Confidentiality Agreement

Date _____________________

Ann Rogan and __________________________ agree to enter into a contract together.
We will participate in a research project that will attempt to describe the experience of learning to become an educator.

We also agree that confidentiality will be maintained by

1. Keeping the names of the participants and the schools anonymous.
2. Discussing our conversations only with appropriate people (i.e. degree advisors)
3. Sharing information about what will be written and/or published.

The work together will consist of interviews over the school year, classroom observations and sharing documents.

Either person at any time may stop participation in the project.
