

FROM MR HERBERT BAKER, A.R.A.

14, BARTON STREET,
WESTMINSTER, LONDON, S.W.1.
TELEPHONE, VICTORIA 7109.

- and its usual conception I admit - for the curved edge of the tiles
thick.

Preliminary. beginning of the U.D.

I was sent to the firm, ~~chosen~~ told to choose & recommend a site. I had chosen the town, surrounding

I had once condemned the site chosen & bought in the town
I tentated between Meintze Kop & the hills to the ^(between Station and the Square)
South (in it - towards river - above the White tower)

I ~~went~~ ^{rode} with lady & horse all over Meintze Kop - which we chose ^{partly} on acct of its closeness with first house and we pictured a connecting road between the two
a Via Sacra along the Kopp. but better interest:
prevented that

the actual site ^(we chose) was dominated by a natural amphitheatre of the west of ~~the~~ with few & faint and ~~explained~~ we thought that at the heels would have