MIKE O'LEARY'S MOTHER ASKS FOR RECRUITS.

Vast crowds followed the band of the Irish Guards. It was the greatest recruiting rally ever seen in Ireland.

The fame of Mike O'Leary, Ireland's own V.C., has been a fine recruiting asset to the country. When the band of the Irish Guards reached Macroom, which lies in the heart of O'Leary's land in the wild uplands of County Cork, the hero's father and mother became recruiting sergeants, too. With a voice that thrilled with pride in the deeds of her soldier son, Mrs. O'Leary urged the lads to fight for Ireland, and old O'Leary made a patriot's speech in homely phrase.

UNMARRIED MOTHERS OF SOLDIERS' CHILDREN

2,000 IN ONE TOWN.

Grave Problem Which Must Be Faced At Once.

Can STIGMA BE REMOVED?

Established Prejudices Must Be Ruled Out.

It may not be generally known that all the soldiers in the country whose troops have been quartered a great number of unmarried girls will within a few weeks become mothers. In one of these towns there are over 2,000 cases, and this is not exceptional.

This problem can not be faced, and faced now, in so peremptory a spirit. What are we going to do about it—Ronald M'Neil, M.P. yesterday.

It is an extract from a letter written by Mr. Ronald M'Neil, M.P. to the Morning Post of yesterday. It is practically the first call, from any of our political leaders, for measures which many people have been aware for months. It is a problem about which British people are alive, and it is a question upon which the whole of our national life is threatened.

Mrs. Graham Murray, who is taking a practical interest in the problem, informs the Daily Sketch that the matter is to be taken in hand promptly by a number of influential and representative women.

Mr. Graham Murray says that in every case for which responsibility is placed upon the women who need remonstrances before have been in cases of the same character, the truth has been concealed. The national honour is at stake, and the nation has got to take the matter in hand as best and as soon as the very greatest delicacy.

Dr. Elizabeth Joan Ensor (whose life has wandered through the country, and who speaks with a knowledge of the individual in the community, and the social questions it raises).

Everyone who has studied the subject of illegitimate children is aware that the need for rearing is to bring about uniformity of the law in the interests of the whole nation. Illegitimacy is not to be shirked, but further restraints must be placed upon the social question. It is the law that even the most essential social purity works should be done immediately. Illegitimacy is to be placed upon the Statute Book.

Mr. Alfred B. Kent (director of the Alliance of Honour, which has been working for many years).

While evil certainly exists, such as is almost bound to happen in any community, our experience is that the good outstrips the bad. Even the most essential social purity works should be done immediately. Illegitimacy is to be placed upon the Statute Book.

HUNS' "RETRALITION" ON BRITISH PRISONERS.

39 Officers Taken From Camp And Sent To Prison.

PIRATES "ACCTED AS BRAVE MEN."

Victims To Be Subjected To Harsh Treatment.

German Note to America.

The German Government has learned with astonishment and indignation that the British Government regards the officers and crews of German submarines not as honourable enemies, and accordingly treats them not as other prisoners of war but as ordinary prisoners.

These officers and crews acted as brave men in the charge of their duties, and they are therefore fully entitled to be treated like other prisoners of war, in accordance with international arrangements.

THE REPRISALS.

The German Government, therefore, considers that the strongest protest against a procedure which is contrary to international law, and sees itself at the same time repeatedly compelled immediately to execute the reprisals speed, is a step towards a prompt and subject to similar harsh treatment a corresponding number of English army officers who are prisoners of war.

When, moreover, the British Government goes so far as to press it to the bargaining table, then it has not yet rejected with bitter feelings the knowledge that such rescue was possible for German ships, but was willfully neglected by themselves.

AMBASSADOR ASKED TO INQUIRE.

Gentlemanly hosts the Ambassador to convey this information to the British Government, and also to take steps to secure for a member of the American Embassy in London an opportunity personally to inquire into the treatment of German naval prisoners of war, and to point out that no reduction in the details of their lodging, maintenance and employment.

Further, proceedings with regard to British officers who have been provisionally placed under officers, will depend upon the details of the treatment of the German prisoners.

It is untrue that any German naval officer has been "treated harshly" in this country. The consideration shown to German prisoners of war is by the British Government has been pronounced that it has caused a loud popular outcry. This consideration and humane treatment extend to the officers of the German submarine but in view of the allegations that they had taken part in the sinking of defenceless merchant ships and had deliberately jeopardised the lives of non-combatants, the British Admiralty refused to allow these men to mix with other prisoners of war and confined them in naval barracks.

BACK IN THE OLD CAMP.

Recaptured German Officers March Nine Miles To Place Of Detention.

The two recaptured German officers, Lieutenant Hans Schiller and Von Der Gulzt, who were prisoners of war in the detention camp at Casablanca, were brought to Denhag by an escort of 50 soldiers yesterday. They were placed in separate cells and they arrived last night at Denhag from Blaunaf Festival.

When it was known that the men were to be marched nine miles to the detention camp a great crowd gathered near the police station, but 20 yards of the street were cleared, and those who attempted to follow were only allowed to turn back.

Andler was handcuffed to a corporal, and both he and his companion showed no hostility when they appeared in the street.

The march across the billy country was continued as a good pace, and Alexander and his escort walked in well in step, and held their heads erect.

The prisoners did not assail themselves of the opposite. It was not made on the British side as did the soldiers, nor of the opportunity in any way.

Only a few children were in the vicinity of the execution.

The prisoners escalading in the grounds were over the wall inside the house, and a few rigids, like the soldiers with Andler and Lehmann, endeavoured to follow the two officers when taken to a different portion of the building, where they will probably be kept apart from their fellow-captives.

In this picture, by A. Chevalier Taylor, exhibited yesterday at "The Art in War Time Exhibition," Guildhall Gallery, is all the tragedy of war.

THE TACTLESS KAISER.

Iron Cross From German Emperor To Sultan Of Turkey.

Once again the Kaiser has displayed his hopeless and utter lack of a sense of humour.

In his anxiety to parody the perturbed Sultan of Turkey, whose fidelity to the German alliance has been in doubt since the rumbling of the Allies' guns at the entrance to the Dardanelles, he was heard, the German Emperor entrusted General Von Der Gulzt with an Iron Cross of the first class for presentation to the Mohammedan potentate.

Von Der Gulzt, according to the Exchange, has returned to Constantinople, and the Moslem ruler is now, presumably, in possession of the Kaiser's cross.

Desperate Battles For The Heights: Bayonet Work In The Dark.

Russian Official News.

PETROGRAD, Tuesday Night.

On Sunday and Monday the battle in the Caucasus achieved a direction of Stavloid to the direction of Stavloid to the direction of Sinjazor, with great intensity. Our troops progressed on both banks of the Oulpai south of Sinjazor, and our forces captured several heights north of Zalochoz, and there was a victory in the direction of Sinjazor, where, after an extremely desperate fight, the height in the region of the villages of Buhovka, Benios and Vysokoi fell into our hands. We captured here 2,700 prisoners, including 55 officers, a gun, and twenty machine-guns.

In the Buhovka, on an extensive front in the direction of Zalochoz, the enemy on Sunday night made furious attacks in torrential rain and impediment darkness, but everywhere our infantry, with bayonets, effectively held the upper head. Reuter.

HAMBURG BOMBARDED BY FRENCH AIRMEN.

Infantry Barracks Set On Fire By Aeroplane Bombs.

COPENHAGEN, Tuesday.

A message from Kolberg, Denmark, states that a traveller who arrived there from Hamburg today dropped bodies over Hamburg. Two bombs fell on the barracks in Kimesmudder. Several persons were wounded, and the barracks took fire.

The airmen escaped. — Exchange Special.

Hamburg, which may be described as Germany's capital, was, on April 15, granddaughtered by British airmen, who attempted to carry out a concentrated attack on this city. In the last two days, the city has been defended by British airmen, who have destroyed many of the city's buildings.

The British airmen, who have been flying over the city, have been dropping bombs on Hamburg. The city has been in the hands of the British airmen for about a week.

GERMAN AIR ATTACK ON BRITISH.

German Official News.

AMSTERDAM, Tuesday.

The French claim to have dropped 50 bombs on the maritime station and factory at Cleve. In fact nine bombs were dropped near Ostend and eight near Bruges without doing any damage.

We therefore dropped many bombs on the places occupied by the British at Poperinge, Westende and Cassel.

MORE BOMBS ON BRUGES.

AMSTERDAM, Tuesday.

British airmen coming from the sea yesterday morning flew to Bruges, where it is reported they dropped bombs on the railway line. Since the second British air attack on Antwerp, the German vigilance has increased.

Obstructions have been placed in several parts of the town, and also at Hoboken, the shipyard and the dock lifts.

As the first British attack was made with a large number of men and the Germans have taken precautionary measures.

SEVEN KILLED IN THE WARRING.

Five sailors and two gunners were killed in the explosion of a mine near the German warship, which was sunk at Guernsey yesterday.

It is not yet determined whether the disaster was caused by a torpedo or by an internal explosion.

CABINET AND WAR WORK PROBLEM.

New Proposals To Be Announced In The House Of Commons.

NO BEER MONOPOLY.

Limitation Of Hours And Higher Duty On Spirits.

A meeting of the Cabinet was held yesterday morning at 10, Downing-street. This was the last actual meeting of the Cabinet before the reassembling of Parliament.

The Prime Minister, who came up specially from Harrow, where he had been with a committee of the King and Queen, presided, and there was a loud remonstrance, Sir Edward Grey having also returned from his brief holiday.

The question of drink restrictions has occupied public attention and is supposed to be the main question before the Cabinet.

The Daily Sketch understands, however, that the Cabinet yesterday refused to allow this comparatively minor question to the court of arbitration, which is to take place at once.

As soon as Parliament reassembles today the question of reparation will be decided by the arbitration of the Exchange will be questioned by the leaders of the Opposition, and the question of the payment of the Government there will be decided by a conference of the House of Commons.

There is no authority for the statement that the Government is contemplating the conversion of the trade in alcohol into a State monopoly.

The Government is, nevertheless, to limit the sale of smuggled beer, and the duty on misprints will be increased.

As far as the Government is concerned, the question of the wine trade will be left to the private enterprisers.

"LULL ON THE BRITISH FRONT."

From Sir John French.

(1) The front remains unchanged throughout the last week.

The German Government was successfully exploded a mine in the neighbourhood of Poperinge. As a result the loop-bayed walls of a house held by the British were destroyed and 15 soldiers casualties as a result.

The enemy's resistance is breaking up our position, without injuring any damage.

The British airmen, who have been flying over the city, have been dropping bombs on Hamburg. The city has been in the hands of the British airmen for about a week.

"INCREASED WARFARE."

French Official News.

PARIS, 5 p.m., Tuesday.

From the sea to the air, there is the most astonishing report, except some artillery engagements.

Our troops in the captured city are reported to be using mortars.

"AVIATION."

A number of bridges have been built in the town.

Between the Bosphorus and the Danube the day was comparatively calm.

Our troops at several points have come into contact with the enemy's barbed-wire entanglements.

The enemy, however, has been retreating.

The day has been calm on the whole of the front.

We have been warned and threatened our troops on several points where we have progressed and the British airmen have been very successful.

Our aviators have succeeded in bombing the British airmen, who have been dropping bombs on the British airmen, and defeated not far from there a battle on the marching ground.

EXTRA LATE EDITION.

-THE OLD CAPE."
EXTRAORDINARY OPPORTUNITY FOR EVERY LADY Who Intends To Get Married.

A ONE WEEK'S SALE
THAT WILL DELIGHT EVERY LADY AND BENEFIT FRENCH AND BELGIAN FUNDS.

A Beautiful Collection of French and Belgian Lingerie to be Sold at Less than Making Cost.

A really remarkable coincidence has called into being an event, to which every woman in London is invited, that will be the talk of the town during the next few days.

This event is nothing more or less than a lightning sale, for one week only (from the proceeds of which French and Belgian funds are to benefit), of exquisite articles made in the convents of these countries. Sensational bargains are promised, so the whole of the valuable stock is to be disposed of at less than making cost.

Thanks to the efforts of several well-known Society ladies, the sale is to be held in the most beautiful Salons in London—the Sandow Corset Salons, 28, 31, James-street, London, E.W.—the directors having lent those for the purpose, feeling assured that their many thousands of customers will willingly support this matter.

This happy circumstance will also fortunately give many ladies the opportunity of saving for themselves, not only the wonderful lingerie that the nuns of France and Belgium women, whose factories are now turned to the ground, have produced, but in addition they will be able to see the latest fashion models of the beautiful corset that has placed so many women under a debt of gratitude to Mr. Sandow, because of his health and figure beauty producing qualities.

To give an additional impulse to this attractive sale, the directors of the Sandow Corset Company have decided to make a DONATION TO FRENCH AND BELGIAN FUNDS of 10 per cent. of any purchase of the Sandow Corset that is made as a result of this advertisement. This is to help this object forward a wonderful price offer in the most made in conjunction with the latest models of the Sandow Corset itself which will tempt every woman to complete her understanding outfit by adding this exquisite garment to her wardrobe.

Certainly for any lady who intends to get married, or, for that matter, is married, this splendid opportunity to purchase the very quaintest and most beautiful lingerie the world produces is not one to be missed. Already a number of ladies have indicated their intention to be present, and it is quite certain that the unfortunately small stock that is available for sale will be cleared very quickly.

SOME ASTONISHING BARGAINS.

To every lady of an economical turn of mind, this will be a Red Letter Week. There has never been such genuine bargains in beautiful hand-made and hand-worked lingerie; to realise the importance of this great event it is absolutely necessary to visit the Sandow salons and witness the supreme Loveliness of this present exhibition. Only as these perfect specimens of French and Belgian hand-embroidered garments always have been, they cannot now be produced at all because of the war; this makes the price reduction the more remarkable.

One guinea spent this week will purchase up to five guineas in value in a few weeks later. An idea of some of these price reductions can be obtained from the following: a few random selections such as French model three-piece set of the most beautiful Handwork, with delicate lace insertion and lavishly hand-embroidered, usual price £7 1os., reduced for the exhibition price sale to 56s. 11d. Equally attractive two-piece sets consisting of chemise and knickers, expertly hand-embroidered, usually priced at 22s. 6d., are now offered at 19s. 6d. Lovely hand-worked and hand-embroidered chemise and knickers, usually sold at 24s. 6d., 25s. and 26s. are now reduced to 18s. 6d., 19s. 6d. and 20s. 6d., almost all of them are original models. Exquisite real lace and hand-embroidered chemises in the most charming profusion, usually priced from £2 14s. downwards, are now being sold at prices ranging from £1. down to 8s. 6d.

Charmingly effective Belgian hand-made trimmed laces and ribbon: two-piece sets of chemise and knickers have been reduced from 50s. 5d. to 31s. 6d.

As previously stated, the stock is very limited, and, in view of the great interest already assured, it is quite certain that the whole of the bargains will be sold immediately. Therefore ladies should make a point of calling at the very earliest opportunity. They will, however, receive the same careful attention to their instructions by Mr. Sandow's Perfect Postal Fitting System, which is so very successfully brings to their homes, no matter where they are, the health and figure beauty producing qualities that will immediately be sent. The addresses of the Sandow Corset Salons are 28, 31, James-street, London, E.W., 33, Sandinahall-street, Glasgow, and 32 and 33, Kansuil-street, New York. Advertisements, a reproduction, are always remembered by those ladies who wish to possess the finest figures. It should be noted that the sale definitely closes April 30th.
WAR, more especially the modern type of specialised and artificial warfare, creates many problems. In almost every case there are two sides, and that is the root of the disagreement, because one almost naturally simulates the feelings of good people who hold different views. But the clear facts must be that the war is almost certainly going on, and will go on, until there is a complete change of heart and mind that war is the greatest of evils.

There must be give and take on both sides. When people disagree on such major points as the ones involved in the present conflict, and when each is so determined to win that the other side is wrong, a deadlock will inevitably arise. In such circumstances, it is not difficult to understand the reasons why some people get involved in war, even if they are not sure that it is right or wrong.

The situation is one of grave concern. It is difficult to imagine that there is a world of which we are not a part. We seem to have become so accustomed to believing that we are a part of the world that we no longer question it. Yet the world is becoming more and more isolated, and the problems are getting more and more complex. It is difficult to understand how we can solve such problems without a great deal of cooperation.

The war has its own dangers. It must be remembered that it is a war of attrition, and that the enemy is always working to win the battle. It is very difficult to understand how we can solve such problems without a great deal of cooperation. It is difficult to imagine that there is a world of which we are not a part.

The war is not only a war of attrition, but it is also a war of nerves. It is very difficult to understand how we can solve such problems without a great deal of cooperation. It is difficult to imagine that there is a world of which we are not a part.

The "Right" Food for Baby

It is a common experience for mothers to try several foods for their baby before finding the right one. Savoury and Moore's Food has so far proved to be the only Food that would take, though many others were tried, that it has very special claims to be regarded as the 'right' one for baby. Mothers who once tried it will find baby will take it to so readily, and will gain so well on it that there will be no need to make a change in the future. This connection the letters below are of particular interest.

89, Centre Street, Girton, Bury.

"I am pleased that your Infant Food suits my baby especially well, and it is advertised as being nutritious and free from all impurities, but they did not suit him at all. With them he suffered from gas and constipation, while other foods gave him diarrhoea. He was a very small child at first, and it is now improving so favourably with this food that I should not go back to my old one if you have.

"I think you have a very good company, but I must also say that I have been using the food for only six months, and do not feel able to express an opinion on it. I myself have been using the food for only one month, and do not feel able to express an opinion on it."

NOTEWORTHY JOEL DOUBLE AT NEWMARKET.

Meritorious Performance By Golden Sun.

JUNICE COKC AND KING'S DAY FAIL.

It was a miserable day, for the opening of the Newmarket season, but all was glad to get back to the famous course.

Morton's horses are more forward in condition than last winter, and the King's Court is by no means a notable double with Golden Sun and Parthia in the principal handicap.

In each case top-weight was carried, and especially in the case of Golden Sun the prize was a most meritorious.

Morton's horse bore the number 2th, to shoulder, and he sat this at defiance and scored in clever style from the opening whistle. Master and Saint.

The form, values, was never in the race with a similar one, at a winning pace.

Parthia had not such smooth passage, as he had in his last outing, and it was not very likely to win, for the second running is a little slower than the first too late.

Golden Sun half a length for second place was Roseby who had 7th extra for winning at Newmarket on 5th.

NOT OUT OF THE COMMON.

Security was an exceptional last, but a mile the winner of the Maturity Stakes does not do much afterwards. It was thought King's Day, who carried more than the favourite, was a hit out of the course, but he failed lamentably in the Maturity Stakes, and it is a half mile out of the course, his chance is always favourable.

After the victory of Tillysham Myrtilus was thought to be something to beat on, but, as so often happens in such cases, the fancied candidate was not the winner.

The race fell an easy prey to Hastia colt, who is quite a good mile horse, and the majority of those behind the placed pair were nothing else, but some at all events.

The splendid Rockcrwinn won the Apprentice's Plate to great style.

TWO " GUINNESS" HOPFUS.

The second stage will not provide anything out of the ordinary in the racing world. The racing breeds for being like a rather quiet nature.

The favourite is placed for the Column Produce Stakes to expect him to win, as he was a good colt last year, and has done very well since then.

In the "Guinness" the Derby, and the St. Leger, and is not by any means a hopeless proposition in these races.

The other worth delivering bet is in the race of Pafford, who was known last year as Lady Harriet, and has done his theme marvellously.

He is engaged in the "Guinness," the Derby, and the St. Leger. It is not by any means a hopeless proposition in these races.

The splendid Rockcrwinn won the Apprentice's Plate to great style.

THE GARRAHAM PLATE.

The acceptance for the Garraham Plate was strongly in the good shape of Hay-Made-Douette in the Queen's Prize.

The bay three-year-old horse was a good second to Frustration last Monday, and a reproduction of the form of Hay-Made-Douette on this course.

Garraham More is expected to carry top-weight.

STOPPING FALLING HAIR.

This home-made mixture stops Dandruff and Falling Hair and adds its Growth.

To a half-pint of water add:

1 oz. of Epsom Salts

1 oz. of Oratex Compound

1 oz. of Glycerine

These are all ingredients that you can buy from any chemist at a very low price, and make your own mixture.

To apply to the scalp once a day for two weeks, the dandruff and falling hair will disappear in 10 or 15 days. It promotes the growth of the hair and makes hair last soft and glossy.

RUBBER INVESTORS' COMPLAINT.

Difficulty In Getting Mining Lane Dealers To Supply Shares.

In the Stock Exchange yesterday American securities suffered a collapse, and Canadian Pacific shares weakened, but there was a rise in Grand Trunk stocks, due to effects on the part of "bears" to close their commitments and to the support given to them.

Vickers shares were offered on the dividend announcement of 25 per cent., but the yield in aid of a good one, and we see no reason why the shares should be sold.

A. K. Band Mines changed hands at £26, closing better at 2.43. Moodies were a better market at 13 1/4, and De Beers were firmer at 21, but the price was low, however, in the market.

Rubbers remained fairly active and generally firm, but there are many opportunities regarding the difficulty of getting Mining-Lane dealers to supply their shares in some cases.

G. L. Cresswell, who is also known as "Martha" Hartley, was again remanded at North London Police Court yesterday upon a charge of murdering Mary Josephine Wood (26), wife of James Wood, of the Halfbridge, West Ham, quartered at the White City.

LIVERPOOL COTTON.

Hobart. April 8. (E.)

Last night's Liverpool Cotton market closed with the quotations of 8.00, and the life runs of 8.00, and we see no reason why the shares should be sold.

LONDON INVESTMENT.

Prices held steady.

The London Investment Company's shares were quoted at 11 1/2 guineas.

FRUIT LAXATIVE FOR CHILD AILMENTS
“CALIFORNIA SYRUP OF FIGS.”
Cleanses tender little stomach, liver and bowels without gripping—Children love it.

Every mother realizes, after giving her children “California Syrup of Figs,” that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste, and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels, without gripping.
When once, irrevocably feverish, or when the breath is bad and the stomach disordered, look at the tongue, mother! If cooled, give a teaspoonful of this harmless sap in a few hours the stomach is quiet, the breath sweet, the fever cured.

YOUR HEAD AND STOMACH
Headache caused by a disturbed digestion is nearly always accompanied by pains in the stomach, flatulence, vomiting, and often by constipation. This sort of headache is generally located in the forehead, and is not constant but comes and goes. It does not come or go immediately after eating, but after the food has had time to ferment, while it does because the digestive fluids that should take care of it are insufficient, because the glands that secrete these fluids are weak, because the blood is failing to nourish these glands properly. Rich, red blood is the first essential to proper digestion, and the digestive process cannot go on without it. When lack of nourishing blood causes fermentation, and poisons are absorbed from the digestive tract, pains in your head arise out of it. By means of Dr. Williams’ Pink Pills the blood just the elements it needs to correct this condition, and, with a laxative when required, they form a perfect treatment for the headaches of indigestion.

Your dealer can supply you promptly with

COUPON for DAILY SKETCH &1,000 PATRIOTIC NEEDLEWORK COMPETITION.
New Conditions In The £1,000 Needlework Competition.

THE announcement of the alterations in the conditions of the Daily Sketch £1,000 Needlework Competition has met with an enthusiastic response. Many readers who were hitherto unable to compete have written to express their gratification at now finding their work eligible.

By the original scheme all work entered for this big competition was to be exhibited and sold for the benefit of the British Red Cross Society and the St. John Ambulance Association, but it has been realised that many women are in a position to give valuable pieces of needlework; however anxious they are to help on the work, and still be held, the presentation of the work is optional.

Competitors who do not wish to have their work sold may have it returned to them at the close of the exhibition.

Work of which the return is requested will, of course, be judged on equal terms with that which is given for the cause of the wound. It is hoped that all who can do so will still surrender their entries in order that a substantial sum may be realised by the exhibition.

The second important alteration is that of the closing date of the competition. The competition closes towards the end of November, not at the end of May, as previously announced. The extension of time has been arranged in response to the appeals of hundreds of readers who wished to compete, but were unable to complete their work on time. A fee of three shillings is arranged in connection with this competition, but all entries must be accompanied by 30 coupons issued by the Daily Sketch. These coupons will appear in each issue until November 6. More than one entry may be sent, but only within the number accompanied by the correct number of coupons.

In order to compete in this big competition the reader must send a stamped addressed envelope to Mrs. Gossin, Needlework Competition, Daily Sketch, London, E.C. The envelope will be returned containing an entrance form, full particulars and rules. No work must be forwarded until the sending days are announced by the Daily Sketch.

More Than Fifteen Hundred Prizes.
The thousand pounds will be divided into over fifteen hundred prizes, and the competition is arranged in no fewer than thirty-three classes. Thus all kinds of needlework, from elaborate church embroidery and fine lace to plain knitting and the making of simple garments, is represented, and each competitor may send the class of work in which she is most proficient. In many of these classes very little need be spent on materials.

A correspondent inquires whether the £1,000 prize money is to be deducted from the proceeds of the exhibition and sale. It is inexcusable that such a supposition should have arisen, but it may be emphatically contradicted. The expenses of the competition and the prizes amounting to a thousand pounds are given by the Daily Sketch. The object of the sale and exhibition is the raising of much needed funds for the work among the wounded.

It is necessary to beg a little patience from those intending competitors who have not received immediately replies to their requests for entry forms. The new conditions have entailed the printing of new forms, and the increased response involves more labour. Each applicant will receive a form in due course.

The New Woman Worker Is A Patriot—Not A Blackleg.

To-day women do men's work, not to lower the wages of the workers, but to relieve the men of servicable age who are needed in the ranks of the Army. In a little village near Winchester, there has just been opened the Hampshire Farm Institute for the practical training of women farmers. At Kingston girls are taking the places of men as grocers' assistants. The new woman has arrived not as a challenge to society but as a patriot.
