" Early Victorian & debased Gothic " of which there were two instances also The Anglo Indian adopted bungalow ~~The~~ which possessed merit, was little thought of. Students for importation of iron ~~cattle~~ castings & ready made formers was the chief work of the Architect of that time. There was no thing except old Indian Temple which showed a feature of the Art spirit - no tiles made & imported. Bad slates and iron roofs.

10. I think I've said this in writing to Mr Trotter's work.
11. Mr Watts house Kensington & other houses in which he had to advance slowly & lead rather than drive taste and lectures gain the confidence of public taste.
12. I met him riding with Lord Carey on the mountain the first time "I went to build my house"
Then at my first interview he gave me very few attractions.
13 Can I say more than in the XIX Cent Article.
