The second sign you have to remember looks a lot like the first one, so don't get confused! This one looks like this (g). When you see this sign, it means that the word tells us more about something - how something looks or what it feels like. These are words that are ugly, or beautiful (because these words tell us how something looks, doesn't it?) or words like hard or soft because they tell us what something feels like, doesn't it? Can you think of more words? (wait for response & acknowledge or correct). Good. We will start now. We will show you the pictures while we explain them. Please listen very well and do not talk to your friends while we are explaining the pictures.
