Table S1. Summarized bibliometric data retrieved from the WoS and Scopus databases from 1951 to 2021 on research conducted on the assessment of dirty dozen chemicals in the African environment.

| General information | | Publication types | | Publication contents | | Authors information | |
|-----------------------------------|-------|--------------------|-----|---------------------------------------|------|------------------------------|------|
| Publications | 884 | Article | 856 | Keywords | 5315 | Single-authored publications | 54 |
| Average years from publication | 12.2 | Book | 1 | Authors | 2436 | Publications per Author | 0.36 |
| Average citations per publication | 19.1 | Book chapter | 4 | Author Appearances | 4081 | Authors per Publication | 2.76 |
| Average citations per year | 1.83 | Review | 23 | Authors of single-publication | 42 | Co-Authors per publications | 4.62 |
| References | 28773 | Total publications | 884 | Authors of multi-authored publication | 2394 | Collaboration Index | 2.88 |

Table S2. Top 20 most productive author countries on research conducted on the assessment of dirty dozen chemicals in the African environment from 1951 to 2021 ranked based on number of publication, total citation (TC), and publication start year (PSY).

| Rank | Authors | Affiliations | Publications | TC | PSY |
