NORTH light in plastic composite sunscreens will ensure maximum natural daylight to enter the office space. It is important for the office space to allow the maximum natural feel.

The load bearing structure and cladding structure will be separate. Against the summer sun angle of 88 deg. the roof will extend to the north, to act as a shading structure and roof sheeting will be reused.

The load bearing structure and cladding structure will be separate. Against the summer sun angle of 88 deg. the roof will extend to the north, to act as a shading structure and roof sheeting will be reused.

Local schools, universities, companies or even individuals, will bring the neutral colors and textures together to give the building a more neutral feel. This will stand in contrast with the off-white concrete walls.

The commercial zone will also be a central activity not separate millennium one with other cultural activities. The social and retail structure will also be a central activity not separate millennium one with other cultural activities. The social and retail structure will also be a central activity not separate millennium one with other cultural activities.