from all debts due by him at the time his estate was surrendered or adjudged to be sequestrated, and from all claims and demands proved or hereby made provable or claimable against his estate, and declaring the sequestration at an end, and the insolvent re-invested with his estate, but reserving, however, always the claims of the creditors for such composition, or security for composition, as may have been agreed for and be still unexecuted. Provided also, that if the creditors present at any such second meeting as aforesaid, and agreeing to the offer of composition, do not amount in number and value to four fifths in number and value of the whole of the creditors who have proved debts against the insolvent estate, then the acceptance of such offer of composition by at least four fifths in number and value of such lastmentioned creditors must be certified to the said Court by the said Master at the time of the making of the said motion. And provided, that nothing in this section contained shall be construed so as to affect the right of any creditor entitled by law to be paid in preference, in so far as such creditor shall be so entitled, unless such creditor shall expressly consent to give up his preference, and be bound by the said composition, and no creditor by accepting any such offer of composition shall be deprived of his right to claim from any person bound to him as surety for the insolvent, the balance of the debt secured. And provided that the Court aforesaid shall not, in any case, pronounce the decree aforesaid until it shall be satisfied that no injury or injustice will thereby be done to any person who has been allowed by the said Court to enter a claim upon the insolvent estate, and who shall not, at the time of the making of such motion as aforesaid, have yet proved his debt, and until the said Court shall have made or caused to be made inquiry, by taking the oath of the insolvent, or otherwise, whether there are not other creditors having just and lawful debts and claims against the estate of such insolvent, and who, by reason of absence from the Colony or other causes, may not have proved or claimed against the said estate. And provided that if, upon such inquiry, it shall appear to the said Court that there are such just and lawful debts and claims, it shall not be competent for the said Court to pronounce such decree as aforesaid, until it shall have been certified to such Court by the said Master that there has been paid to or deposited with him, or to or with some other person or persons with his approbation, for and on account of such other just and lawful creditors as aforesaid, whatever amount, according to the terms of the composition, they would have been entitled to receive in case they had proved their debts. And provided that no sum of money or other matter or thing which shall be impounded or secured for any person who has entered a claim upon the insolvent estate, or any such creditor as last aforesaid, shall, after any discharge of the insolvent as in this section provided, revert to such insolvent, but the same, in case the person or persons on whose behalf it was so impounded or secured, shall not, within such reasonable time as the Supreme Court shall fix, prove title to and

Release of estate from sequestration.

107. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Supreme Court, upon the application of any insolvent, to release, if it should so think fit, the estate of such insolvent from sequestration, whenever it shall be certified to the said Court by the Master of the said Court, that all creditors who have proved debts or entered claims against such estate, have testified in writing, their consent to such release, or whenever it shall be certified by the said Master that all the creditors who have proved debts or entered claims as aforesaid, have been paid, or have had tendered to, or deposited for them, as the case may be, the full amount, as well principal as interest, of their several demands. Provided that no such application to release any such estate from sequestration under the provisions of this section shall be capable of being granted until after the third meeting of creditors as hereinbefore mentioned shall have been held. And provided that it shall be lawful, for the said Court, before granting any such application as aforesaid, to make or cause to be made such inquiry relative to the existence of other just and lawful creditors who have neither proved nor claimed as is in the last preceding section mentioned, and thereupon to grant or refuse such application, and that either absolutely or conditionally, as to the said Court shall seem just. And provided that no such release as aforesaid shall be construed to be a discharge of the insolvent, or to alter or affect, in any way, the rights of any creditors of any such insolvent who have neither proved debts nor entered claims upon the insolvent estate, which rights shall be judged of after any such release exactly as if such estate had never been surrendered.

And be it enacted that if it shall, from the nature and circumstances of the insolvent estate, be found impracticable to frame the plan of distribution aforesaid, so as to arrange the distribution according thereto, of the whole of the insolvent estate, then the trustee or trustees shall, as soon as may be, after the allowance and confirmation of the said plan, and not later than six months after such allowance and confirmation, unless upon application to the Supreme Court, upon sufficient cause to the satisfaction of the said Court, further time be given for that purpose, frame and lay before the Master a scheme of division which shall contain an account of such of the matters hereinbefore required in regard to the account and plan of distribution in the one hundred and eighth section of this Ordinance mentioned, as the then state and condition of the assets of the insolvent estate shall permit, and shall duly apportion the funds in hand amongst the creditors, and the like proceedings in all respects shall be had and taken relative to the said scheme of division as are hereinbefore prescribed in regard to the said account and plan of distribution, and after the allowance and confirmation of such scheme of division, the dividends declared thereby shall be distributed, and there shall be the like remedy as aforesaid for obtaining the same.

125. And be it enacted that at any time after the plan for the distribution of any insolvent estate has been confirmed in manner hereinbefore mentioned, or after the distribution of the said estate has been directed to be made under the provisions of the twenty-fifth clause of this Ordinance, and before the insolvent shall have obtained his certificate and the allowance thereof, it shall and may be lawful for any insolvent to apply to the Supreme or any Circuit Court, by motion, for a decree of such Court, declaring such insolvent not liable to process of civil imprisonment for or in respect of any debt, claim or demand, proved or provable, or in any manner claimable against the insolvent estate. Provided that at least six weeks' notice of the day on which such motion is to be made shall have been given by advertisement in the Government Gazette; and upon the making of such motion, any creditor of the insolvent estate who has not been fully paid and satisfied, may be heard against making the said decree, and such Court having regard to the conformity of the insolvent to the provisions of this Ordinance, and to his conduct, as well before as since the sequestration of his estate, and to his ability to pay from time to time or otherwise any sum or sums of money for the benefit of such creditors as aforesaid, and, generally to the justice of the case, shall judge of any objection against the making of such decree, and either find the insolvent entitled thereto, and make the same, or refuse or suspend the making thereof, or annex such conditions thereto as circumstances shall render just. from such process as his certificate and the allowance thereof would have had. But no such decree shall have any effect whatever, either upon the assets of the insolvent estate, or upon the right and power of any such creditor to proceed, in manner and form as hereinafter mentioned, against the future acquired property of such insolvent (so long as he shall remain without his certificate and the allowance thereof), in order to obtain payment of his debt. Provided, that upon cause shown to the satisfaction of such Court, establishing that any such decree as aforesaid was fraudulently or unduly obtained, it shall be competent for such Court to recall the same, and thereupon the condition of the insolvent shall be judged of precisely as if it never had been made.

Competency of insolvent to acquire property.

126. And be it enacted, that from and after the making of the decree aforesaid, confirming the account and plan of distribution of the insolvent estate aforesaid, the insolvent, although he shall not have obtained his certificate and the allowance thereof, shall be competent to acquire and possess, for his own use and as his own property, all such goods and effects, movable or immovable, personal or real, as may be purchased or acquired by him, or may revert, descend, or be devised or come to him in manner whatsoever other than by virtue of any right of reversion which was vested in the insolvent at the date of the order for the sequestration of his estate, precisely as if the estate of such insolvent had never been placed under sequestration.

Execution against insolvent for deficiency of estate.

127. (1) And be it enacted, that in every case in which any insolvent shall not have obtained the allowance of his certificate as hereinbefore mentioned, it shall and may be lawful for the trustee or trustees of the insolvent estate, should any such be, or for the Master of the Supreme Court, or for any creditor of the insolvent estate, to whom it shall appear by such account and plan as aforesaid or any such scheme of division as aforesaid, that any portion of his debt is still due and owing, to apply to the Supreme Court or any Circuit Court, by motion, of which notice shall be given to said insolvent, for leave to issue execution against such insolvent, for any sum not exceeding the whole amount of the deficiency which shall at the time of making such application exist in the insolvent estate; and the said Court, upon being satisfied by affidavit or otherwise, that a certain deficiency does so exist, and that there are reasonable grounds for believing that there are assets belonging to the insolvent capable of satisfying the same, wholly or in part, shall allow a writ of execution to be issued, and such writ of execution shall be executed in the like manner as writs of execution issued upon judgments of the said Court, and every attachment or levy made thereunder, and every incident belonging thereto, as well in regard to the right of other writs of execution lodged in the hands of the Sheriff, or other proper officer

Ord. 6—1843.

Proceeds of execution how to be applied.

128. And be it enacted, that it shall and may be lawful for the Chief Justice of this Colony, or any other of the Judges of the Supreme Court, to accept, if he shall see cause so to do, the surrender of the estate of any insolvent who shall not have obtained his certificate and the allowance thereof, at any time after the making of the decree of Court confirming the plan of distribution as aforesaid, and the estate of any such insolvent may be adjudged to be sequestrated at the instance of his creditors, as well those whose debts remain unsatisfied from any former sequestration (if there shall have been more sequestrations than one), as those whose debts have been incurred since the making, for the last time, of such decree as aforesaid, precisely as if the estate of such insolvent had never been placed under sequestration.

Fresh surrender by undischarged insolvents.

129. And be it enacted, that in addition to the several matters and things hereinbefore mentioned and declared to be respectively acts of insolvency, all of which are hereby declared to be applicable to the case of every such insolvent as is in the last preceding section

But no order for sequestration issued in regard to the estate of any such insolvent shall discharge or affect any process of civil imprisonment which may have been issued under and by virtue of the one hundred and twenty-fourth section of this Ordinance, unless the Chief Justice, or other Judge making such order should, as he is hereby authorised to do, otherwise direct.

Ranking under

130. And be it enacted, that as often as the estate of any insolvent, remaining as aforesaid uncertificated, shall be again sequestered as insolvent, the creditors under any former sequestration shall prove debts and rank upon the insolvent estate for whatever balance shall still be due and owing to them, respectively, according to the nature of their respective debts, whether preferent or concurrent, just as if the last order for sequestration had been the only such order ever issued.

Preferences by un-discharged insolvent.

131. And be it enacted, that in determining all questions relating to undue preferences given by any insolvent remaining as aforesaid uncertificated, and the proceedings thereon, and the consequences thereof, the creditors under any former sequestration, and those who have first become such since the making of the last decree confirming the account and plan of distribution, shall be considered as one body and without difference or distinction, except in so far as in particular cases, the circumstances of the one class of creditors or of the other may affect, as matter of evidence, the application of the principles hereinbefore, in regard to such questions as aforesaid, stated and set forth.

Master to publish certain lists every six months.

132. (1) The Master of the Supreme Court shall, as soon as may be after the 31st day of March and the 30th day of September in each year, cause to be published in the Gazette two lists, showing respectively

133. And be it enacted, that all the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to and regulate all estates placed under sequestration in pursuance of Ordinance No. 64, in so far as the provisions of this Ordinance, or any part thereof, shall be applicable thereto in the situation and condition in which such estates shall be, at the time of the passing of this Ordinance : Provided always, that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be applied to, or affect in any way, the rights of any person at whose suit any property shall have been attached by legal process at the time of the promulgation of this Ordinance, or the determination of any actions or suits which shall be pending at the time of the promulgation thereof, all which rights, suits, and actions shall be determined according to the principles and provisions of Ordinance No. 64, precisely as if this Ordinance never had been passed. 11. And be it enacted that in every case in which any place or property in regard to which any arrear of land-rent shall be due to the Colonial Government shall be abandoned, deserted, or left derelict, and the person having or claiming title to the same shall after being duly summoned <sup>(1)</sup> make default, it shall and may be lawful for the Supreme or some Circuit Court as the case may be, upon proof to the satisfaction of the said Court by affidavit or otherwise as to such Court shall seem fit that a certain amount of land-rent is due and in arrear, in respect to the said place or property, and that such place or property has been and is abandoned, deserted, or left derelict, to decree in a summary manner that the right, title, and interest of the grantee or lessee of the said place or property, and that of all other persons claiming by, through, or under him shall thenceforth be to all intents and purposes cancelled, annulled, forfeited, and avoided, and to adjudge and decree the said place or property to have reverted to the Colonial Government wholly free and unencumbered, and in the same plight and condition, as if the particular title, under and by virtue of which such place or property was previously held had never been created; and as often as any such decree as last aforesaid, shall be pronounced, the Civil Commissioner shall take possession on behalf of the Colonial Government of the place or property in question, and the said Government shall be at liberty to dispose of the same in whatever manner it shall seem fit. Provided always, that nothing in this section contained shall be taken or construed so as to prevent the Colonial Government from claiming from any competent Court a like decree of forfeiture of title for non-payment of rent in any case in which by law the said Government shall be entitled to claim the same. And provided also, that if in any case the place or property so abandoned or deserted shall be under mortgage at the time of any such decree as aforesaid, then the provisions in the eighth, ninth, and tenth sections of this Ordinance contained shall be deemed and taken to apply to the same as fully as if the said sections were each of them herein again repeated.

action, or proceeding for the recovery of land-rent or for any other purpose relating to this Ordinance, it shall not be necessary for the Civil Commissioner to produce the original title deed of any such place or property as aforesaid or any duplicate thereof or any deed of transfer relating to such place or property; but on the contrary the entry or entries in the books of the Civil Commissioner purporting to contain the leading heads of the grant or lease or other instrument of title of such place or property shall prima facie be deemed and taken to be admissible and sufficient evidence to prove the amount of the rent reserved, and all other matters contained in such entry or entries of which the original grant or lease or other instrument of title might but for the present section be in law the best evidence: Provided always, that it shall be competent for any person defending any such action as aforesaid to produce and prove any such grant or lease or other instrument as aforesaid, and thereupon such deed so produced and proved shall in case of any discrepancy between the said entries and said deed be deemed and taken to be the best evidence of every matter and thing in the said deed contained.

Ordinance to provide for the Enregisterment in the Land Registers of the Colony of certain Subdivisions of the Locations and Extensions of the Settlers of 1820.(3)

Preamble.

WHEREAS in consequence of the encouragement to emigration to the Cape of Good Hope offered by the Government of his late Majesty King George the Third in certain letters dated Downing-street, London, 1819, certain parties of settlers arrived in this Colony in and about the year 1820 and were located in the lower part of the division of Albany and at Glen Lynden in the division of Somerset, on certain lands which were surveyed for the said parties respectively: And whereas certain of the said parties consisted wholly or in part of individuals who paid, in England certain deposits required by the said Government, and thereby acquired certain rights to portions of the original locations so surveyed for the said parties: And whereas other lands were set aside by Government, and certain exchanges of granted land were made for the better maintenance of some of the said parties, and surveys of the shares held by the said individual settlers their heirs or assigns, at the date of survey, effected for the purpose of enabling the proprietors thereof to obtain registry of the same in the Land Registers of the Colony: And whereas the said proprietors have been and still are prevented from obtaining such registry by reason of the death, absence from the Colony, mental incapacity, or insolvency of the former heads or nominal heads of their parties, to whom in most instances grants of the original locations were issued, or of other persons through or from whom the said proprietors have mediately or immediately derived just, lawful, and undisputed rights to the said subdivisions, or by reason that in many instances it has now become impossible to produce such legal evidence of the cessions of the said rights as would enable the Supreme Court or the Circuit Courts of this Colony to declare and enforce the same, while at the same time the provisions of the Ordinance No. 97, entitled "Ordinance for enabling certain persons having respectively the just, lawful, and undisputed right to certain Lands and Houses, to procure the same to be enregistered as their property in the Land Register," could not properly be accommodated so as to meet the exigency of the cases aforesaid, or if they could be so accommodated not without much and unnecessary expense. And whereas in many instances the head of the party cannot give transfer of the subdivisions which have been effected by reason that the said subdivisions include without distinction portions of land registered as his property together with portions of lands granted to others, or of ungranted Crown lands allotted to the party: And whereas by reason of the issue and existence of certain title deeds to portions of the land referred to the Governor of this Colony is prevented from directing the issue of new title deeds of the said subdivisions in the names of the persons justly entitled to the same, and thus giving them registry in the Land Registers of this Colony.

2. Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, by and with the consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that from and after the promulgation of this Ordinance, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Colony to publish by proclamation in the Government Gazette and in some one or more of such newspapers as shall be published in Graham's Town the names of such persons as shall after due investigation be recommended by the board of commissioners for lands as the persons entitled to receive grants of the aforesaid subdivisions of locations, together with a description of the said subdivisions and also the particulars of all such grants of original locations and other lands as it may be necessary to cancel by reason of portions thereof being included in such aforesaid subdivisions, and thereupon to proclaim that unless objections showing cause to the contrary be lodged in writing at the office of the Secretary to Government, in Cape Town, within six weeks from the day on which such proclamation shall be last published the title deeds therein mentioned will be cancelled and the subdivisions aforesaid granted accordingly. <sup>(1)</sup>

3. And be it enacted that in case no objections are lodged in the office of the Secretary to Government as aforesaid at or before the expiration of the term of six weeks as aforesaid it shall and may be lawful for the said Governor to direct the said title deeds to be cancelled and the grants of the said subdivisions to be issued accordingly.

4. And be it enacted that in case any such objections as aforesaid shall be lodged as aforesaid the said objections shall be referred to the board of commissioners for lands for investigation, and should the said board deem it necessary in any case to amend their previous recommendation a further publication of six weeks by proclamation in manner aforesaid of such amended recommendation, shall be necessary before it shall be lawful for the said Governor to direct that any title deeds or title deed shall in conformity with such amended recommendation be cancelled or be issued as the case may be: Provided that if no objection be lodged within the said period of six weeks to any such amended recommendation it shall be lawful for the said Governor to direct the certain title deeds or title deed referred to in such amended recommendation to be cancelled or issued as the case may be in conformity therewith.

5. And be it enacted that if after any such objections as are mentioned in the second section of this Ordinance shall have been referred to the board of commissioners for lands the said board shall report to the said Governor that they do not see cause to amend their recommendation, or if any objections to the amended recommendation mentioned in the fourth section of this Ordinance shall be lodged as aforesaid, the said Governor shall cause a Government notice to be published in the Government Gazette and in one or more of the newspapers to be published in Graham's Town setting forth the particulars of any title deeds or title deed the cancellation of which shall have been objected to and a description of the several subdivisions which contain portions of the land described therein, and also the names of the person or persons to whom it is recommended to issue title deeds of the said subdivisions respectively, and in the case of such of the said subdivisions as may be unclaimed or if claimed when the claims to the said subdivisions are not proved or have not been reported on, then the name or names of the persons for whom the said

Objector may apply for interdict.

Interdict to be lodged with Secretary to Government.

6. And be it enacted that it shall be lawful for the Supreme Court or any Circuit Court of this Colony to grant an interdict to any person or persons applying as aforesaid for the same in case it shall appear that the party so applying has some right to or over or in respect of the land of which a title deed is recommended to be cancelled, and to the cancellation of which such party objects or to which any new grant is announced as intended to be made, and moreover that such party is likely to be prejudiced by the cancellation or issue as the case may be of any title deeds or title deed intended to be cancelled or issued respectively.

In what cases interdict may be granted.

7. And be it enacted that when and as often as any such interdict as aforesaid or any copy thereof shall be lodged at the office of the Secretary to Government in Cape Town as aforesaid a public notice of the lodgment of the same shall be forthwith given in the Government Gazette, and in some one of such newspapers as aforesaid, and the said interdict or a copy thereof together with the claim or claims and all the proofs and documents relating thereto on which the recommendation of the board of commissioners for lands was founded, shall be delivered or transmitted to or placed at the disposal of the person or persons or some one of them to whom the grant was recommended or whose claims shall be stayed by the said interdict, or their heirs or other representatives, for the purpose of enabling him or them to procure the removal of the said interdict, and the final determination according to law of all questions in dispute connected with the same.

8. And be it enacted that when and as often as any such final determination as aforesaid shall have been made by any competent Court in any suit or proceeding arising from or connected with any such interdict as aforesaid the cancellation of any old title deed or issue of any new title deed respectively shall be regulated in conformity with the judgment of such Court, and so as to secure as much as may be the rights of all parties as the same shall have been ascertained and declared by the judgment of such Court. But in case it shall so happen that the person or persons whose claims are stayed or supposed rights affected by any such interdict shall not within a period of six months from the date of the publication of the notice in the last preceding section mentioned obtain a final determination of the matters in dispute in regard to the same and give notice of such final determination being had and come to to the Secretary to Government in Cape Town, then the matters so in dispute shall be considered as if decided in favour of the party who shall have obtained the interdict, and thereupon the consequences hereinbefore mentioned shall take place in the same manner as if a competent Court had finally determined in favour of such party. Provided, always, that it shall be lawful for the Governor aforesaid to enlarge the time during which notice of any such final determination being had and come to may be given as aforesaid to the Secretary to Government.

sold, if there be no
application for grant.

9. And be it enacted that when there shall remain any subdivision or subdivisions of locations aforesaid to which no claim has been made or the claims to which shall not have been proved so as to enable the said land board to recommend the issue of the title deed or title deeds thereof to the claimant or claimants respectively, or to any other person, it shall be lawful for the Governor of the Colony to cause to be published in the Government Gazette and in one or more of the newspapers which shall be published at Graham's Town a notice describing the said subdivision or subdivisions, and declaring that unless a notice stating cause to the contrary be lodged in the office of the Secretary to Government in Cape Town within three months after such notice shall be last published the said subdivision or subdivisions will be sold by public auction for account of whom it may concern.

Application of proceeds of sale.

10. And be it enacted that if no such notice as aforesaid be lodged as aforesaid at or before the expiration of the said three months then it shall be lawful for the said Governor at any time thereafter to cause the said subdivision or subdivisions to be sold in freehold by public auction; and in case of any such sale the proceeds after deduction of the expenses of sale shall be disposed of in manner following, that is to say: first, a sum equal to fifteen years' purchase of the annual quitrent fixed for settlers' grants and of such stamps as would have been required in respect of such annual quitrent for the said period, shall be paid into the Colonial Treasury to account for the general revenue ; secondly, the amount of loan from the Storm Fund if any with the interest thereon if any shall be paid into the said treasury to account of the said fund ; and lastly, the remainder of the said proceeds if any shall be paid into the Guardian Fund in the name of the proprietor at the date of the said sale of the location surveyed for or other person justly entitled thereto or to any portion thereof, there to be subject to the same provisions in all respects which are provided by the Ordinance No. 105, bearing date the 5th of July, 1833, in regard to moneys placed in the said fund belonging to persons absent from the Colony.

Ord. 15—1844.

11. And be it enacted that in case such a notice be lodged as the second notice in the ninth section mentioned the said notice shall be referred to the land board, and if the said board shall be enabled thereby to recommend the issue of title deed to the party who shall have lodged such notice or to any other person the name of the person or persons so recommended by the said board and the description of the subdivision or subdivisions referred to shall be published by proclamation as in the second section of this Ordinance provided. But if it shall appear to the said board that the said notice does not state any sufficient cause against the said sale and the party lodging it does not furnish sufficient proof to enable the said board to recommend the issue of title deed to such party or any other person then it shall be lawful for the said Governor to cause a notice to be inserted in the Government Gazette and in some one or more of such newspapers as shall be published at Graham's Town declaring that unless restrained by an interdict of some competent Court or some Judge having lawful authority to be lodged at the office of the Secretary to Government in Cape Town within three months from the publication of such notice the subdivision or subdivisions mentioned in such notice will be sold by public auction ; and provided no such interdict be lodged as aforesaid then it shall be lawful for the said Governor to direct the said subdivision or subdivisions to be sold as aforesaid by public auction and the proceeds thereof disposed of as provided for in the tenth section of this Ordinance ; but in case an interdict shall have been so lodged as aforesaid then every matter and thing in relation to the said subdivision or subdivisions or to the title deed thereof or to the rights of any parties to or over the same shall be governed and directed by any order, judgment, or decree in the premises of any competent Court.

Proceedings in case of notice under section 9.

Sale on rejection of claim.

12. And be it enacted that the cancellation of every title deed effected under the provisions of this Ordinance and every title deed issued under the said provisions shall respectively be liable to be annulled, set aside, limited, qualified, and affected on every ground and by reason of every cause, matter or thing (and shall not be annulled, set aside, limited, qualified, or affected on any ground or Proceedings at law, or applications under Ordinance 97 competent in fit cases, notwithstanding this ordinance.

13. And be it enacted that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be held or construed so as to prevent any person or persons whomsoever from proceeding in any manner in which he or they may be advised in any competent Court in regard to any lands belonging or appertaining to any of the locations or extensions of the said settlers of 1820; or from applying to the committee nominated and appointed under Ordinance No. 97 in order to obtain enregisterment in any case to which the said Ordinance No. 97 shall be considered by such person or persons to apply. Provided, always, that no such proceeding as aforesaid in any such Court (except as certain proceedings are by this Ordinance contemplated and provided as aforesaid) and no application to the said committee shall in any case be commenced by any person or persons in regard to any locations or subdivisions mentioned in any such proclamation as in the second section of this Ordinance provided; and all persons having commenced or being interested in any suit or proceeding at law or any application to the said committee in regard to any title-deed or to any subdivision or subdivisions mentioned in any such proclamation shall be bound within six weeks from the date of the publication of such proclamation to lodge at the office of the Secretary to Government in Cape Town notice of the pending of such suit or application, which notice shall be deemed and taken to be an objection duly lodged as in the fourth section of this Ordinance provided.

14. And whereas it is expedient to limit the time during which the provisions of this Ordinance shall be operative be it enacted that this Ordinance shall take effect from and after the promulgation hereof, and that no such proclamation as is in the second section of this Ordinance mentioned shall be issued after the 31st day of December, 1846. ## Ordinance for facilitating Loans on Security of Shares in Joint-stock Companies.

WHEREAS a number of banking, and other Joint-stock companies exist in this Colony, constituted respectively by and under respective deeds of co-partnership or association, commonly called trust deeds: And whereas in all or most of such deeds as aforesaid a certain clause or provision is contained by which it is stipulated and agreed between the parties thereto, that proprietors should assign and transfer their shares by endorsement upon the certificates thereof, but that no such endorsement should be valid to transfer any interest in, or right or title to, any share until such endorsement should have been registered and certified in manner and form as by the said deeds, provided: And whereas in all or most of the said deeds, a certain other clause or provision is contained, limiting, and determining the number of shares which it shall be competent for any person to hold or possess: And whereas the two certain clauses or provisions aforesaid, were devised and intended to apply to and govern cases of sale and purchase, and are inapplicable to cases in which shares are sought to be only pledged, seeing that in such cases, it would be inconvenient to require that a complete and entire change of ownership should be ab initio effected, while, moreover, the second of the clauses or provisions aforesaid, limiting and determining the number of shares to be held or possessed by any one person, would, in many instances, tend to prevent such complete and entire change from being effected: And whereas it may be apprehended, that the title of any person to or with whom any certificates of shares of any such joint-stock company as aforesaid, may be pledged, might, whether such certificates have endorsed thereon, fitting words of cession from the person pledging to the person receiving the pledge, or are only indorsed in blank by such first-mentioned person; or are by him pledged and deposited without either cession or endorsement, but with a collateral power to sell conferred upon the person receiving the pledge to be executed in case of default made by the person pledging; be drawn into question and disputed by execution creditors or creditors, in an insolvent estate; so long as no assignment or transfer as aforesaid, has been as aforesaid, registered and certified. And whereas any such apprehension may tend to impede the freedom of raising money upon security of certificates of shares; and it is therefore expedient to remove the same, and to facilitate transactions tending to promote the interest and convenience of traders and others requiring from other persons temporary advances, or forbearance of their demands; Be it therefore enacted, by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that it shall and may be lawful for the legal holder of any share of the capital stock of any joint-stock company now existing, or to be hereafter established, within this Colony, to pledge, or to have pledged, such share for any purpose, object, or consideration for which movable property may lawfully be pledged, by pledging, or having pledged, in manner and form as in the next succeeding section mentioned, the certificate of such share, and the person receiving such pledge, (called hereafter in this Ordinance the pledgee) shall be deemed and taken as against the pledger and his creditors, whether in execution or insolvency, and all persons claiming from, through or under him, or them, to have a good and valid hypothec, or lien upon the said certificate, and upon the said share, and to be in the same plight and condition, in regard to such share as if the same like the certificate thereof, were a thing capable of being actually handed over and deposited with such person, and had actually so been; Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall extend to alter or affect the mutual rights or claims of the company, in which such share exists and the owner of any such share, which rights or claims, notwithstanding any such pledge, shall be deemed and judged of precisely as if such pledge had never been effected. And provided also, that nothing in this Ordinance contained, shall extend to supersede, invalidate, or otherwise affect any special provision in any trust deed contained, touching and concerning the manner and form in which alone pledges of shares, shall be constituted and effected.

Manner of pledging certificates.

2. And be it enacted, that every such share as aforesaid, shall be deemed and taken, as against the pledger, his heirs, and creditors, to be or to have been lawfully and effectually pledged, when and as often as the certificate of such share shall be, or shall have been, delivered into and detained in the actual custody and possession of the pledgee; having endorsed thereon, in fitting words, a cession of the said share made in favour of the pledgee, by the person entitled to cede the same, or having thereon the blank endorsement of such person so entitled, or otherwise, when in reference to the certificate so delivered and detained as aforesaid, some instrument, note, or memorandum in writing, shall be, or shall have been, made containing a description of the share pledged, and a statement of the purpose, object or consideration, for which the same shall have been pledged. Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to deprive any pledge sought to be effected in any manner or form other than is in this section mentioned, of any force or validity which it might otherwise have had. And provided also, that nothing in this Ordinance contained, shall be deemed, or taken to abridge, alter or affect the right, if any, of any pledgee of any share to retain the same for or account of any future or other debt or demand, not contemplated at the time of the original pledge, or mentioned in any such instrument, note or memorandum as aforesaid, which right shall be judged of and determined according to the ordinary rules of law relative to the detention of movables pledged, for the security of future or other debts or demands.

Ord. 13—1846.

3. And whereas certificates of shares which have been pledged, or otherwise delivered, upon good consideration, may, through fraud, be alleged, or through mistake be supposed, to be lost or destroyed, and thereupon application for fresh certificates may be made to the directors of the company in which the shares exist: And whereas a sudden or secret compliance with any such application might tend to the prejudice of pledgees or other persons, and it is therefore expedient, to provide for the protection of such pledgees or other persons, and, at the same time, to provide, for the issue of fresh certificates in cases where the original certificates shall appear to have been really lost or destroyed; Be it enacted, that in every case in which any such application as aforesaid shall be made to the directors of any joint-stock company, such directors, in case they shall not have knowledge or notice that the share in regard to which the fresh certificate is applied for is in pledge, or otherwise disposed of, shall, (but at the cost and charge of the applicant) insert an advertisement in the Government Gazette, and in such one of the newspapers in the Colony as they shall select, stating that an application has been made for a fresh certificate for the share numbered — and issued to — as the proprietor thereof, upon the ground that the original or former certificates of the said share has been lost or destroyed (as the case may be), and that, should no objection be lodged at the office of the company on or before some certain day to be fixed in such advertisement, (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the last publication of the said advertisement), the said fresh certificate will be issued as requested.

Issue of fresh certificates on proof of loss of originals.

4. And be it enacted, that in case no such objection as aforesaid shall be lodged, it shall and may be lawful for the said directors to issue, or cause to be issued, the fresh certificate applied for, and such directors shall not, nor shall the company, incur thereby any liability whatsoever: Provided always, that if any pledgee of any certificate or share shall have at any time before the application for a fresh certificate, given notice in writing at the office of the company, that the same has been pledged to him, or if the pledgee of any certificate and share shall lodge an objection in pursuance of any such advertisement, and the directors shall, nevertheless, without the consent of such pledgee, or the decree of some competent Court, issue such fresh certificate, such directors shall be personally responsible to such pledgee for any loss or damage which he may thereby sustain.

Non-liability of company on issue of fresh certificates.

Personal responsibility of directors in certain cases.

5. And be it enacted, that in case the pledgee of any original or former certificate of any share of which a fresh certificate is applied for as aforesaid, shall not have given notice in writing of such pledge at the office of the company, or after such advertisement as aforesaid shall have been duly published, shall not within the time

Order of preference between pledgee of original certificate and bona fide pledgee or purchaser on faith of fresh certificate.

Ord. 14—184 . in that behalf specified, lodge an objection to the issue of any fresh certificate, and the directors shall, in consequence, have issued or caused to be issued such certificate to the person applying for the same, every subsequent purchaser or pledgee dealing bonâ fide, and without notice of the older pledge, upon the faith of the fresh certificate as evidence of the ownership of the share which it represents, shall be entitled to be preferred to the full extent of his claims and demands above or before the original pledgee: Provided, however, that such original pledgee shall still be entitled to be preferred above or before the person by whom, or in whose right or supposed right any such fresh certificate shall have been obtained, and above or before his heirs, and above or before his creditors, whether in execution or insolvency, but so, however, as not to require any execution creditor to refund any moneys actually paid out to him, or to require the creditors of any insolvent estate to refund any dividends by them actually received.

Interpretation clause. 6. And be it enacted, that in the interpretation of this Ordinance the term person, shall embrace any co-partnership or company, and that the singular number shall include several persons as well as one person, and that the masculine gender shall include females as well as males.

Exclusion of Natal. 7. And be it enacted, that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall extend to the district of Natal.

Time of taking effect. 8. And be it enacted, that this Ordinance shall commence and take effect from and after the date of the promulgation thereof.

Ordinance for improving the Law of Evidence. (1)

Preamble.

WHEREAS the inquiry after truth in Courts of Justice is often obstructed by incapacities created by the present law, and it is desirable that full information as to the facts in issue both in criminal and civil cases should be laid before the persons who are appointed to decide upon them and that such persons should exercise their judgment on the credit to be given to the witnesses adduced and on the truth of their testimony: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that so much of the Ordinance No. 72, 1830, entitled "Ordinance for altering, amending, and declaring in certain respects the Law of Evidence within this Colony," and of the Ordinance No. 19, 1845, entitled "Ordinance for altering, amending, and declaring in certain respects the Law of Evidence within the District of Natal," and

WHEREAS it is found that parties to whom, or in whose favour, mortgages or hypothecations, as well general as special, have been passed, sometimes abstain from registering the same against their debtors, until the increasing embarrassments of such debtors, or other reasons, render it necessary to secure a preference over other creditors, who may have dealt with such debtors in total ignorance, that any such mortgages or hypothecations were in existence: And whereas such a practice may be used so as to cover fraud, and is one which tends to defeat the objects or limit the advantages of the Debt Registry of this Colony, and which should therefore be suppressed: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that every deed or instrument of mortgage or hypothecation, commonly called a general bond, executed after the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance, shall, if executed by the debtor or mortgagor within the limits of the municipality of Cape Town, be tendered for registration in the Deeds Registry office within the space of seven days next after the day of the execution thereof; and if so executed elsewhere within the limits of the Western Division of this Colony, shall be tendered as aforesaid within the space of fourteen days next after such execution as aforesaid; and if so executed within the limits of any of the Eastern Districts, shall be tendered as aforesaid within the space of twenty-eight days next after such execution as aforesaid; and no such deed or instrument which shall be tendered for registration after the expiration of the term hereinbefore limited for the tendering of the same shall be (except as in the next succeeding section is excepted) registered, and if registered such registration shall be null and void. Provided always, that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be deemed or taken to extend to any deed or instrument executed elsewhere than in any of the places aforesaid, nor to deprive any deed or instrument executed within any of the said places of any force or effect which though unregistered, it may by law possess. Provided also, that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be construed so as to entitle any instrument to be registered, which instrument would not by law be now entitled to registration.

Order by judge on proof of absence of fraud or neglect of registration after lapse of due time.

2. And be it enacted, that if, in any case, the occurrence of peculiar circumstances shall prevent any such deed or instrument as aforesaid, which should have been tendered for registration within some one of the certain times or spaces aforesaid, from being so tendered, it shall and may be lawful for any person whom it shall concern to apply to any Judge of the Supreme Court for an order directing the Registrar of Deeds to register the said deed or instrument, notwithstanding the time or space aforesaid shall have elapsed, and such judge, upon being satisfied by the person applying, that the delay has not arisen from fraud or neglect, may, should he think fit, make such order; and thereupon the Registrar of Deeds shall register such deed or instrument, and such registration and the effect thereof shall be taken and judged of precisely as if this Ordinance never had been passed.

Insertion of date of execution.

3. And be it enacted, that every such deed or instrument as aforesaid, executed as aforesaid within any of the places aforesaid shall, in some part or portion thereof, set forth the date and place of the execution thereof; and if any notary public, or any other person whomsoever shall, knowingly and wilfully, insert or set forth, in any such deed or instrument, any false or erroneous date or place, such notary public, or other person, shall, for such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds, and not less than ten pounds, to be recovered for his own use, with costs of suit, by any person suing in any competent Court for, the recovery of the same.

Penalty on notary inserting false date.

Necessity of express words and maximum amount in deeds to cover future advances.

4. And whereas it is expedient that notice, as particular as possible, should be given upon the face of every deed or instrument of hypothecation of the amount which such hypothecation is intended to secure; and whereas as often as such deeds or instruments are framed so as to cover or secure future debts or advances to an indefinite amount, no such notice is conveyed, and inconveniences may thence result: and whereas it is expedient to amend the law in this respect: Be it enacted, that no deed or instrument of hypothecation, whether general or special, executed at any time after the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance, shall be of any force or effect to give any preference or priority to the payment of any advances, debts, or demands, made or accruing after the date of the registration of such deed or instrument, unless it shall be expressed in such deed or instrument, that the same is meant or intended to cover and secure future advances, debts, or demands generally, or some particular description thereof to be in the said deed or instrument described, and unless also some certain sum shall be expressed in such deed or instrument as a sum beyond which such future advances, debts, or demands, shall not be deemed to be covered or secured by the hypothecation made or created by such deed or instrument: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to give validity or effect to any deed or instrument or any part of any deed or instrument which before this Ordinance would have been invalid or ineffectual.

Ord. 28—1846.

5. And be it enacted, that every such deed or instrument as aforesaid, which shall have been executed before, but shall remain unregistered upon the day of the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance, shall be tendered for registration within the space of one month next after such day, and if not so tendered shall not be registered, or if registered, such registration shall be null and void: Provided always, that the provisions in the second section of this Ordinance contained shall apply to every such last-mentioned deed or instrument, when and as often as the occurrence of peculiar circumstances shall prevent the same from being tendered for registration within the said space of one month.

Registry within one month of deeds already executed.

[October 3, 1846.]

Ordinance for preventing the Mischiefs arising from the cutting, rooting up, and destroying of Trees, Shrubs, and Bushes growing on the Cape Flats and Downs.

WHEREAS it has become an object of the utmost importance to this Colony, to preserve from the effects of drifting sands the new hard road constructed over or across the Cape flats or downs; And whereas a mischievous and illegal practice prevails of cutting down, rooting up, and carrying away from the said flats or downs, for the purpose of firewood, the trees, shrubs, or bushes growing there, by means of which practice the sands are loosened and exposed, and are carried by the wind to, and deposited upon, the said road, to the serious detriment, if not total destruction of certain parts thereof: And whereas no efforts made or to be made by the Central Board of Commissioners of Public Roads to bind and fix those portions of the said flats or downs from which the sands are carried by causing them to be planted with trees, shrubs, bushes, or other vegetable productions, have been or can be of any avail, so long as the mischievous and illegal practice aforesaid shall be permitted to continue; And whereas in order as much as may be to suppress the said practice and protect the road aforesaid, it is expedient to amend the law relative to the removal of trees, shrubs, and bushes from the said flats or downs. Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that the third and fourth sections of Ordinance No. 5, 1836, entitled “Ordinance for defining the limits of and securing from injury the Cape Flats and Downs,” shall be repealed, and the same are hereby repealed accordingly.

2. And be it enacted that if any person (except persons travelling as hereafter is excepted) shall cut, root up, burn, break, destroy, or carry away any tree, shrub, or bush growing upon any part of the Crown lands situate within the Cape downs or flats, or shall engage or employ any other person so to do (whether such last-mentioned person shall actually do so or not); or shall take upon himself to sell or dispose of or authorise to be carried away any such tree, shrub, or bush, such person shall upon a first conviction for the said offence forfeit any sum not exceeding five pounds; and upon non-payment thereof shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month; and upon a second conviction for the said offence shall forfeit any sum not exceeding ten pounds and not less than five pounds; and upon non-payment thereof shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months and not less than one month; and upon a third or any subsequent conviction for the said offence shall forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty pounds and not less than ten pounds, and upon non-payment thereof shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months and not less than three months. Provided always, that every such imprisonment as aforesaid shall be with hard labour unless the Magistrate committing shall otherwise award. And provided also, that every person travelling through or over the flats or downs aforesaid shall be at liberty without incurring any of the penalties or forfeitures aforesaid to cut down and collect such trees, shrubs, or bushes as shall be needed for the purpose of any fire which such person shall require or desire to kindle or keep at any outspan-place within the said flats or downs, such person doing no unnecessary damage in the cutting or collection of the same.

to or permit to be carried away upon any wagon, cart, or other carriage any trees, shrubs, or bushes which shall have grown upon such private property, shall grant and deliver to the person in charge of such wagon, cart, or other carriage, a certificate or note in writing signed by such owner, lessee, or other occupant certifying in substance that the trees, shrubs, or bushes carried in or upon such wagon, cart, or other carriage have been obtained from the person signing the same; and every owner, lessee, or occupant who shall neglect to give such certificate or note in writing to the person in charge of every wagon, cart, or other carriage carrying away with his knowledge and consent any such trees, shrubs, or bushes as aforesaid, shall for every such neglect forfeit any sum not exceeding twenty shillings.

Penalty on neglect of such certificates.

4. And be it enacted that no person being the owner, lessee or other occupant of any land being private property situate wholly or in part within the said flats or downs and lying to the westward of an invisible line supposed to be drawn from the beach of Table Bay at the point where a line drawn due west from Duiker Vallei would touch the said beach to the said Duiker Vallei, thence to the seventh milestone on the hard road across the flats, thence to Jaekal's Vallei, thence to the house commonly called Mannenberg's, thence to the Vaderlandsche Riet Vallei, thence to the northern end of Zeekoe Vallei, thence to the southern end of Zeekoe Vallei, and thence in a straight line due south to the beach of False Bay, shall deliver or permit to be carried away in or upon any wagon, cart, or other carriage, any trees, shrubs, or bushes having grown upon such private property without having previously obtained a licence in writing from the Civil Commissioner of the Cape division or officer acting as such, authorising him to remove the trees, shrubs, or bushes growing upon such private property. And any such owner, lessee or occupant as is in this section mentioned, who shall without having obtained such licence permit any trees, shrubs, or bushes to be carried away in or upon any wagon, cart or other carriage, shall for every such offence forfeit any sum not exceeding forty shillings and not less than one pound; and upon non-payment thereof shall be imprisoned for any term not exceeding one month.

And be it enacted that the Civil Commissioner aforesaid shall upon the application of any such owner, lessee, or other occupant as is in the last preceding section mentioned, grant such licence as aforesaid as often as such Civil Commissioner shall be satisfied by inspection or otherwise that there are growing upon the private property in question trees, shrubs, or bushes which might be removed without thereby loosening or exposing sands in such a manner as to occasion the drifting of the same. And every such licence shall be revocable by such Civil Commissioner, and shall be by him revoked whenever it shall appear that the said private property and the trees, shrubs, or other bushes thereupon are in such a condition that the further removal of the latter would produce injurious consequences. Provided always, that every such licence may be framed in such a manner as to authorise the removal of such trees, shrubs, or bushes as aforesaid from a part or parts only of any private property instead of the entire. And provided also, that when and as often as any owner, lessee, or other occupant applying for such a licence as aforesaid shall be wholly refused the same or shall be allowed a licence covering a part or parts only of his property, it shall and may be lawful for such owner, lessee, or other occupant to require compensation from the Central Board of Commissioners of Public Roads for any losses which he may allege himself to have sustained, and thereupon such proceedings shall be had as if such claim were a claim for compensation preferred under and by virtue of the tenth section of Ordinance No. 8, 1843, (1) entitled an "Ordinance for improving the Public Roads of this Colony."

Compensation on refusal of licence.

Evidence of contravention of second section.

6. And be it enacted that when and as often as any wagon, cart or other carriage shall be found within or upon any part of the said flats or downs (not being private property) or upon the said hard road or any other road or place to which the said wagon, cart, or other carriage shall have come from any place eastward of the Salt River having in or upon such wagon, cart or other carriage, trees, shrubs or bushes of a species or description commonly found growing on the said flats or downs, it shall and may be lawful for any person finding the same to require the person in charge thereof to produce and show such a certificate or note in writing as aforesaid; and his refusal or neglect so to do shall be deemed and taken for the purpose of the penalties by this Ordinance provided to be conclusive evidence that the said trees, shrubs, or bushes were carried away by the person so neglecting or refusing, from Crown land as in the second section of this Ordinance mentioned, and thereupon such person may lawfully be required, and if he shall refuse may, if necessary, be forcibly compelled to proceed forthwith to the nearest Resident Magistrate or Road Magistrate, there to be dealt with according to law in the exercise of the jurisdiction hereinafter conferred. Provided always, that if it shall be proved to the satisfaction of such Resident Magistrate or Road Magistrate that the certificate or note in writing by law required was really given and received, and afterwards lost or mislaid, the person accused shall be acquitted, or if he shall have paid any fine imposed upon him previous to such proof being given, shall have the same returned to him, or if in prison by reason of default made in the payment of any such fine shall be forthwith discharged by an order under the hand of the committing magistrate.

Jurisdiction in all cases under the ordinance.

7. And be it enacted that the Court of the Resident Magistrate of Cape Town and the district thereof, and the Cape District, and the Court of the Resident Magistrate of the district of Wynberg, and the Court of the Judge and Superintendent of Police of Cape Town, shall respectively have jurisdiction to inquire into and determine all cases and questions of fines, forfeitures, or penalties by this Ordinance provided.

Ord. 28—1846.

8. And be it enacted that every Road Magistrate resident within the division of the Cape shall have jurisdiction in regard to every offence in the second section of this Ordinance mentioned, whenever any wagon, cart, or other carriage shall be brought before him under and by virtue of the sixth section of this Ordinance, and shall in regard to the prosecution of any such offence proceed in manner and form as by law would have been fit and proper had such wagon, cart, or other carriage been brought before him under and by virtue of the twentieth section of Ordinance No. 9, 1846, entitled "Ordinance for the better preservation of the Public Roads and the prevention of Accidents thereon," charged with having contravened any of the provisions of the third section of the said last-mentioned Ordinance.

SCHEDULE.

Proclamation.

WHEREAS I did by a proclamation bearing date the 3rd of February, 1848, issued by me in my capacity as Her Majesty's High Commissioner for settling and adjusting the affairs of certain territories adjacent to the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope proclaim, declare, and make known the sovereignty of Her said Majesty over certain territories north of the Great Orange River in the said proclamation mentioned and described: And whereas at various times during the period for which Her Majesty's emigrant subjects have occupied parts or portions of the said territories many marriages have taken place amongst them which owing to the impossibility of obtaining the presence or aid of any minister of the gospel and of conforming to divers requirements of law have not as it is supposed been solemnized in such a manner as to render the same valid and effectual: And whereas the said marriages were so irregularly contracted by reason solely of the necessity under which the parties lay while deprived alike of religious teachers and of regular and established laws, and arose from no want of due reverence for the holy ordinance in question or for the spiritual sanctions with which amongst Christians it is customarily and fitly solemnized: And whereas taking these things into my consideration and being desirous to confer upon Her Majesty's said subjects the important advantage of having their children's legitimacy established and their said marriages legalized for all purposes of law, I have determined to exercise for that end the powers and authorities in me vested: Now therefore I do, as Her Majesty's High Commissioner as aforesaid, hereby proclaim, declare, and make known the several following provisions and regulations touching and concerning the marriages aforesaid, that is to say:

1st. The British Resident in the territories aforesaid is hereby authorized and required to frame and preserve a general register of all such marriages as shall under any of the provisions hereinafter contained be transacted or reported to him for registration.

2nd. Such general register shall set forth or show the names and residence of the husband and of the wife, their respective ages and condition in life, the date of the marriage and any other particulars which the said British Resident may be instructed by the High Commissioner to record.

3rd. Every couple (except as hereinafter excepted) united together within the said territories as man and wife in the presence of witnesses by any form of words expressive of their mutual and solemn consent to become and be then and there and from thenceforth married people, married together, may have the said marriage registered. But no marriage or pretended marriage shall be registered in which the parties are connected with each other by consanguinity or affinity in such a degree that the Governor of the Colony of the Cape could not by law have granted to them if resident in the said Colony a valid dispensation or authority to marry, and that no valid marriage could by the laws of the said Colony be therein solemnized between them if domiciled in the said Colony; and if any marriage or pretended marriage hereby declared incapable of registration shall yet be registered such registration shall have or possess no force or effect. But no ground of objection arising from consanguinity or affinity which could in the said Colony have been dispensed with by the authority of the said Governor shall prevent registration or its consequences as hereinafter declared.

4th. Whenever any two spouses married as aforesaid shall together come before the British Resident or any Magistrate resident in the said territories and shall declare the fact of such marriage, the Resident or Magistrate (as the case may be) shall ascertain and record in writing the names of the said spouses, their residence, the date and place of their said marriage, and their respective conditions in life at the time of such marriage, whether they were previously married or not; and such record shall be signed or acknowledged by the said spouses in presence of the Resident or Magistrate. When any doubt shall appear to rest upon the fact or date of the alleged marriage, the Resident or Magistrate may call for the certificate in writing or the solemn declaration before himself or such credible witness or witnesses as were present at or cognizant of the said marriage. But when and as often as any such marriage shall have been contracted before and attested by any person or persons recognized at the time amongst Her Majesty's emigrant subjects as holding a public office or authority entitling him or them to attest marriage, any such attestation or a copy thereof shall upon the identity of the married people being ascertained be conclusive proof of the fact and date of the said marriage.

5th. In case it shall be inconvenient for both spouses to repair to the said Resident or to any Magistrate, the latter may ascertain from the husband alone the circumstances aforesaid, and from them prepare the record. But when the husband shall appear alone he will provide himself with a written certificate or statement signed by the wife, or acknowledged by her in the presence of two neighbours who shall witness the same, in which certificate or statement the wife shall set forth the date of the marriage between herself and her husband. And this certificate or statement shall be preserved together with the record signed by the husband. In case of any doubt as to the fact or date of the marriage the Resident or Magistrate shall proceed as before in order to remove the same.

6th. Should either of the spouses have departed this life since contracting any such marriage as aforesaid, leaving the other of them still surviving, such survivor may appear before the British Resident or any Magistrate as aforesaid, and thereupon the record shall be prepared as if both spouses were living and present; except that the signature of the survivor alone shall be sufficient and that the record shall set forth the death of the deceased. In every such case, moreover, the Resident or Magistrate shall require clear evidence, whether oral or by certificate or affidavit as he shall judge necessary, of the fact and date of the marriage, and shall when it is practicable ascertain that the relatives or friends of the deceased concur in recognizing the said marriage.

7th. Should it happen in any instance in which any such marriage shall have been contracted before and attested by any such persons in office or authority as are hereinbefore referred to that either of the spouses shall refuse to join the other of them in obtaining the registration of the said marriage then the spouse desiring such registration shall be at liberty to appear before the Resident or Magistrate who shall upon proof of such refusal and production of such attestation as aforesaid or an authentic copy thereof, and upon such further inquiry or proof if any as the said Resident or Magistrate shall judge necessary, prepare the necessary record, to which the signature of the spouse applying shall be sufficient, and which shall set forth the refusal of the other spouse.

8th. It shall not be any ground for refusing to prepare a record of or to register any marriage that both or either of the parties to the same at the time of contracting the same were under age.

9th. When and as often as any such Magistrate as aforesaid shall have prepared any such record as aforesaid, he shall with all convenient speed transmit the same with all other writings or papers connected therewith to the British Resident, who shall register every such marriage; and in all cases in which the necessary records shall be prepared by such Resident himself, he shall from or by means of them register the marriage therein mentioned.

10th. Every such marriage as aforesaid when registered by the British Resident shall from and after such registration be a marriage as lawful for all objects and purposes as a lawful marriage within the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope, and shall for all purposes and objects of a civil nature be deemed and taken to have been a lawful marriage from and after the date of the contracting of the same; but whether the same shall from the date last mentioned be deemed and taken to have been a lawful marriage for the purpose of a prosecution for bigamy or polygamy, in case either party shall afterwards during the lifetime of the other party have contracted another marriage, shall be judged of and determined by the general principles of law and independently of any of the provisions of this proclamation.

11th. And whereas some ministers of the Dutch Reformed Church of the Cape Colony have heretofore proceeded to the said territories for the purpose of performing therein as generally as circumstances would permit the rites and services of religion: And whereas certain of the emigrant subjects aforesaid have from time to time been married by such ministers, as also by the officiating minister in the Dutch Reformed Church at Pietermaritzburg in the district of Natal: And whereas there is reason to suppose that in all cases in which any such minister as aforesaid shall have solemnized any marriage between parties who had previously lived together as man and wife, by virtue of any such irregular marriage as is hereinbefore mentioned, the said minister has recorded as well the fact and date of such previous marriage as the marriage solemnized by himself: And whereas it is fit that full credit be given to all matters so vouched: It is hereby declared and directed that the British Resident shall receive all original marriage records made by any such minister or authentic copies thereof as evidence of the facts therein contained, and shall from or by means of them register the marriages therein mentioned, without requiring the presence of either spouse or any further proof: and that from and after such registration every such marriage shall be deemed and taken to have been a lawful marriage to all intents and purposes from the date of the solemnization thereof by such minister, and to have been for all purposes of a civil nature a lawful marriage from the date mentioned in the marriage record made by such minister as that on which the first or previous marriage if any was contracted. But if in any case the fact or date of such previous marriage shall not appear in or by such marriage record then the spouses or spouse desiring the registration of such first or previous marriage shall proceed in the same manner as is in that or the like behalf hereinbefore provided; but in every case, the marriage solemnized by such minister shall after the registration thereof be deemed to be a lawful marriage to all intents and purposes from the date of such solemnization.

12th. And whereas it is necessary to make temporary provision for the contracting of marriages within the territory aforesaid pending the opening of churches and the settlement of fixed ministers within the same, it is hereby declared and directed that all persons who shall hereafter be married by any minister belonging to the Dutch Reformed Church of the Cape Colony or person commissioned by the same to solemnize marriages within the said territories shall be deemed and taken to be lawfully married; and such marriage shall be registered by the British Resident aforesaid from or by means of the marriage records of such minister or person and no publication of banns shall be necessary.

13th. If it shall so happen that any person desirous to marry shall be unable to obtain the services of a minister from whom their marriage might receive the solemn and becoming sanctions of religion such persons may apply to and come before the said British Resident or to the nearest Magistrate, and each of them shall in his presence solemnly declare that they know of no impediment to their marriage and that they desire him to witness that they take each other respectively to be husband and wife; and thereupon a record of the said marriage shall be prepared and the same shall be duly registered; and every such marriage shall be deemed to be as valid and effectual and of the same force and obligation as a lawful marriage solemnized within the Cape Colony.

Ord. 5—1848.

14th. If both or either of the intended spouses be under age the Resident or Magistrate (as the case may be) shall before permitting the marriage (unless in the case of a widow or widower) require proof of the consent of the parents or guardians, unless it shall be made to appear to him that there are none such living, or that they without sufficient reason refuse consent, or that owing to distance or other causes such consent could not possibly or without much inconvenience be obtained. But no marriage once permitted and recorded shall be impeached upon the ground that both or either of the spouses being under age were or was married without consent of parents or guardians.

15th. A certificate signed by the British Resident or officer acting as such stating the registered particulars of any marriage registered by him or in his office in pursuance of this proclamation shall be good evidence of such marriage before all Courts and Magistrates.

And, lastly, I do hereby proclaim, declare, and make known, that while, in my earnest desire to consult as much as in me lies the interests and feelings of all Her Majesty's subjects in the territories aforesaid and those of their wives and children, I have determined to take all measures necessary for establishing their marriages as aforesaid beyond dispute or controversy, nothing in this proclamation contained is to be construed so as to render invalid any marriage contracted in the said territories and not registered under this proclamation which marriage would otherwise by law be regarded as valid; it being my wish and intention not now to decide that any sort or description of marriage is illegal but to furnish an easy and convenient mode by which certain marriages now supposed to be illegal may have their legality placed beyond doubt.

Ordinance for enabling Resident Magistrates to exercise in regard to disputed Rights of Water certain Powers formerly exercised by Landdrost and Heemraden. (1)

WHEREAS in times of drought, disputes not unfrequently arise between farmers and others respecting the enjoyment of the water running through and over their respective properties; And whereas, before the abolition of the Boards of Landdrost and Heemraden such disputes were cognizable by such boards, which were accustomed to settle and arrange the same speedily and at small expense. And whereas since the abolition of the said boards on the 31st of December, 1827, no local Court or functionary has had any jurisdiction or authority touching or concerning such disputes, which alone could be entertained by the Supreme Court of the Colony or by some Circuit Court: And whereas recourse in the first instance to either of such Courts is necessarily attended with delay in a class of cases in which a speedy remedy is particularly important, while the expense of resorting to the same is often disproportioned to the injury complained of, whereby wrong-doers, calculating upon probable impunity, are emboldened to deprive their neighbours of their just rights: And whereas by the Ordinance No. 77, bearing date the 30th October, 1830, and entitled "Ordinance for the better defining and fixing the Duties and Functions of the Civil Commissioners of this Colony," all such duties as were formerly performed by the Landdrosts of the same districts and which had not by any other Ordinances been appointed to be performed by the Resident Magistrates or any other officers were directed to be performed by such Civil Commissioners: And whereas no Law or Ordinance has yet bestowed upon such Civil Commissioners or any other officers the powers or any of them which were formerly exercised by the Board of Landdrost and Heemraden: And whereas it will be expedient in regard to disputes and questions about water to bestow the jurisdiction and authority hereinafter mentioned upon the Resident Magistrates rather than upon the Civil Commissioners, the same being of a judicial nature: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that anything in the Royal Letters Patent granted by His late Majesty King William the Fourth, bearing date at Westminster, the 4th of May, in the second year of his reign, and commonly called the Charter of Justice, or in the Ordinance No. 33, bearing date the 19th of December, 1827, entitled "Ordinance for creating Resident Magistrates and Clerks of the Peace in certain districts and places in this Colony," or in any other Law or Ordinance heretofore in force in this Colony which shall be repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be repealed, and the same is hereby repealed accordingly.

Repeal of repugnant laws.

Power of boards of landdrost and heemraden in regard to water disputes vested in courts of resident magistrates.

2. And be it enacted that the respective Courts of Resident Magistrates shall possess and exercise in regard to all complaints and disputes arising within their respective districts relative to the wrongful diversion or appropriation of water or injury to or obstructions in watercourses the same powers, jurisdiction, and authority which the former Board of Landdrost and Heemraden of the same district or of any district which embraced the territory now constituting the district of the Resident Magistrate, together with other territory, possessed and exercised in like cases. Provided, always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to confer upon any Resident Magistrate the right or power to frame or enforce any new distribution of any stream or supply of water or to alter rights to water as subsisting at the time of the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance. But in regard to the vindication of all subsisting rights, whether arising from regulations duly made by any former Board of Landdrost and Heemraden or from contract, condition, prescription, or other legal source, or origin, the Resident Magistrate shall adjudge and determine in like manner as Landdrost and Heemraden might, if now in existence have lawfully adjudged and determined. Provided, however, that except in a case in which by some written record, act, or instrument preserved of record and having the force of law some greater sum is fixed by way of damages or penalty for the act complained of and proved before such Magistrate, such Magistrate, acting under the provisions of this Ordinance, shall not be authorised in any civil case to award any damages or in any criminal case to impose any fine exceeding the sums to which his general jurisdiction in civil and criminal cases respectively is limited.

Limit of damages.

3. And be it enacted that in adjudicating upon all such cases and questions as aforesaid the Resident Magistrate shall proceed according to the rules and regulations in force for the time being in regard to the Courts of Resident Magistrate, and every judgment or sentence of any such Magistrate shall be liable to be brought in appeal or review before the Supreme or any competent Circuit Court in manner and form as shall by such rules and regulations be in that behalf provided. And the said Supreme or Circuit Court may reverse or alter the judgment of the said Magistrate in such manner as justice shall require; and in case the record of the Resident Magistrate shall not appear to such Court to furnish sufficient evidence or information for the due determination of the case may remit the same to the Resident Magistrate with instructions in regard to the taking and setting out of further evidence or information; or such Supreme or Circuit Court may order the parties or either of them to produce at some convenient time in such Court such further proof as shall seem necessary or desirable; or such Court may take such other course as shall seem to tend to the most speedy and the least expensive settlement of the case.

4. And be it enacted that nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be deemed or taken to impair the rights of Her Majesty the Queen in regard to rivers, streams, or water courses, or to prevent her from regulating the same in any manner in which she might before the passing of this Ordinance lawfully have regulated the same by virtue of her Royal prerogative or any powers or authorities in that behalf expressly or by implication reserved to or vested in Her said Majesty.

Preamble

WHEREAS by the Ordinance No. 8, 1834, made and passed in this Colony on the 10th day of December, 1834, entitled "Ordinance to abolish the present Rates of Dues payable at the public Wharfs at Cape Town and Simon's Town and to substitute others in lieu thereof," certain Rates or Dues of wharfage and cranage were imposed upon goods, packages, and articles landed or shipped in Table Bay or Simon's Bay: And whereas by a certain other Ordinance made and passed in this Colony on the 14th day of December, 1846, and numbered 34, 1846, entitled "Ordinance for levying wharfage and other Dues in Cape Town, and for devoting them to the construction of a Harbour of Refuge in Table Bay, and for other purposes," certain rates or dues of wharfage and cranage upon all goods, articles, matters, and things landed or shipped in Table Bay were substituted in room and stead of the rates or dues imposed by the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 8, 1834: And whereas the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 34, 1846, having never received the confirmation of Her Majesty the Queen ceased at and after the expiration of three years next after the date thereof to be of any force or effect in law: And whereas upon the expiration of the said Ordinance No. 34, 1846, which repealed in regard to all goods, articles, matters, and things landed or shipped in Table Bay the Ordinance aforesaid No. 8, 1834, the said lastmentioned Ordinance revived: And whereas after the enactment but before the expiration of the said Ordinance No. 34, 1846, it became known to the then Governor of the Colony, the Right Honourable Sir Henry Pottinger, Baronet, G.C.B., &c., &c., &c., that the construction of a harbour of refuge in Table Bay as previously contemplated, and for the construction of which harbour of refuge other and for the most part higher dues of

Preamble.

WHEREAS an Ordinance was duly made and passed in this Colony on the 17th day of November, 1851, and numbered 5, 1851, entitled "Ordinance to regulate for one year the Dealing in Gunpowder and Firearms": And whereas by the twenty-seventh section of the said Ordinance it was enacted that the said Ordinance should commence from and after promulgation thereof, in manner and form as in the said section set forth, and should remain and continue in force for one year from the commencement thereof but with the provision nevertheless that it should be lawful for the Governor by proclamation in the Government Gazette to continue the said Ordinance in force for such further space or term not exceeding one year from and after the year aforesaid as the said Governor should deem necessary and determine. And whereas the said Ordinance was promulgated as aforesaid upon the 29th day of November, 1851, and thereupon took effect as law: And, whereas upon the 16th day of April, 1852, a certain other Ordinance, numbered 7, 1852, was duly made and passed in this Colony, entitled: "Ordinance to amend the Ordinance No. 5, 1851, entitled 'Ordinance to regulate for one year the Dealing in Gunpowder and Firearms,'" by which lastmentioned Ordinance all dealings in lead were placed under the like restrictions and alienations as those which by the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 5, 1851, had been and were provided in regard to firearms; And whereas the Governor of this Colony did, upon the 11th day of November, 1852, publish his proclamation bearing date the 8th day of the said month, whereby after reciting as therein is recited he did proclaim, declare, and make known that the said Ordinance No. 5, 1851, would continue and be of force for the space or term of one year, from and after the date upon or at which the said lastmentioned Ordinance would but for the said proclamation have expired and become of no effect: And whereas it is expedient to continue for a further limited term the said Ordinance No. 5, 1851, as amended by the said Ordinance No. 7, 1852, and with some other amendments: and whereas the end in view may be most conveniently and advantageously accomplished by repealing both the Ordinances aforesaid and by re-enacting in this Ordinance the several provisions of the Ordinances aforesaid with all necessary amendments: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, that from and after the commencement and taking effect of this Ordinance the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 5, 1851, and the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 7, 1852, shall be and the same are

ACT

For Better Securing in certain cases the Inheritances of Minors. <sup>(1)</sup>

Preamble.

WHEREAS, from ignorance, neglect, and other causes, it not unfrequently happens that the survivor of two spouses, who at the time of the death of the first dying of them, had children of their marriage, under age, not merely fails to settle for, or secure in proper time, and in the usual way, the inheritances accruing to such minor children out of the estate of their deceased parent, but proceeds to marry again, without settling for or securing such inheritances, whereby confusion and litigation are likely to be created, and such minors are exposed to the risk of injury and loss: And whereas, whilst it is the duty of the several Matrimonial Courts of the Colony, before which all persons about to be married by special licence are bound to appear, to ascertain, in the case of widowers and widows, having minor children of a former marriage, that the inheritances which have devolved upon such minors have been settled for or secured, no provision exists of the same nature or with the same object in regard to surviving spouses who are minded to marry not by special licence, but by banns: And whereas, it is expedient to make such provision: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

1. As often as any widower or widow, <sup>(1)</sup> being the parent of any minor child, entitled to claim from such widower or widow any inheritance out of the estate of his or her deceased spouse, shall be minded to contract another marriage, and to that end shall be desirous to have the banns of such intended marriage published by any minister of religion or marriage officer in this Colony, such widower or widow, or his or her agent, shall obtain and deliver to the Resident Magistrate of the district in which such banns are intended to be published, a certificate, signed by the Master of the Supreme Court, certifying that the amount of inheritance due to such minor child as aforesaid, from and out of the estate of his or her deceased parent, has been paid into the Guardians Fund, or otherwise, a certificate from the Registrar of Deeds, certifying that the customary bond or obligation, commonly called a “kinderbewys,” is registered in the debt registry, for securing the amount of such inheritance: Provided that should it be necessary to publish the banns of any such marriage in more districts than one, then one such certificate as aforesaid shall be delivered to the Resident Magistrate of each district; or otherwise one such certificate shall be delivered to one of the said Magistrates, and a copy thereof, certified by such Magistrate to be correct, shall be delivered to the other Magistrate: And provided, also, that the said Master and the said Registrar shall, upon request, grant such certificates as aforesaid, without fee or charge. <sup>(2)</sup>

A widower or widow shall, prior to re-marriage pay to the Master of the Supreme Court the inheritance due to their minor children, or secure such inheritance by a deed of “kinderbewys.”

2. The Resident Magistrate, upon receiving such a certificate or attested copy of certificate as aforesaid, shall deliver to the party delivering the same to him a certificate signed by him, certifying that it has been made to appear to him, that no reason exists, arising out of unsecured inheritances of minor children, why the banns of marriage of the widower or widow who shall be named in such certificate shall not be published.

Magistrate's certificate.

3. In any case in which any widower or widow, having any minor child who is alleged not to be by law entitled to any inheritance from or out of the estate of his or her deceased parent, shall be minded to contract another marriage, such widower or widow shall apply to the Resident Magistrate of the district in which banns are desired or required to be published, for a certificate, of the like tenor as that in the last preceding section mentioned:

In case of doubt or question as to minor's title to inheritance.

No. 12—1856.

Provided that in any such case, involving matter of law, which the said Magistrate shall decline to take upon him to determine without legal advice, he shall require the party applying for such certificate to state, under the inspection and subject to the correction of such Magistrate, a case for the written opinion of the Attorney-General of the Colony, and to obtain such opinion for the information of such Magistrate, who shall grant his certificate as aforesaid, in case the said Attorney-General shall be of opinion that the minor child or children in question are not, by law, entitled to any inheritance from or out of the estate of its or their deceased parent; but who shall withhold such certificate in case the said Attorney-General shall not give such an opinion as aforesaid, as also in case no opinion of the said Attorney-General shall be produced: Provided, further, that when any such banns as in this section mentioned are desired or required to be published in each of two districts, a certificate from each Resident Magistrate shall be necessary; and provided, also, that it shall be lawful for any such Magistrate to grant his certificate, although he shall not have received the certain other certificate in the first section mentioned,—in case it shall be made to appear to him by the party applying for his certificate that the value of the joint estate in question in such case was under one hundred pounds sterling.

If magistrate refuse certificate, application to judge in chambers.

4. In any case under this Act in which the Resident Magistrate shall see cause to withhold his certificate aforesaid, it shall be lawful for the person who shall have applied for such certificate to apply to a Judge of the Supreme Court, in Chambers, for an order upon such Magistrate, to grant such certificate, and thereupon it shall be lawful for such Judge, in the most summary and least expensive manner, to inquire into the case, and after inspecting such documents, and calling for such proofs, as to him shall seem needful, to grant or refuse such order, as to him shall seem expedient: Provided that in no case shall the costs of making any such order be awarded against the Magistrate, unless the necessity for such order shall have arisen from his wilful neglect or default.

Certificate has no legal force except as authorising publication of banns.

5. No such certificate as aforesaid, whether made upon a Judge's order or not, shall be of any force or effect in law, except simply to authorise the publication of banns of marriage; and all matters and things regarding the rights, inheritances, estates, or interests of minors, and of all others, shall be judged of, after the granting of such certificate, precisely as if the same never had been granted.

Banns not to be published until such certificate is produced.

6. (1) No minister of religion or marriage officer shall publish the banns of any person whom he shall know to be a widower or widow, having a minor child or children of a former marriage, until there shall be delivered to him such a certificate as aforesaid, signed by the Resident Magistrate of the district in which such

12. All contracts of service stipulating for the services of the wife of any servant, together with those of her husband, shall be made or executed by her in like manner as the same shall be made and executed by her said husband: And it shall be lawful for

12. When any female servant or apprentice shall be lawfully married during the currency of her stipulated term of service, her husband may at any time subsequent to such marriage dissolve the contract of service or apprenticeship, and remove his wife from her master's service, if he shall think fit so to do, and shall be entitled to claim the wages and other remuneration which may have become due to her, for services previously to such removal, but shall be liable to her master for all damage which her master may sustain by such removal. ## CHAPTER V.

Of the Jurisdiction of the Resident Magistrates in cases between Masters and Servants and Apprentices.

Jurisdiction of resident magistrates in cases between masters and their servants and apprentices.

1. The Resident Magistrates within the Colony have jurisdiction in all cases arising in their respective districts between masters and their servants and apprentices, and with reference to their relative rights and duties, or to any matter or thing, or offence, as to which provision is made by this bill.

Resident magistrates have jurisdiction over all persons within their respective districts.

2. Every Resident Magistrate has jurisdiction in any such case as aforesaid, brought before him against any person being at the time within his district, whether the grounds of such case arose within the district or not, or whether the person against whom the case is brought has his usual residence or place of abode in that district or not; but the Magistrate shall, whenever it shall appear to him that any such case can be more conveniently tried or determined by the Resident Magistrate of any other district, dismiss such case, and, in the event of his doing so, when the servant or apprentice is accused of desertion, and when he shall have probable cause shown to him, by oath or affidavit, of any credible person, for believing this to be the fact, such Magistrate may, if he think fit, issue a warrant for the conveyance, under sure custody, of such servant or apprentice to the town or place where the Court of such other Magistrate is held; Provided the master shall undertake to pay the expense of such conveyance, and the Magistrate by whom the cause shall be ultimately tried and decided shall adjudge by which of the parties the said expenses shall be paid.

3. [§§ 3-9 repealed by § 21, Act 18 of 1873.]

10. If any servant or apprentice, whose contract of service or apprenticeship still subsists, shall, upon being discharged from prison after undergoing imprisonment under this Act, refuse or neglect, upon his master's request, to resume his service under his contract, he shall be liable to be imprisoned with or without hard labour for any period not exceeding one month, and so on for successive periods, not any of them exceeding one month, until he shall consent to resume, and shall resume, his service under his contract; and every such period of imprisonment, or so much thereof as the convicting Magistrate shall adjudge, may be with solitary confinement with or without spare diet, or with spare diet with or without solitary confinement: Provided, however, that no servant or apprentice shall, under this Act be imprisoned continuously, and without any intermediate resumption of service, under his contract, for longer than six months in all.

Definition of punishment for servant refusing to resume his service after undergoing imprisonment.

11. When any period of imprisonment shall be undergone by any servant or apprentice for any offence under this Act, a like period shall be added to the term of service stipulated for in the contract of service or apprenticeship, as it subsisted when such imprisonment was commenced, so that such servant or apprentice shall be obliged to serve a further period equal to the period of his imprisonment, in addition to the term of service originally stipulated.

Period of imprisonment of servant to be added to the term of service stipulated in the contract.

12. When the offence of which any servant or apprentice shall be convicted under this Act, shall be the offence of absenting himself from, or of departing from, the service of his master, then the period of his absence shall be added to the term of service originally stipulated, in like manner as in the last preceding section directed in regard to the period of imprisonment therein mentioned; and it shall be the duty of the Magistrate convicting such servant or apprentice, to ascertain, at the trial, the period of absence, and to certify the same by some writing under his hand, to be delivered to the master, and the period mentioned in such writing shall, by all Courts and in all places, be deemed to be added to the original term of service.

Period during which any servant shall have absented himself from the service of his master to be added to the term of service originally stipulated.

13. As often as any property of the master shall be lost or damaged by means of any act or omission of his servant or apprentice, which act or omission is by this Act declared to be an offence, it shall be lawful for the Magistrate, should he so think fit, and the master shall thereto agree, to ascertain whether such servant or apprentice is able to make compensation for such loss or damage, and if so, to fix the amount of such compensation, and make such order as to the payment thereof, either at once or by instalments out of wages to be yet earned, or otherwise, as shall seem reasonable and just, and in the meantime, and until default made in such payment, or in the payment of such some instalment, to defer passing sentence upon the party offending; but such Magistrate shall preserve on record the evidence in the case, and, upon application of the master, and proof given, upon oath, of some such default as aforesaid, shall issue his warrant for the apprehension of such servant or apprentice, and shall pronounce upon him such sentence as, regard being had to the circumstances of the original offence, and to the degree in which such servant or apprentice has made, or failed to make, the compensation ordered, shall appear equitable and just.

Cancellation of contract for misconduct of servant.

14. As often as the master of any servant or apprentice, who shall be convicted of any offence under this Act, shall desire the cancellation of the contract of service or apprenticeship, the Magistrate, should he so think fit, may order the cancellation of the same, and the same shall be cancelled accordingly; Provided that such cancellation shall not prevent the execution of any sentence which the Magistrate may pronounce or may have pronounced upon the offender for his offence.

Cancellation of contract on groundless accusation by the master.

15. As often as the master shall have caused any servant or apprentice to be brought before the Magistrate to answer any charge preferred against him by such master, and such master shall fail in obtaining the conviction of such servant or apprentice, then the Magistrate, should he so think fit, may, at the desire of such servant or apprentice, order the cancellation of the contract of service or apprenticeship, and the same shall be cancelled accordingly.

B., of &c., the damage which the said A. B. complains that he has sustained, by reason that the said C. D., on or about, &c., broke down the fence, &c., of the said A. B., as the case may be—(following the statement in the plaint); and serve on the said C. D. a copy of this summons (and, where the action is founded on any document a copy of the said promissory note or other document, &c.;— or, and a copy of the account or bill of the said A. B., where the demand is upon account or bill), and return you on that day to the said Court what you have done on this summons.

Graham's Town, the 1st May, 185 .

J. M., Clerk of the Court of the Resident
Magistrate of the district of Albany.

9. Where the party, against whom any summons or other process of the said Court is issued, resides at such a distance from the place where the said Court is holden, or where, from the number of such summonses or other process, the said messenger cannot possibly serve or execute the same, the said summonses or other process may be served or executed by his sufficient deputy, to be first approved of as such by the Resident Magistrate, who shall be paid by the said messenger, and for whom he shall be responsible.

10. A copy of the said summons, together with copies of any documents, account, or bill, upon which the said complaint or demand is founded, shall be delivered to the messenger with the said summons, and shall be served, either personally on the said defendant, or left for him at his dwelling-house, with some one of his household, (1) at least forty-eight hours before the time therein specified for his appearance, where the party summoned lives within five miles of the place of holding the said Court; three days, where the said party lives at a greater distance than five miles, and not exceeding ten miles, and so on, one day in addition to forty-eight hours for every ten miles of distance at which the party summoned lives from the place of holding the said Court. But no case shall be dismissed for or on account of the omission to deliver the copy of any such document, account, or bill as aforesaid in case it shall appear to the Court that such omission has not, in fact and in truth, prejudiced the defendant in respect of his defence.

No. 20—1856.

11. If two or more persons, jointly sued, are partners in trade, the like service upon either of them shall be sufficient.

12. The messenger of the said Court shall endorse or annex to the summons the manner of his executing the same, and shall return the said summons to the clerk of the said Court.

13. It shall be permitted to any plaintiff or defendant in the said Court to appear and conduct his case by means of any person authorised by writing under his hand, to be filed with the clerk of the said Court; and when it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of such Court that, by reason of the absence from home of any defendant, such written authority could not be obtained, then it shall be permitted to any one of his family, or any one having a general authority to manage his affairs in his absence, and willing to conduct the said case to appear for the defendant and conduct the same. But nothing shall, in the taxation of costs against either party, be allowed for the attendance or services of any person, not being enrolled in such Court to practise as an agent therein, nor an Attorney of the Supreme or Circuit Court, and not being an advocate of the Supreme Court of the Colony, instructed by such agent or attorney. And every such Court of Resident Magistrate, upon being satisfied that any person who appears to have a right of action is, from poverty, unable to sue out the process of such Court, may order all such process to issue without fee or charge. Provided, always, that such person, should he recover and receive sufficient from the other party, shall be liable to pay and make good all fees and charges so remitted.

14. On the Court day appointed for appearance of the parties, unless the said summons shall have been withdrawn, the clerk of the said Court shall cause the said parties, plaintiff and defendant, to be called; and if they, or any one duly authorised on their behalf, appear, he shall record the same, and the Court shall proceed to inquire of and determine the said complaint or demand; and the said clerk shall read over the plaint, and ask the defendant, or his agent, whether he will confess or deny the same; or where the complaint of the plaintiff is in respect of any sum of money alleged to be due to him, if he will make any like counter claim against the plaintiff; and the said clerk shall record his answer in the proper column of the record book.

15. If the defendant deny the said complaint or demand, or make claim of any sum of money as due to him by the said plaintiff, the said plaintiff, or some one on his part, shall forthwith produce and exhibit to the Court any writings or documents whereon his complaint or demand may be founded, and shall also produce any witnesses he may require to have examined in support of the same.

16. The process of the said Court, for compelling the attendance of any person to give evidence therein, shall be by summons issued by the clerk of the said Court, and directed to the messenger thereof; and shall be served and returned by him, in the same manner as any other summons of the said Court; and the said summons may be sued out by either party requiring the attendance of any witness, and shall be, as near as is material, in the form following: that is to say,—

Court of Resident Magistrate of the District of Albany.

Messenger of the Court,

Summon A. B., of &c., C. D., of &c., and E. F., of &c., that, laying aside all and singular business and excuses, they and each of them appear in person before this Court, at Graham's Town, on the day of next, at of the clock in the forenoon, to testify and declare all and singular those things which they, or any of them, know in a certain case, now depending in the said Court, between I. K., plaintiff, and N. O., defendant; and that they, or either of them, by no means omit so to do at their peril. Serve on each of them, the said A. B., &c., a copy of this summons, and pay to the said A. B. the sum of , to the said C. D. the sum of , and to the said E. F. the sum of , for their travelling expenses, respectively,—and return to the said Court what you have done thereupon.

J. M., Clerk of the said Court.

Graham's Town, 1st May, 185 .

17. If any witness have in his possession or control any deed, instrument, or writing which the party requiring his attendance is desirous to show in evidence, then the said summons shall be in the form following, namely—(as in the former case, to the day of hearing, and then proceed as follows),—“And also that they bring with them, and produce at the time and place aforesaid, a certain deed or instrument in writing, bearing date, &c., (describing very accurately the thing to be produced), and then and there to testify and declare, &c.” (as before).

18. There shall be delivered to the said messenger, together with the said summons, so many copies thereof as there are witnesses to be summoned, and also such sum or sums of money, as the party for whom they are to be summoned intends that the said messenger shall pay or offer to the said witnesses respectively for their travelling expenses; and if any person, being duly summoned to give evidence, and his reasonable expenses being paid or offered to be paid to him, and having no sufficient excuse, shall neglect or refuse to attend or give evidence according to said summons, then the said Court shall impose upon the said person a fine for his default, not exceeding five pounds sterling; and for non-payment shall commit such person to the gaol of the said district for any time not exceeding fourteen days. Provided that as often as any person duly summoned shall fail to appear, it shall be lawful for the Resident Magistrate, in case no lawful cause for such non-appearance shall seem to him to exist, to issue his warrant for the apprehension of the party making default, in order that he may be brought up to give his evidence, and to be otherwise dealt with according to law.

19. If it shall appear to the said Court, upon oath, that any person, who is a material witness for either party to any cause, having been duly summoned, doth not attend at the hearing thereof, then the Resident Magistrate shall, at his discretion, either postpone the hearing of the said case to another day, then to be appointed by him, or else shall take the examination of such witnesses as appear, and suspend the further hearing of the said case to another day; which postponement or suspension, and the cause thereof, and the day appointed for the further hearing, the said clerk shall note in the column of the said record book entitled "day of hearing the case."

20. All persons examined or giving evidence in the said Court shall be examined orally and apart, and in open Court; and shall be sworn by the Resident Magistrate, according to the form of the religion they respectively profess, "to tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth"; but all persons entitled by law to affirm, instead of taking an oath, may so affirm. Nothing herein contained shall extend to or affect the provisions of the sixth section of Ordinance No. 14, 1846. <sup>(1)</sup>

21. Whenever it shall appear necessary to the Resident Magistrate, before administering an oath, to examine the person touching his knowledge of the obligation thereof, he shall not merely ask such person generally, whether he understands the nature of the oath, but shall, after explaining to the said person that he is about to administer to him such oath, and the terms thereof,—further ask him:

1st. Whether he believes it to be wicked not to speak the truth?

2ndly. Whether he understands that the taking of such oath is calling upon God to witness that he does speak the truth?

3rdly. Whether he believes that God will hereafter punish any one who, upon oath, does not speak the truth?

4thly. Whether he considers the oath about to be administered to him binding upon him to speak the truth, and the whole truth?

22. The said Court may, at its discretion, and for the information of the said Court, examine the parties upon oath, or either or any of them. <sup>(2)</sup>

23. Where in the course of any case, it may be necessary for either party to produce and show to the Court any record, entry, or document of the said Court, it shall not be required of the said party to produce any office copy of such record, entry, or document; but the clerk of the said Court shall, at his request, produce and show, or refer to, the original.

24. In every civil case, the clerk of the Court shall take down the evidence and proceedings in writing, and shall also note any objections made by either party to any evidence received or to any evidence or any document tendered by either party to the Court.

25. The case on the part of the plaintiff having been heard, the defendant, or some one on his part, shall in like manner produce any writing or documents he may desire to have read to the Court, and any witness to be examined in support of his answer or denial: and the plaintiff shall be heard in reply thereto.

26. All judgments and sentences of the said Court shall be given in open Court, and shall be recorded by the clerk in the proper column of the said book.

27. Where any judgment shall be upon any debt, payable with interest thereon, the said interest shall be given up to the day of suing out the process of the Court for the execution thereof.

28. If neither the defendant, nor any one admitted for him, appear on the Court day appointed for that purpose, then the said Court, upon the request of the said plaintiff, and being satisfied by the return of the messenger of the said Court, endorsed upon the said summons, that the same hath been duly served, shall proceed to hear the said plaintiff and his witnesses, and cause the evidence to be taken down in writing, and shall give judgment thereon against the said defendant, in the full sum due by him or awarded against him by the Court; but the said judgment shall be only provisional in its nature, and no execution shall issue upon it until the plaintiff, together with some one as his surety, to be approved of by the said Court, shall give security for full restitution of the amount to be levied and raised under such judgment, should the same be reversed; and the form of such security shall be the same as that set forth in the thirty-fourth of these rules and regulations, save and except that the words "notwithstanding the said C. D. has noted an appeal against the same," shall be omitted in the body of the said form, and the word "cause" shall be substituted for the word "appeal" in the end thereof.

29. The defendant may, at any time within one month<sup>(1)</sup> after the levy made under any writ of execution issued by virtue of any such provisional judgment, take out a summons of the said Court, calling upon the plaintiff in the original action to show cause why the judgment obtained by him should not be reversed. And if it shall be made to appear to the said Court, by oath, that the defendant was absent from his home at the time when the summons of the said Court was served, and that he did not receive the same a sufficient time before the day of the return thereof to be able to obey the same, and that he did not absent himself from home for the purpose of avoiding the service of the said summons, or that, having been duly summoned, he was by just and reasonable cause prevented from attending the Court in pursuance of the said summons,—then the said Court shall order the said judgment to be opened, and shall permit the defendant to answer the said complaint or demand,—upon the terms, nevertheless, of payment of the costs incurred by his default, and that the evidence before given by the said plaintiff shall, on the re-hearing of the case, be read from the evidence and proceedings taken down by the clerk of the said Court, the said plaintiff being at liberty to bring further evidence, if he think fit; and upon the said re-hearing, the case, except as aforesaid, shall proceed as if the defendant had appeared on the original summons.

30. If the defendant, or some one duly authorised on his behalf, do not, within one month<sup>(1)</sup> next after such levy, as aforesaid, take out such a summons as aforesaid, the provisional judgment shall become final,—and the security aforesaid shall become, ipso facto, null and void. But if, upon the hearing of any such summons, the judgment therein mentioned shall be reversed or set aside, then the defendant shall be entitled, without any cession, to sue upon the said security, for the recovery of the sums therein mentioned, less the costs incurred by his default.

<sup>1</sup> Printed as amended by § 5, Act 9, 1857.

No. 20—1856.

31. If any person summoned to appear on any day to answer any complaint or demand, shall appear according to the said summons, and the party complaining shall make default, the Court shall adjudge the said plaint to be dismissed; or if he appear, and the judgment of the Court be for the defendant, the said Court shall adjudge to the said defendant his costs, to be taxed by the clerk of the said Court, in like manner as for the party complaining; and the said defendant shall be entitled to the like process of execution for the same. <sup>(1)</sup>

32. After judgment of the Court against the party complaining, for default of appearance, the same may, upon payment of costs, be admitted to commence a new action for the same cause, and the Court may, in any case, when it shall see fit, absolve the defendant from that instance, instead of giving judgment in his favour, in which case the plaintiff, upon the payment of the costs awarded against him, may commence a new action for the same cause. But the judgment of the said Court, given in favour of the defendant, when pronounced after the hearing of the cause, is a perpetual bar to any other suit or action for the same cause.

33. Any party against whom any final judgment or sentence of the said Court has been given in any civil case (and an absolution from the instance shall be deemed to be such a final judgment or sentence), if he intend to appeal therefrom to any superior Court, shall, on the next Court day, make known his intention to the clerk of the said Court, who shall note his appeal, with the date thereof, in the proper column of the record book,—and the party appealing shall then deposit and lodge with the clerk of the said Court the sum of one pound seventeen shillings and sixpence, as security for the costs of conducting the said appeal, and the said clerk shall make a note of the said deposit, in the last column of the record book, immediately after the note of the said appeal; and thereupon the said appeal shall be allowed, but not otherwise. And any person abandoning his appeal within fourteen days next after he shall have noted the same, shall be entitled to receive back the said sum of one pound seventeen shillings and sixpence provided he have taken no proceedings in the appeal, save the noting thereof.

34. In any case where an appeal may have been duly noted, and the proper security for costs given, the said Court may direct that the judgment or sentence appealed from shall be carried into execution,—or that the execution thereof shall be suspended, pending the said appeal, as to the said Court may appear most consistent with justice:—and in every case where the said Court shall direct such judgment or sentence to be carried into execution, the party in whose favour the same shall have been given shall, before the execution thereof, enter into security, together with some one as his surety, to be approved of by the said Court, for full restitution of the amount to be levied and raised under such judgment, should the same be reversed, as also for the due execution of any such further judgment, order, or decree as shall be afterwards pronounced upon or in respect of the said appeal.

And the said security shall be, as near as may be, in the form following:

AN ACT

For enabling Municipalities to obtain additional Police, by contributing towards the Expense thereof. (1)

WHEREAS, in certain of the municipalities of this Colony, the want of an adequate and efficient body of police, for the prevention of crime and the preservation of peace and order, has for some time been seriously felt by the inhabitants; and whereas, whilst the expense of some policemen at each of the several seats of magistracy to be employed in the execution of criminal warrants, the safe keeping of offenders, and the conduct of the criminal business of the Courts held in and for the several districts of this Colony, may fitly and properly be borne by the public revenue, it will be necessary that the inhabitants of such municipalities as may desire the advantage of a body of police, sufficiently numerous to patrol their streets, prevent drunkenness and disorder, and perform other duties of a like nature, within the municipal limits, should contribute towards the expense of such police: And whereas, from the claims upon the public revenue which the inhabitants of municipalities regarded as contributors thereto, must be considered as possessing, it would not be just to require such municipalities to contribute towards the expense of such additional police more than one-half of the cost and charge thereof, leaving the other half of such cost and charge to be borne by the public revenue: And whereas there is reason to believe that certain municipalities would be desirous to obtain a more efficient police force, upon the terms just referred to: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Preamble.

1. It shall be lawful for the municipal commissioners of any municipality, acting in pursuance of the vote or decision of a meeting of the resident householders thereof, to communicate to the Resident Magistrate of the district that such municipality is desirous of availing itself of the provisions of this Act: Provided that no such meeting shall be held unless upon a notice, setting forth the object of such meeting, and published, in whatever manner shall be by law directed in regard to the meetings of resident householders in such municipality, for not less than twenty-one days.

Municipal commissioners, acting upon a decision of a meeting of householders, may intimate to the magistrate, their desire to co-operate for the purposes of this Act.

Such meeting to be called in due form.

2. Every Resident Magistrate, receiving any such communication as aforesaid, shall, by conference or correspondence with the municipal commissioners, ascertain what number of policemen, in addition to the police force for the time being, such commissioners desire; and such Magistrate shall, in conjunction with the said commissioners, frame a detailed estimate of the probable cost, per year, of such additional policemen: Provided that, thereafter the police force, for the time being, to be maintained exclusively from and out of the public revenue, in the district of which such seat of magistracy is, or shall be, a municipality, shall be the number set forth as regards such seats of magistracy in the schedule annexed to this Act,—leaving all additional policemen to be provided for under this Act.

Magistrate to ascertain the number and probable cost of the additional police required.

No. 15—1857.

Number and cost of such police to be reported to the Governor.

3. As soon as the number and the estimated cost of such additional policemen shall have been agreed upon, between the Resident Magistrate and the municipal commissioners, the Resident Magistrate aforesaid shall report the particulars, for the consideration and approval of the Governor of the Colony, who may, in case the number or cost shall appear to him to be unnecessarily large, communicate, through the said Magistrate, with the municipal commissioners, for the purpose of agreeing upon some smaller number or reduced cost.

Approved by Governor.

4. As often as the Governor aforesaid shall approve of the number and cost of additional policemen as originally submitted, or as subsequently reduced, he shall signify such approval to the Resident Magistrate, who shall, in writing, communicate the same to the municipal commissioners.

Municipal commissioners may call a meeting of householders to assess a police rate.

5. It shall be the duty of any municipal commissioners to whom any such approval as in the last preceding section shall have been communicated, should they not already have been placed in possession of funds applicable to, and sufficient for, defraying one-half of the cost of such additional policemen for a period of not less than one year, to call, upon a notice of not less than fourteen days, a meeting of resident householders, for the purpose of assessing a police rate, for defraying one-half of the cost of the said policemen, and such rate shall be regarded as a rate duly assessed by virtue of the Ordinance or Law under which such municipality shall have been established: Provided that at such meeting as aforesaid a police rate may be assessed for one year only, or successive annual police rates may be then assessed for any number of years not exceeding three: And provided that meetings of resident householders shall and may be called, in manner aforesaid, for the purpose of assessing the necessary police rate, so long as such municipality shall continue to avail itself of the provisions of this Act.

Rate assessed to be for one year, or annually for not exceeding three years.

When half the estimated cost for one year has been paid, the magistrate to appoint the additional police.

6. When and as soon as the municipal commissioners aforesaid shall have paid to the Civil Commissioner of the division, acting for and on behalf of the Colonial Treasury, one-half of the estimated cost of such additional policemen for one year, the Resident Magistrate of the district shall, with all convenient speed, nominate and appoint the additional policemen agreed to by the municipal commissioners and approved of by the Governor.

Duties of additional police.

7. Such additional policemen shall be deemed and taken to be appointed under the Ordinance No. 25 of 1847, entitled "An

No. 15—1857.

Ordinance for Improving the Police of the Colony," and shall possess all the powers and perform all the duties belonging to the members of the police force in the said Ordinance mentioned: Provided, however, that the stated and ordinary duties of a number of the police force of the district, not less than the number of such additional policemen, shall be confined within the limits of the municipality which shall have desired to have such additional policemen: Provided, however, that every member of the police force aforesaid, whether his stated and ordinary duties be confined within the municipal limits or not, may proceed and act beyond the said limits when engaged in the pursuit of an offender flying from justice, or when the exigency of some particular occasion shall induce the Resident Magistrate, or, in his absence, the chief constable, to order one or more of the members of the said police force to repair to and perform duty at some place other than the said municipality within the said district of such Magistrate.

Proportion of ordinary police to be retained for duty within the municipality.

8. (1) A true and correct account shall be kept of the cost, in each respective district, of the additional policemen desired by, and employed in, any municipality within such district; and a copy of such account, or an abstract thereof, shall be furnished to the municipal commissioners of such municipality, at the expiration of one year from the date of the payment, to the Civil Commissioner, in the sixth section mentioned; and so on, from year to year, as long as such municipality shall continue to avail itself of the provisions of this Act, and shall pay to the Civil Commissioner of the division, from year to year, in advance, one-half of the estimated annual cost of the additional policemen.

Civil commissioner to furnish an annual account of the expense of such additional police to commissioners of municipality, who will pay one-half in advance.

9. Should the actual expenditure in any year have fallen short of the estimated expenditure, so that the sum paid in as aforesaid exceeds, in amount, one-half of such actual expenditure, the excess shall be repaid by the Colonial Government to the municipality; and vice versa, should the actual expenditure have exceeded the estimated expenditure, the municipality shall make good to the Colonial Government one-half of such actual expenditure.

If the actual expenditure falls short of the estimate, difference to be restored to municipality, and vice versa.

10. Should any municipality, which shall have availed itself of the provisions of this Act, become afterwards desirous to cease to do so, it shall be necessary for the municipal commissioners of such municipality to give to the Colonial Government, through the Resident Magistrate of the district, not less than three months before the expiration of the year for which such municipality shall have made its latest payment, under this Act, notice, in writing, that, at and after the expiration of the current year, the said municipality will cease to avail itself of the provisions of this Act: and, thereupon, steps shall be taken to dismiss, at the expiration of the said year all additional policemen, or a number of the police force for the time being, equal to the number of additional policemen.

Municipality to give three months' notice before ceasing to avail itself of this Act.

No. 15 --1857.

If municipality neglect to give such notice, police to be continued for three months at its expense.

11. Should any municipality neglect to give such notice as aforesaid, then it shall be lawful for the Colonial Government to continue in employment such additional policemen as aforesaid, until the expiration of three months from the last day of that month, on any day of which month notice shall be given by such municipality to the Resident Magistrate aforesaid, that such municipality desires to cease to avail itself of the provisions of this Act, and one-half of the cost of all additional policemen employed by desire of such municipality, down to the expiration of such three months, shall be payable by such municipality to the Colonial Government, and may be recovered by the Colonial Government from the municipal commissioners for the time being by action in any competent Court.

Municipality may add to or reduce the additional police.

12. It shall be lawful for any municipality which shall have desired and received, in manner aforesaid, any particular number of additional policemen, afterwards to add to or reduce that number, as circumstances may require, and thereupon the provisions of this Act shall apply to such altered number : Provided that the number of additional policemen for the time being shall not be altered, except in pursuance of the vote or decision of a meeting of resident householders, called upon a notice similar to that in the first section of this Act mentioned : Provided, further, that as often as the number of additional policemen for the time being shall be increased, one-half of the estimated cost of such increase shall be paid by the municipality to the Civil Commissioner before such increased number shall be employed : And provided, also, that as often as the number of additional policemen shall be reduced, the provisions of the ninth and tenth sections of this Act shall apply to the number of policemen proposed to be reduced, precisely as if the number proposed to be reduced were the whole number of additional policemen for the time being, and as if such municipality were desirous to cease altogether to avail itself of the provisions of this Act.

Moiety of expense to be paid before any addition takes place.

Sections 9 and 10 to apply in respect of policemen proposed to be reduced.

Act to apply to all municipalities except Cape Town.

13. The provisions of this Act shall apply to all the municipalities within this Colony for the time being, except the municipality of Cape Town.

WHEREAS, in some instances, persons visiting the territories lying beyond the land boundaries of this Colony have there procured, and have thence brought into the Colony, to be made servants of, children of tender age, belonging to Native tribes resident in the territories aforesaid: And whereas there is reason to believe that if the practice of procuring such children were suffered to grow up, evil consequences may arise therefrom: And whereas the existing laws of the Colony do not sufficiently provide against the introduction of such children, under such circumstances: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope,

Preamble

No 22—1857.

with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows :—

Any person contravening this section of this Act shall, upon conviction, be liable, for and in respect of every child so brought into this Colony, to a fine not exceeding twenty pounds, together with, and in addition to, the sum of one shilling per day for every day during which any such child shall have been harboured or kept by such person within this Colony :

Except by the parent of the child; or by persons delivering the same to a resident magistrate within fourteen days

Provided that nothing in this section contained shall extend to any parent of any such child as aforesaid, lawfully entering this Colony, and bringing such child into the same, nor to any person whomsoever bringing into the Colony any such child as aforesaid, who shall deliver over such child to any Resident Magistrate of the Colony within the space of fourteen days next after the day upon which such child shall have been brought into the Colony :

Provided, also, that nothing herein contained shall apply to any inhabitant of any territory beyond the land boundaries of this Colony, visiting this Colony for a temporary purpose, and bringing into this Colony any such child or children as aforesaid, in case such inhabitant shall produce and exhibit to some Resident Magistrate of this Colony, within one calendar month next after the date of his arrival in this Colony, a certificate in writing, signed by some Magistrate of the territory in which such inhabitant usually resides, certifying that the child or children brought into the Colony by such person is or are lawfully in the service of such person, and that the services of such child or children are required by such person during or upon his journey : Provided, also, that the Resident Magistrate to whom such certificate shall be produced or exhibited shall endorse thereon the date at which the same was so produced to him.

3. In every prosecution for a contravention of any of the sections of this Act, the Court in which prosecution shall be pending shall judge from the appearance of the child in question in such prosecution, and also, if needful, from the opinions, given under oath, of persons skilled in ascertaining the age of such children, and from any other evidence which may be adduced on the subject, whether the child referred to in such prosecution was, when brought into this Colony, or received, kept, or harboured therein (as the case may be), under the age of sixteen years or not.

For Punishing Emissaries from Kafirland and others, delivering, in this Colony, to Kafirs resident therein, Messages dangerous to the Public Peace.

Preamble.

WHEREAS many Kafirs have been, and now are, employed as servants in the frontier districts of this Colony: And whereas, owing to recent events in Kafirland, it is likely that the number of Kafirs who shall find employment in this Colony will be much increased: And whereas, from time to time, heretofore, Kafirs have come from Kafirland into this Colony, charged, or pretending to be charged, with messages from the chiefs of the Kafirs resident in this Colony, ordering such lastmentioned Kafirs to quit this Colony, and repair to Kafirland, there to aid or meet their chiefs: And whereas such messages, and the obedience ordinarily yielded to them, tend to create and keep up alarm and excitement throughout the frontier districts, aforesaid, and seriously to endanger the public peace: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:

Any person conveying or delivering a message to a Kafir within the colony, tending to entice him beyond the boundary, shall be imprisoned.

AN ACT

For Regulating Weights and Measures in the Colony of the Cape of Good Hope. <sup>(1)</sup>

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary for the security of commerce and the good of the community that weights and measures should be just and uniform and that true standards should exist, by means of which the accuracy of the weights and measures in public use may be tested and ascertained: And whereas in regard to certain of the weights and measures in general use in this Colony, no standard thereof exists, either in this Colony or in any other part of the world, and the same, or many of them, are inconsistent with each other, and obviously erroneous, which is the cause of great confusion and manifest frauds: And whereas such evils will be best remedied and the recurrence thereof will be best prevented by establishing in this Colony standard weights, in accordance with the standard pound weight now established in and for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland and the standard of certain of the measures now established in the said United Kingdom, commonly called the imperial weights and measures: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and the House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Previous laws repealed.

1. The Ordinance No. 13 of 1848, enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, entitled “An Ordinance for regulating Weights and Measures,” and bearing date the 11th day of July, 1848, and the Ordinance No. 1, 1849, enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council thereof, entitled “An Ordinance to postpone the time of the taking effect of the Ordinance No. 13 of 1848,” and all former laws, customs, or usages repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act shall be repealed and the same are hereby declared to be repealed accordingly.

Governor to procure copies of the standard weights and measures used in the United Kingdom.

2. It shall and may be lawful for the Governor of this Colony to procure as soon as may be after the taking effect of this Act a copy or model of the standard pound avoirdupois, of the standard yard, and of the standard gallon, as respectively defined in and for the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, by an Act of the Parliament thereof made in the fifth year of his late Majesty King George the Fourth, entitled “An Act for ascertaining and establishing Uniformity of Weights and Measures,” together with a copy or model of every multiple or sub-multiple of such standard pound specified in the schedule to this Act annexed, and also a copy or model of every multiple or sub-multiple of such standard yard and standard gallon, made and verified under the direction of the Lord High Treasurer or the Commissioners of the Treasury, or any three of them, and deposited in the office of the Chamberlains of the Exchequer at Westminster, as in the said Act of the Parliament of the United Kingdom provided: and all copies or models procured under this Act shall be made of such metal or materials as shall be best calculated to resist the action of the atmosphere and wear and tear.

No. 11 - 1858.

Such copies to be made of most durable materials.

3. It shall and may also be lawful for the said Governor to cause to be made of such metal or material as shall be deemed best fitted for the purpose, a measure of capacity for standard or model bushel, to contain or consist of two thousand two hundred and eighteen cubic inches, and one hundred and ninety-one thousandth parts of a cubic inch, equal to eight imperial gallons.

4. The several copies and models aforesaid, so procured or caused to be made as aforesaid, shall be deposited and carefully preserved, for custody and inspection, in the office of the Treasurer-General of this Colony, or of such other officer as the said Governor may appoint, and be kept by him in a chest, whereto there shall be two locks, with separate and distinct keys, whereof one shall remain with the Governor, and the other with the Treasurer-General, or such other officer as aforesaid; and such copies and models shall be, and the same are hereby declared to be, the original and genuine standards, in and for this Colony, of all weights and measures by this Act established and made necessary. And the said Treasurer General, or other officer as aforesaid, shall, with the permission of the Governor, upon reasonable notice, and at all reasonable times, produce or cause to be produced, for inspection, or for testing the correctness of any measure of weight, extension, or capacity, such one or more of the said copies or models as any Resident Magistrate shall, in writing, desire him to produce.

Copies or models to be deposited with the Treasurer-General or other officer; and to be standards for this Colony.

And may be produced for inspection, &amp;c.

5. If any copy, model, or standard, for the time being, so deposited as aforesaid, shall be lost or destroyed, or if the same shall be injured, or supposed or suspected so to be, it shall and may be lawful for the Governor aforesaid to procure and substitute a fresh copy, model, or standard, in place and stead thereof; and, thereupon, such fresh copy, model, or standard shall be deemed and taken to be the same standard of weight or measure (as the case may be) which the copy, model, or standard that it replaced would have been deemed and taken to have been, had the same been duly preserved and none other substituted for it.

Such copies or models, if lost or injured, to be replaced.

6. (1) It shall and may be lawful for the Governor aforesaid to provide, from time to time, such and so many sets of standard

Such standards need not be of the same material as the original copies.

Resident magistrates shall, upon notice, and payment of fee, produce standard for inspection or comparison.

7. Every Resident Magistrate, or other person entrusted with the preservation of the said copies or models in the sixth section of this Act mentioned, shall, upon reasonable notice, and at all reasonable times, cause such of them to be produced for inspection, or for testing the correctness of any measure of weight, extension, or capacity, as any person shall, in writing, request him to produce for that purpose; such person paying, in respect of every such copy or model produced, the sum of sixpence, which shall be paid over by such Resident Magistrate or other person into the Colonial Treasury.

AN ACT

To Regulate the respective Rights of certain Divisions, in regard to certain Road Rates.

WHEREAS, by the Act No. 12, 1857, entitled “An Act for constituting certain Districts of this Colony Divisions,” and by a certain other Act made and passed in this present session of Parliament, entitled “An Act for constituting the Districts of Frazerburg, Murraysburg, Humansdorp, and Robertson, Divisions,”<sup>(1)</sup> the several districts in the said Acts mentioned have been constituted divisions: And whereas it is expedient to regulate the respective rights in regard to certain road rates of such last mentioned divisions, and of the older or former divisions, from or out of which such recently-constituted divisions shall have been formed: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Preamble.

1. In case any road rates shall have been or shall be assessed by the Divisional Council of any division, from or out of which division the whole or any part of any of the newly-constituted divisions aforesaid shall have been formed, previously to the day upon which such newly-constituted division became a division, then, and in that case, all arrears or amounts of such road rate assessed upon, or in respect of any immovable property lying and being within such newly constituted division, and due or unpaid on the day of the taking effect of this Act, shall be demandable and receivable by the Divisional Council of such newly-constituted division, and not by any former or other Divisional Council; and the Divisional Council of such newly-constituted division in case it shall think fit to collect such arrears shall have and possess all and singular the same rights and remedies for the recovery of such arrear road rates as if the same had been arrears of road rates assessed by such last mentioned council.

New division to pay to the older division its share of any debt contracted by the latter on credit of road rates.

2. In case the Divisional Council of any division from or out of which the whole or any part of any of the divisions constituted by the Act aforesaid, No. 12, 1857, shall have been formed, shall at any time before the 1st January, 1858, when such divisions came into being, have raised money by way of loan, on the credit of any road rates assessed or to be assessed by such council, or shall have incurred any other pecuniary obligation upon the faith of any such road rates, then the Divisional Council of any of the new divisions constituted by the said Act No. 12, 1857, which new division shall comprise any of the immovable property which, next before such new division came into being, belonged to the division by which the Divisional Council which borrowed the said money, or incurred the said obligation, was elected, shall be bound to raise by road rates or otherwise, and pay over to the Divisional Council for the time being of the older or former division, as such last mentioned division shall be limited and bounded after such newly-constituted division shall have become a division, such a proportion of so much of such loan or debt as was due and owing, or of such pecuniary obligation as was in existence when such new division came into being, as the value of the immovable property which, when such loan or debt was contracted, or such other pecuniary obligation was incurred, belonged to the older or former division, but was afterwards included in such newly-constituted division, bears to the value of the whole of the immovable property which, next before the day when such new division came into being, belonged to the older or former division as then limited and bounded.

AN ACT

For Constituting the Districts of Frazerburg, Murraysburg, Humansdorp, and Robertson, Divisions. (1)

WHEREAS it is intended to create, as soon as may be, districts of Resident Magistrate at and for Frazerburg, Murraysburg, Humansdorp (2) and Robertson: And whereas, whilst it is expedient that the said districts, when defined and established, should become and be divisions for all fiscal purposes, as well as for the purpose of enabling every such division to have and possess its own Divisional Council, it is at the same time expedient that the several Electoral Divisions of the Colony, as described in the Constitution Ordinance, should not be altered or affected by this Act: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Preamble.

1. So much of the Ordinance for constituting a Parliament in this Colony, and commonly called the Constitution Ordinance, as is repugnant to or inconsistent with this Act, is hereby repealed.

Repugnant portions of Constitution Ordinance repealed.

2. When and as soon as districts of Resident Magistrates shall have been by proclamation of the Governor aforesaid created, constituted, and established at any of the four places aforesaid, to wit, Frazerburg, Murraysburg, Humansdorp, and Robertson, then every such district shall, from and after the day of the publication of the proclamation creating such division, become and be a division for fiscal purposes, as well as a district, and shall cease, for fiscal purposes, or for any purpose other than the election of members of Parliament, to belong to any division to which the said district, or any part of the said district, belonged down to and next before the day of publication of such proclamation.

As soon as the districts aforesaid are proclaimed as magistracies, they shall be fiscal divisions.

3. The provisions of the Act No. 5 (3) of 1855, entitled "An Act for creating Divisional Councils in this Colony," shall apply to each of the four divisions aforesaid, and to the divisions to which the said four divisions, or any part of the said four divisions, previously belonged, as such new divisions, and such former divisions shall then be limited, and bounded precisely as if no Divisional Councils in and for any of such divisions had ever been elected: Provided that the registered voters for any and every Electoral Division which, down to and next before the day aforesaid, comprised any such new division as aforesaid, or any part of any such new division, and which voters shall be resident in such new division, shall be entitled to vote at any election of members of the Divisional Council of such new division.

Divisional Councils Act to apply separately to the new divisions, and to those out of which they are constituted.

<sup>3</sup> Repealed by Act 4, 1865, which in turn is repealed by Act 40, 1889.

No. 25—1858.

Council of older divisions to continue in operation over its original area until council for new division is formed.

How, if new councils are not all elected at the same time.

Until all the new councils are elected, the old council shall continue in operation over the remaining portion of the division.

Members of old council may be elected to new council, and continue in both capacities.

Creation of new division not to interfere with constitution of electoral division.

4. It shall be lawful for the Divisional Council of every division to which the entire or any part of any one of the four divisions aforesaid belonged down to and next before the day of the publication of the proclamation aforesaid, to continue in existence and operation in and for the whole area or territory which formed the division by which such Council was elected, until the new Divisional Councils contemplated by the last preceding section shall have been elected, but no longer: Provided that in case the new Divisional Councils for the several divisions for or in regard to which the creation of any of the four divisions aforesaid shall render necessary the election of new Divisional Councils shall not all be elected at the same time, then each new Divisional Council shall, upon the election thereof, become the Divisional Council for the division by which it was elected, and no former or other Divisional Council shall have any authority or power in or over the division by which such new Divisional Council was elected: Provided, however, that until new Divisional Councils shall have been elected for all the divisions, for or in regard to which the creation of any of the four divisions aforesaid shall render necessary the election of new Divisional Councils, the Divisional Council aforesaid, continued in existence and operation as aforesaid, shall, notwithstanding the election of a new Divisional Council for one or more of the said divisions, remain in existence and operation in and over the residue or remainder of area or territory which formed the division by which such Council was elected, precisely as if such residue or remainder had been the division by which such Council had been elected.

5. No member of any Divisional Council continued in existence and operation as aforesaid over any such area or territory as aforesaid shall be, upon that account, ineligible to be elected as a member of any such new Divisional Council as aforesaid: and in case any such member shall be elected a member of any such new Divisional Council as aforesaid, it shall be lawful for him to act as a member of both the Councils of which he shall be a member until the Divisional Council continued in existence and operation as aforesaid shall, upon the election of all the new Divisional Councils necessary to be elected, stand dissolved.

6. Notwithstanding the creation of the four new divisions as aforesaid for fiscal and other purposes, every such new division, and every part thereof, shall continue, for electoral purposes, to belong to, and form part of, whatever Electoral Division such new division or any part thereof formerly belonged to, precisely as if this Act had not been passed.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Colony of Western Australia has been constituted a penal settlement for the safe keeping of convicted felons and other persons undergoing transportation for offences against the laws: And whereas certain of the Australian Colonies adjacent to the Colony of Western Australia, to which colonies persons undergoing, or sentenced, or sent, to undergo transportation in the Colony of Western Australia had betaken and were likely to betake themselves, have passed Legislative Acts prohibiting the landing or living in such colonies of any of the said persons: And whereas certain persons, of the class or description prohibited by the Legislative Acts aforesaid from landing or being in the Colonies of which the Legislatures have passed the said Acts, have recently arrived in this Colony: And whereas, owing to the

ACT

For Enabling the Harbour Board of Mossel Bay to levy certain Wharfage Dues.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the Board of Commissioners for the Harbour of Mossel Bay, appointed under and by virtue of the Ordinance No. 21, 1847, entitled "Ordinance for Improving the Ports, Harbours, and Roadsteads of this Colony," have caused an estimate to be made of the cost of constructing certain works calculated to promote the safe and convenient anchorage of ships and landing and shipping of goods in the said harbour: And whereas it is estimated by the said board, and by the engineers and others who have by desire of the said board considered the subject of the said works, that a sum not exceeding seven thousand pounds will be sufficient to defray the cost of constructing or completing the said works and also any expense which the said board may incur in taking over (should it see fit so to do) a certain jetty already existing in the said harbour, which sum, together with all interest to become due thereon when borrowed, will, as it is estimated, be paid off within fifteen years out of the wharfage dues to be levied under this Act: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

1. It shall be lawful for the said board to borrow and take up from time to time, upon interest, such sum or sums of money, not exceeding seven thousand pounds in the whole, as may be necessary for constructing such works in or at Mossel Bay as the said board shall judge fit to be constructed; and the provisions of the sixth and seventh sections of the Ordinance No. 21, 1847, shall, except as hereinafter excepted, apply to all such sums of money as aforesaid, precisely as if this Act were the vote or resolution of the former Legislative Council of this Colony in the said sections mentioned: Provided that the Governor aforesaid shall, in regard to the matters in the said seventh section of the said Ordinance mentioned, act with the advice of the Executive Council of the Colony, instead of with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council in the said section mentioned: And provided, also, that the word “ deed ” in the said section mentioned shall include the sort of security or engagement commonly called a debenture.

Harbour board may raise money on debentures.

2. It shall be lawful for the said board, and it is hereby authorised, to levy or cause to be levied upon goods, articles, matters, or things landed or shipped in Mossel Bay, the several dues or rates set forth in the tariff contained in the schedule to this Act; and the fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, and nineteenth sections of the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 21, 1847, shall apply to such dues or rates precisely as if the said dues or rates had been tolls or rates approved of and proclaimed by the Governor of the Colony, with the advice and consent of the former Legislative Council, whilst it existed, and had been by the said Governor, with the said last mentioned advice and consent, declared to be payable in regard to every article, matter, or thing landed or shipped in any part of Mossel Bay.

Harbour board may levy wharfage dues on goods landed or shipped.

3. The person by whom any goods, articles, matters, or things chargeable by the tariff aforesaid, upon the value thereof, shall be or be about to be landed or shipped in Mossel Bay, or his known agent, shall be bound to state to the principal officer of Customs at Mossel Bay, who shall be entitled to demand and receive the dues or rates payable thereon, the value thereof; and if it shall appear

Value of articles landed or shipped to be stated to principal officer of customs who shall receive dues.

- No. 7—1860. to the said officer that the same are not valued according to the actual value thereof, then the said officer may require the person who shall have landed or shipped, or be about to land or to ship any goods, articles, matters, or things to make and subscribe a declaration, which declaration shall be in substance in the form in the second schedule to this Act set forth; and the value stated in such declaration shall be the value upon which dues shall be paid: Provided that it shall be lawful for such officer, as often as it shall be made to appear to him that the value of any goods, articles, matters, or things landed in Mossel Bay cannot be declared at or immediately after the time of such landing, to permit the same to be taken away without the payment of wharfage; but in every such case such officer shall take a bond or obligation for the payment of such wharfage at or before such time as shall in that behalf be specified in such bond or obligation.

And as often as any such lastmentioned objection shall be allowed, no future application by the same man for the registration or solemnization of any marriage (not being his marriage with the objecting party herself) shall during the life of such objecting party, be capable of being entertained, except upon proof by the man that the objecting party had, since the decision came to upon her said objection, been guilty of what, had they been in law married people, would have been adultery.

Lodging of notice to stay all proceedings.

Persons lodging frivolous objections, liable to action for damages.

25. Any person who shall lodge an objection to any marriage, which objection shall be by the Resident Magistrate's Court declared to be frivolous, shall be liable to an action for damages at the suit of the person whose marriage was objected to: Provided, however, that such person shall not recover any damages unless the Court in which the suit shall have been instituted shall find the objection to have been frivolous.

ACT

For Improving the Administration of Criminal Justice. <sup>(1)</sup>

WHEREAS offenders frequently escape conviction on their trials by reason of the technical strictness of criminal proceedings in matters not material to the merits of the case : And whereas, such technical strictness may safely be relaxed in many instances, so as to ensure the punishment of the guilty, without depriving the accused of any just means of defence : And whereas, a failure of justice often takes place on the trial of persons charged with offences against the law, by reason of variances between the statement in the indictment on which the trial is had, and the proof of names, dates, matters, and circumstances therein mentioned, not material to the merits of the case, and by the misstatement whereof the person on trial cannot have been prejudiced in his defence : Be it, therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows :—

Preamble.

1. So much of any former Law, Act, or Ordinance, and of any rule of the Supreme Court, or the Circuit Court, or of the Courts of Resident Magistrates as shall be repugnant to or inconsistent with any of the provisions of this Act is hereby repealed.

Repugnant laws repealed.

2. From and after the taking effect of this Act whenever on the trial of any indictment in the Supreme or any Circuit Court for any crime or offence there shall appear to be any variance between the statement in such indictment and the evidence offered in proof thereof in the name of any Division, City, Municipality, Field-cornetcy, or place mentioned or described in any such indictment, or in the name or description of any person or persons, or body politic or corporate, therein stated or alleged to be the owner or owners of any property movable or immovable which shall form the subject of any offence charged therein, or in the name or description of any person or persons body politic or corporate therein stated or alleged to be injured or damaged, or intended to be injured or damaged by the commission of such offence, or in the christian name or surname or both christian name and surname, or other description whatever of any person or persons whomsoever therein named or described, or in the name or description of any matter or thing whatsoever therein named or described, or in the ownership of any property named or described therein, it shall and may be lawful for the Court before which the trial shall be had, if it shall consider such variance not material to the merits of the case and that the defendant cannot be prejudiced thereby in his defence on such merits, to order such indictment to be amended, according to the proof by some officer of the Court or other person both in that part of the indictment where such variance occurs and in every other part of the indictment which it may become necessary to amend, on such terms as to postponing the trial to be had before the same or another jury as such Court shall think reasonable; and after any such amendment the trial shall proceed, whenever the same shall be proceeded with, in the same manner in all respects and with the same consequences both with respect to the liability of witnesses to be indicted for perjury and otherwise as if no such variance had occurred.

Certain discrepancies between indictment and evidence may be corrected.

Trial to proceed on amended indictment.

Verdict as valid as if indictment had been originally correct.

3. Every verdict and judgment which shall be given after the making of any amendment under the provisions of this Act, shall be of the same force and effect in all respects as if the indictment had originally been in the same form in which it was after such amendment was made.

In indictment for murder or culpable homicide charge as to fact sufficient.

4. In any indictment for murder or culpable homicide preferred after the taking effect of this Act, it shall not be necessary to set forth the manner in which or the means by which the death of the deceased was caused, but it shall be sufficient in every indictment for murder to charge that the defendant did wrongfully, unlawfully, and maliciously kill and murder the deceased, and it shall be sufficient in every indictment for culpable homicide to charge that the defendant did wrongfully and unlawfully kill the deceased.

In indictment for forgery copy or forged instrument not necessary.

5. In any indictment for forging, uttering, stealing, embezzling, destroying, or concealing any instrument, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known or by the purport thereof, without setting out any copy or facsimile thereof or otherwise describing the same or the value thereof.

Nor in any other case concerning written or printed documents.

6. In all other cases wherever it shall be necessary to make any averment in any indictment, as to any instrument, whether the same consists wholly or in part of writing, print, or figures, it shall be sufficient to describe such instrument by any name or designation by which the same may be usually known, or by the purport thereof, without setting out any copy or facsimile of the whole or any part thereof.

Proof of intent to defraud sufficient without proving whom intended to defraud.

7. From and after the taking effect of this Act it shall be sufficient in any indictment for forging, uttering, offering, disposing of, or putting off any instrument whatsoever, or for committing or attempting to commit theft by means of false pretences, to allege that the defendant did the act with intent to defraud, without alleging the intent of the defendant to be to defraud any particular person; and on the trial of any of the offences in this section mentioned it shall not be necessary to prove an intent on the part of the defendant to defraud any particular person, but it shall be sufficient to prove that the defendant did the act charged with an intent to defraud.

8. And whereas offenders often escape conviction by reason that such persons ought to have been charged with attempting to commit offences, and not with the actual commission thereof. For remedy thereof be it enacted that if on the trial of any person charged with any crime or offence it shall appear to the jury or Court of Resident Magistrate, as the case may be, upon the evidence, that the defendant did not complete the offence charged, but that he was guilty only of an attempt to commit the same, such person shall not, by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict and the Court aforesaid to pronounce as its judgment that the defendant is not guilty of the crime or offence charged, but is guilty of an attempt to commit the same, and thereupon such person shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for attempting to commit the particular crime or offence charged in the said indictment; and no person so tried as herein lastly mentioned shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for an attempt to commit the crime or offence for which he was so tried.

No. 3—1861.

How if on trial for commission of an offence its attempt only be proved.

9. If upon the trial of any person upon any indictment for robbery it shall appear to the jury upon the evidence that the defendant did not commit the crime of robbery, but that he did commit an assault with intent to rob, the defendant shall not by reason thereof be entitled to be acquitted, but the jury shall be at liberty to return as their verdict that the defendant is guilty of an assault with intent to rob, and thereupon such defendant shall be liable to be punished in the same manner as if he had been convicted upon an indictment for assaulting with intent to rob; <sup>(1)</sup> and no person so tried as is herein lastly mentioned shall be liable to be afterwards prosecuted for an assault with intent to commit the robbery for which he was so tried. And as often as any person shall be charged with the crime of assault with intent to murder, he may be found guilty of an assault with intent to do some grievous bodily harm, or of a common assault; and in like manner a person charged with assault with intent to do some grievous bodily harm, may be found guilty of a common assault. <sup>(2)</sup>

10. Certain omissions or imperfections not to invalidate an indictment.

13. No indictment for any offence shall be held insufficient for want of the averment of any matter unnecessary to be proved; nor for that any person mentioned in the indictment is designated by a name of office or other descriptive appellation instead of his proper name; nor for omitting to state the time at which the offence was committed in any case where time is not of the essence of the offence; nor for stating the offence to have been committed on a day subsequent to the filing of the indictment, or on an impossible day, or on a day that never happened; nor for want of or imperfection in the addition of any defendant or any other person; nor for want of the statement of the value or price of any matter or thing, or the amount of damage, injury, or spoil, in any case where the value or price, or the amount of damage, injury, or spoil, is not of the essence of the offence: Provided, that as often as any particular day shall be laid in any indictment as the day on which any act or crime was committed, proof that such act or crime was committed on any other day or time, not more than three months before or after the day laid in the indictment, shall be taken to support such averment in case time be not of the essence of the crime: And provided that, in the case in the last preceding proviso mentioned, proof may be given that the act or crime in question was committed on a day or time more than three months before or after the day laid in the indictment, in case the Court before which the trial shall be had shall consider that the defendant cannot be prejudiced thereby in his defence upon the merits: Provided, however, that as often as such Court shall consider that the defendant might be thereby prejudiced in his defence upon the merits, such Court shall reject such proof, and shall discharge the jury

4. Any persons forming such partnership shall make and severally sign a certificate which shall contain the name or firm under which the said partnership is to be conducted, the names and residences of all the general and special partners, distinguishing who are general and who are special partners, the amount of capital which each special partner has paid in to the common stock, the general nature of the business to be transacted, the time when the partnership is to commence, and the time when the partnership is to terminate.

8. All suits respecting the business of such partnership shall be brought and prosecuted by and against the general partners in the same manner as if there were no special partners; except in those cases in which it is provided in this Act that the special partners shall be deemed general partners and that special partnerships shall be deemed general partnerships; in which cases all the partners deemed general partners may join or be joined in such suits.

No dissolution to take place until notice thereof be registered and published in Gazette.

ACT

For enabling the Commissioners of the Municipality of George Town to procure a better Supply of Water for the Inhabitants of such Municipality.

WHEREAS the inhabitants of the municipality of George Town have for some years past experienced great inconvenience in consequence of a deficient supply of water; and whereas the present supply of water is derived from streams having their rise in a portion of the Outeniqua Mountains, situate within and forming part of the commonage lands of the municipality of George Town, the waters from which streams are collected in a reservoir at the base of the mountain, and thence conducted to and distributed in the town of George by means of open sluits; and whereas the existing reservoir is insufficient for the storage of an adequate supply of water, and the waters conveyed in such sluits are constantly polluted by decayed vegetable and animal matter continuously accumulating therein; and whereas it will be very beneficial to the inhabitants that additional reservoir space should be constructed and provided, and that the water should be conveyed to the town in supply pipes in place of open sluits; and whereas to enable the said commissioners to construct such additional reservoir space and procure and lay such pipes, it is proposed that a special rate should be laid on all immovable property within the municipality of George Town, to be called the water rate; and whereas it is proposed that the said commissioners should be empowered to borrow money on the security of the intended water rate to enable them to construct the intended works, but such objects cannot be obtained without the aid and authority of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof:—

Preamble.

1. This Act may be cited as the “George Town Water Act, 1863,” and shall take effect from and after the promulgation thereof.

Short title.

2. In the construction of this Act the following words and expressions have the several meanings assigned to them over and above their several ordinary meanings, unless there be something in the context repugnant to such construction, namely: Words importing the singular number include the plural number, and words importing the plural number include the singular number; words importing the masculine gender include females: the expression “commissioners” shall mean commissioners of the municipality of George Town; the expression “inhabitants” shall mean householders of the municipality of George Town; the expression “street or public thoroughfare,” shall mean street, or public thoroughfare situate within the municipality of George Town; and the expression "ratepayers" shall mean parties paying the special rate to be laid by this Act.

Commissioners to provide for impounding adequate supply of water.

3. The commissioners are hereby empowered to cause to be made, provided, and constructed, in or upon any part of the commonage lands all such reservoirs, dams, watercourses, drains, and ditches as may be deemed necessary for the impounding of an adequate supply of water for the said inhabitants, for domestic, irrigating and other purposes, and also to provide and lay down, in or under any commonage, land, street, or thoroughfare, any pipe or pipes for the conveyance of water from such reservoir to and throughout the township for the supply of the inhabitants, and from time to time to maintain and keep such reservoirs, dams, watercourses, ditches, and pipes in repair, provided that the amount to be expended shall not exceed the sum of four thousand pounds.

Commissioners to erect public fountains with drinking troughs.

4. The commissioners shall erect within the township public fountains for the gratuitous supply of water, with suitable drinking troughs for the convenient use of horses, cattle, sheep, and other animals, and shall from time to time maintain and keep in repair such fountains and troughs.

Commissioners to determine number of such fountains and troughs.

5. The number and situation of such fountains and troughs shall from time to time be determined by the commissioners.

Ratepayers may have private service pipe.

6. Every ratepayer shall be entitled at his own expense to have a private service pipe laid on to the main or branch pipe for the supply of water for domestic, irrigating, or other purposes, on payment of such special or extra rate as the commissioners may think fair and reasonable, such special or extra rate to become due and payable in advance.

Commissioners to fix and publish charges for private water-leadings.

7. The commissioners shall determine and publish the tariff by which the supply of water by private water-leadings shall be regulated, and the payment for all private water-leadings shall be in accordance with such tariff.

Plan, &c., of works to be placed in town-house, for inspection previous to commencement of works

8. Before proceeding with the works hereinbefore authorised, the commissioners shall cause a plan, specification, and estimate of such intended works to be placed in the Town-house in George Town, for the inspection of the inhabitants, and shall cause a notice in the form number one in the schedule hereto to be given to the inhabitants as hereafter is directed; after the publication of such notice, the plans, specification, and estimate shall remain open for inspection in the Town-house aforesaid for the period of twenty-one days. Any ratepayer objecting to such plans, specification, or estimate, or to any matter of detail therein, may at any time within the said period of twenty-one days leave with the secretary of the said commissioners a statement in writing setting forth clearly and concisely his objections to the same. On the expiration of the said period of twenty-one days the plan, specification, and estimate, together with a duplicate of the notice given by the commissioners, and all notices of objection lodged with the said secretary, shall be deposited in the office of the Colonial Secretary, for the purpose of being laid before the Governor for the time being, for his approval; and in the event of the Governor not dissenting from such plans within forty-two days from the time of their being so deposited, the commissioners may proceed with the contemplated works.

No. 19—1863.

9. No commissioner shall be allowed either directly or indirectly to become a contractor or to tender for any contract, either in his name or in the name of or jointly with any other person, or in any manner to participate in any profit to be derived from any work to be performed for the said commissioners in pursuance of this Act, on pain of forfeiture of all his interest in such contract for the benefit of the municipality; and shall also be considered to have vacated his office of commissioner ipso facto, and be ineligible to be elected at any future period to serve as commissioner: Provided that no commissioner shall be deemed or taken to have vacated his office or to have incurred any forfeiture whatever by reason merely that the commissioners shall have entered into any such contract or any other dealing or transaction with the directors or other managers of any joint-stock company of which such commissioner shall be a shareholder; nor shall any shareholder or person otherwise interested in any joint-stock company with which company the commissioners shall have entered into any executed or still subsisting contract, dealing, or transaction, be deemed or taken to be ineligible to be elected or to act as a commissioner by reason merely of such contract, dealing, or transaction.

Commissioners not to be interested in contracts.

10. A special rate of one penny half-penny in the pound, to be called the "water rate," is hereby imposed on all immovable property, situate within the municipality; the rate to commence and be payable on the first day of January next, and to become due and payable on the first day of January in every successive year up to and including the first day of January which will be in the year one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one.

11. The commissioners are hereby empowered, with the consent of the Governor, from time to time, subject to the proviso hereinafter contained, to borrow and take up at interest upon the security of the water rate any sum of money not exceeding in the aggregate the principal sum of four thousand pounds, and to mortgage the rate for securing the repayment of such moneys: Provided that moneys borrowed for the purpose of paying off then existing mortgages shall not be deemed to form part of such four thousand pounds.

- Annual water rate may be reduced. 19. In case it should appear at any such annual meeting that it will not be necessary for the requirements of the current year to levy the full amount of the rate hereby imposed, in every such case the commissioners shall reduce such rate for such current year from the said amount of one penny half-penny in the pound to such an amount as will in the opinion of the commissioners be adequate to meet the estimated expenditure for such current year.

And whereas the directors of the said company, acting for and on behalf of the said shareholders and being duly authorised by them in that behalf, have applied for an Act to incorporate the said company as constituted under the said deed, and in order the better to enable them to carry into effect the object of the said company :

AN ACT

For the better Protection of the Customs Revenue in certain cases.

port of entry, enter into a bond conditioned for the payment of such increased duty as Parliament may afterwards think fit to authorise and impose, and such bond shall, in substance, be in the form contained in the schedule annexed to this Act. <sup>(1)</sup>

No person now acting, or who shall at any time heretofore have acted, as a commissioner of any municipality established and existing under the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 9 of 1836, shall be deemed or taken to be, or have been, unduly or illegally elected to such office, by reason merely that his election took place at a time and in a manner different from the time and manner in which, under and by virtue of the fourteenth and fifteenth sections of the said Ordinance, such election ought to have taken place; and the acts and proceedings of every such person, as a commissioner and of any board of commissioners of which he was or is a member, shall be taken and judged of as if such person had been duly and regularly elected under the provisions of the said Ordinance.

And whereas, whilst it is necessary, in reference to the municipalities in which such irregular elections have taken place, to fix the time at which the existing commissioners shall go out of office, and other commissioners shall be elected thereto, it will be convenient to provide that the commissioners of all municipalities established or to be hereafter established under the Ordinance aforesaid, No. 9, 1836, should be elected throughout the Colony on the same day: Be it enacted as follows:

5. In case it shall happen that by reason of any failure or neglect, or any other cause whatever, any meeting for the election of a commissioner or commissioners shall not be duly or regularly holden, or that at any such meeting the commissioner or commissioners for the purpose of choosing whom such meeting was convened shall not be duly elected, then and in every such case the Resident Magistrate of the district, or any neighbouring Justice of the Peace, shall, as soon as any such event shall have been duly notified to him in writing by any three or more householders of the municipality within which such event shall have occurred, call, by a notice of not less than seven or more than fourteen days, a meeting of the householders of such municipality for the purpose of electing such commissioner or commissioners, in the same manner as is in the said Ordinance, No. 9, 1836, directed with respect to the first election of commissioners under the provisions of the said Ordinance; and the commissioners who shall have been in office next before the time when such failure shall have occurred in regard to any general election of commissioners shall remain and continue in office until their successors shall in manner herein provided have been duly elected, upon which the former shall forthwith go out of office, and be succeeded by the persons newly chosen.

Duration of office of first board of commissioners of any municipality when elected within twelve months of a general election.

Provided that no commissioner of any municipality shall be deemed or taken to have vacated his office as commissioner, or to have incurred any penalty, forfeiture, or disqualification whatever, by reason merely that the board of commissioners to which he belongs shall have entered into any such contract as is in the forty-third section of the Ordinance aforesaid mentioned, or any other dealing or transaction with the directors or other managers of any joint-stock company of which such commissioner shall be a shareholder or director, or in which he shall be otherwise interested; nor shall any shareholder or person otherwise interested in any joint-stock company, with which company the commissioners of any municipality shall have entered into any past or still subsisting contract, dealing or transaction, be deemed or taken to be ineligible to be elected or to act as a commissioner of any municipality, by reason merely of such contract, dealing, or transaction: Provided that it shall be lawful for any commissioner to purchase at any public sale held for or on account of the municipality of which he is a commissioner, any property, right, or other interest which such board shall put up to public competition.

For Obliging Executors, Tutors, and Curators to lodge their Accounts.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is necessary and expedient that better provision be made for obliging executors, tutors, and curators to lodge their accounts with the Master of the Supreme Court: Be it enacted by the Governor of this Colony, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Executor failing to lodge account of administration with Master within twelve months may be summoned before Supreme Court.

1. As often as any executor, whether testamentary or dative, shall fail or shall have failed to lodge with the Master of the Supreme Court the certain amount mentioned in the thirty-third section of the Ordinance No. 104, within the space of twelve months from the day on which letters of administration were granted to such executor, it shall be lawful for the said Master to summon said executor, so in default, to show cause before the Supreme or any Circuit Court why said account has not been so lodged as aforesaid: Provided that the said Master shall, not sooner than three months nor later than one month, before suing out any such summons as aforesaid, apply by letter, to the executor in default requiring him to lodge his account on pain of being summoned to do so under this Act: Provided further that any executor receiving any such application from the said Master, may lay before the said Master such grounds and reasons as he may be able to advance why he has not lodged his account, and the said Master, should such grounds and reasons seem to him sufficient, may grant to such executor such an extension of time for the lodging of such account, as such Master shall under the circumstances deem reasonable: And provided also that if any such executor so in default shall fail to satisfy the said

Master to apply for account previous to suing.

Master may extend time on sufficient cause being shown.

On failure to satisfy Master, summons may be issued, unless a judge's order shall have been obtained.

Master that he ought to receive an extension of time, said Master shall be at liberty to summon such executor to lodge his account, unless such executor shall obtain from the Supreme Court, or some Judge thereof, and deliver to such Master an order made upon motion of which the said Master shall get notice, granting to such executor an extension of time within which to lodge his account

No. 14—1861.

2. Although the Court or Judge aforesaid shall be of opinion that the ground and reasons laid before the said Master, by any executor, who shall be summoned to lodge his account as aforesaid, were such as would have warranted the said Master in granting an extension of time; the said Master shall nevertheless be entitled to his costs in case he shall, before summoning the executor whose grounds and reasons the said Master shall have overruled, and declared insufficient, have allowed such executor sufficient time for enabling him to apply to the Supreme Court or some Judge thereof, for such an order as aforesaid, granting to such executor an extension of time.

Master entitled to costs in certain cases where the Supreme Court overrules his decision.

3. Provided always that when the person by whom any testamentary executor has been appointed shall, by any deed duly executed by him, or by any clause in a will or codicil to a will, have directed that such testamentary executor shall not transmit to the office of the said Master an account of the whole administration and distribution of the estate of which he is such executor, then, and in every such case, no such executor shall be required to lodge the same with the said Master of the Supreme Court; except when an order for the production of the same shall have been made by the Supreme Court or any Judge thereof, on sufficient cause for the production of the same being shown by the Master, or by some person having an interest in the said joint estate: And that the survivor of two spouses married in community of property, to whom the predeceasing spouse shall by will have lawfully bequeathed all the share of the said joint estate belonging to such predeceasing spouse, shall by will or other lawful instrument have appointed the executor of his or her will and the tutor of his or her minor children, and the administrator (boedelhouder) of the said joint estate during the minority of such children, shall not in any case be required to transmit or lodge at the office of the said Master any such account as before mentioned, except when an order for the production of the same shall have been made by the Supreme Court, or any Judge thereof in manner aforesaid.

Exemptions from obligation to lodge account.

4. The costs adjudged to the said Master upon any summons sued out by him or on his behalf, shall be payable by the executor in default in his individual capacity, and he shall not be at liberty to charge the same to the estate under his administration, unless authorised so to do by the said Supreme Court Costs unless otherwise ordered by Supreme Court, to be paid by executor in default.

5. It shall be the duty of the said Master to summon, as aforesaid, every tutor, whether testamentary or dative, and every curator, whether nominative or dative, and every curator bonis, to show cause why any account which, under the thirty-eighth section of the Ordinance No. 105, ought to have been lodged with such Master has not been lodged, and unless such tutor or curator shall, before the day fixed by the said section for the filing of such account, obtain from the said Master or from the Supreme Court, or some Judge thereof, an extension of time within which to lodge the same, then the provisions of the second and fourth sections of this Act, regarding costs, shall apply to the motion aforesaid when made by the said Master under this section.

ACT

To Consolidate and Amend the several Acts relating to the Adjustment of Disputed Land Boundaries and to the Erection and Preservation of Land Beacons. <sup>(1)</sup>

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient to consolidate and amend the several Acts in force in this Colony relating to the Adjustment of Disputed Land Boundaries, and to the Erection and Preservation of Land Beacons: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Previous Acts repealed.

1. The following Acts are hereby repealed,—that is to say, the Act No. 10, 1859, entitled “An Act to provide for the Adjustment of Disputed Land Boundaries, and for the Erection and Preservation of Land Beacons,” and the Act No. 3, 1860, entitled “An Act to amend the Act No. 10, 1859, entitled ‘An Act to provide for the Adjustment of Disputed Land Boundaries and for the Erection and Preservation of Land Beacons,’” and the Act No. 6, 1862, entitled “An Act amending the Act No. 10, 1859, entitled ‘An Act to provide for the Adjustment of Disputed Land Boundaries, and for the Erection and Preservation of Land Beacons.’”

Acts, proceedings, &amp;c., done before taking effect of this Act, not affected.

2. Notwithstanding the said repeal, every act, proceeding, matter, or thing done before the taking effect of this Act under or by virtue of the Acts so repealed, or any of them, relating to the resurvey of any section or area, or the settlement of any dispute regarding the boundaries of any farm or farms not included in any such section or area, shall at all times hereafter be judged of, and be of the same force and effect, in all respects, as if the said Acts were still in force: Provided that as often as no fresh grant shall, at the time of the taking effect of this Act, have been, under the said Act No. 10, 1859, issued, then the provisions of this Act shall, if different from the provisions of the Acts aforesaid, or any of them, apply, so far as applicable, to all resurveys or other proceedings still in progress, in the state and condition in which such resurveys or other proceedings shall then be, precisely as if such resurveys or other proceedings had been begun under this Act, instead of under the other Acts aforesaid, or one of them.

Partial resurveys or other proceedings under previous Acts, how affected.

Divisional councils may subdivide divisions for purposes of resurvey.

3. It shall be lawful for the Divisional Council of any division in this Colony, from time to time, to divide such division, or so much and such parts thereof as such council shall deem necessary or expedient, into sections or areas, for the purpose of a resurvey under the provisions of this Act.

4. Every such section or area as aforesaid shall be, if possible, a tract of country lying between permanent and conspicuous natural objects, such as mountain ranges or rivers, or objects of a like nature; and in case of the total or partial absence of such natural objects, then some undisputed and indisputable beacons or landmarks or other sufficiently distinguishing points shall be resorted to for the purpose of defining or describing a section or area of such extent and of such character as shall be suitable for the purpose of a complete and effectual resurvey, under this Act, of the several farms included therein.

No. 7—1865.

Sections or areas to be bounded with reference to natural objects or other distinguishable landmarks.

5. As often as the absence at proper or convenient places of such objects or points as are in the last preceding section mentioned, or of a sufficient number of such objects or points, shall render it impossible or undesirable to define or describe a section or area in any particular locality by means of such objects or points it shall be lawful to define or describe for the purpose of such locality a section or area for resurvey under this Act by means of beacons which are capable of being disputed; but the boundaries or limits of all sections or areas so defined or described shall be provisional in their nature, and may be ultimately enlarged, contracted, or otherwise altered as may in the progress of the resurvey be found necessary, and the beacons so taken for the purpose of the provisional definition or description placed where, according to such alteration they ought of right to stand: Provided that when and as often as any of the beacons so provisionally taken shall be beacons dividing farms being private property from other farms being private property, and the beacons so provisionally taken shall be disputed by the proprietors of farms lying beyond or outside of the said beacons, then such last-mentioned farms shall be deemed to be included in the section or area; and so on from private farm to private farm, until some natural object, some Crown land, some undisputed beacons, or some other fixed points shall be arrived at, beyond which it shall not be necessary that the section or area should extend: Provided, also, that if any doubt or question should arise as to the point or points beyond which it is not necessary that any such section or area as in this section of this Act mentioned should extend, such doubt or question shall be decided by the Surveyor-General, with the advice of the Divisional Council: Provided, further, that no such beacons as are in this section mentioned shall be at any time resorted to for the purpose of describing, either wholly or in part, any section or area for the purpose of resurvey under this Act, until the Divisional Council proposing such beacons shall have satisfied the Surveyor-General that it would, under the circumstances of the case, be either impossible or in the highest degree inconvenient to define or describe a section or area in the same locality by such objects or points as are in the preceding section mentioned; it being the true intent and meaning of this Act that no section or area other than one defined or described as in the last preceding section mentioned should be sanctioned by the Surveyor-General, unless in cases in which a departure from the provisions of the said section shall be either absolutely necessary or obviously desirable; Provided, lastly, that if in any case it should become necessary in the progress of the resurvey of any area under this section to include any farm lying beyond the limits of the division within which such area as provisionally defined originally lay, it shall be lawful to include such farm; and such farm shall be in the same plight and condition as regards the provisions of this Act as if it lay within the limits of such division as aforesaid.

In the absence of natural objects or landmarks, other beacons may be taken.

But the boundaries to be provisional only.

Surveyor-General to be consulted.

6. In defining and describing sections or areas of country for the purposes of this Act, every Divisional Council shall consult with, and obtain the concurrence of, the Surveyor-General of the Colony, or of such officer of his department, or Government surveyor, as the said Surveyor-General shall appoint: Provided that as often as there shall, under either of the two immediately preceding sections, be an area proposed to the Surveyor-General for his concurrence, which area shall, either wholly or in part, be defined or described by beacons, then the concurrence of the Surveyor-General, when given, shall not be taken to be an admission by the Surveyor-General that such beacons are correct in reference to Crown land, or to deprive the Colonial Government of any Crown land lying or being within the area defined or described by such beacons, or by any of them.

Concurrence of Surveyor-General not to be taken as an admission of correctness of beacons in reference to Crown land.

Boundaries of sections to be publicly notified.

7. As soon as the whole or any part of any division shall have been divided into such sections or areas as aforesaid, or as soon as any one such section or area shall have been defined, the Divisional Council of the division shall, by means of notices, affixed at public places, and by means of the Field-cornet or Field-cornets resident within such section or area, or otherwise, as such council shall devise, make publicly known the boundaries or limits of such sections or areas respectively, or of such single section or area, should only one be in the first instance described.

Who may apply for resurvey of area or section.

10. As soon as the application, report, and description or definition in the last preceding section mentioned shall have been received by the Colonial Secretary, it shall be lawful for the Governor of the Colony, by proclamation in the Government Gazette, if he shall see fit to direct the resurvey of such section or area for the purposes of this Act.

No. 7—1865.

11. Upon the issue of any such proclamation as aforesaid, or before such issue, it shall be lawful for the Divisional Council of the division to which such proclamation shall relate, to recommend to the Surveyor-General such number of competent land-surveyors as they shall deem proper to be employed upon the resurvey of the section or area described or defined in such proclamation: Provided that it shall not be incumbent upon the Surveyor-General to appoint the surveyor or surveyors recommended by the council, and that if, in any case, he shall see cause not to do so, he may transmit to the Divisional Council the name or names of another surveyor or other surveyors as the person or the persons whom he proposes to employ, and unless the said council shall object to the surveyor or surveyors so proposed, and assign sufficient grounds of objection, to be judged of by the Governor aforesaid, then the last-mentioned surveyor or surveyors shall be appointed: Provided that every such surveyor shall be removable by the Governor at pleasure, and that in case of a vacancy arising from death, removal, or other cause, another surveyor may, in manner aforesaid, be appointed to supply such vacancy.

dividing or affecting the same, the beacons of each farm put up by the respective owners shall be merely provisional in their nature, and shall not be evidence, to any extent, of the rights of parties, but only of the fact that such rights are, or may be, in dispute: Provided, that it shall not be lawful for any person acting against the will or without the authority of the person or persons by whom any such beacon shall have been put up, to remove, destroy, or injure the same, pending the investigation, hereinafter provided, into the correctness or otherwise of the said beacon; and any person so removing, destroying, or injuring any such beacon shall, upon conviction, forfeit any sum not exceeding ten pounds nor less than two pounds: Provided, further, that nothing in this section contained respecting the merely provisional nature of all beacons within any section or area proclaimed for the purpose of resurvey shall extend to any beacons within any section or area proclaimed for resurvey at any time after the 31st of December, 1866, and which beacons shall, by virtue of the ninety-second section of this Act, have become at the date of such proclamation, admittedly true and correct.

15. As soon after the expiration of the forty-two days aforesaid as circumstances will permit, the surveyor or surveyors commissioned or appointed as aforesaid to resurvey the section or area in question shall commence the same: Provided that previous notice of the day and place or days and places of commencing such resurvey shall be given by the Divisional Council, by means of a notice in the Government Gazette, to be published therein for not less than twenty-one days before the first day fixed in and by such notice for the commencement of the resurvey; and provided that such notice may be given either before or after the expiration of the forty-two days aforesaid: Provided, also, that the Divisional Council shall, besides publishing such notice in the Government Gazette, publish the same in the local newspaper in the thirteenth section of this Act mentioned, and take such other steps as they may deem expedient for causing the subject-matter of it to be made generally known to the owners of immovable property in the section or area about to be resurveyed; And provided, further, that it shall be lawful for the Divisional Council, in case it should so think fit, to depute one of its members to accompany such surveyor or surveyors in the making of such resurvey, in manner and form, and under the like conditions, in all respects, as are hereinafter in the ninety-eighth section of this Act set forth.

16. It shall be the duty of the surveyor or surveyors, employed upon any such resurvey, when and as often as he or they shall find any farm or number of farms of which the beacons are all standing, and are admitted as correct by the owners of all the adjoining or other farms interested in or affected by such beacons, or any of them, to obtain proof of such admission by some writing signed by such owners, and thereafter to frame an accurate diagram of every such farm, taking the same to be the area represented by such admitted beacons, whether the said beacons shall or shall not coincide with the existing diagram of such farm, or with the extent of land which shall by the title-deed of such farm purport to have been granted: Provided that no beacon or beacons in any section or area proclaimed for the purpose of resurvey before the 31st of December, 1866, shall be taken to be so admitted before and until the beacons of all the farms within such section or area shall be standing or in existence: Provided that nothing in this section contained shall be construed so as to render it necessary to frame a new diagram of any such farm as is in the thirty-third section of this Act mentioned.

Exception as to admission of beacons in sections proclaimed for resurvey prior to 31st December, 1866.

Exception as to framing of new diagrams.

17. Every surveyor who shall frame any such diagram as is in the last preceding section mentioned, shall transmit the same to the Divisional Council, together with a report containing any information which he may deem useful, or which the Divisional Council may have desired, and amongst other things, the degree in which the new diagram coincides with or differs from the existing diagram or title-deed.

Diagram and report to be transmitted to divisional council.

18. The Divisional Council receiving any such diagram and report shall transmit the same, together with any remarks which the said council shall see fit to offer, to the Governor aforesaid, through the Surveyor-General, in order that a fresh grant, founded upon the resurvey and new diagram, if found by the said Surveyor-General to be correct, may be issued. And the said council shall also transmit to the Surveyor-General all title-deeds, transfer-deeds, and diagrams connected with the farm resurveyed, which deeds and diagrams the person in whose custody or power the same shall be, shall be bound, upon demand of the said council, to deliver over to such council.

Duty of divisional council on receiving such report.

19. Upon the issue of any such fresh grant, all existing title-deeds or transfer-deeds of the same farm shall become cancelled, void and of no effect: Provided that as often as any hypothecation, conventional or tacit, of or over any farm so re-granted, shall be in existence at the date of such re-grant such hypothecation shall attach to and upon the said farm as so re-granted precisely as it existed upon the said farm under its former title-deed or transfer-deed, and all usual and proper entries and endorsements upon or in regard to such fresh grant as may be necessary to record any hypothecation of the land therein contained, shall be made in the Deeds Registry of the Colony, before such fresh grant shall be delivered from and out of the office of the Surveyor-General to the person or persons entitled thereto.

Fresh grant to nullify all previous titles and transfer-deeds.

Hypothecation to survive and be registered anew.

20. As soon as the Divisional Council shall have learned from the Surveyor-General that a fresh grant will be issued on the new diagram, then the said council shall cause notice to be given to the proper parties in that behalf, that they are at liberty to replace such of their existing beacons as shall not be of the description required by the one hundred and twelfth section of this Act, with other and proper beacons, as by the said one hundred and twelfth section prescribed; and no fresh grant of any farm shall be delivered to the person or persons entitled thereto, without the authority of the Divisional Council, which shall not give such authority until it shall be certified in writing to such council by the surveyor who made the new diagram, or by some other surveyor to be approved of by the said Surveyor-General, that the beacons of such farm have been inspected by him, and that they are correctly placed, and are constructed according to the provisions of the said one hundred and twelfth section of this Act, and that the provisional beacons, if any, of such farm have been demolished or removed.

When Crown land is included in section, surveyor bound to give information thereof to Surveyor-General.

21. As often as there shall be within any section or area defined, as aforesaid, for the purpose of resurvey, any Crown land, it shall be the duty of the surveyor employed in making the resurvey of such section or area to report to the Surveyor-General of the Colony the existence of such Crown land, and the name or other description of all the farms adjoining to or abutting upon it, and whether the beacons of such farms respectively upon the side of such Crown land do or do not correspond with the diagrams of such farms respectively; and such surveyor shall also describe to the said Surveyor-General the nature and materials of such beacons, and whether they are in appearance original and authentic, or the reverse, and generally all such other information as may appear calculated to assist the Surveyor-General in determining whether any of the beacons of any such farm encroach upon Crown land.

Surveyor-General may call for further information and direct survey.

22. If the Surveyor-General, upon considering any such report, shall be of opinion that it does not contain sufficient information to enable him to determine whether there has or has not been any such encroachment, then the Surveyor-General may call upon such surveyor for such further information and may direct such further survey as the said Surveyor-General may think needful or desirable.

Surveyor-General may depute a person to take evidence, &c.

23. Should the Surveyor-General be unable, from the information furnished to him by such surveyor, to determine whether there has or has not been such an encroachment as aforesaid, then the Surveyor-General shall, with the sanction of the Governor, by any writing under his hand, appoint some fit and proper person, not being the surveyor employed in making the resurvey, to proceed to the spot for the purpose of taking evidence and collecting information.

Person deputed may summon witnesses and take evidence upon oath.

24. Every person so appointed as last aforesaid to take evidence is hereby authorised to summon witnesses, and examine them upon oath; and the provisions of the forty-eighth and forty-ninth sections of this Act shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to the said person so appointed, and to all witnesses summoned by him.

25. Should the Surveyor-General, after considering all such information as shall have been supplied to him in regard to any such beacons as aforesaid, be of opinion that such beacons do encroach upon and include Crown land, and if the person claiming such beacons as beacons of his farm shall not consent to the removal of the same to such spot or spots as the Surveyor-General shall prescribe, then the question in dispute shall be determined by commissioners chosen in manner and form as hereinafter set forth.

No. 7—1865.
Disputes respecting encroachments on Crown lands may be settled by commissioners chosen for that purpose.

26. If any surveyor employed to resurvey any such section or area as aforesaid, and who shall survey any farm adjoining to or abutting upon any Crown land, shall fail or neglect to report to the Surveyor-General the existence of such Crown land, such surveyor shall (except as hereafter is excepted) forfeit any sum not exceeding one hundred pounds: Provided that if such surveyor, when proceeded against for any such forfeiture, shall prove that the existence of such Crown land might, notwithstanding the exercise upon his part of due and proper skill and diligence, fail to be discovered by him, he shall not be liable to such forfeiture, unless the prosecutor shall prove that the existence of such Crown land was, in fact, known to such surveyor.

Surveyor subject to penalty for failure to report existence of Crown land.

Unless sufficient cause is shown for not so reporting.

27. As often as any surveyor employed to resurvey any section or area shall be detained from proceeding with such resurvey by reason of reporting to the Surveyor-General as aforesaid and collecting evidence or other information for that officer, such surveyor shall be recompensed for his time and trouble whilst so detained at such reasonable rate as the Surveyor-General shall, with the sanction of the Governor, fix and determine.

Remuneration to surveyor for detention while so reporting or collecting information.

28. Every witness attending and giving evidence before any such person as is in the twenty-third section of this Act mentioned shall be entitled to his reasonable expenses, to be ascertained in manner and form as in the sixty-sixth section of this Act is provided.

Witnesses' expenses.

29. Should it at any time happen that the Surveyor-General, receiving any such diagram and report as are in the seventeenth section of this Act mentioned, shall find reason to believe or suspect that there has been included in that diagram some Crown land the existence of which had not been reported to him by the surveyor, as in the twenty-first section of this Act is directed, then the Surveyor-General shall communicate with such surveyor on the subject, and call for all such information from such surveyor as may be deemed necessary; and in case it shall be found that there was, in such section or area, any Crown land of which the existence was not reported, all and singular the foregoing provisions of this Act relating to Crown land shall apply to such Crown land, and to the beacons of all farms put up upon the side of such Crown land.

of the surveyor, as in the twenty-seventh section of this Act mentioned, and the expenses of the witnesses in the twenty-eighth section of this Act mentioned, shall be paid in the first instance out of the general revenue, and they shall be included in the costs of the inquiry by the commissioners who shall investigate and decide the case, as such costs are described in the sixty-eighth and sixty-ninth sections of this Act: Provided that as often as no commission shall be appointed by reason that the Surveyor-General shall ultimately admit the correctness of the beacons which were, for a time, in doubt, then the charges in this section mentioned shall (unless it shall be otherwise agreed upon between the Surveyor-General and the person who claimed the said beacons) be borne by the general revenue: And provided that as often as no commission shall be appointed by reason that the person who originally claimed certain beacons shall ultimately remove them from where they first stood, and place them where the Surveyor-General shall have prescribed, then the charges in this section mentioned shall (unless it shall be otherwise agreed upon as aforesaid) be borne by such person: Provided, also, that as often as no commission shall be appointed by reason that the Surveyor-General and the owner of the private property concerned shall mutually agree that the beacons which were, for a time, in question shall finally be placed neither where such owner originally placed them, nor where the Surveyor-General originally prescribed, but at some intermediate spot or spots, then such charges as aforesaid shall (unless it shall be otherwise agreed upon as aforesaid) be borne by the general revenue.

On issue of proclamation directing resurvey of any section, divisional council to require landholders to deliver over their title deeds and diagrams.

31. When and as soon as any such proclamation as is in the tenth section of this Act described shall have been issued, it shall be lawful for the Divisional Council of the division in which the section or area defined in such proclamation shall be situated, to require, by notice in writing, signed by the secretary, the several landowners within such section or area to deliver over to such Divisional Council all original title-deeds and all diagrams in their possession, respectively, or copies thereof certified as correct by a Government land surveyor, in order to enable the surveyor employed upon the proposed resurvey to proceed therewith, and such deeds or copies shall be delivered over by every such landowner within twenty-one days next after the receipt by him of such notice, or within such further time as the said council shall think fit to grant in any particular case; and any landowner failing without lawful cause so to deliver the same shall be liable to pay the sum of five pounds sterling, to be recovered by such council, suing by its secretary, and paid into the funds of such council: Provided that the Divisional Council receiving any such deeds shall give a receipt for the same, and be responsible for the return of the same, or, in case of loss, for the supply of official copies thereof.

Penalty for refusal.

Council to give receipt, and be responsible for return.

32. The proprietor of every farm lying within any section or area in process of resurvey shall be bound, upon the application of the surveyor employed on such resurvey to point out to such surveyor the beacons of his farm, and shall also be bound, upon the like application, to admit or deny, by some writing witnessed by not less than two witnesses, the correctness of any of the beacons of any adjoining farm, which beacons abut upon his own farm, and which beacons shall be pointed out to him by the said surveyor; and in case any such proprietor shall refuse or neglect, after reasonable notice from such surveyor so to do, to point out his own beacons, then any beacons of any adjoining farm, which beacons may be inconsistent with the beacons of such proprietor, shall be deemed to be admittedly true and correct; and in case any such proprietor shall, after reasonable notice, refuse or neglect to admit or deny, in writing as aforesaid, the correctness of the beacons of any adjoining farm, which beacons abut upon his own farm, and which beacons he shall, as aforesaid, have been called upon to admit or deny, then those last-mentioned beacons shall be also deemed and taken to be admittedly true and correct: Provided, also, that the proprietor of every farm, whether within or without the division to which the section or area shall belong, which shall adjoin or abut upon any part of the outer side of the limits or boundary of any such section or area, shall be bound, upon such application as aforesaid, to point out the beacons of his farm; and should any such proprietor refuse or neglect so to do, then the same effects and consequences shall take place as are in this section enacted in regard to such refusal or neglect occurring in regard to any farm within the limits of the section or area.

33. If, in any case, the title-deed and diagram of any farm lying within any such section or area as aforesaid shall, upon resurvey, be found correct, and shall be found to be so by the Surveyor-General, so that no fresh grant of such farm shall be necessary, then the Surveyor-General shall cause a certificate of such correctness to be endorsed or written upon such diagram in testimony of such correctness.

34. No Divisional Council shall issue any diagram bearing any such certificate as is in the last preceding section mentioned until it shall be certified, in writing, to such council by the surveyor who made the resurvey, or by some other surveyor to be approved of by the Surveyor-General, that the beacons of such farm have been inspected by him, and that they are correctly placed, and are constructed according to the provisions of the hundred and twelfth section of this Act.

35. No Divisional Council shall issue any diagram bearing any such certificate as aforesaid, until it shall be certified, in writing, by the surveyor who resurveyed the section or area in question, or some other surveyor to be approved of by the Surveyor-General, that all provisional beacons, if any, of the farm in regard to which such certificate shall have been given, have been demolished or removed.

How, if dispute as to boundaries cannot be settled by parties concerned.

36. In all cases in which any surveyor employed in any such section or area as aforesaid shall find that any dispute exists regarding boundaries, which dispute cannot be settled amongst themselves by the parties interested, such surveyor shall give notice of such dispute, and of the names of all parties interested in it, so far as he can judge or discover, to the Divisional Council, in order that, by the means hereinafter provided, such dispute may be inquired into and settled.

Commission of inquiry, how to be formed and number of members.

37. As often as the Divisional Council shall receive any such notice as aforesaid, the said council shall take the same into consideration, and regard being had to the nature of the dispute to be settled, shall frame a list of six men, none of whom shall have any interest in the matter in dispute, or be related to any person who shall be interested therein in or within the fourth degree of consanguinity or affinity, from or out of which six men, two men to form, together with the Civil Commissioner of the division, as hereinafter mentioned, a commission of inquiry, shall be selected or obtained, in the manner hereinafter in that behalf provided.

Who may be placed on list.

38. The list aforesaid of six men, to be framed by the Divisional Council, may include members of such council as well as men not members; and shall contain the names of such men as shall, by the said council, be thought qualified to form an impartial and intelligent judgment upon the dispute in question: Provided that the said council, before inserting in the said list the name of any man proposed to be set down therein, shall ascertain from him that, if necessary, he will be prepared to act as a member of the commission; and provided, also, that not more than four of the names upon any such list shall be the names of members of the said council: Provided, also, that the name of the Civil Commissioner of the division shall, in no case, be inserted upon such list.

Consent to act on commission to be previously obtained.

Civil commissioner not to be placed on list of proposed members.

If dispute be between owners of two farms only, number of proposed members may be reduced.

39. As soon as such list of six men shall have been prepared, and notice thereof given to the parties to the said dispute, it shall be lawful for the said parties, in person, or by agents authorised by any writing under their hands, to attend at some time and place to be fixed by such council, in order that, as often as such dispute shall exist between the owner or owners of two farms only, the owner or owners of each farm may, if so minded, strike off from such list the names of two men, so as to leave thereon the names of two men to form, with the Civil Commissioner of the division, the said commission: Provided that the owner or owners of one farm shall first strike off one name, and then the owner or owners of the other farm, another name, and so again alternately; and provided that the farm of which the owner or owners shall strike off the first name shall be decided by lot.

How such reduction shall be made.

40. In cases in which any such dispute as aforesaid shall embrace or involve a number of farms greater than two, it shall be lawful for the owner or owners of the two farms which shall respectively have the chief or principal interest upon the opposite sides of the dispute, to strike off, in manner aforesaid, for themselves and the others having a common or kindred interest with them, four names from the list of six men already mentioned. And in case any question shall arise regarding the two farms, or either of them, which really have the chief or principal interest in the dispute, such question shall be decided by the Divisional Council.

No. 7 - 1865.
How reduction may take place in case of dispute between more than two.

Divisional Council to decide as to relative interest of parties to dispute.

41. Should any owner or owners entitled to strike off, in manner aforesaid, two names, decline so to do, this shall not prevent the other party from striking off, if so minded, two names: Provided that as often as the non-exercise of the right to strike off names, by either or both of the parties entitled so to do, shall leave a number of names greater than two upon the list aforesaid of six men, then the two men to form, with the Civil Commissioner of the division, the commission shall be taken by lot from the names so left.

How, if owners decline to strike off one or more names.

How, when more than two names remain on the list.

42. As often as any dispute in any such section or area as aforesaid, shall be a dispute relating to any Crown land, as in the twenty-first section of this Act mentioned, then the Surveyor-General shall be deemed to be one of the parties to such dispute, and shall, in person or by an agent authorised by any writing under his hand, be entitled, on behalf of Government, to strike off in manner aforesaid two names from the list of six men framed as aforesaid by the Divisional Council, and the other party to such dispute two other names.

When dispute shall relate to Crown land, Surveyor-General to be one of the parties.

43. For the better and more satisfactory taking and recording of evidence, and securing greater regularity in the proceedings of the commission, the Civil Commissioner of the division shall, except as hereinafter is excepted, be ex officio, a member of the commission, and shall, together with the two men so selected as aforesaid, form such commission: Provided that in case such Civil Commissioner should have any interest in the matter in dispute, or shall be related to any person so interested in or within the fourth degree of consanguinity or affinity,—or in case such Civil Commissioner should, for any reason to be allowed by the Governor as sufficient, desire to be excused from serving on such commission, or should such Civil Commissioner, for any reason to be allowed by the Governor as sufficient, be objected to by either of the parties to the dispute,—then some other Civil Commissioner, or some Resident Magistrate, to be named by the Divisional Council, with the sanction of the Governor, shall, with the two men so selected as aforesaid, form the commission.

Civil commissioner, ex officio, a member of commission.

Exceptions.

44. As soon as may be after a commission of three members shall, in manner aforesaid, have been obtained, the Divisional Council shall cause notice, in writing, to be given to the parties interested in the matter or matters in dispute of a time and place at which the said parties, with any witnesses whom they shall desire to have examined, shall attend, for the purpose of meeting, and giving information to, the commissioners named in such notice; and the Divisional Council shall hand over to such commissioners all title-deeds and diagrams or copies thereof in the possession of such council and relating to the matter or matters in dispute.

Oath to be taken by civil commissioner or resident magistrate.

45. At the time and place mentioned in such notice the said commissioners shall assemble, and the Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate forming one of such commissioners shall, before the said commissioners proceed to any other business, take, in the presence of the other commissioners and of the by-standers, the following oath, that is to say :

Form of oath.

“ I, A. B., do solemnly swear, as in the presence of Almighty God, that I will, to the best of my skill and knowledge, and without fear, favour, or prejudice, inquire into and decide all matters which this commission has been appointed to inquire into and decide. So help me God !”

Other members of commission to take similar oath.

And the Civil Commissioner or Resident Magistrate shall then administer the same oath, mutatis mutandis, to the other two commissioners, and the taking of the said oath by the commissioners shall be entered upon the minutes of their proceedings.

Examination, how to be conducted.

46. The said commissioners so assembled, being assisted by the surveyor who reported as aforesaid to the Divisional Council the existence of the dispute, or some other surveyor to be approved of by the Surveyor-General, shall, in the presence of the parties to such dispute, examine all deeds, documents, and witnesses produced by the parties, and shall inspect the localities in question between the parties, so as to ascertain where, according to real and substantial justice between the parties, the disputed beacons ought of right to stand : Provided that it shall be lawful for any party, whether present in person or not, to be assisted by an agent.

Parties to dispute may be assisted by an agent.

Rules for deciding matter in dispute.

47. In determining what real and substantial justice between the parties truly is, the commissioners will take into their consideration the particular circumstances of each particular case, but they will, as general principles be expected to recognise and act upon the rules following, that is to say :

- a. The original beacons of farms, as pointed out at the original measurement thereof shall be deemed to denote and include the true and proper farms as granted and intended so to be, notwithstanding that such beacons may not correspond with the original diagrams, or with the extents of land which the original title-deeds purport to grant. This rule is, however, to be subject to the qualification or modification mentioned under letter b.
- b. As often as it shall be made to appear that certain well-ascertained beacons have been, for an uninterrupted period of thirty years or upwards next before the day on which the commission in the particular case was, in manner aforesaid, selected or obtained, recognised by the parties who dispute the same before the commissioners, or those under whom such parties claim, as the true and proper beacons, such beacons shall be taken to be and to have been the original beacons, nor shall any proof to the contrary be acted upon, unless the parties disputing such beacons shall allege and prove some fraud, deceit, or circumvention, in regard to such beacons, upon the part of the person maintaining their correctness, or upon the part of those from or under whom such persons claim.

- c. As often as it shall be made to appear that any land included within the original beacons of an older grant has afterwards been included within the diagram and beacons, or diagram or beacons, of a later grant, the right of the older grant to the "overlap" shall prevail, unless in the cases next hereinafter stated under letters d and e.
- d. If the parties interested in the later grant shall prove that they, or those from or under whom they claim, are or were purchasers for valuable consideration, and shall prove that they did, acting bonâ fide, and without notice of any error, purchase the farm granted by the later grant, according to its original beacons, and shall prove that the error made in planting or pointing out such original beacons was induced by the neglect or default of the parties interested, for the time being, in the older grant, in not having kept up their own beacons, or in not objecting, if present at the time of the inspection of the later grant, to the position of the beacons of such later grant, or in not attending at such time for the purpose of so objecting, in case, by the custom of the country, they ought to have so attended, then the title of the later grant to the "overlap" shall prevail: Provided that if the original beacons of the older farm were up and visible at the time of the survey of the later farm, then the right of the older farm to the "overlap" shall prevail, although the parties for the time being interested therein did not attend at the inspection of the later grant; and provided that, if such parties attended at the inspection of the later grant, and pointed out or gave notice of the spots where their beacons had been and should be, the older farm shall, in like manner, be entitled to the "overlap," although the beacons thereof may not have been then up or visible.

No. 7—1865.

e. Although there may have been nothing in the conduct of the parties interested in the older grant, or those from or under whom they claim, in reference to the origin of the error in the later grant, which would prevent the said older grant from being entitled to the "overlap," yet if, for thirty years or upwards, beacons other than the original beacons of the older farm have been recognised in manner and form as in letter b set forth, then the rule mentioned in letter b shall apply.

f. As often as one party to any dispute shall rely upon the existing diagram, and shall maintain that the beacons which contradict it have been shifted, and the other party shall rely upon such beacons as original and authentic, and shall maintain that the diagram which contradicts them is erroneous, then the commissioners, in deciding whether such beacons are or are not the original and authentic beacons, shall have regard to the nature of such beacons as likely or not likely to have been shifted, to the nature of the diagrams as likely or not likely to be erroneous, and to the evidence produced before them as that of witnesses likely or not likely to know and speak the truth, and shall decide the controversy to the best of their skill and judgment. This rule, however, shall not apply in any case to which the rules under letters b and e shall apply.

Commissioners may summon witnesses, and require production of documents.

48. If the commissioners should, in any case, desire to obtain the evidence of any person who shall not come before them of his own accord, nor be produced by either or any of the parties interested in the case, it shall be lawful for the said commissioners, or any of them, by any summons under his hand, to require the attendance of any person who shall be regarded as able to give useful information, and to require such person to bring with him and produce such documents and papers as may be in his possession or power, and be deemed necessary to be examined; and every such summons shall be served by any person appointed for the purpose by the commissioners or any of them. And any person without lawful cause disobeying any such summons, after his reasonable expenses have been tendered to him, or without lawful cause refusing to answer any lawful question put to him by the said commissioners, or any of them, shall, upon conviction, incur a fine not exceeding forty pounds sterling, to be recovered in manner and form as provided by the Ordinance No. 6, 1839: Provided that the offence of disobeying any such summons shall be deemed to be committed in the district in which the person disobeying usually resides, although the place where such person should have given his attendance may be in another district.

Penalty for disobeying summons.

Offence shall be deemed committed in district in which offender resides.

Commissioners may take evidence on oath.

49. It shall be lawful for the said commissioners, or any two or one of them, acting in pursuance of this Act, to administer an oath to any witness whom they or he shall examine, to the effect that the evidence he shall give regarding the matters and things that shall be lawfully required of him shall be the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, so help him God. And any witness who shall, before any such commissioners as aforesaid, or any two or one of them, make on oath, knowingly and wilfully, any false statement in regard to any matter material to any question which shall be the subject of inquiry by such commissioners, or any two or one of them, shall be guilty of perjury, and shall, upon conviction, be liable to such punishment as shall be by law provided for the said crime: Provided, always, that as often as by this or by any other section of this Act any person is required to take an oath, such person shall be entitled to make his solemn affirmation or declaration instead of an oath in case he would, if a witness giving evidence in a Court of Justice, be by law entitled so to do.

No. 7-1865.

Punishment for false oath.

When declaration may be substituted for oath.

50. It shall be lawful for any such commissioners to adjourn any inquiry, or the further proceeding thereupon, from place to place, or from time to time, as convenience may require; and such commissioners may, by any writing signed by the three of them, depute any two or one of them to take, in writing, the evidence of any person or persons named or described in such writing, in order that such evidence may be received and considered at the next meeting of the said commissioners.

Inquiry may be adjourned, and members deputed to obtain evidence.

51. The commissioners shall, when adjourning any inquiry pending before them, announce the place, day, and hour of their next intended meeting; and should they, during the adjournment, find reason to alter their announced intention, they shall cause notice to be given to all parties interested, through the field-cornet, of the changed place, day, or hour of such next meeting.

Upon adjournment notice of time and place of intended meeting to be given.

52. The decision of the commissioners may be given by any two of them notwithstanding the dissent of the third.

How when decision of commission shall not be unanimous.

53. The commissioners shall, with all convenient speed, transmit to the Divisional Council a report, in writing, of their decision whether unanimous or not, upon the case submitted to them, together with such documentary and other evidence as they may have taken, and any remarks explanatory of their decision which they may think it necessary or proper to attach.

Commission to report decision and forward evidence, &amp;c., to divisional council.

54. every such notice shall have been served: Provided that as often as the Surveyor-General shall be one of the parties, notice to him shall be served upon the Civil Commissioner, who shall transmit the same to the Surveyor-General without delay: Provided, also, that such notice shall be served upon such parties either personally or by leaving at the residence of each party to be served a copy of such notice with one of his household: Provided, further, that in case any farm shall be jointly owned by more persons than one who shall, as such joint owners, be interested in the decision to which such notice relates, then, in case such joint owners shall not all reside upon the said farm, service upon such of them as reside thereupon shall be good service upon them all, unless the Divisional Council shall otherwise direct: Provided, lastly, that the costs of serving such notice shall be included in the costs of the inquiry.

55. It shall be lawful for any person whom such last mentioned decision shall or may concern, at any time within the three months aforesaid, to present a petition to the Supreme Court, stating that he feels aggrieved by such decision, and praying the said Court to enquire into and correct the same, and notice of such petition having been lodged shall be given, by or on behalf of the person presenting the same, to the Secretary of the Divisional Council not later than fourteen days from and after the day of the presentation thereof: Provided that any number of persons having the same or a similar interest opposing such decision may join in petitioning for the correction of the same: Provided, also, that the Surveyor-General, acting on behalf of Government, shall be deemed and taken to be a person concerned in any such decision which shall relate to Crown land: Provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to confer or permit any such appeal as aforesaid against any decision, in regard to which the commissioners shall have been unanimous, pronounced before the taking effect of this Act.

57. It shall be lawful for the petitioner, at any time after such report, evidence, and remarks as aforesaid shall be in the hands of the Supreme Court, to move the said Court, without notice, for a rule to show cause why the decision complained of should not be opened up for the purpose of being corrected, and why the petitioner should not be adjudged to be entitled to make good his right to such specific relief as shall be set forth in such rule; and the said Court, upon consideration of the report, evidence, and remarks aforesaid, and of any affidavit or affidavits which may be filed by the petitioner, and of such matter as shall be urged in his behalf, shall grant or refuse such rule as shall to justice appertain: Provided that the said Court shall only have regard to facts resting upon affidavit, in case it shall, by affidavit, be made to appear to such Court that good and sufficient cause existed why such facts were not proved before the commissioners.

No. 7—1865.

58. As often as no petition shall be presented to the Supreme Court, within the time aforesaid, and as often as the Supreme Court shall refuse a rule to show cause as aforesaid, or having granted such rule shall afterwards discharge the same, or having made such rule absolute shall ultimately affirm the decision petitioned against, then such decision shall become and be thenceforward final, binding, and conclusive; and thereupon the same proceedings and consequences shall take place in regard to new diagrams and fresh grants as are hereinbefore provided with respect to the farms which are in the sixteenth section of this Act mentioned, precisely as if the beacons established by such decision had been beacons originally admitted to be true and correct.

And as often as any taxation of costs shall be brought in review before the Divisional Council, the costs, as settled by the said council, upon review, shall be in manner aforesaid recoverable, if need be, by the process in execution of the Court of Resident Magistrate.

And whereas, in some parts of this Colony, there are farms which are partly in one division and partly in another, and divisions of which the boundary lines dividing them from other divisions are, in certain places, the boundary lines dividing certain farms one from another: And whereas, when beacons, when boundaries happen to be disputed by and between any such farms and contiguous farms, doubts will arise as to the Divisional Council proper for the adjustment of such disputes: And whereas it is expedient to remove such doubts: Be it enacted as follows:

When farms are situated partly in one division and partly in another.

76. As often as any boundary line in dispute between two or more farms shall lie partly in one division, and partly in another division, and as often as any boundary line in dispute between two or more farms shall form part of the boundary line between any two divisions, and as often as a dispute regarding any boundary line within any division shall involve or affect any farm or farms lying wholly or in part in any other division, it shall be competent for the party involved in such dispute to agree together upon or in regard to the Divisional Council to which the adjustment of such dispute shall be referred: and in case the said parties shall not agree thereupon, then it shall be competent for the Divisional Council of the respective divisions in which any of the lands involved in or affected by such dispute shall lie, to agree upon or in regard to the Divisional Council to which the adjustment of such dispute shall be referred; and in case neither the said parties nor the said councils shall so agree, then the Divisional Council to which such adjustment shall be referred shall be appointed by the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council.

Owners of such farms to agree as to which council shall undertake adjustment of dispute.

In case of disagreement of owners, councils to agree.

And both failing, the Governor to decide.

77. In all such cases as are in the last preceding section described, it shall be competent for either of the persons interested in the dispute to give the other person having an adverse interest a notice, in writing, naming the Divisional Council to which, in the opinion of the person giving such notice, the adjustment of the dispute should be referred, and requiring the person to whom such notice shall be given to state, in writing, within fourteen days next after the receipt of such notice, whether or not he agrees to refer such dispute to the Divisional Council named in such notice, and, if not, what other Divisional Council he proposes.

On failure to agree parties may address themselves to the council of any division in which the disputed beacons are situate.

79. In case the said parties shall not within the fourteen days aforesaid, or within some extension of that time mutually agreed upon between them for the purpose of negotiation, agree upon or in regard to the Divisional Council to which the adjustment of the dispute shall be referred, then either of the said parties may address either or any of the Divisional Councils in which any of the lands involved in or affected by such dispute shall lie, stating the existence of such dispute, the giving or receipt of the notice aforesaid, the persons by and to whom such notice was given, and the failure of the parties to agree upon or in regard to the Divisional Council to which the adjustment of the dispute should be referred, and requesting the council so addressed to make arrangements for or in regard to the appointment of a Divisional Council by which the dispute shall be adjusted.

Duty of council, so addressed.

80. The Divisional Council so addressed as aforesaid shall, as soon as conveniently may be, and not later than one month next after being so addressed, communicate with the council or councils of the other division or divisions in which any of the lands involved in or affected by such dispute shall lie; and such councils shall, between or amongst themselves, agree, if they can, upon or in regard to the Divisional Council to which the adjustment of the dispute shall be referred; and thereupon such last-mentioned Divisional Council shall have the same power and authority to adjust such dispute as if all the lands involved in or affected by it lay within the division to which such Divisional Council belongs: Provided that it shall be lawful for the said last-mentioned council to agree with the other council or councils in question upon or in regard to all or any of the names proper to be placed upon the list of six men mentioned in the thirty-seventh section of this Act, should it eventually become necessary to appoint a commission.

As regards the selection of commissioners in such case.

81. In case the Divisional Councils aforesaid shall be unable between or amongst themselves to agree upon or in regard to the Divisional Council to which the adjustment of the dispute in question shall be referred, it shall be competent for either or any of the councils so unable to agree to apply to the Governor to name, with the advice of the Executive Council, the Divisional Council to which the adjustment of the dispute in question shall be referred.

On failure of councils to agree, application may be made to Governor.

Governor may name council to adjust dispute.

82. As often as the Governor shall receive any such application as aforesaid, he shall, with the advice of the Executive Council, name the Divisional Council to which the adjustment of the dispute in question shall be referred: Provided that before naming such Divisional Council, the Governor shall call for a report upon the subject from the other council or councils concerned, and Powers of council named by Governor.

83. Should it happen that any case not expressly provided for in this Act should occur, whereby a doubt or question might be raised regarding which one of any greater number of Divisional Councils is proper for the adjustment of any dispute, or for the performance of any other function under this Act, it shall be competent for the Governor, with the advice of the Executive Council, to determine such question, and thereupon the Divisional Council named by the Governor, with such advice as aforesaid, shall have the same power and authority to adjust such dispute, or perform such other function, as if all the lands involved in or affected by it lay within the division to which such last-mentioned council belongs: Provided that it shall not be competent for the parties to any dispute, nor for the Divisional Council connected with any dispute, nor for the Governor, to appoint any Divisional Council to adjust such dispute, except a Divisional Council belonging to some division in which or along some part of the boundary of which some of the lands involved in or affected by such dispute shall lie.

Doubts regarding functions, &c., of divisional councils, under this Act, may be determined by Governor.

No councils but those of the divisions in which, or along the boundary of which, the lands involved lie, to be appointed to adjust dispute.

And whereas the proclamation of the 23rd of December, 1814, by Lord Charles Henry Somerset, the then Governor of this Colony, enjoining the erection and preservation of permanent landmarks or beacons, having in many parts of this Colony, fallen into disuse, was, by the Act aforesaid, No. 10, 1859, repealed, and other provisions enacted in its stead: And whereas the period limited by the said Act No. 10, 1859, for the erection of beacons, either provisional or permanent, has for some time expired, and it is therefore the duty of every landowner in this Colony to have, now and henceforth, all the beacons of his farm erected and in existence: And whereas it is expedient to enforce the said duty by suitable penalties, as well as to provide for fixing, by acquiescence for a certain time, or in case of dispute, by due investigation, the boundaries of farms not contained in any such section or area as is in the third section of this Act mentioned: Be it enacted as follows:

85. As often as any farm in regard to which any fine or penalty under this Act shall have been incurred shall be jointly owned in undivided shares by more persons than one, any one or more of such joint owners shall be liable and may be prosecuted for the whole of such fine or penalty.

86. As often as any new farm shall have been created after the taking effect of this Act, either by grant from the Crown or by the subdivision of any other farm or farms, the owner of such new farms shall be allowed a period of six months from the day of grant or transfer made to him within which period to erect the beacons of such new farm; and should not the whole of the beacons of such new farm be up or in existence at the expiration of such six months, then the fine in the eighty-fourth section of this Act mentioned shall be incurred by the owner of such farm.

87. No beacon, whether one erected before or one erected after the taking effect of the Act No. 10, 1859, shall (except as hereafter is excepted), be deemed to be admittedly true and correct, so as not to be afterwards disputed, before or until the 31st day of December, 1866, anything in any former Act to the contrary notwithstanding: Provided that nothing in this or in the next succeeding section contained shall extend to any of the beacons of any fresh grant issued under and by virtue of the said Act No. 10, 1859, or of this Act, and which beacons shall be placed in conformity with such fresh grant, which beacons shall not, nor shall any of them be capable of being at any time disputed.

88. No beacon of any farm, although such beacon shall be standing and in existence on the 31st day of December, 1867, (1) shall be deemed to be admittedly true and correct, so as not to be afterwards disputed, unless such beacon shall have been up and standing for not less than six months next before the said day, and unless the notice in the next succeeding section mentioned shall have been given.

89. Every person who desires that the beacons of his farm shall, on the said 31st day of December, 1867, (1) (if not sooner), become admittedly true and correct, may deliver a notice, in writing, to the Divisional Council of the division in which such farm is situated, giving the name of such farm, or otherwise describing it, and naming or otherwise describing the farms which immediately adjoin such farm, and stating that all the beacons of such farm are up. Any notice which shall omit to state that all the beacons of the farm of the person giving it are up, shall be null and void; and if any person shall give a notice stating that all the beacons of his farm are up, when, in truth and in fact such beacons are not all up, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding five pounds to be prosecuted for in like manner as the fine hereinbefore in the eighty-fourth section mentioned: Provided that nothing in this section contained shall impair or affect the validity of any notice given under the third section of the Act No. 6, 1862, at any time before the taking effect of this Act: And provided that every notice under this section of this Act shall be delivered to the said council not later than six months before the 31st day of December, 1867, (1) or otherwise the same shall be null and void: Provided, also, that the beacons in this section mentioned need not be beacons of the description in the one hundred and twelfth section described.

90. As soon as the Divisional Council shall have received such notice as in the last preceding section mentioned, the said council shall forthwith cause notice in writing to be given to all parties interested, stating the day when such notice as aforesaid was received by the said council, and informing all parties interested that such beacons as aforesaid have been erected and are up, and that such parties are at liberty, should they regard the said beacons or any of them as encroaching upon their land, to object to the same in the manner prescribed by this Act.

115. It shall be the duty of every field-cornet, and he is hereby required, to report to the Divisional Council of his division every case of absent or defective beacons within his ward which shall come to his knowledge; and it shall be lawful for the Divisional Council, from and out of any funds at its disposal, to pay such field-cornet for his trouble: Provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed so as to affect the proviso in the eighty-fourth section contained, touching the description of the provisional beacons which it shall be lawful to put up before the 31st of December, 1866.

117. In all cases in which any farm, whether within a section or area or not, shall be resurveyed under any of the provisions of this Act, then, besides the angle beacons thereof, there shall be erected, under the inspection of the surveyor or surveyors, line beacons at distances and spots visible one from another; and such surveyor or surveyors shall, upon the diagram or some writing annexed thereto, give, as he or they best can, a topographical description of the places where the angle beacons stand, and of the boundary line or lines connecting them: Provided that such line beacons need not be made of the materials hereinbefore in the hundred and twelfth section of this Act directed, in regard to the proper or angle beacons of the farm, and that they shall be, in shape, distinguishable from such angle beacons: Provided, also, that if any such line beacon shall not be kept up and in good repair, the owner or owners of the farm to whom it belonged or belongs shall incur and be liable to the penalties in the eighty-fourth section of this Act provided.

"A tract of country in the division of Piquetberg contained within the following boundaries, and including the places, 'Steenwerf,' 'Middelpost,' 'Avontuur,' and 'Hofmans Hoff,' namely, eastward from the Twenty-four Rivers mountain to the outermost beacon of the place 'Gelukswaard,' which is undisputed, to the outermost beacon of the place 'Klipbanks Drift,' which is also undisputed, to the outermost beacon of the place 'Koppes,' which is also undisputed, and from there to the Berg River; and southward from the undisputed beacon between the places 'Hofmans Hoff' of A. J. Wyd, in this division, and 'Hofmans Hof' of William Edwards and F. Liesching, in the division of Tulbagh, to the undisputed beacons between the places 'De Twenty-vier

And whereas the Divisional Council aforesaid, in defining or describing the section or area aforesaid consulted with and obtained the concurrence of the Surveyor-General, as by the third section of the "Land Beacons Act of 1859" required, whereupon the resurvey of such section or area was, partly from reasons of local convenience, and partly from inadvertence, begun and completed, whilst as yet the application, report, and description or definition in the sixth section of the said Act mentioned had not been forwarded to the Colonial Secretary, and whilst as yet no proclamation under the seventh section of the said Act, directing the resurvey of the said section or area had been issued; And whereas under these circumstances, no proclamation for the resurvey of such section or area has been issued: And whereas it is expedient to supply the want of such proclamation, as well as the want of any other forms enjoined by the said Act, which may have been neglected, none of which forms, owing to the fewness in number of the proprietors of farms within the said section or area, and their unanimous desire to have such resurvey made, were needed in this particular case: Be it enacted as follows:

118. The description or definition of the section or area aforesaid and the resurvey of such section or area, and everything already done, or to be hereafter done, in reference to such resurvey, shall be judged of and be of the same force and effect, and be as valid and effectual, as if, before the commencement of such resurvey, a proclamation under the seventh section of the "Land Beacons Act of 1859" had been duly issued directing such resurvey, and as if the previous notice in the twelfth section of the said Act mentioned had been duly given.

For enabling the Commissioners of the Municipality of Uitenhage to procure a better and purer Supply of Water for the Inhabitants of such Municipality. (1)

Preamble.

WHEREAS the inhabitants of the Municipality of Uitenhage have for some years past experienced great inconvenience in consequence of a deficient supply of water for the proper irrigation of the lands within the municipality: And whereas the present supply of water is derived from a stream having its rise from a spring or springs lying between certain rugged hills situate within and forming part of the commonage lands of the Municipality of Uitenhage, in the neighbourhood of the farm Sandfontein: And whereas there is no reservoir in existence for the storage of the water aforesaid, which is conducted to and distributed in the town of Uitenhage from the said spring or springs by means of open sluits, and the waters conveyed in such sluits are constantly polluted by decayed vegetable and animal matter continuously accumulating therein: And whereas it will be very beneficial to the inhabitants that one or more reservoirs should be constructed and provided, and that the water should be conveyed to the town in an improved manner as hereinafter mentioned: And whereas, to enable the said commissioners to construct one or more reservoirs and otherwise improve the present water service for the said municipality, it is proposed that a special rate should be laid on all immovable property within the Municipality of Uitenhage, to be called the water rate: And whereas it is proposed that the said commissioners should be empowered to borrow money on the security of the intended water rate, to enable them to construct the intended works, but such objects cannot be obtained without the aid and authority of Parliament: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof:—

1. The commissioners are hereby empowered to cause to be made, provided, and constructed in or upon any part of the commonage lands, all such reservoirs, dams, watercourses, drains, and ditches as may be deemed necessary for the impounding of an adequate and proper supply of water for the said inhabitants for domestic, irrigating, and other purposes, and also to provide and lay down, in or under any commonage land, street, or thoroughfare, any pipe or pipes for the conveyance of water from such reservoir or reservoirs to and throughout the township for the supply of the inhabitants, and from time to time to maintain and keep such reservoir or reservoirs, dams, watercourses, ditches, and pipes in repair.

The number and situations of such fountains and troughs shall from time to time be determined by the commissioners.

Public fountains to be erected.

3. Every ratepayer shall be entitled at his own expense to have a private service pipe laid on to the main or branch pipe for the supply of water for domestic, irrigating, or other purposes, on payment of such special or extra rate as the commissioners may

5. Before proceeding with the works hereinbefore authorised, the commissioners shall cause a plan, specification, and estimate of such intended works to be placed in the Town-office in Uitenhage, for the inspection of the inhabitants, and shall cause a notice in the form number one in the schedule hereto to be given to the inhabitants as hereafter is directed. After the publication of such notice, the plans, specification, and estimate shall remain open for inspection in the Town-office aforesaid for the period of twenty-one days.

How objections thereto may be lodged.

Any ratepayer objecting to such plans, specification, or estimate, or to any matter of detail therein, may at any time within the said period of twenty-one days leave with the secretary of the said commissioners a statement in writing, setting forth clearly and concisely his objections to the same. On the expiration of the said period of twenty-one days, the plan, specification, and estimate, together with a duplicate of the notice given by the commissioners and all notices of objection lodged with the said secretary, shall be deposited in the office of the Colonial Secretary, for the purpose of being laid before the Governor for the time being, for his approval; and in the event of the Governor not dissenting from such plans within forty-two days from the time of their being so deposited, the commissioners may proceed with the contemplated works.

No commissioner to contract for or derive profit from any work performed under this Act.

6. No commissioner shall be allowed either directly or indirectly to become a contractor or to tender for any contract, either in his name or in the name of or jointly with any other person, or in any manner to participate in any profit to be derived from any work to be performed for the said commissioners in pursuance of this Act, on pain of forfeiture of all his interest in such contract for the benefit of the municipality; and any commissioner acting in contravention of this section shall also be considered to have vacated his office of commissioner ipso facto, and be ineligible to be elected at any future period to serve as commissioner: Provided that no commissioner shall be deemed or taken to have vacated his office or to have incurred any forfeiture whatever by reason merely that the commissioners shall have entered into such contract or any other dealing or transaction with the directors or other managers of any joint-stock company of which such commissioner shall be a shareholder; nor shall any shareholder or person otherwise interested in any joint-stock company, with which company the commissioners shall have entered into any executed or still subsisting contract, dealing, or transaction, be deemed or taken to be ineligible to be elected or to act as a commissioner by reason merely of such contract, dealing or transaction.

ACT

To Amend the Law relating to the Trial and Punishment of Criminals for Theft, and for receiving Stolen Goods knowing the same to have been stolen.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it not unfrequently happens that a prisoner being charged with theft escapes conviction by reason that, being concerned in the theft and being found in possession of portion of the stolen property, the actual fact of the theft cannot be substantiated by the evidence: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Persons indicted for theft may on such indictment be convicted of receiving stolen goods, knowing them to have been stolen.

1. On the trial of any person upon any indictment or charge for theft, it shall and may be lawful for the jury or Court of Resident Magistrate, as the case may be, before whom such case shall be tried, should they consider that the evidence, though not sufficient to substantiate the charge of theft, is sufficient to show that the prisoner was guilty of receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen, to find that the prisoner is guilty of receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen, and upon any such finding the prisoner shall be liable to suffer, and shall suffer, the same penalty as if convicted of the like offence on an indictment or charge specifically framed for the crime of receiving stolen goods knowing them to have been stolen.

And whereas it is found that in many cases of theft in this Colony the offenders are not induced to commit such offences by need or poverty, but are themselves possessed of cattle, sheep, or other property: And whereas it is expedient that the cost incurred in their prosecution and in the prevention of the like outrages should be to some extent made good by such offenders: Be it enacted as follows:

Preamble.

1. Whenever any judgment shall be recovered, or decree or order lawfully made in or by any competent Court, for the payment by any public body empowered to levy rates of any sum of money for debt, damages, costs, or other cause whatsoever, to any party to a cause or suit, or any person whatsoever, in case it shall appear by the return of the Sheriff or other officer whose duty it may be to execute any such judgment, decree, or order, that such Sheriff or other officer has not found sufficient assets of such public body available to answer such judgment, decree, or order, to satisfy the same, it shall be lawful for the party or person to whom such sum of money shall have been payable to apply by petition to the Supreme Court, or in case the rateable property upon which such public body is empowered to levy rates shall be situate within the local limits of the jurisdiction of the Court of the Eastern Districts, then, if such creditor shall so elect, by petition to such last-named Court, in either case annexing to such petition copies of the judgment, decree, or order, and of the writ or warrant of execution and of the return thereto, and praying for such relief in the premises as the said Courts respectively shall be empowered to afford; and a rule nisi shall thereupon be granted, requiring such public body to show cause why the relief prayed should not be granted.

5. If the Court shall make such order, then the Master shall, by a notice of not less than twenty-one days in the Government Gazette and one or more papers circulating in the district within which the property rateable by such public body shall be situate, a copy of which notice shall be affixed on the door of the Magistrate's office of the district, call a meeting of all persons claiming to be creditors of the said public body, for proof of debts, and such debts, if not admitted by the said public body, or evidenced by their books and accounts, shall be proved by affidavit; and any such person claiming to be a creditor may appear and prove his debts by proxy.

Proof of debt.

Liabilities reported by Master may be liquidated out of rate assessed.

6. When by the report of the Master the Court shall be informed of the whole amount of the debts found by him to be due and owing by such public body, whether there be or be not other disputed claims, it shall be lawful for, but not imperative on, the Court to include the debts so found to be due or owing in the sum for the payment whereof such rate or rates as aforesaid shall be by the said Court assessed and levied; and the net amount or amounts

ACT

To Amend in certain respects the Act No. 19 of 1864, intituled “An Act to provide for the Leasing of Crown Lands and other purposes.”<sup>(1)</sup>

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Act No. 19 of 1864, commonly called “The Crown Lands Act, 1864,” should be amended as hereinafter is provided: Be it therefore enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Right of lessees to purchase.

1. It shall be lawful for the lessees of Crown lands leased under the provisions of the said Act No. 19 of 1864, at any time during the continuance of their respective leases, to purchase the property in the lands held by them respectively on lease, at such price as may be agreed on by and between such lessees respectively of the one part and the Colonial Government of the other part, not being in any case less than a sum which, reckoned as a principal sum after the rate of six pounds sterling per cent., would produce an amount of yearly interest equal to the rent reserved on such lease: Provided that in the event of the price demanded by Government being greater than such principal sum, in such case, at the request of the lessee, the matter may be submitted to arbitration, one arbitrator to be appointed by the lessee and one by the Government, with power to appoint a third as umpire, subject to the following conditions, that is to say:

Arbitration in certain case.

Conditions of sale.

1. In all sales of land under this Act the purchaser shall, in addition to the purchase price, pay to the Colonial Government an annual quitrent of one pound sterling for every one hundred pounds on the purchase amount, such annual quitrent to be paid in perpetuity.
2. The purchase money so to be paid as aforesaid, according to agreement, may be paid in cash, at the option of the purchaser, so soon as the amount shall be agreed upon, and such purchaser may upon payment thereof require a grant of title upon quitrent to the said lands theretofore held by him upon lease, which grant it shall be lawful for the Governor to make.
3. If the purchaser shall not forthwith pay the full amount of purchase money agreed upon in cash so soon as the said amount shall be agreed upon, he shall be allowed to pay the same in manner following, that is to say, by three annual instalments,—the first to be paid forthwith so soon as the amount of purchase money shall be agreed upon as aforesaid, and the other two at intervals of one year respectively.

4. If the purchaser shall fail to pay the second or subsequent instalments when the same shall become payable respectively, the money already paid by him shall be returned to him, deducting thereout, by way of liquidated damages for the breach of the contract to purchase, a sum equivalent to five pounds sterling per cent. on such amount of the purchase money as shall remain unpaid, together with such sum, if any, as may be due for rent and other charges, if any, upon the said land, under or by virtue of the lease thereof; and the said lease shall, unless otherwise vitiated, be regarded as though the same were all along subsisting, without any contract for purchase or sale having subsisted with regard to the same lands.
  5. Until the entire purchase money shall be paid, the purchaser shall continue to pay rent under and by virtue of his lease, and to perform the other conditions, if any, of the same, which shall be deemed to be a subsisting lease, notwithstanding any such contract for purchase as aforesaid unless vitiated otherwise under the terms thereof, or of the said Act No. 19 of 1864.
  6. Upon the payment by the purchaser, at the stated times agreed on, of all the purchase money, and of all rents and other payments due in respect of the said lease, he shall be allowed interest after the rate of six pounds per cent. per annum in respect of the several instalments of the purchase money deposited by him from the date of the deposit thereof, respectively, until such date of payment; and thereupon he shall be deemed from thenceforward as proprietor on quitrent of the land so purchased, and may require forthwith a grant of title upon quitrent to the said lands theretofore held by him upon lease, which grant it shall be lawful for the Governor to make.
  7. In fixing the value of the land applied for under the above conditions, the value of the industrial improvements made by the lessee who applies shall not be taken into consideration.

To Consolidate the Public Debts of the Colony payable in England.

Preamble.

WHEREAS the public debts of this Colony made payable in England amount in all to a sum of one million four hundred and twenty-three thousand four hundred pounds, with interest, whereof divers sums are payable, respectively, at divers times from the thirty-first day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, to the thirty-first day of December, one thousand nine hundred, respectively, as will more fully appear in the statement thereof contained in the schedule hereto: And whereas provision has been already made for the payment of the sum of fifty thousand pounds sterling, due and payable in the course of the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and there remains the sum of one million three hundred and seventy-three thousand four hundred pounds, with the interest thereon, to be provided for: And whereas there is good reason to believe that the said debts, other than the said debt of fifty thousand pounds sterling last before mentioned, may be consolidated with advantage to this Colony, and that provision may be made by which the same may be fully consolidated, and by which, at the same time, the yearly interest thereon may be paid and the debts themselves may be gradually extinguished, so that within a term of thirty-seven years the same may be altogether discharged by means of an annual charge on the revenues of the Colony continued during the said term of thirty-seven years, not exceeding the sum of ninety thousand pounds: And whereas it is expedient that such consolidation should be effected as far as possible: Be it enacted by the Governor of the Cape of Good Hope, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly thereof, as follows:—

Funds for effecting conversion may be raised upon debentures.

2. It shall be lawful, for the purposes of such conversion, for the Governor, through such agent or agents, to raise and take up upon debentures, subject to such terms and conditions as shall seem best calculated to effect such conversion on the best terms for the Colony, such sum or sums of money as may be necessary to effect the same: Provided that the annual charge to be thereby imposed on the public revenues of the Colony for the purposes of paying the interest and providing for the extinction of the entire of the debt thereby created shall not at any time exceed such sum as, together with the interest due on the said public debts intended to be consolidated, and for the time being remaining unconverted and unconsolidated, shall amount to a sum of ninety thousand pounds sterling yearly: And provided, also, that the terms on which such debentures shall be issued by the Governor as aforesaid shall provide for the complete extinction of the entire debt thereby created within the term of thirty-seven years, by means of such annual charge as aforesaid on the revenues of the Colony; after which period such annual charge shall cease and determine, unless Parliament shall otherwise direct.

No. 7—1870.

Extinction of debt to be provided for.

3. The Governor shall, through such agent or agents as aforesaid, and subject to the conditions in the last foregoing section mentioned, have full power to prescribe the mode and conditions of repayment of the loan to be taken up on such debentures as are hereby authorised, and the terms and conditions of such debentures, and the time and place of such repayment, and the rate of interest thereon, and the time and place for payment of such interest.

5. [Repealed by Act No. 14, 1872.]

6. As a fund for the payment of such interest and for the gradual extinction of the debt to be raised under authority of this Act, there shall be charged and chargeable upon, and set apart out of, the annual revenues of this Colony an annual sum equal to the interest on the whole amount of such debentures as shall be issued under authority of this Act, and a further sum equal to one pound sterling per centum on the total amount of the principal or capital sum which shall be raised under the authority of this Act; and such sum shall be annually charged on and payable out of the revenues of the Colony so long as any portion of the debt to be raised under authority of this Act, or any interest thereon, shall remain unpaid and unextinguished; and such annual charge shall, so soon as such debt and interest shall have been all paid and extinguished, cease and determine.

Fund for payment of interest and for extinction of debt.

7. Such portion of the fund which shall under the last foregoing section be charged and chargeable annually on the revenues of the Colony as shall not be required for the payment of the interest for the time being due upon the debentures to be issued under authority of this Act, or for the necessary expenses of such consolidation and conversion as aforesaid, shall be applied in redeeming and cancelling the debentures to be raised under authority of this Act, in such manner and form as shall be provided by the terms and conditions whereon and whereunder such debentures shall be issued respectively.

Application of fund.

11. All such debentures of the Government of this Colony which shall be redeemed, or purchased, or converted under the authority of this Act, or by means of the moneys raised thereunder, and which are chargeable on the general revenues only of this Colony, shall immediately on the receipt thereof be cancelled by such agent or agents as aforesaid, and shall by him or them as soon as may be thereafter be transmitted to the Treasurer-General of the Colony.

Debentures chargeable on other funds to be ceded to Treasurer-General when redeemed.
