

Equine leptospirosis in tropical Northern Queensland

C Wangdi,^a J Picard,^a R Tan,^a F Condon,^b B Dowling^c and B Gummow^{a,d*}

Supporting information S1

Telephonic questionnaire survey form

Date: Case no:

Owner's name:

Address:

Shire: Postcode:

Patient's name: Species: Equine Breed:

Sex [please]: Male Female Gelding Age: Year(s) / Month(s) [please]

Property Identification Code (PIC):

A. What is the horse mainly used for and what per cent of its activity time?

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. Racing | 6. Mustering stock |
| 2. Breeding | 7. Dressage |
| 3. Endurance riding | 8. Cross country eventing |
| 4. General pleasure/pony club | 9. Not used for anything |
| 5. Polo/polocrosse | 10. Rodeo/cutting horses |

B. How is it housed and fed?

- Complete pasture access with little or no stable feeding.
- Complete stable feeding with little or no pasture access.
- Combination of pasture and stable feeding.

3a. What per cent of time does it spend in pasture?

Pasture _____ % Stable _____ %

C. Does it share pasture space with other species of animals?

Species	Yes	No	Species	Yes	No
1. Cattle	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	5. Dogs	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
2. Goats	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	6. Camel	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
3. Pigs	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	7. Sheep	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>
4. Alpacas	<input type="radio"/>	<input type="radio"/>	8. Wild animals:

D. What is the main source of water your horse gets to drink from?

- | | |
|--------------------|-----------------------|
| 1. Bore well | 5. Pond/stagnant pool |
| 2. Dam | 6. Municipal water |
| 3. Reservoir water | 7. River |
| 4. Creek | 8. Others: |

E. Do you have problems with rats, mice and other rodents in your property?

Yes No

If yes, do they get into feed storage area? Yes No

F. What are the main agricultural activities in the locality?

- | | |
|--------------|---------------------------|
| 1. Sugarcane | 4. Fodder plantation |
| 2. Banana | 5. Any other fruit trees? |
| 3. Papaya | |

G. What are the main domesticated species of animals that adjacent neighbouring properties have?

- | | |
|-----------|------------------|
| 1. Cattle | 4. Horse |
| 2. Pig | 5. Dog |
| 3. Sheep | 6. Others: |

H. Has it ever been vaccinated against Leptospirosis?

Yes No Not known

*Corresponding author.

^aSchool of Veterinary and Biomedical Sciences, James Cook University, Townsville, Queensland, Australia; bruce.gummow@jcu.edu.au

^bTableland Veterinary Services Malanda, QLD, Australia

^cTownsville Veterinary Clinic, Aitkenvale, QLD, Australia

^dFaculty of Veterinary Science, University of Pretoria, Pretoria, South Africa

I. Has it ever had ocular disease (swollen eyes, watering eyes, red eyes, eye ulcer)?

Yes No Not known

J. Has it ever been diagnosed by your veterinarian as suffering from kidney disease?

Yes No Not known

K. Has it suffered from high fever in the past one year?

Yes No Not known

L. Has it ever had yellow eye mucous membrane or yellow gum in the last one year?

Yes No Not known

M. For breeding mares:

1. Has it ever aborted?
 Yes No Not known
2. Has it ever had stillbirths?
 Yes No Not known
3. Has it ever been found empty after being confirmed as pregnant?
 Yes No Not known
4. What proportion of the mares on the premises has been found to be barren after they are mated with stallion?

.....

N. How many adult horses do you have in this property?

1. Do you have adult horses on other properties?
 Yes No How many?
2. Do horses from different properties come into contact with each other?
 Yes No