APPENDICES

Appendix1: Letter of intent

Dear

Greetings in Christ.

My name is James Wonsuk Roh. I am writing my PhD dissertation in the department of practical theology at the University of Pretoria in South Africa. The topic of my research is a reflection upon the loneliness of Korean elderly in family support, from a Christian-pastoral perspective

I am conducting a critical description of interview with the elderly who have adult children and live in Korea as part of my research. The aim of the interview is to hear the stories of the elderly about life, relationships, and conflict in parent care between them and their adult children. I have sought the help of K Y Lee who ministers as a senior pastor in Incheon Second Presbyterian Church, Incheon, South Korea and it is for this reason that he has introduced you to me.

I will present the information provided through the interviewing sessions with you, in my dissertation. It will be used to give crucial relevance and a cornerstone to my research. Therefore, your response through interviewing is very important to this study. I encourage you to be open-minded and display a sincere attitude during the interviewing. I assure you, your response will be kept confidential. No one will be identified by name in my dissertation, and no individual will know the information through interviewing except me. After completing the research, I guarantee, all material concerning interviews will be appropriately disposed of. Please be assured of for that. Thank you very much for your co-operation.

Yours faithfully in Christ, Wonsuk James Roh, PhD student
Faculty of Theology, University of Pretoria, South Africa
