

FROM MR HERBERT BAKER, A.R.A.

14, BARTON STREET,
WESTMINSTER, LONDON, S.W.1.
TELEPHONE, VICTORIA 7109.

"I would have had their theatre there, as at Lejerdá so let's build the ^{heart} make an amphitheatre the focus of the building" "

Smith with ~~also~~ agreed at once, and he imprinted the idea ~~to~~ with the ~~the~~ Cabinet

"It is great encouragement and not great criticism which produces ~~the best~~ great art -"

- is which makes - artist to do his utmost -

^{I feel that}
and, what may be found in the Union Buildings

is due to the encouragement - and the trust which underlies it - given me & the transwell

movement and by few' North - but Smith

- in particular.

This quotation above — is from Masseyfield accounting to Shakespeare, but with being produced when James I. reigned & patronised
the stage