ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

I am most grateful to Doctor Graham Duncan for his encouragement, for always being available and for his practical support and also to Professor V.W. Hofmeyer.

The benefit of support from Doctor C. Steyn from the University of South Africa has been invaluable in the completion of my dissertation. Her support and knowledge of the subject, and obvious spiritual maturity has been inspirational.

My family has given me great support, both from a motivational point of view and in all practical aspects. Their love and encouragement during a serious illness has enabled me to complete this work.

Professor Felicity Edwards of Rhodes University has given me more than encouragement. It is by her dedication that I can truly understand that God lives. There is no compromise of my Christian faith in understanding and loving those of other faiths, and by her dedication and teaching my faith in Jesus Christ has found a true foundation, without fear or malice towards others.

I also thank Freemasons from the constitutions of English, Scottish, Irish and Netherlandic Masonry for their openness and trust. In particular George Grobler of Pretoria who, before his death in June 2003, was a great source of information and a witness to the grace and love one person can have for others.

DECLARATION

I, the undersigned hereby declare that this dissertation is my own original work, that all sources have been accurately reported and acknowledged, and that this dissertation has not previously in its totality, or partially been submitted for the attainment of a degree at any university.
