Dear Sir Herbert.

Many thanks for your letter of September 21st and the enclosed sketches which are most ^{valuable} interesting for my collection.

I am sorry that I did not have them earlier as I should have liked to include one or two of them in the book which ^{is} now ^{however} in the hands of the publishers.

I hope to get down to the Cape next year & complete my surveys in connection with the Early 19th century work - at the same time do some more work in the Stellenbosch district, where I shall then have an opportunity of finding out which ^{of my} of the buildings you have sketched are still standing.

One of the sketches is of particular interest as portion of the gable has been destroyed &

The present ones were very good

I hope to have the book out about March or April. With my best regards for you please come in later with your sketches to see if I can do anything for you.
