THE NEW MINISTRY: "NOW LET US GET ON WITH THE WAR."

Mr. Austen Chamberlain, Secretary for India
Mr. Edward Carson, Attorney-General.
Mr. Walter Long, President of the L.G.B.
Mr. Bonar Law, Colonial Secretary.

Mr. Churchill will have a peaceful time as Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster.
A characteristically unconventional picture of "Jacky" Fisher. It was the famous Sea Lord's last day at Admiralty House before relinquishing office.
Mr. Balfour comes back to office as First Lord of the Admiralty.

Lord Curzon, Lord Privy Seal.
Lord Selborne, President of the Board of Agriculture.
Mr. Arthur Henderson, President of Board of Education.
Lord Lansdowne, Minister without a portfolio.

The names of the members of the new National Ministry were issued last night. The public had been prepared for changes, but the transfer of Mr. McKenna from the Home Office to follow Mr. Lloyd George as Chancellor of the Exchequer came as a surprise. Now that the politicians have settled their squabbles, the country expects them to get on with the war. (Lafayette, Swaine, Bassano, Daily Sketch, etc.)

"During the first week in February last I had a rather severe attack of Influenza which left me thoroughly 'done up' with Headaches, Sleeplessness, and a general feeling of no energy, I did not seem to care what happened. Three weeks ago I met a friend in Chatham who strongly advised you 'Phosferine,' I took his advice, and am glad to say that after the second bottle I am my old self again. I write to tell you of this because I think it my duty to do so. Yours is indeed a wonderful tonic."—April 25, 1915.

This highly trained air mechanic owes it to Phosferine that he can now employ his special skill with redoubled vigour, with increased effect—Phosferine so fully renewed the activity of the exhausted nerve cells, that the system accumulated the vital force to overcome all his nerve disorders—Phosferine gave him the extra power of endurance, the extra zest and energy, to win through.

New Government is coming into existence, a War Government, a National Government. The newspapers promise many things. The people will now see the intricate political machinery will allow it to be. By no means is it the best Government that could have been brought about, but it is a free Government and that is something.

At any time now, the party government condition is a poor condition in which to be. It is a sorry state of affairs, this government does not produce a good result.

ITALIAN TROOPS ADVANCE INTO AUSTRIA.

Villages & Heights Occupied On Main Frontier Road.

ENEMY'S RETREAT.

Soldiers Landed On Adriatic Island And Garrison Captured.

Italian Official News.

Soon, Thursday Afternoon.

On the Frontier at Carnia, at seven o'clock on Sunday evening, Austrian artillery opened fire against our positions without achieving any result.

On Monday our artillery opened fire on the positions occupied by the enemy's guns.

Along the front at Frili our troops advanced everywhere into the enemy's territory, mounting only feeble resistances.

We occupied Caporetto, the heights between Buso and landed.

Our torpedo boats opened fire upon our enemy's positions at Porto Bo and landed troops, who captured 20 Austrians, who have been taken to Venice.

Our losses were one killed and five wounded.

Caporetto is a village at an important strategic point on the Austrian side of the frontier. The main road from Udine here crosses the Isonzo River, which runs parallel with this road in a distance of only 20 miles. Caporetto also commands the roads which run north and south along the river valley. The whole of the region into which the Italian troops are now advancing is broken by the Julian Alps, and has few main roads and railways.

On May 22 this enemy made a determined attack against the left of the Italian Brigade at Yenice railways. It was repulsed by a heavy fire from 12-centimetre batteries, and the Italian defenders held their ground, although the enemy was forced towards Pelegrin by two of our detachments, which were rushing uncontrollable by shells which hit her bell, and finally burning it in a small section she surrendered. The Austrian troops, which were made up of two divisions, were captured by two field batteries of the Victor Emmanuel guns and one of the guns which approached within 1,600 yards. ITALIAN FORCING ON.

The next big battle of the Italian Army.

The recent great German offensives in the Carpathians compelled the Italian forces to bulk in full from the passes threatening Hungary, forced a junction with the Carpathian Mountains. In the same region our forces carried on against another front which had been very strongly fortified.

Fiercer work was taken on a front of the Adria, where the enemy had been retiring for the last fortnight.

West of the same road we made appreciable progress in the Italian Army, which has been against the Austrians and large numbers of their best troops.

The Economy of "Zog"

A tin of "ZOG" costs you 1/6, but saves you £. It enables you to keep your paint clean all the year round. In these days we must all practise economy. Do you realise how much you may save by using "ZOG"?

1. "ZOG" saves labour.
   Spring cleaning is hard work. If you scrub all the paint, you probably have to get a charwoman in for days. But with a tin of "ZOG", you, or your maid, will clean all the paint in one morning, without labour.

2. "ZOG" saves time.
   When you scrub you have to turn the house upside down, and the place is not fit for people for days and days. A tin of "ZOG" enables you to avoid all this and saves you any amount of work.

3. "ZOG" saves money.
   But there is a bigger saving even than that. Scrubbing ruins paint and means that you must get the painters in far sooner than if you use "ZOG", which never hurts the paint.

It is economy to keep your paint fresh and new looking by buying a tin of "ZOG" instead of spending pounds on painters' bills.

How to "Zog."

1. Take a little "ZOG" on a very damp cloth and rub lightly and evenly over the dirty paint.
2. Then wipe off all the "ZOG" using a clean wet cloth or sponge—the dirt will come with it.
3. Finish off with a damp leather, and your paint will look like new.

Use "ZOG" exactly as directed and it will become indispensable in your household. Whenever you see a dirty mark, "ZOG" it off.

"Zog" cleans but never spoils paint

In sizes 1/6, 2/6, 3/6, 6d. & 2d. The larger sizes are more economical.

Free Sample Tin—We will send you a tin of "ZOG" with Packet of "ZOG" Picture Postcards absolutely free if you will send us a postcard with your dealer's name and address.

HOW WAR IMPOVERISHES THE NATION'S HAIR.

Hair, the Most Sympathetic Part of the Body, Becomes Weakened by Nerve Strain and Worry.

A FREE HAIR-GROWING GIFT FOR ALL WHO TAKE PRIDE IN THEIR APPEARANCE.

Many thousands of people who are troubled by the state of their hair are asking themselves the question: Does war, and particularly the nervous strain and worry of the war, affect my hair? The answer is definitely "Yes!"

Scientific tests prove conclusively that the hair is the most sympathetic part of the whole body, responding most quickly to changes in health.

More particularly now than at any time does the hair require attention, and, as the well-known hair specialist, Mr. Edwards, the inventor of "Harlene Hair-Drill," points out, the longer you neglect your hair the more difficult it is to restore it to its natural beautiful condition of healthy, lustre abundance.

A WONDERFUL WAR-TIME OFFER.
Mr. Edwards is removing his offer to commence everybody growing beautiful hair absolutely free of charge.

To give a very popular instance of how closely the nerves — and "worry" is caused by an excited condition of the nerves — are associated with hair growth, it is only necessary to give the popular instance of hair "standing on end" in the case of sudden shock or fright. As a matter of fact, hair growth depends on two things.

Firstly, a natural condition of the wonderful nerve system controlling each tiny hair; and, secondly, the perfect nourishment of the hair itself. With this explanation, it is quite easy to see why the wonderful "Harlene Hair-Drill" stimulates the tiny nerves to carry out their exhilarating function.

The illustration above shows impoverished hair, and hair revitalised by the famous "Harlene" Hair-Drill method, which may be adopted FREE by all who post the coupon below.

Shampoo Powder for carrying out the famous liquid shampoo that thoroughly cleanses the hair and scalp, and prepares the head for "Harlene Hair-Drill."

3. A copy of the "Harlene Hair-Drill" Manual that tells you exactly how to carry out this simple and delightful toilet exercise.

Once you have seen for yourself the splendid hair-growing properties of the "Harlene" system you may at any time obtain further supplies from Chemists in any part of the world, at 3s., 6d., and 1s. 6d. per bottle. Afraid of Food

Sufferers from indigestion are apt to become faddists in the matter of diet, thus finding themselves in time reduced to a very meagre and unsatisfying diet.

With the help of Dr. Jenner's Absorbent Lovegroves, made only by Savory and Moore, digestion is so much improved that a strict diet becomes unnecessary. By freeing the stomach of Acidity they allow the natural digestive ferments to act, and thus provide a most valuable corrective for all forms of indigestion. They are especially beneficial in cases of Heartburn, Flatulence, Biliousness, etc.

TESTIMONY.

"I have suffered for years with acute indigestion. I have been compelled for months having to use a special diet but after taking two boxes of the Absorbent Lovegroves I am able, with ease, to have the same meals as the rest of my family."

"I have found they act in a wonderful way for Acid Droppings in most severe form, too. I have been compelled to eat from pain and discomfort since taking them than I have known for 20 years, and now I eat heartily with no bad after-effects."-Excerpts, 4th, 5th, and 6th. of all Chemists.

The German spy is the feature of Mr. Chester Baile's new war play, "The Day before the Day," at the St. James's Theatre.

There are many dramatic scenes dealing with the preparations for a German invasion of England.

The price they have paid has been heavy. This group of officers was taken two days before they left England. These numbered are: (1) Lieut. Bower, killed; (2) Lieut. MacGregor, killed; (3) 2nd Lieut. Leigh Pemberton, killed; (6) Capt. Barrett, killed; (6) Lieut. Burn, killed; (6) Captn. Pottmalt, killed. Inset: 2nd Lieut. Turner, reported killed.—(Group: Oden (Watford); inset: Langford, Ltd.)
You need not pay the greatly increased prices of bread, meat, bacon and eggs.

Quaker Oats is not only much better for your family but is far more economical.

Read these scientific facts about nourishment and economy:

"Dr. Robert Hutchison states that one pound of protid, the important bodybuilding element of food, can be obtained from oats for 7 1/4d., whilst if derived from beef it would cost 2s. 8d.; and Sir Arthur H. Church, F.R.S., states that the power and energy which can be secured from oats for 2s. 8d. would cost 3s. 6d. if derived from lean beef."

One fair-sized plate of Quaker Oats supplies a thousand calories of energy. Nothing else can compare with it. Quaker Oats is the economy-food as well as the energy-food. No other food gives you so much nourishment for such little money.

By reason of special milling Quaker Oats does not overheat the blood, even in the warmest weather.

Eat more Quaker Oats for the next 30 days and prove the great reduction in table expenses.

You are not taking full advantage of the unequaled food value and economy of Quaker Oats if you use it only for porridge.

BATTLE HEROES WHO 'HATE FIGHTING'

What Is Real Pluck? Mr. John Douglas And The Men Who Wonder What They Will Do On The Battlefield

What is real pluck? There are so many different kinds of courage that the question is difficult to answer. I noticed it stated that Lord G. H. Wolseley, of Queen Victoria's Riders, who won the Victoria Cross the other day, "hates fighting." I was doubly sure that the V.C. has found a resting-place with a really brave man.

For it is not the man who glories in fighting who can claim to have most courage.

The highest form of courage is that which is displayed by a man who realizes the terrible dangers through which he will have to go, and yet, despite this knowledge, goes on.

I am not sure of a hundred are somewhat scared at the thought of what they will have to go through at the front, and if it were not for their pluck they would have stayed at home in comfort. I think I am right in saying that the man who is in fear, and yet continues to do his duty in face of it, is a greater man than he who is not possessed and has no fear to master.

There are hundreds of thousands of men fighting at the front now who have arrived at the doors gazing on and "late fighting" like Lieutenant Mr. H. H. Douglas, Wolseley, but because they are spirits and British go through with it, maybe with a pale face, but always with strength and an indomitable determination to conquer fear.

THE REAL TEST OF PLUCK.

Pluck is in the same manner wherever you look for it. In the peaceful world I know quiet men who are different, until their eyes come up against a hard good path, and then they go hammer and nails until the other man is beaten. I would always back the quiet man who hates fighting against the offensive man who is always egging up to you. The lead may rarely have pluck.

Real pluck is in the man who is afraid to show any lack of courage to his comrades around him. He knows that a fatal example it would be for him to lack pluck when many of his friends are watching him and will imitate his example.

And because he feels its duty to set an example he forces himself to be brave.

THE CHOICE OF TWO SONS.

I have two boys, who are, I may say, in the latter category. "Pickles" and "J. W. H. T."—the latter being known for persistence in shrift and in the boxing ring. They made me glad, but sorry, when after the war commenced they came up to me and said: "Of course, we are not joining the Army because we want glory, or anything like that, but it is because we feel we MUST do our bit."

I wonder how many men have said to themselves in this war: "I am in a blue funk, but I mustn't show it." I feel sure there must be a great number. To that shallow-minded sentiment many an appearance of a coward, but if a man does not show any "blue funk," although he feels as he is or gladly as the man who has no cause to conquer such emotions, and who possibly does not realize the full risk he is taking.

Courage consists in conquering self more than recklessly and thoughtlessly opposing a dead leg for more glory.

COURAGE A FORM OF DUTY.

I don't suggest a single Victoria Cross has been won in this war or any other war where the man who won it went through tremendous perils simply for the glory of it. High conception of duty is only a form of duty after all.

And when I say "all fighting," I do not mean to disparage courage. But many people regard it as a lighthearted duty, when it should be the only true conception of duty.

Give for the man who hates fighting, but when he fights comes in with all the mental and physical strength he can muster.

HOW TO END ALL STOMACH MISERY.

Some Good Advice by a Physician.

Here in England, where our damp climate seems to have brought with it a heavy load of colds, many of us suffer from stomach trouble, with the result that our endurance is very much reduced. We find it very difficult to recover our health after we have suffered from an attack of stomach trouble, and the remedy for it seems to be the daily use of a simple syrup, which can be taken internally or externally.

The Widows’ Sobs Mingle With The Wail Of The Pibroch.

Widows in their weeds, weeping as they went, and young children most untimely orphan’d, some in their mothers’ arms, largely figured in the long line of mourners that followed to the grave the soldier-victims of the Greina Green railway disaster. The coffins, carried on transport wagons through the streets of the sorrow-smitten town, were covered with Union Jacks, and the roll of muffled drums and the wail of the pibroch accompanied the funeral march.
