THE DEATH OF DR. LIVINGSTONE.

The following telegram, dated Aden the 27th instant, has been received at the Foreign-office, from her Majesty's Acting Consul-General at Zanzibar:—"The report of Livingstone's death is confirmed by letters received from Cameron, dated Unyanyembe, October 20. He died of dysentery after a fortnight's illness; shortly after leaving Lake Bemba for eastward, he had attempted to cross the lake from the north, and failing in this had doubled back and rounded the lake, crossing the Chambize and the other rivers flowing from it; had then crossed the Luapula and died in Lobisa, after having crossed a marshy country with the water for three hours at a time above the waist; ten of his men had died, and the remainder, consisting of 79 men, were marching to Unyanyembe; they had disembowelled the body and had filled it with salt, and had put brandy into the mouth to preserve it. His servant, Chumas, went on ahead to procure provisions, as the party was destitute, and gave intelligence to Cameron, who expected the body in a few days. Cameron and his party had suffered greatly from fever and ophthalmia, but hoped to push on to Ujiji. Livingstone's body may be expected at Zanzibar in February. Please telegraph orders as to disposal. No leaden shells procurable here."

(BY SUBMARINE TELEGRAPH.)

(FROM A CORRESPONDENT.)

ADEN, TUESDAY.

Dr. Livingstone died at the end of May or beginning of June between Lake Bemba and Lake Tanganyika, of dysentery, caused by wading through water for several days. His body has been preserved in salt by his servants. When Lieutenant Cameron wrote on the 22nd October from Unyanyembe, the body was expected to arrive in four days. Lieutenant Cameron was suffering from temporary blindness. He intended to proceed at once to Ujiji, to get Dr. Livingstone's papers.

(THROUGH REUTER'S AGENCY.)

GOTHA, JAN. 27.

Herr Richard Brenner, the German African traveller, has sent a communication from Zanzibar to Dr. Petermann, announcing the death of Dr. Livingstone, and stating that it occurred on the 16th of August, in the neighbourhood of Unyanyembe
