

Supplemental Figure 1. Display of Twisp e-cigarettes alongside nicotine replacement therapy in a large South African retail store, 2018

Photo Credits: Photo by Prof OA Ayo-Yusuf, BDS, MPH, PhD, Africa Centre for Tobacco Industry Monitoring and Policy Research, Sefako Makgatho Health Sciences University, Pretoria, South Africa.

Supplemental Figure 2. Reasons for smoking currently among current regular combustible tobacco smokers who tried to quit but relapsed, by e-cigarette use status, South Africa, 2018 (n=4,309)

