

LEARNER AND EDUCATOR INTERACTION IN MULTICULTURAL SCHOOLS

by

MARIA MONKI THEKISO

Submitted as partial fulfillment of the requirement for the degree

MASTERS IN PHILOSOPHY

(EDUCATION FOR COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT)

FACULTY OF EDUCATION

UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA

STUDY LEADER: DR JAN HEYSTEK

OCTOBER 2005

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	PAGE
CHAPTER ONE: LEARNER AND EDUCATOR INTERACTION IN MULTICULTURAL SCHOOLS	1
1.1 INTRODUCTION	1
1.2 PROBLEM STATEMENT	5
1.3 THE AIM OF THE RESEARCH	5
1.4 THE RESEARCH METHODOLOGY	6
1.4.1 Research design	6
1.5 CLARIFICATION OF CONCEPTS	8
1.5.1 Culture	8
1.5.2 School culture	9
1.5.3 Multicultural education	11
1.6 LIMITATION OF THE STUDY	12
1.7 SUMMARY	12
CHAPTER TWO: LITERATURE REVIEW	14
2.1 INTRODUCTION	14
2.2 DIMENSION OF CULTURE	15
2.2.1 Power distance	17
2.2.2 Inequality in society	20
2.2.3 Inequality in organisations	22
2.3 CRITICAL MULTICULTURAL EDUCATION (A NEW PERSPECTIVE)	22
2.3.1 Policies	26
2.3.2 Educators' (teachers') perception	27
2.3.3 Learners perception	28
2.3.4 Language	29
2.3.5 Curriculum	29
2.4 SUMMARY	30

3.1	INTRODUCTION	31
3.2	RESEARCH DESIGN	31
3.2.1	Qualitative research	33
3.2.2	Method used for data collection	35
3.2.2.1	Observations (unstructured)	36
3.2.2.2	Individual interview as a research method	40
3.2.2.3	Focus-group interviews	41
3.3	SAMPLE	43
3.3.1	The selected schools	43
3.3.1.1	Selection of school A (purposive and convenient)	43
3.3.1.2	Composition of school (A) learners and teachers	44
3.3.1.3	Number of learners and teachers from different home language	45
3.3.1.4	Criteria for selection of learners for individual interviews – school A	46
3.3.1.5	Criteria for selection of teachers (for observations and individual interviews)	47
3.3.1.6	Selection of school B – (not purposive)	47
3.3.1.7	Composition of school (B) learners and teachers	48
3.3.1.8	Number of learners and teachers from different home languages	48
3.3.1.9	Criteria for selection of learners (for individual interviews and focus-group-school B)	49
3.3.1.10	Criteria for selection of teachers (school B) for observations and individual interviews	50
3.4	VALIDITY AND RELIABILITY IN QUALITATIVE RESEARCH	50
3.5	ETHICAL ISSUES	52
3.6	CONCLUSION	53

CHAPTER FOUR: ANALYSIS AND INTERPRETATION OF SELECTED SAMPLE OF EMPIRICAL DATA	54
4.1 INTRODUCTION	54
4.2 EDUCATOR'S PERCEPTIONS ABOUT MULTICULTURAL INTERACTION	55
4.2.1 Understanding multiculturalism and culture	55
4.2.2 The influence of multiculturalism on the relations and the interaction in the school	56
4.2.3 Activities focusing on multiculturalism and focus-group perspectives	61
4.3 LEARNER'S PERCEPTIONS ABOUT MULTICULTURALISM	67
4.3.1 Understanding multiculturalism	67
4.3.2 The influence of multiculturalism on the relations and the interaction in the school	69
4.3.3 Activities focusing on multiculturalism and focus-group perspectives	72
4.4 SUMMARY	78
4.5 BIBLIOGRAPHY
CHAPTER FIVE: CONCLUSION AND RECOMMENDATIONS	80
5.1 THE CONCLUSIONS	80
5.2.1 Educators' and learners' individual interviews (School A and B), and learner focus group interviews (schools B only)	80
5.1.1.1 Understanding multiculturalism	82
5.1.1.2 The influence of multiculturalism on the relations and the interaction in the school	85
5.1.1.3 Improving interaction in multicultural schools
5.2 RECOMMENDATIONS	87
5.2.1 Recommendations based on the literature and the interviews	87

5.2.1.1	Recommendation 1	87
5.2.1.2	Recommendation 2	88
5.2.1.3	Recommendation 3	88
5.2.1.4	Recommendation 4	89
5.2.2	Recommendations for further research	89
5.2.2.1	Recommendation 5	89
5.2.2.2	Recommendation 6	90
5.2.2.3	Recommendation 7	90
5.2.2.4	Recommendation 8	90
5.2.2.5	Recommendation 9	91
5.2.2.6	Recommendation 10	91
5.3	SUMMARY	91
	BIBLIOGRAPHY	93
	ANNEXURE A: RESEARCH INTERVIEW QUESTIONS
	ANNEXURE B: EXTRA QUESTIONS FOR THE LEARNER INTERVIEWEES

LIST OF TABLES

TABLE 2.1	KEY DIFFERENCE BETWEEN SMALL AND LARGE POWER DISTANCES IN SOCIETIES	19
-----------	---------------------------------------------------------------------	----

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

My sincere acknowledgements are directed to:

- God Almighty who granted me health, strength and wisdom to complete my studies and who comforted me after I have lost many loved ones during the course of my studies;
- Dr Heystek, who was like a father to me in helping me in my studies and during my bereavement. He always inspired me and wished to see me complete my studies. Through Dr Heystek, I am encouraged to pursue research in education in the near future;
- My dear husband, Solomon, for his endless love, patience, support and understanding during the tough process of my studies. My sons; Milton, Nehemiah, John and Emmanuel for their love and support during my study period. My stepson Petrus, who assisted me with the information and the sources needed for this study;
- My late parents, Mr Samuel and Mrs Annah Mothamaha, who always wished to see me complete my studies. They encouraged me to excel in whatever I do and also placed great value on a good education;
- My dear brothers, Buti and Mafoka, who accompanied me on the journey of my studies. My dear sisters, Joyce, Maureen, Nongo, Olga, Dina and Doris, who were always there for me whenever I needed them;
- My dear sister-in-law, Lomile, who always encouraged me whenever I felt demotivated with my studies;
- My relatives and friends, too many to list who have always encouraged and supported me;
- My colleagues and staff at my school, Naledi High for their support and valuable inputs in this study;
- My fellow-Christians who accepted my request to be exempted from church activities and leadership until the completion of my studies;

- Ansie Brink of COD Typing, University of Johannesburg Student Centre, for her unfailing support and advice during the typing of this dissertation;
- Bernice McNeill for editing my work after its completion.