CHURCH PLANTING IN THE SOUTH AFRICAN INDIAN COMMUNITY, WITH REFERENCE TO THE REFORMED CHURCH IN AFRICA

by

Petrus Johannes Perold de Beer

Submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree

Doctor Philosophiae (Ph.D)

In the Department of Missiology
Faculty of Theology
University of Pretoria

Promoter: Prof Dr P G J Meiring
Submitted: April 2010
“You are not your own,
you were bought at a price.”
(1 Cor 6:19-20)

To Marietha
The “romance” of a missionary is often made up of monotony and drudgery; there often is no glamour in it; it doesn’t stir a man’s spirit or blood. So don’t come out to be a missionary as an experiment, it is useless and dangerous. Only come if you feel you would rather die than not come. Lord Wolsey was right: “A missionary ought to be a fanatic or he encumbers the ground”. Come if you feel there is no greater honour, after living for Christ, than to die for Him.
CHURCH PLANTING IN THE SOUTH AFRICAN INDIAN COMMUNITY, WITH REFERENCE TO THE REFORMED CHURCH IN AFRICA

by

Petrus Johannes Perold de Beer

Submitted in partial fulfilment of the requirements for the degree

Doctor Philosophiae (Ph.D)

In the Department of Missiology
Faculty of Theology
University of Pretoria

Promoter: Prof Dr P G J Meiring
Submitted: April 2010
ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

Upon the completion of this dissertation the overpowering emotion is one of deep thankfulness. The goodness of God and his gracious undertaking with his church in a world of many religions has left one with speechless admiration: How great is God!

I regard it a great privilege that I could write a first history of the life and mission of one of the youngest churches of the Dutch Reformed Family of Churches.

I wish to express my sincere appreciation to the following:

Prof Dr P G J Meiring, my promoter, for his encouraging enthusiasm, constructive criticism and guidance.

The ministers and members of the Reformed Church in Africa who so willingly responded to interviews.

To Rita Naudé, thank you for thousands of hours of selfless service in the typing and editing of the thesis. Additional gratitude to the following people; Daleen Muller, Nalini Moonsamy, Nundy Naudé and Sannie Meiring for their contributions.

My wife, Marietha and family for their inspiration and sacrifice.

Above all I am forever indebted to God, my Saviour Christ Jesus, for grace undeserving.
In 1956 the DRC invited the renowned Dr Oswald J Smith from the People’s Church in Toronto, Canada, to conduct evangelistic services in South Africa. I was seated in the top gallery of the Bosman Street Dutch Reformed church in Pretoria when I heard this anointed servant of God speak on the incident when Jesus took the meagre meal of bread and fish from the little boy, prayed and then had it passed on to all present. ‘What would have happened,’ asked Dr Smith ‘if Jesus only served the first three rows and then began again and again with the first row?’ ‘Surely’ he said ‘the people in the back rows would have shouted, “and what about us?”’ It was then that I realized what God was saying to me: ‘Go share the Gospel to the neglected Hindu and Muslim people in South Africa. You give them something to eat. That unforgettable Sunday evening my whole life changed and I never looked back again. Dr Smith’s watchword rings in my ears to this day: ‘Why should anybody hear the Gospel twice before everybody heard it at least once?’

I made my first acquaintance with the Hindu and Muslim community in South Africa when the local minister, Rev J P W de Vries of the DRC Hartbeespruit, Pretoria shared with our youth group his heartfelt concern for the Indian folk of Marabastad.

When I saw the physical and spiritual plight of the community, my heart broke. That was 10 June 1956.

Prof A van Selms who taught Semitic Languages at the Pretoria University lived just down the road from where I stayed with my parents. He offered to teach us the religion of Islam at my parent’s home. Once a week we sat glued to our seats as he passed on his unsurpassed knowledge of Islam.

My first congregation was the DRC of Adelaide in the Eastern Cape. Though I simultaneously received a call to pioneer missions among Indian people in Northern Transvaal, I decided to decline the call. Two years later I was called again and this was the opportune time to accept the call. I was inducted in a tent erected on the Church site in Laudium, Pretoria.
At that time the work in Laudium was part of the Transvaal congregation, with preaching stations in Benoni and Lenasia. My colleagues were Dr C du P le Roux in Benoni and Prof C J A Greyling in Lenasia. The work in Laudium prospered and a beautiful church building was erected at 261 Jewel Street. Funds were obtained through the selling of Christmas cards by the young people of the ‘KJA Indiërsending’. Through the tremendous efforts of Mrs Katie du Toit (Prof H D A du Toit’s wife) funds were generated for the church building.

On the 29th of October 1972 the foundation stone was laid and the Charisma congregation established.

I was privileged to serve the following congregations:

1. NGK Adelaide (Eastern Cape) 1964 – 1965
2. IRC Transvaal (Pretoria) 1966 – 1971
3. RCA Charisma (Pretoria) 1972 – 1979
4. RCA Emmanuel (Durban) 1979 – 1981
5. RCA Jeshurun (Durban) 1981 – 1991
6. RCA Charisma (Pretoria) 1991 – 2004
OVERVIEW

The spice route around the Cape of Good Hope established links between the refreshment station in the Cape and India. This foreshadowed the official involvement between South Africa and India. By 1700 up to 50% of the slaves in the Cape were of Indian descent.

As early as the 17th century, the DRC had been involved in outreach work to the Muslim community in the Cape. It took a considerable length of time after the Indians had settled in Natal in 1860, however, before the DRC became involved in this new field. It was only in 1946 that the church officially began mission work among the Indian people and more specifically the Hindus. A number of factors however hampered the outreach work, such as political antipathy, the English language, fear of economic competition, the foreign culture, and their religion.

The Mission Boards of the DRC, in time, acquired not only the necessary funds, but also the manpower for the task. In the sixties they commenced to work in Natal, as well as in the Cape and Transvaal. A number of important issues landed on the desk of the Mission Board, such as membership of ministers, the form of baptism, the period of catechism for older believers, aspects of organizational questions regarding the formation of a new church, the training of evangelists and ministers, and a church order for the newly established church.

The first missionaries, being pioneers in the work among the Indian people, were all white ministers either from the DRC, the DRC Missions Church (NGSK) or the DRC Church in Africa (NGKA). These early missionaries were determined to ensure that the Gospel was brought to this neglected community in a clear and forceful way. The challenges involved were obviously enormous.

The first evangelists were all Indians and by and large workers belonging to other churches. The appointment of evangelists proved to be a great asset. As co-workers of the missionaries, they opened doors to Hindu homes that would have been closed to the foreign missionaries.
By 1962 four congregations had been established and in 1968 the Indian Reformed Church was formed. Two years later the use of evangelists in the IRC was discontinued. Six years later the name of the church was changed to 'Reformed Church in Africa', establishing the church as an open community.
Strong resolutions were taken against any form of racism. The church was now established as an open church where all races would be welcome. In the seventies it was the RCA that took the initiative to call upon the NG Kerk, the NG Kerk in Afrika and the NG Sendingkerk to consider possible unification. The RCA remained strongly focussed on reaching Muslims and Hindus.

The resolution of the WARC in 1982 to suspend the NGK and the denouncement of apartheid as heresy by certain members of the RCA led to a serious confrontation with the NGK and a schism in the RCA.

The reconstruction of the RCA began in 1986 and in 1990 the RCA adopted the Laudium Declaration, affirming that the church was Reformed, and an Evangelical Reformed Church. A period of remarkable rebuilding and growth ensued. The Laudium Declaration became the hallmark of the RCA. The specific reformed, evangelical and mission orientated qualities had to be met. Evangelists were again trained and sent out.

The RCA offers important insights to all believers in a pluralistic community. In spite of a flood of liberal theological thinking, the RCA holds zealously to her Reformed Evangelical position as expressed in the Laudium Declaration.
ABBREVIATIONS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Abbreviation</th>
<th>Full Form</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>AFM</td>
<td>Apostolic Faith Movement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>ASSK</td>
<td>Algemene Sinodale Sendingkommissie</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CMS</td>
<td>Church Missionary Society</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>CCLI</td>
<td>Christian Copyright Licensing International</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DRC</td>
<td>Dutch Reformed Church</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DRCA</td>
<td>Dutch Reformed Church in Africa</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DRMC</td>
<td>Dutch Reformed Mission Church</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>DRIC</td>
<td>Dutch Reformed Indian Church</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>EEIC</td>
<td>English East Indian Company</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>GSMC</td>
<td>General Synodical Missions Committee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IRC</td>
<td>Indian Reformed Church</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>IMC</td>
<td>Indian Mission Committee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>KJV</td>
<td>Kerkjeugvereniging</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>KJA</td>
<td>Kerkjeugaksie (Church Youth Movement)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LD</td>
<td>Laudium Declaration</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LMS</td>
<td>London Missionary Society</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MYM</td>
<td>Muslim Youth Movement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NGK</td>
<td>Nederduitse Gereformeerde Kerk (DRC)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NGKA</td>
<td>Nederduitse Gereformeerde Kerk in Afrika (DRCA)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>NGSK</td>
<td>Nederduitse Gereformeerde Sendingkerk (DRMC)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>N-Tvl</td>
<td>Northern Transvaal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RCA</td>
<td>Reformed Church in Africa</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>RES</td>
<td>Reformed Ecumenical Synod</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>REC</td>
<td>Reformed Ecumenical Council</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SSK</td>
<td>Sinodale Sending Kommissie</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SACC</td>
<td>South African Council of Churches</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SC</td>
<td>Synodical Committee</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>S-Tvl</td>
<td>Southern Transvaal</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SSBD</td>
<td>Sentrale Sendingbestuur van Durban</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SAGM</td>
<td>South African General Mission</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>SANSSSA</td>
<td>South African National Sunday School Association</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UTM</td>
<td>Universal Truth Movement</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>URC</td>
<td>Uniting Reformed Church</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Acronym</td>
<td>Description</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>---------</td>
<td>--------------------------------------------------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>UDW</td>
<td>University Durban Westville</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>URCSA</td>
<td>Uniting Reformed Church in South Africa</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WARC</td>
<td>World Alliance of Reformed Churches</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>YMMA</td>
<td>Young Men’s Muslim Association</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
RCA Church, Laudium
INDEX

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Acknowledgements</th>
<th>i</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Preface</td>
<td>ii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Overview</td>
<td>iv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Abbreviations</td>
<td>vi</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER ONE - INTRODUCTION

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1.1 Relevance</th>
<th>1</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1.2 Hypothesis</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.3 Goal of the Study</td>
<td>1</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.4 Methodology</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5 Definitions</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5.1 Missions</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5.2 Dutch Reformed Church Family</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.5.3 Indian Reformed Church (IRC) and the Reformed Church in Africa (RCA)</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>1.6 Structure of the thesis</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

CHAPTER TWO - EVENTS THAT LED TO THE ESTABLISHMENT OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN AFRICA: EARLY BEGINNINGS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>2.1 Christianity in India in the late 19th Century</th>
<th>6</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>2.1.1 Roman Catholic Missions</td>
<td>8</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2 Protestant Mission</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.1 Baptist Missions</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.2 Anglican Missions</td>
<td>11</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.3 Methodist Missions</td>
<td>13</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.4 Lutheran Missions</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.2.5 Presbyterian and Reformed Missions</td>
<td>14</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.1.3 Overview</td>
<td>16</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>2.2 The South African Connection</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
2.2.1 The first Dutch Reformed Missionary to Ceylon - Rev M C de Vos (1804 - 1809) 18
2.2.2 Revival of Missionary Interest: The Boer Prisoners of War (1900 - 1902) 19

CHAPTER THREE - THE ARRIVAL OF THE INDIANS IN SOUTH AFRICA FROM 1860-1911 WITH PARTICULAR REFERENCE TO THEIR RELIGIOUS AFFILIATION AND CUSTOMS 23
3.1 The Indian Immigrants to South Africa 24
3.1.2 Natal Sugar Industry 24
3.1.3 Negotiations and Recruitment 24
3.1.4 Passenger Indians 28
3.1.5 Socio-Political Position 30
3.1.6 Religious Affiliation 36
3.2 The Hindu Community in SA 38
3.2.1 Religion and tradition under pressure 39
3.2.2 Language Groups 41
3.2.3 Hinduism in South Africa 42
3.3.1 The arrival of the Indian Muslims in South Africa 47
3.3.2 Islam in South Africa 50
3.4 The Indian Christian Community in South Africa 55

CHAPTER FOUR - FIRST EFFORTS TO SHARE THE GOSPEL WITH HINDUS AND MUSLIMS IN SOUTH AFRICA 58
4.1 Roman Catholic Missions to Indians in South Africa 59
4.2 Protestant Missions to Indians in South Africa 61
4.3 Dutch Reformed Church’s Mission to Indians 68
4.3.1 Missions among Muslims in the Cape 69
4.3.2 Mission among (during) the Muslims in Transvaal 73
4.3.3 Mission among the Muslims in Natal 75
4.3.4 Mission among the Hindus in Natal 75
4.3.5 Mission among the Hindus in Transvaal 79
4.3.6 Mission among the Hindus in other parts of the country 85
Chapter Five - A Church between the Temple and the Mosque: The Establishment of the Reformed Church in Africa

5.1 The Church between Temple and Mosque: a small but lively community

5.2 Establishment of the Indian Reformed Church

5.3 The Composition and the Role of the Mission Boards

5.3.1 The Congregational and Presbytery Missions Committees

5.3.2 Synodical Mission Committees (Sinodale Sendingkommissie and Indian Mission Sub Committees - Indiërsending Sub-Kommissies)

5.3.3 Federal Missions Council (Federale Sendingraad)

5.3.4 The Federal Council of Dutch Reformed Churches (Federale Raad van Nederduitse Gereformeerde Kerke)

5.3.5 Liaison Committee for Mission to the Indian People (Skakelkommissie vir sending onder Indiërs)

5.3.6 Sub-Committee for Muslims and Hindu Mission (Subkommissie insake Moslem en Hindoe Sending)

5.4 The Composition and role of the Pioneering Mission Workers

5.4.1 The First Missionary Pioneers were as follows:-

5.4.2 The Later Pioneering Missionaries (1959 - 1983)

5.4.3 Pioneering Evangelists of the RCA (1957 - 1968)

- Prof C J A Greyling
- Rev D J Pypers
- Dr C du P le Roux
- Rev J Pretorius

5.4.4 Pioneering Evangelists of the RCA (1957 - 1968)

5.4.5 Pioneering Lay-Workers (1946-1968)

5.5 Voluntary Workers

5.5.1 Missionary Conferences

5.6 Training of Ministers

5.7 Recruitment and training of Evangelists
5.7.1 The Recruitment of Evangelists
5.7.2 The training of Evangelists
5.8 Recruitment and Training of Lay Workers and Voluntary Workers
5.9 General Synod of the Dutch Reformed Church
5.10 Establishment of the First Four Congregations
5.10.1 Pietermaritzburg
5.10.2 Transvaal
5.10.3 Durban South (Est. 1965)
5.10.4 Cape Province (1966)
5.11 Mission Endeavour and Church Policy in a Challenging Environment
5.11.1 Mission Policy
5.11.2 Outreach
5.11.3 Preaching
5.11.4 Teaching
5.11.5 Discipline and Church Policy
5.11.6 Policy of the Dutch Reformed Church
5.11.7 Commitment, Charity and Christian Service
5.11.8 Fellowship and Ecumenical Awareness
5.11.9 Worship
5.11.10 Baptism
5.11.11 The Lord’s Supper
5.12 Missiological Perspectives (1946-1968)
5.12.1 Kerugma Dimension
5.12.2 Diakonia Dimension
5.12.3 Koinonia Dimension
5.12.4 Leitourgia Dimension
CHAPTER SIX - CRUCIAL ISSUES IN THE ESTABLISHMENT AND LIFE OF THE RCA

6.1 The relationship between the ‘mother’ and the ‘daughter’ 160
6.2 Growing from a receiver to a spreader of the gospel 163
6.2.1 A comprehensive view of mission 163
6.2.2 Kerugma in the ministry of the RCA 165
6.2.3 Koinonia in the ministry of the RCA 166
6.2.4 Diakonia in the ministry of the RCA 167
6.2.5 Leitourgia in the ministry of the RCA 169
6.3 The ministry of Deliverance 175
6.3.1 The reality of the occult in the RCA’s ministry 175
6.3.2 Dealing with the occult: a Reformed perspective 177
6.4 Developing a Church Order 178
6.5 A self-sustaining Church? Financial dependence in the RCA 180

CHAPTER SEVEN - CRISSES AND OPPORTUNITIES IN THE LIFE OF A YOUNG CHURCH

7.1 Living in Apartheid South Africa 182
7.1.1 Barred from entering a Public Area 184
7.1.2 Fear to enter a white church 184
7.2 Strained relations within the DRC family 186
7.3 Appealing to government 188
7.4 Ottawa: Status Confessionis 190
7.5 Defining the Church’s theological identity:
   The Laudium Declaration 191
   The text of the Laudium Declaration 194
7.6 Discontent in the ranks of the Church 196
CHAPTER EIGHT - THE RCA ON ITS WAY TO THE FUTURE

8.1 Empowering the Local Churches:
   Training Clergy and Laity
8.1.1 The relationship between the faculty and the RCA is defined as follows
8.1.2 The requirements for entering the ministry in the RCA are, according to a resolution of 2006, as follows:
8.1.3 Profile of an RCA minister:
8.1.4 Further training
8.2 Retaining the RCA’s missionary élan
8.3 Developing the RCA’s theological basis
8.4 Serving the unification process in the DRC Family
8.5 Strengthening ecumenical ties locally and internationally
8.5.1 Local ties
8.5.2 Ecumenical contacts with the Reformed Church Family worldwide (The following sentiments reflect the standpoint of the RCA at present).
8.6 Who is equal to such a task?

CHAPTER NINE - CONCLUSION

9.1 Introduction: Who despises the day of small things
9.2 Hypothesis and research aims
9.3 Recording the history of the RCA
9.4 Evaluating the missionary contribution of the IRC/RCA
9.5 Lessons from the past, for the present and the future
9.6 Recommendations
9.6.1 To the address of the RCA
9.6.2 To the address of the DRC family
9.6.3 On the issue of theological training in South Africa
The Great Commission
Communion Table, Charisma, Laudium
Bibliography
INDEX – ANNEXURES

- Annexure – ‘A’ Klippies Kritzinger 229 – 264
- Annexure – ‘B’ Maniraj Sukdaven 265 – 274
- Annexure – ‘C’ Fred Nel 275 – 286
- Annexure – ‘D’ Reaching Muslims for Christ 287 – 301
- Annexure – ‘E’ Benjamin van die NG Familie 302 – 305
- Annexure – ‘F’ Geen ander naam 306 – 307