UP Library Service's Web 2.0 Journey

Presented by Johann van Wyk on 14 October 2009 at the Knowledge Management Practitioners Group of Pretoria Meeting, at the CSIR Knowledge Commons, Pretoria

Gartner Hype Cycle for Emerging Technologies 2009

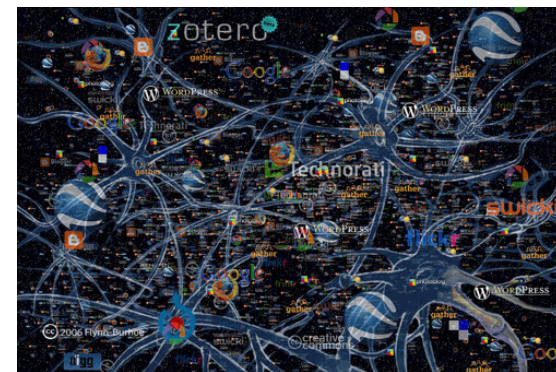

Overview of Presentation

- Definition of Web 2.0
- Background
- Different types of Web 2.0 tools
- Potential barriers to using Web 2.0 tools
- Implementing a Web 2.0 tool
- Overview of different tools, with examples of how UP implemented them, and what value they have for libraries
- Conclusion

Web 2.0

- Refers to a supposed second-generation of Internet-based services - such as social networking sites, blogs, wikis, communication tools, and folksonomies - that let people collaborate and share information online in ways previously unavailable.”

Web/Library 2.0

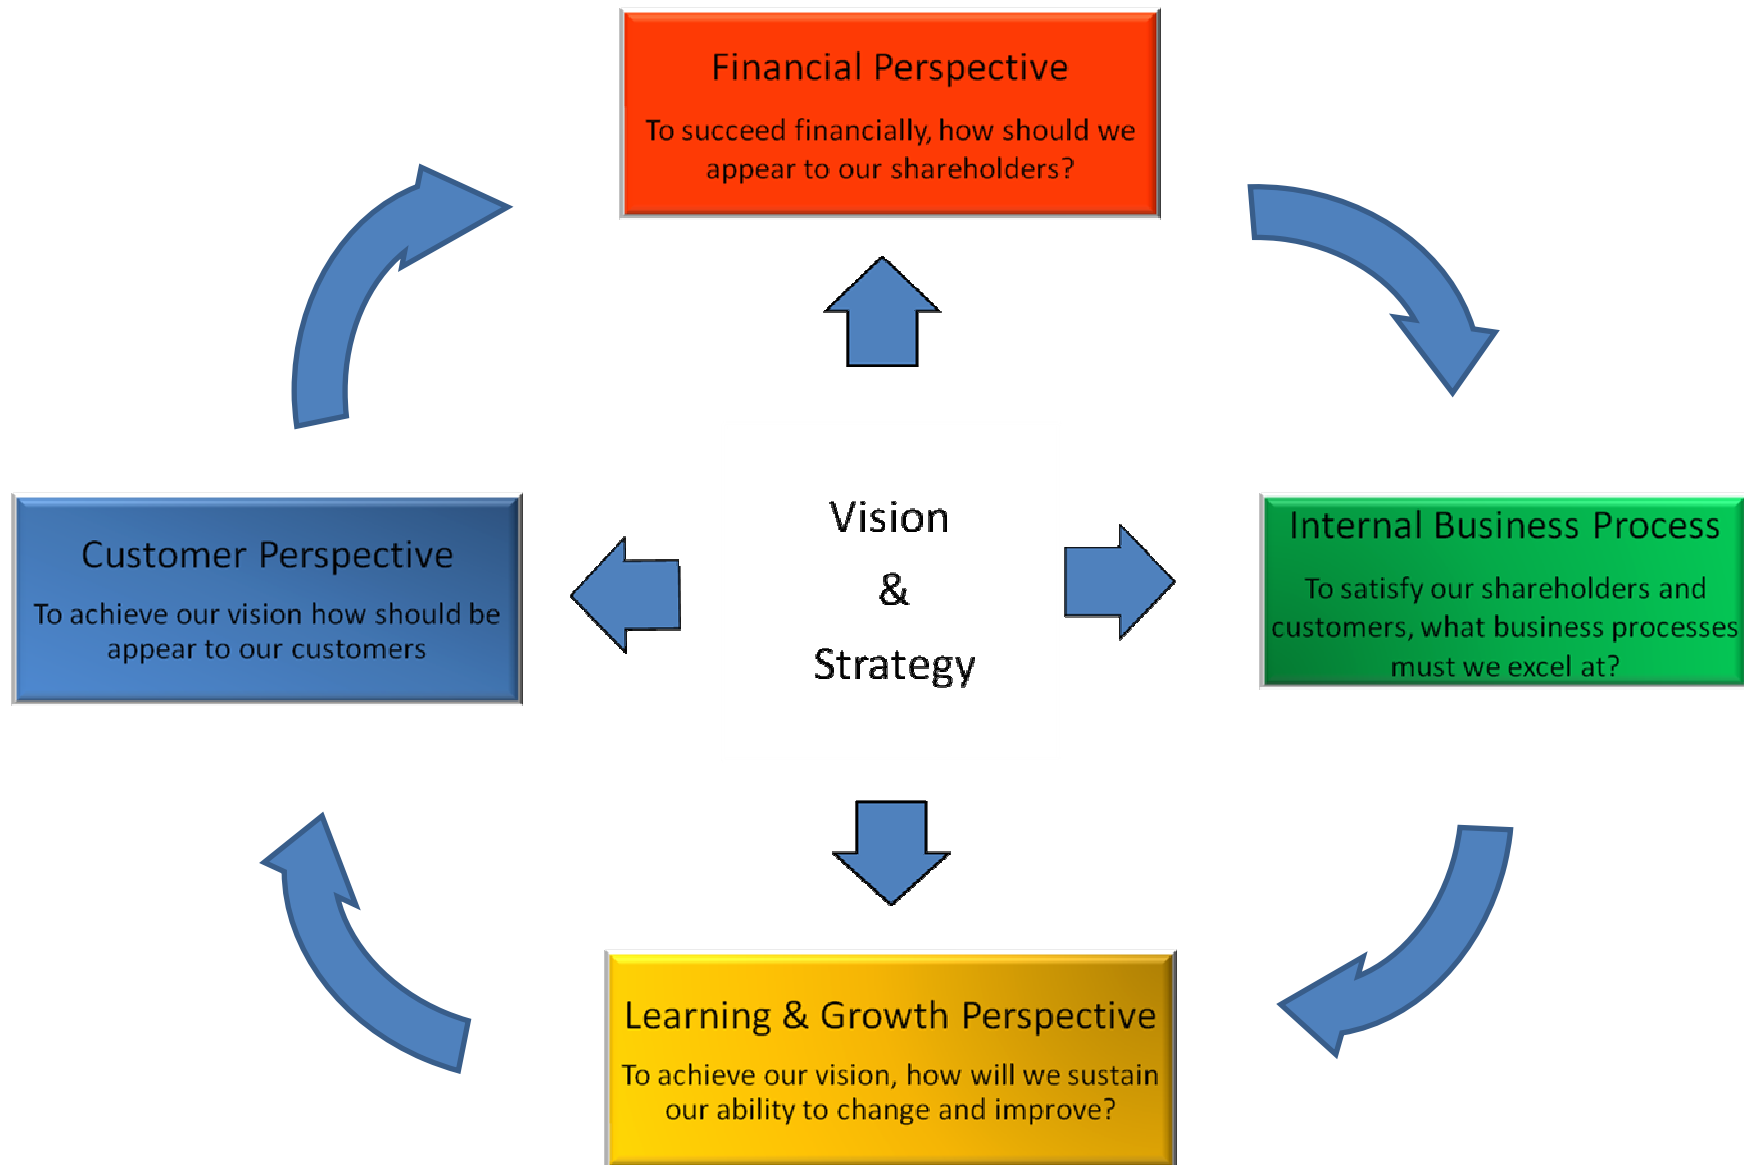

LIBRARY 2.0 MEME MAP

Background

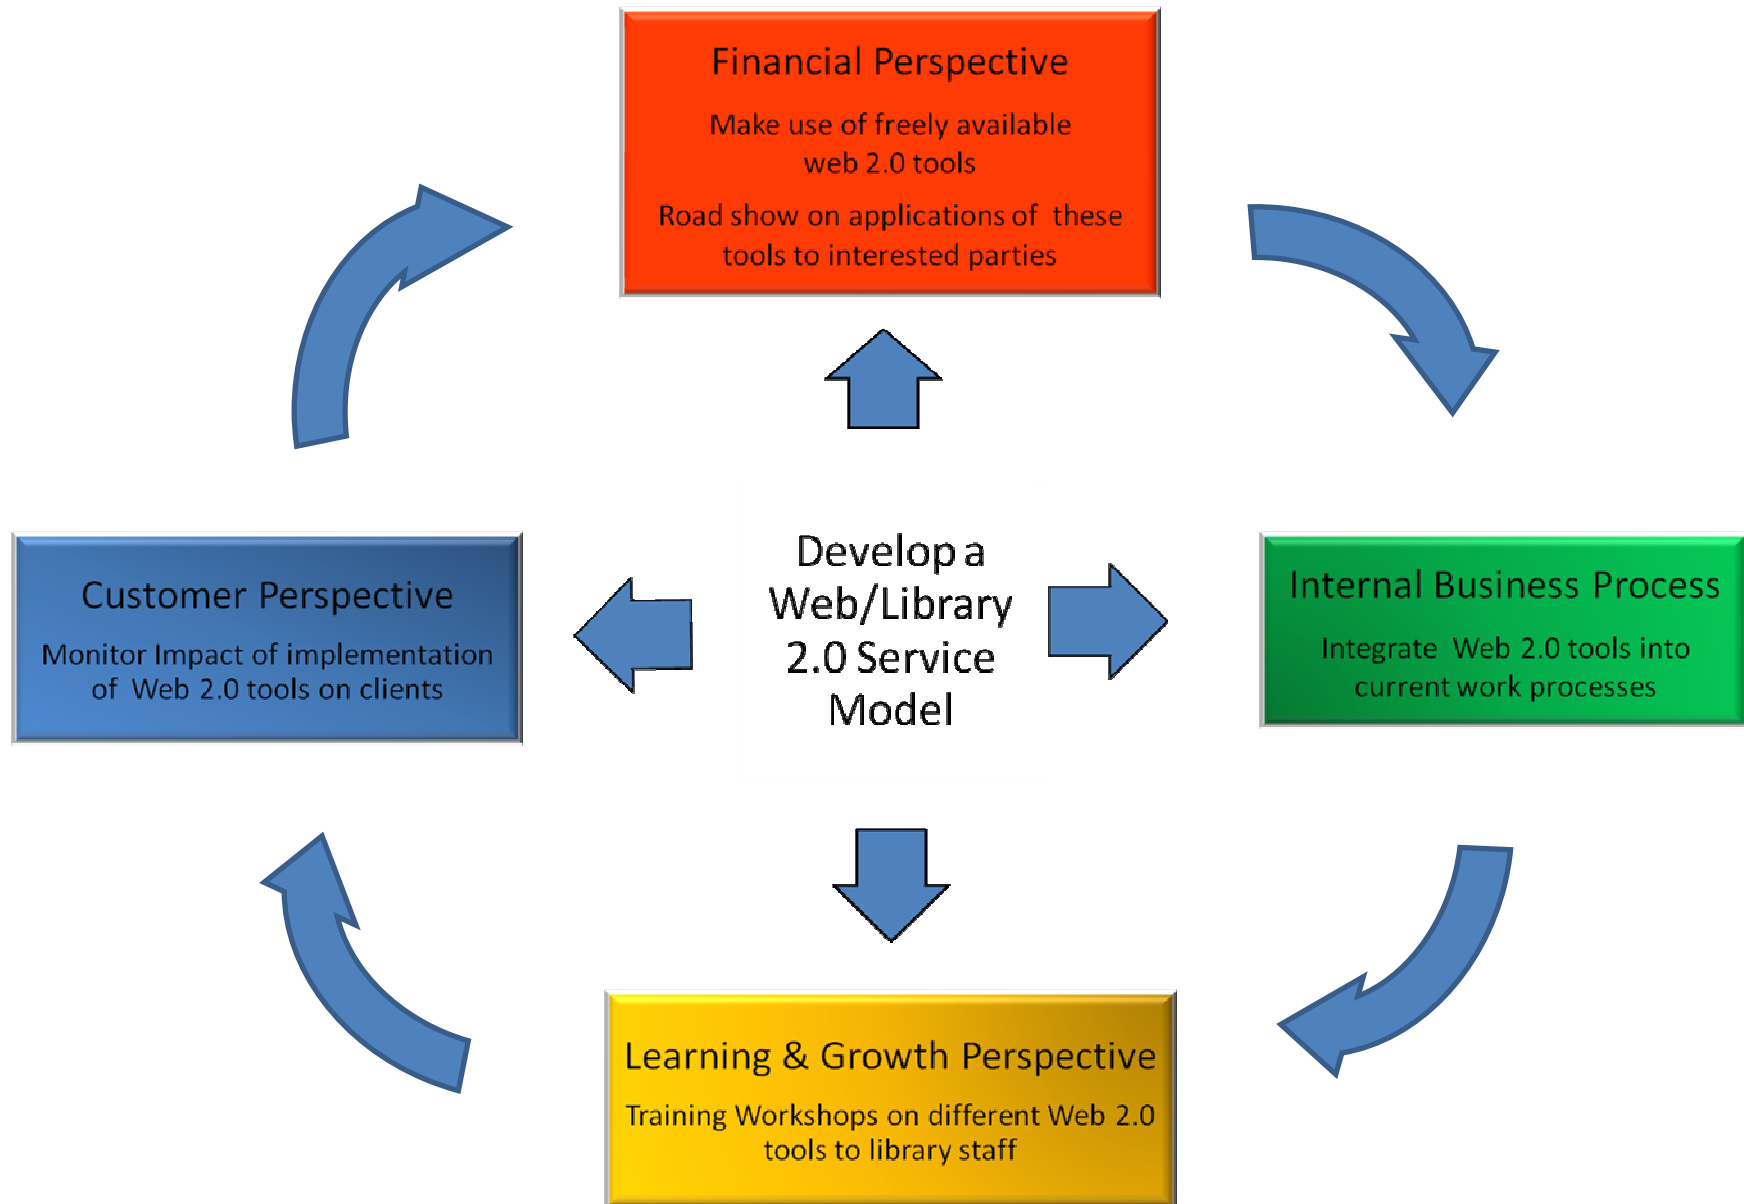

- UP Library Services Strategic Plan 2008
 - As part of e-strategy decided to Develop a Library/Web 2.0 Service Model
- Library/Web 2.0 Planning Workshop in January 2008:
 - Decided to focus on Flickr, YouTube, and Blogging and Wikis for 2008
- 60 Minute Practical Workshops to training staff in different Library/Web 2.0 tools
- Library/Web 2.0 Roadshow to demonstrate best practices to rest of staff
- At the end of 2008 staff at the UP Library Services had implemented much more than originally planned

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the Education Library Blog @ University of Pretoria. The browser's address bar shows the URL <http://edulibpretoria.wordpress.com/>. The page features a navigation menu with links for Home, About, Downloads, Permission, and Web 2.0. A prominent blue banner reads "EDUCATION LIBRARY BLOG @ UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA". Below the banner are links for "Entries RSS" and "Comments RSS", and a search box. The main content area displays a post titled "Opening Access to Knowledge in Southern African Universities" by Johann van Wyk, dated 19 June 2009. The post text discusses a report from the Southern African Regional Universities Association (SARUA) regarding access to knowledge in the SADC Region. A sidebar on the left includes a "Library Website" link (<http://www.library.up.ac.za/edu/>) and a "Library Facebook" link. A calendar for June 2009 is visible on the right, with the 11th and 19th highlighted. At the bottom, there is a "Google Translator" section with the text "translate page in:". The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button and several open applications, including "Meeting with Monash...", "Department of Librar...", "Education Library Blo...", "mikrotik hotspot > st...", and "Engaging clients thro...". The system clock in the bottom right corner shows "08:35 AM".

Support for one unified education standards body in South Africa

Posted on 5 August, 2008 by Johann van Wyk

Business and civil society in South Africa recently expressed support for a proposal to introduce a single qualifications body in education in their submissions to the portfolio commission on Education. In terms of the draft National Qualifications Framework Bill, the South African Qualifications Authority would be responsible for the development, registration and publication of qualifications. At present, Umalusi is [...]

教育部长建议更换3年的大学学位程度四年

发布8月15日, 2008年约翰内斯堡Wyk

为期三年的大学学位在南非可能是过去的事, 如果教育部的提议作出度4年课程, 接受高等教育理事会。 根据这份为期四年的程度是个人的想法部长关闭之间的差距大学和企业后, 雇主表示, 大学毕业生缺乏语言技能。(她认为所有的学生至少应具备的工作知识的一个土著语言, 并介绍了非洲历史和文明)。 四年级的学生将给予额外的时间大学需要做额外的培训。

另一个问题是, 她发现高的学生人数谁辍学。 有几个因素, 有助于这一点。 学校不教适当的语言技能和许多一年级学生的斗争, 以应付学术语言和独立的研究和学习。

第四年因此将是一个过渡性的一年工作场所。

Value of using a Wiki to build a Bibliography

- Valuable for collaboration among information specialists /librarians
- Value added feature: librarians add sources that are of value to their clients
- Work in progress
- End product: a valuable reference source for clients of the library. Could even be published as a book.

The main content area is titled "What is Twitter?" and includes three tabs: "What?", "Why?", and "How?". Below the tabs is a graphic of a yellow bird on a branch, with a list of tweets overlaid. The text below the graphic reads: "Twitter is a service for friends, family, and co-workers to communicate and stay connected through the exchange of quick, frequent answers to one simple question: What are you doing?". A green "Get Started—Join!" button is positioned below this text. To the right of the main content is a "Please sign in" section with input fields for "user name or email address:" and "password:", a "Remember me" checkbox, and a "Sign In »" button. Below the sign-in section are links for "Forgot password? Click here." and "Already using Twitter from your phone? Click here.". At the bottom of the page, there are three quotes from TIME Magazine and Wired, stating: "If you aren't familiar with Twitter, it is one of those things, like MySpace, that sounds totally ridiculous and stupid when you first hear about it. But once you start using it, you realize how much fun it is.", "Twitter is on its way to becoming the next killer app.", and "It's almost like ESP". The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the Windows start button, several open applications, and the system tray with the time "05:16 PM".

Value of Twitter

- Freely available
- Library has a presence where its users are
- Can use Twitter as another communication tool with clients
- You can link Twitter to your mobile phone and tweet on the go
- Twitter can be linked to most blogging sites
- It can be used as a marketing tool about new services, products, announcements and events in your library
- It can be used for reminders of important resources, instruction sessions and new book arrivals
- You can use it to keep your clients informed about interesting links, sites etc.
- Can use Twitter as reference service
- Does this tool work in the library?
- We get very little feedback / participation from our primary library users. Get more feedback from the public or other librarians, which is good for networking

Value of Flickr for Libraries

- Freely available
- Provides a place where you can you can upload /archive pictures of your library, or pictures of events
- Flickr is a well established tool
- Can use it as a marketing tool for your library and its services
- It increases your library's presence on the web.
- But would rather place collections/slides that are part of library collection on an institutional repository

Value of Slideshare

- Available for Free
- Valuable resource where Powerpoint/Word presentations can be made available on the Web
- Valuable marketing tool
- Can be used to market an event
- Makes your library more visible on the web
- You can join groups that share your interests
- Within 2 days of uploading this presentation, the Education Library already had over 200 people visiting the slide presentation

YouTube

YouTube is a “video sharing community” - site where anyone can upload videos, search for videos, can comment, rate and make video responses to videos

Example of YouTube Channel: UP Library

The screenshot shows a Mozilla Firefox browser window displaying the YouTube channel for 'UP Library'. The address bar shows the URL <http://www.youtube.com/user/UPLibrary>. The browser's menu bar includes File, Edit, View, History, Bookmarks, Yahoo!, Tools, and Help. The toolbar contains navigation buttons, a search bar, and various utility icons. The page content is organized into several sections:

- Left Sidebar: A vertical list of video uploads. Each entry includes a video thumbnail, the title 'The Merensky Story - Part X', a description 'The story of Hans Merensky and the history of the Merensky Library of th...', and a 'more' link. The entries are dated '(5 months ago)'.
 - UPLibrary uploaded a new video (5 months ago)
 - The Merensky Story - Part 3
 - UPLibrary uploaded a new video (5 months ago)
 - The Merensky Story - Part 2
 - UPLibrary uploaded a new video (5 months ago)
 - The Merensky Story - Part 1
- Main Content Area: A grid of video thumbnails with their respective titles, upload dates, view counts, and channel names.
 - Row 1:
 - Kidszone Puppet show: 1 year ago, 143 views, UPLibrary, no rating.
 - Student Interview: 1 year ago, 101 views, UPLibrary, no rating.
 - UP BookJol Exhibitors: 1 year ago, 66 views, UPLibrary, no rating.
 - Row 2:
 - Department Library Services Univ...: 10 months ago, 590 views, UPLibrary, no rating.
 - Oliver R Tambo Law Library: 8 months ago, 172 views, uplibrary1, no rating.
 - The Merensky Story - Part 4: 5 months ago, 23 views, UPLibrary, no rating.
 - Row 3:
 - The Merensky Story - Part 3: 5 months ago.
 - The Merensky Story - Part 2: 5 months ago.
 - The Merensky Story - Part 1: 5 months ago.
- Right Sidebar: A 'Subscribe to UPLibrary's videos' button.

The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the system tray with the time '01:07 PM' and a McAfee SiteAdvisor icon. The taskbar includes icons for YouTube - UPLibrary..., Microsoft PowerPoin..., and the Windows Start button.

Value of using YouTube

- Freely available
- A place where you can upload/archive video clips on services, products, events and information literacy training
- Marketing channel for services and products of your library
- Loading your videos on YouTube saves a lot of server space at your institution (also saving costs). (In the cloud)
- Drawback: Slow broadband speed in SA makes viewing difficult. SEACOM cable will hopefully improve this

Facebook

Facebook is a social networking site that “gives people the power to share and make the world more open and connected”. Facebook is used to “keep up with friends, upload an unlimited number of photos, share links and videos, and learn more about the people you meet.”

(<http://www.facebook.com>)

Value of Personal Profiles of Library Staff on Facebook

- Freely available
- Library staff has a presence where the majority of the clients are
- Provides another platform for library users to communicate with their information specialists
- Marketing tool for the library and its services
- It increases the library's presence on the web
- But it failed: We have found that very few, if any primary library users contact our library staff in this way, but we are there.

Business Facebook

Business Facebook is a Facebook page for your organisation or business. It does not have the same functionalities as a personal Facebook page. On the site you will find the contact details of the organisation, office hours of the organisation. It has a wall where people can write comments, and a place where information about products, services, videos, events is shared. People can also sign up as fans of the organisation (library).

Business Facebook of UP's Library Services

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the Facebook page for UP Library Services. The browser's address bar shows the URL: <http://www.facebook.com/pages/Pretoria-South-Africa/UP-Library-Services/34563526704>. The browser's menu bar includes File, Edit, View, Favorites, Tools, and Help. The Facebook page header features the Facebook logo, a login form with fields for Email and Password, and a "Remember Me" checkbox. Below the login form is a yellow banner with a "Sign Up" button and the text "UP Library Services is on Facebook. Sign up for Facebook to connect with UP Library Services." The main content area shows the profile picture of UP Library Services, which is a photograph of a library interior. The page navigation tabs include Wall, Info, Photos, Boxes, and The Catalogue. The "Info" tab is selected, displaying the following information:

- Information
- Location: Department of Library Services, University of Pretoria, Pretoria, South Africa, 0002
- Phone: +27 12 420 3007
- Hours:
 - Mon: 7:30 am - 9:00 pm
 - Tues: 8:30 am - 9:00 pm
 - Wed - Thurs: 7:30 am - 9:00 pm
 - Fri: 7:30 am - 8:00 pm
 - Sat: 8:30 am - 1:00 pm
- Fans: 6 of 143 fans (See All)

The main feed shows a post from UP Library Services dated May 28 at 5:28am, titled "UP Library Services Now you can access your library resources right here". The post includes a link to "Tuks Library Catalogue" and a source. Below the post, there are two comments: "Arnold Papahulu, Elizabeth and Tania like this." and "Tihogelo at 4:27am June 4 i forgot my password how do i create a new one?". Another post from UP Library Services dated March 23 at 6:37am features a photograph of Vikas Swarup and the text: "Vikas Swarup at UP Slumdog Millionaire author at UP World-renowned author, Vikas Swarup, will be delivering a public lecture at the University of Pretoria on March 27. Host: UP Library Services Time: 6:00PM Friday, March 27th Location: Musaion, University of Pretoria, Hatfield campus". The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, several open applications (Novell GroupWis..., Microsoft Power..., Department of Li..., UP Library Servi..., Departemente v..., Document2 - Mic...), and the system tray with the time 01:18 PM.

Value of a Business Facebook

- Freely available
- Library has a presence where majority of its users are
- Provides another platform for library users to communicate with Library
- New technologies, photos, videos, services can be shared via this platform on regular basis
- Can be used as a marketing tool for the library and its services
- Increases the library's presence on the web
- Success? The UP Library's business facebook is still very recent; it has been quite popular(number of fans), but we still need to monitor this longer to see whether this was successful”

Example of an organisation's page on LinkedIn

The screenshot shows a Windows Internet Explorer browser window displaying the LinkedIn profile of the University of Pretoria. The browser's address bar shows the URL: http://www.linkedin.com/companies/university-of-pretoria?trk=cus_copro_tab. The LinkedIn navigation bar includes links for People, Jobs, Answers, and Companies, along with options for Account & Settings, Help, Sign Out, and Language. A search bar is visible with the text "Search Companies" and a search button.

The main content area features a sidebar on the left with navigation options: Home, Groups, Profile, Contacts, Connections, Imported Contacts, Network Statistics, Inbox (5), and Applications. Below these is a green "Add Connections" button. A profile card for Johann van Wyk, Library Manager of Education Library at University of Pretoria, is shown with a progress bar indicating "Your profile is 75% complete [Edit]".

The main profile section is titled "University of Pretoria" and includes tabs for Overview and Careers. The overview text states: "The University of Pretoria is a university in Pretoria, the administrative capital of South Africa, with a total of about 57,409 students being enrolled in 2008. This makes it one of the country's largest residential (contact) universities. The university is a leading research and teaching university." It also mentions a 2009 Webometrics ranking as the 2nd best university in South Africa. A "Specialties" section highlights the university's high research output and collaborations. A "Current Employees" section lists 11 individuals, including Johann van Wyk, Christelle Steyn, Ina Smith, and Bettie de Kock.

On the right side, there are sections for "Related Companies" (listing CSIR and UNISA), "University of Pretoria employees are most connected to:" (listing Kalooga, Netherlands Defence Academy, CSIR, and Visions Consulting), and "Key Statistics" (listing Top Locations in Johannesburg Area, South Africa).

The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button and several open applications: Novell GroupWise, Microsoft PowerPoint, and Internet Explorer. The system clock indicates the time is 09:18 AM.

- Valuable tool to market the library
- Valuable tool to give directions to the library
- Can link to Google Earth Map from your web page

Alerting/Web Feed Tools

Web Feeds are generally found under orange buttons labelled `XML' or `RSS'. By clicking on these buttons you subscribe to a news feed (updates) on a site with your feed aggregator. New additions to the site (News) is automatically fed to the aggregator where it can be read

RSS Feed to new books in the Library

The screenshot shows the Millennium Library Catalog website in Internet Explorer. The browser's address bar displays the URL <http://explore.up.ac.za/screens/mainmenu.html>. The page header includes the University of Pretoria logo and the text "UPEXplore Library Catalogue Department of Library Services". A navigation menu at the top contains links for "Library Home", "About the Library", "Libraries / Units / Collections", "E-Resources", "Journals", "Catalogue", and "Contact".

The main content area features a search interface with tabs for "Keyword", "Title", "Author", "Subject", "ISBN/ISSN", and "Journal Title". Below the search bar, there is a text input field and a "Search" button. A dropdown menu shows "UP Libraries (Except Mamelodi)".

On the right side, there is a sidebar with "Other Searches:" and "Library Feeds:" sections. The "Library Feeds:" section is circled in red and contains the following items:

- ▶ My Library Record
- ▶ UP Libraries
- ▶ CSIR Collection
- ▶ GIBS Collection
- ▶ Mamelodi Collection
- ▶ Entire UP Collection
- ▶ New Books
- ▶ Library Feeds (Items Received)
- ▶ New orders (Not yet received)

Below the "Library Feeds:" section, there is a link for "Need Search Tips?".

The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the "start" button, several open applications including "Novell GroupWise - M...", "Millennium Library Cat...", and "Microsoft PowerPoint ...", and the system clock showing "07:39 AM".

Value of RSS Feeds

- Freely available
- Keeps clients of the library informed about new books in the library (marketing tool)
- Updated automatically
- Valuable tool to keep track/statistics of new acquisitions

Gaming Tools

Games can be used in libraries as part of training, learning, and research initiatives. A variety of different software is available, but UP chose “Thinking Worlds” because it was available as Open Source, but now only available at a cost

<http://www.thinkingworlds.com/>

Game for information literacy training at UP library

- Pilot project in 2008
- Game for information literacy training of undergraduate students (4000 students partook)
- Game for information literacy training of medical students (300 students partook)

Task instructions are given at the start of the game

In this game you will have to search for ten characters

- * Each character will have a clue
- * You cannot proceed to the next clue if you do not have all the previous clues
- * All the information given in each clue is important and all the topics must be read
- * You must answer the questions on your PDA icon on the computer after you have found all the clues
- * Please note that once you start with the test you will not be able to go back to any of the clues
- * On completion of the questions - put up your hand for an assistant to verify your marks

GOOD LUCK AND ENJOY!!

Clear learning goals at the start of each new game

In this task you will learn what is available on our Health Sciences library web page and How to use the Library Catalogue to:

- * Find books
- * Find journal titles
- * Find audiovisual material
- * Borrow books
- * How to use the study collection

The avatar can interact with different characters.

Value of using a Game for information literacy training

Feedback from clients in pilot project:

- “A young modern approach to an important component of research”
- “The game was fun, modern, doable, informative and quite interesting!”
- “It was not at all dull or anything. It rocked!”
- “This is an excellent way to orientate first year students on how to use the library”
- “Awesome idea of using the game instead of just a boring talk”

iGoogle

The screenshot shows the iGoogle homepage in a Windows Internet Explorer browser window. The browser's address bar displays <http://www.google.co.za/ig?hl=en>. The page features a search bar with the text "iGoogle" and buttons for "Google Search" and "I'm Feeling Lucky". Below the search bar, there are navigation links for "Web", "Images", "News", "Groups", "Books", "Scholar", "Gmail", and "more". The user's email address, "johann.vnwk@gmail.com", and links for "Classic Home", "My Account", and "Sign out" are visible in the top right corner.

The main content area is divided into several widgets, each with a red circle and an arrow pointing to it from a red text label:

- Twitter: Points to the "TwitterGadget" widget, which shows a profile for "johannvanwyk" with a follower count of 140 and a list of tweets from "library2".
- Gmail: Points to the "Gmail" widget, which displays an inbox with several "Google - Google Alert - education south africa - Google" messages dated from 13 Aug to 17 Aug.
- Facebook: Points to the "facebook" widget, which shows a search bar, "Upload Photos" instructions, and "3 friend requests" and "1 group invitation".
- LinkedIn: Points to the "LinkedIn Answers: Technology" widget, which lists questions like "Interoperability for VoIP" and "Do we have LinkedIn C or C++ library available?".
- IOL News: Points to the "IOL: Top Stories" widget, which lists news items such as "Sapa's daughter dies in family shooting" and "Off-duty cop assaulted by angry residents".

The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the "start" button and several open applications: "Novell GroupWise - M...", "Microsoft PowerPoint ...", "3 Internet Explorer", and "Document1 - Microsof...". The system tray on the right shows the time as "09:28 AM" and a "100%" zoom level.

iGoogle

The screenshot shows the iGoogle homepage in a Windows Internet Explorer browser window. The address bar displays <http://www.google.co.za/ig?hl=en>. The page is populated with several widgets, many of which are annotated with red text and arrows:

- Google News: A widget on the left side showing three news items from "Library 2.0" on Twitter, such as "Genetically modify MARC records with your OPAC".
- News 24: A widget in the middle-left section titled "News24 Top Stories" with headlines like "Strike: Rail commuters spared" and "All 4 fire attack victims die".
- Google Weather: A widget at the bottom left showing the weather for Pretoria, with a current temperature of 11°C and a 4-day forecast.
- BBC News: A widget in the middle-right section titled "BBC News | Africa | World Edition" with headlines like "Ghana clears ex-leader Okudzua" and "Tanzania police cleared of murder".
- EduNews Blog: A widget on the right side titled "Education Library Blog @ University of Pretoria" with headlines like "Dr. Cheryl de la Rey appointed as new vice-Chancellor and Principal of the University of Pretoria".
- Google Sport News: A widget at the bottom right titled "Sport Top Stories" with headlines like "No 'absurd' offer for Habana" and "Durban poised for humdinger".

Other visible widgets include "Top Stories" (circled in red), "Weather" (circled in red), "IOL: Top Stories", "Bio-Drugs: Asia Pacific Region", "You have 1 group invitation", "Create a Security Question", "Status Updates", and "Sport Top Stories". The browser's taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button, several open applications (Novell GroupWise, Microsoft PowerPoint, Internet Explorer, Document1), and the system tray with the time 09:30 AM.

Lessons learned

- Convince Top Management & IT Dept of value of these tools
- Identify one or two tools to start experimenting with
- Make tools part of strategic planning
- Give staff members freedom to experiment
- Make these tools part of staff members' performance evaluations
- Reward staff for successful implementations
- Integrate tools in daily work processes
- Give staff members training if necessary
- Showcase success stories to rest of your staff
- Communicate/Market these tools to your clients
- Learn from the mistakes of others

The bio identifies him as the 44th President of the United States, with 757,868 following and 2,174,373 followers. The main content area displays four tweets from September 10th and 14th, 2009, discussing financial reform and congressional support. The right sidebar contains sections for "Tweets" (364), "Favorites", "Actions" (including a "block" button), and "Following" (a grid of user avatars). The Windows taskbar at the bottom shows the Start button and several open applications, including a presentation titled "Twitter.ppt".

Conclusion

Libraries currently find themselves in an environment where the focus is on collaboration, participation, interaction, connection, transparency and real-time delivery of information. At the same time libraries are faced with economic constraints, because of the economic downturn. Library 2.0 tools can address these issues.

Library clients on the other hand are increasingly using web 2.0 tools to socialize, work, play, interact, network, search for and Share information etc.

We cannot wait for clients to come to the library anymore! We can take the library to them and engage them by utilising the different Web 2.0 Tools.
