

EMPOWERMENT OF KOREAN WOMEN FROM A FEMINIST PERSPECTIVE: A POSTMODERN HERMENEUTICAL STUDY

EUN OK JEONG

Ph D

Practical Theology

FACULTY OF THEOLOGY

UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA

Supervisor: Prof Dr Yolanda Dreyer

October 2002

TABLE OF CONTENTS

1	INTRODUCTION	1
1.1	Women's experience	1
1.2	Korean women's experience	5
1.3	Problem statement	8
	1.3.1 Relevance of study	8
	1.3.2 Research plan	18
2	METHODS	20
2.1	Methods in Practical Theology	23
	2.1.1 Characteristics of Practical Theology	25
	2.1.2 Methods as scientific research	25
	2.1.3 Methods as logical research	29
2.2	Methods in postmodernism	31
	2.2.1 Characteristics of postmodernism	31
	2.2.2 Criticism	33
2.3	Methods in feminist theology	38
	2.3.1 Characteristics of feminist theology	39
	2.3.2 Deconstruction	40
	2.3.3 Feminist critique/ feminist criticism on literatures	42
3	UNDERSTANDING KOREAN WOMEN	48
3.1	The myth of Korean origin	48
	3.1.1 The story of myth	48
	3.1.2 Theological reflection	49
3.2	Political and historical understanding	50
	3.2.1 Korean history and the political situation in the premodern era	50
	3.2.2 Japanese colonialism	56
	3.2.3 Democratic republic of Korea	60

3.3	Economy	70
3.3.1	Primary structure	70
3.3.2	Industrial development	74
3.4	Religio-cultural background	78
3.4.1	Education	79
3.4.2	Religions	81
3.4.2.1	Shamanism	82
3.4.2.2	Confucianism	85
3.4.2.3	Christianity	92
4	THE BIBLE AND KOREAN CHRISTIAN WOMEN	105
4.1	Understandings of the Bible	105
4.1.1	Fundamentalist understanding of the Bible	107
4.1.1.1	Phenomena of fundamentalism	108
4.1.1.2	Fundamentalism in Korea	112
4.1.1.3	Criticism of fundamentalism	114
4.1.2	Feminists theologians' understandings of the Bible	117
4.2	The Social roles of women in the Bible and in early Christianity	120
4.2.1	Fundamentalists' view of society and culture	120
4.2.2	Gender meaning and roles	123
4.3	Images of Jesus in the view of Korean women	132
4.3.1	Traditional reflection	133
4.3.1.1	Jesus as the King and God	133
4.3.1.2	Jesus as the Savior	133
4.3.1.3	Jesus as suffering servant	135
4.3.1.4	Jesus as Lord	137
4.3.2	New emerging images of Jesus	138
4.3.2.1	Jesus as liberator	138
4.3.2.2	Jesus as mother and woman	143
4.3.2.3	Jesus as life-giver	147

5	FEMINIST CRITIQUE IN PRACTICE	149
5.1	Feminist critique about the story “a good wife” (Proverbs 31:10-31)	153
5.2	Feminist critique about Korean literatures	158
5.2.1	Simchung	158
5.2.2	Mi-Mang (the widow)	160
5.2.3	A happy woman	171
5.2.4	Gasi Gogi (a thony fish)	177
5.3	A woman’s prayer	188
6	CONCLUSION	192
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	197
	SUMMARY	222
	KEY TERMS	224