

JOHANNESBURG CAMERA CLUB WINS EMPIRE PHOTOGRAPHIC COMPETITION.

Johannesburg scored a signal victory this year in the competition staged annually by the Amateur Photographer, open to amateur clubs throughout the Commonwealth. The Camera Club of Johannesburg won the competition and the Johannesburg Photographic Society was the runner-up. This is one of the photographs included in the winning entry from the Camera Club. It is of the Dutch Reformed Church at Milner Park and was called "To the Glory of God." The author is Mr. C. Seldon, of Kensington.
