"The Lord is my Shepard I shall not want". And He lived to that promise this year, in every way possible.

Alleluia

Daddy and Amooti, you are the reason that I am here. Life is so much better because you are who you are.

The boys, Twine, Roy, SugarRay and Roni thank you for the constant support and encouragement. Roy the softie's were a life line!! Na no lulara!

Jacki and Ethan you were always o my mind. Thank you for the prayers and support.

Rose, for being the best niece ever.

Thania, what can I say? My stoep will never be the same! You are a good friend! And that's putting that lightly.

Selepe, am as surprised as you are that you made it to this page. In spite of you and despite me you are truly special and a good friend!

Lee Burger. Let's say that I learnt to live in the sink and dishwasher, when I get one.

John Duran. Your insight into alternative building methods and informal architecture within suburbia was invaluable. Thank you.

Derrick deBryn for constantly challenging me, and dragging this work out of me. Thank you
