CHILDREN.—Children are required to take their meals at the special tables provided for them.

DIVINE SERVICE, etc., will be held in the main saloon every Sunday at 10.30 a.m., weather permitting, and all are invited to attend.

BAGGAGE.—Questions relating to baggage should be referred to the Purser.

SURGEON.—The Surgeon of the vessel is authorised to charge for professional attendance at the rate of 7s. 6d. in the case of first class passengers, and 4s. 0d. in the case of cabin class passengers, per visit, this fee to include medicines. Accounts for medical attendance will be rendered by the Surgeon before the end of the voyage.

DECK CHAIRS.—Deck chairs are provided on board, for hire to passengers at a charge of 2s. 6d. each for the continental voyage; 2s. 6d. each between England and Madeira, Las Palmas and Teneriffe; 5s. each between England and St. Helena, Ascension, or any South or East African port or Mauritius, and for the East Coast voyage via Suez Canal; and 2s. 6d. each on the South and East African Coast between any two coast ports.

LETTERS, TELEGRAMS, etc.—For the convenience of passengers a mail will be made up on board previous to arrival at each port.

All information regarding telegraph rates, postal rates, stamps, etc., can be obtained from the bureau before the vessel's arrival or departure.

All passengers must furnish their addresses on the forms provided for the purpose on board, this information being required on the outward voyage by the authorities in South Africa, and on the homeward voyage by the port sanitary authorities. The assistance of passengers in this matter is requested in order to facilitate the forwarding of any letters, telegrams, etc., which may arrive after they have left the vessel, or any articles that may be left in the cabins. Circulars or other printed matter of a similar nature will not be forwarded.

Passengers must apply personally for registered letters and packages to the Purser.

On the homeward voyage, on the arrival of the vessel in England, letters, etc., are sorted and will be handed out to passengers in the respective classes on application. When the vessel comes alongside the quay, the bureau is kept open until the passenger trains have left the shed.

Passengers are recommended to attend to the posting of their own letters in the letter box, and it must be distinctly understood that while every care will be taken, the Company cannot accept any responsibility in connection with the posting, receiving, forwarding, or transmission of letters, telegrams, parcels, etc.

WIRELESS SERVICES in mail and intermediate vessels enable passengers to keep in touch with their friends throughout the voyage, through coast wireless stations at tariff rates by Radiotelegram or, at much cheaper rates, by ship letter telegrams. Full particulars and charges can be obtained from the Wireless Operators on board.

VALUABLES, etc.—Passengers' valuables or money may be handed to the Purser to be deposited in the vessel's safe for custody during the voyage, for which a small charge is made of 3s. 6d. per £100 upon the declared value of each parcel or deposit, with a minimum charge of 2s. (parcels required during the voyage can be re-deposited at half-rates), a receipt being given on behalf of the Company for valuables so deposited.

LIBRARIES.—The libraries are open daily and the Librarians are in attendance to give out and receive books.

Any books found lying about are returned to the libraries, but passengers will be held responsible for the loss of any book registered in their name. The charge for books lost from 1st or cabin class libraries is 7s. 6d. per volume, unless otherwise shewn.

TIME TABLES.—Railway time tables, postal guides etc., are available for reference at the bureau.

COMPLAINTS.—Any complaint should be addressed to the Commander at the time of daily inspection.

Particulars of Outward, Homeward, and Coastwise Services

ROYAL MAIL SERVICE.—The South African Royal Mail Vessels are despatched from Southampton every Friday for Capetown, Port Elizabeth, East London and Natal via Madeira. On the outward journey the Royal Mail Vessels proceed as far as Natal, at which port they commence the homeward voyage, sailing thence every Thursday; from East London every Friday; from Port Elizabeth every Saturday; arriving at Capetown usually on Monday morning, and proceeding thence to Southampton, via Madeira, on the Friday.

Passengers landing at Madeira may enjoy a very interesting excursion to Terreiro da Lucta by the Mount Railway Company's trains which make the trip in half an hour. Tickets may be obtained from the Purser.

INTERMEDIATE SERVICE.—The Intermediate Vessels taking first and tourist class passengers only at lower rates than by the Royal Mail Vessels, are despatched fortnightly from London, for Capetown, Port Elizabeth, East London, Natal, Lourenço Marques (Delagoa Bay), and Beira. These vessels proceed alternately via Las Palmas (Grand Canary) and Teneriffe, calling at Lobito and Mossel Bay monthly.

THE MAIL SERVICE TO ST. HELENA AND ASCENSION is performed by the Intermediate Vessels calling at these Islands, outward and homeward, approximately every four weeks.

There is a regular homeward service by Intermediate Vessels from Beira, Lourenço Marques, Natal, East London, Port Elizabeth and Capetown, via Las Palmas or Teneriffe to England.

EAST COAST SERVICE.—Once each month a passenger vessel is despatched to East and South African ports via Suez, returning via the West Coast and Canary Islands, and there is a similar service to South Africa via the Canary Islands, returning via East Coast ports and Suez.

MAURITIUS SERVICE.—Connection between England and Mauritius is maintained by vessels at certain intervals.

WALVIS BAY.—Calls at Walvis Bay are made on the outward voyage at stated intervals.

OCEAN RETURN TICKETS.—A reduction off the amount of two single fares is made on ocean return tickets. Ocean return tickets are available for twelve months.

SINGLE TICKETS, RE-BOOKING ALLOWANCE.—Passengers who have taken a single ticket only from England or South Africa (paying the full single tariff fare thereon), and who return within twelve months from the date of embarkation, will be allowed a reduction of 10 per cent. on the amount of the single journey back, on production of the counterfoil of the first single ticket taken by them. This concession does not apply to passages coastwise or to ports at which the vessels of the Union-Castle Line do not call.

The period of twelve months specified above cannot in any circumstances be extended.

PREPAID PASSAGES, OUTWARD OR HOMEWARD.—Passages can be prepaid in England or South Africa for friends on the other side, and advice of such passages can be sent by cable at a small additional expense if desired. The Company, however, does not accept any responsibility for any inaccuracy, mistake or oversight on the part of the Company's servants or agents, or any other persons, in the wording, despatch or delivery of any telegram or letter in connection with these prepaid passages, or for any consequences arising therefrom.

Remittances of small amounts can also be made to passengers at the same time.

SPECIAL HOLIDAY TOURS at reduced rates are usually in operation at certain periods of the year to or from South and East Africa and to Madeira, Canary Islands and the Continent. Full particulars may be obtained from any of the Company's offices or agents.

Handbook of Information for passengers can be obtained gratis from the Purser on board.

THE SOUTH AND EAST AFRICAN YEAR BOOK AND GUIDE, over 1,100 pages with 64 pages of maps in colour, On sale in the Hairdresser's shop, price 2/6.
