10 | REFERENCES
LIST OF REFERENCES

Aziz Tayob Partnership, 2002. Integrated spatial urban development plan for Marabastad, Urban Framework, City of Tshwane Council, Tshwane

Cardosi, G. 2011. Habitat between norms, impulse and utopia toward the integration of informal settlements. Department of Urban Planning. McGill University, Montreal, Canada

Davies, R.J. 1981. The spatial formation of the South African city, GeoJournal 2: 59-72

Friedman, M. 1994. A History of Africans in Pretoria with Special Reference to Marabastad, 1902-23. Pretoria: UNISA

Nordberg-Schultz, N. 1971. Existence, Space and Architecture. New York: Prager

Tovivich, S. 2009. Learning from informal practice: the new professionalism architectural practice. CEBE Transactions, Vol 6, Issue 1, April 2009 pp 62-85

Unknown (s.a) CBD Durban with special emphasis on Warwick Junction. Accessed via Google Scholar 1 June 2015.

Book named – not author
Challenging city imaginaries: Street traders’ struggles in Warwick Junction, 2009
LIST OF FIGURES

CHAPTER 1
Figure 1.1. Forced removals - 1945 & 1957 (Author 2015) ................................. 11
Figure 1.2. Belle Ombre Metro Station (Author 2015) ........................................ 11
Figure 1.3. Informal sector as viable job creation and economic solution (Author 2015) ................................ 13
Figure 1.4. The conflict of the 'right to the city' (Author 2015) ............................. 14
Figure 1.5. We won't move (Jurgen Shaddeberg) .................................................. 15
Figure 1.6. Dominant transport & trade networks (Author, Degenaar, Oberholzer 2015) ........................ 17
Figure 1.7. Dominating transport network (Author 2015) .................................. 17
Figure 1.8. Dominating trade network (Author 2015) ......................................... 17
Figure 1.9. Urban & environmental decay (Author 2015) .................................... 17
Figure 1.10. Dominant transport and retail networks are vulnerable as they rely on each other for survival .......................... 18
Figure 1.11. Introducing new programmes increases diversity and strengthens existing and new networks (Author 2015) .................................................. 18
Figure 1.12. Urban segregation defined by core & periphery (Author 2015) ............... 19
Figure 1.13. Marabastad’s dependence on external energies between the city & informal settlements (Author 2015) .......................... 19
Figure 1.14. Growing independence of informal settlements threatens Marabastad’s role within the City (Author 2015) .................. 20
Figure 1.15. Marabastad as destination within the city (Author, 2015) ................. 20
Figure 1.16. Urban issue: Transiency & temporality (Author, 2015) ...................... 21
Figure 1.17. Urban intention: Permanence & interdependency (Author, 2015) ......... 21
Figure 1.18. Urban issue summary (Author, 2105) ............................................... 21
Figure 1.19. Marabastad as destination within the City (Author 2015) .................. 22
Figure 1.20. Successful informal distribution networks (Author 2015) .................. 23
Figure 1.21. Elimination of informal networks by normality (Author 2015) .......... 23
Figure 1.22. Threat to relevance of informal networks (Author 2015) ................. 23
Figure 1.23. Provision of catalytic platforms which strengthen informal networks (Author 2015) .................................................. 23
Figure 1.24. Adaptive cycle (Loughborough University) ...................................... 24
Figure 1.25. Informality attaches to & reappropriates the formal, ‘hindering development’ (Author, 2015) ........................ 25
Figure 1.28. Adaptability and self-organisation of informality (Author, 2015) ........ 25
Figure 1.29. Interdependency between formal & informal networks (Author, 2015) 25
Figure 1.26. Provide platforms that allow the co-existence of formal & informal networks (Author 2015) .................... 25
Figure 1.27. Establishment & growth of informal networks (Author, 2015) ...... 25
Figure 1.30. General, urban & architectural issue (Author 2015) ........................ 26

CHAPTER 2
Figure 2.1. Marabastad street life (Good Shepherd, Eersterus) ................................ 31
Figure 2.2. Establishment of Marabastad North-west of Pretoria (Aziz Tayob Partners 2002) ................................................. 32
Figure 2.3. Establishment of Pretoria (Author 2015) ........................................... 32
Figure 2.4. Proclaimed outskirts of Pretoria (Author 2015) .................................. 32
Figure 2.5. Forced removals from Marabastad to outskirts of Pretoria (Author 2015) 32
Figure 2.6. Collage of spatial exploration (Author 2015), Images (Aziz Tayob Partnership) .......................... 33
Figure 2.7. Collage of development of Marabastad (Author, Degenaar, Oberholzer. 2015), Images (Aziz Tayob Partnership) 35
Figure 2.8. Resultant Marabastad (Author 2015) ................................................. 37
Figure 2.9. Physical boundaries of isolation (Author, Degenaar, Oberholzer. 2015) 38
Figure 2.10. Waste burning (Cronje, 2014) ......................................................... 39
Figure 2.11. Motor repairs on vacant land (Cronje, 2014) ..................................... 39
Figure 2.12. Natural environment & urban decay (Author, Degenaar, Oberholzer. 2015) .................................................. 39
Figure 2.13. Resultant heritage fabric (Author, Degenaar, Oberholzer. 2015) ............ 40
Figure 2.14. Steenhovenspruit’s submergence underground (Author 2015) .......... 41
Figure 2.15. Steenhovenspruit channel (Author 2015) ........................................ 41
Figure 2.16. - 2.18. Fine grain (Author 2015) .................................................... 42
Figure 2.19. - 2.21. Large grain (Author 2015) ................................................... 42
Figure 2.22. Fruit & vegetable distribution (Author 2015) .................................. 43
Figure 2.23. Distribution of people through Marabastad (Author 2015) .................. 43
Figure 2.24. Transport nodes .......................................................... 44
Figure 2.25. - 2.30. Indian traders (Aziz Tayob Partners) ...................................... 45
Figure 2.31. - 2.34. Formal stores (Aziz Tayob Partners) .................................... 45
Figure 2.34. Trade & retail network (Author, Degenaar, Oberholzer. 2015) ......... 46
Figure 2.35. - 2.37. Informal traders (Author 2015) ........................................... 47
Figure 2.38. - 2.41. Informal stalls (Author 2015) ............................................. 47
Figure 2.46. Mariamman Hindu Temple (Author 2015) ...................................... 48
Figure 2.45. Ms Maniben Sita ........................................................ 48
Figure 2.47. Oriental Plaza (Author 2015) ......................................................... 48
Figure 2.44. Mr Omarjee Subliman .......................................................... 48
Figure 2.43. Ms Gertrude Holworthy .......................................................... 48
Figure 2.48. Marabastad Mosque (Author 2015) .............................................. 48
Figure 5.21. Vehicular & pedestrian movement conflict (Author 2015) ........................................... 99
Figure 5.24. Belle Ombre Metro Station (Author 2015) ............................................................... 100
Figure 5.25. Sub-Station (Author 2015) ......................................................................................... 100
Figure 5.27. Location of existing structures (Author 2015) .......................................................... 101
Figure 5.30. Lack of shelter from elements (Author 2015) .......................................................... 101
Figure 5.32. Location within the city (Author 2015) ...................................................................... 101
Figure 5.34. Existing structure (Author 2015) .............................................................................. 102
Figure 5.37. Temporality allows adaptability (Author 2015) .......................................................... 103
Figure 5.40. Informal activity (Author 2015) .................................................................................. 103
Figure 5.51. Interior of meat market ............................................................................................... 110
Figure 6.10. Provision of infrastructure: covered market & walkway .............................................. 119
Figure 6.11. Covered market space .............................................................................................. 119
Figure 6.12. Muthi Market ............................................................................................................. 119
Figure 6.14. Market scenario 1 (Dewar & Watson, 1990:49) .......................................................... 120
Figure 6.15. Market scenario 2 (Dewar & Watson, 1990:49) .......................................................... 121
Figure 6.16. Market scenario 3 (Dewar & Watson, 1990:49) .......................................................... 121
Figure 6.19. Market scenario 6 (Dewar & Watson, 1990:49) .......................................................... 121
Figure 6.26. Market scenario 9 (Dewar & Watson, 1990:49) .......................................................... 121
Figure 6.23. Bovine butcher layout ............................................................................................... 123
Figure 6.25. Skinning of bovine head ............................................................................................ 123
Figure 6.26. Butchering of bovine head ....................................................................................... 124
Figure 6.27. Bovine head chopping .............................................................................................. 126
Figure 6.36. Central Meat Market structure ................................................................................. 126
Figure 6.38. Central Meat Market sections ................................................................................... 126
Figure 6.39. Roof resembles a giant wave .................................................................................... 126
Figure 6.40. Space defining concrete elements ............................................................................. 126
Figure 6.41. Informal butchery (Author 2015) ................................................................................ 126
Figure 6.42. Informal meat market (Author 2015) ......................................................................... 127
Figure 6.43. Fruit & vegetable market (Author 2015) ................................................................. 127
Figure 6.44. Fruit & vegetable distribution (Author 2015) ............................................................ 129
Figure 6.45. Informal restaurant (Author 2015) ........................................................................... 129
Figure 6.46. Programmatic services & infrastructure (Author 2015) .............................................. 130
Figure 6.47. Programmatic spatial requirements (Author 2015) ..................................................... 130
Figure 6.48. Programmatic flow (Author 2015) .......................................................................... 130

CHAPTER 6
Figure 6.1. Logos urban fabric (Udoma, 2015) ............................................................................. 114
Figure 6.2. Innovative development (Udoma, 2015) ..................................................................... 114
Figure 6.3. Urban vision: infrastructural nodes illustrated in red and blue (Udoma, 2015) ............ 119
Figure 6.4. Meaningful public space (Phaidon 2004:640) ............................................................... 119
Figure 6.6. Meaningful public space (Phaidon 2004:640) ............................................................... 119
Figure 6.7. Paypoints ................................................................................................................. 120
Figure 6.8. Layered facades & public interfaces ............................................................................ 120
Figure 6.9. Layered facades & public interfaces ............................................................................ 120
Figure 6.10. Layered facades & public interfaces .......................................................................... 120
Figure 6.11. Layered facades & public interfaces .......................................................................... 120
Figure 6.12. Layered facades & public interfaces .......................................................................... 120

CHAPTER 7
Figure 7.1. Informality attaches onto existing formality (Author, 2015) ......................................... 130
Figure 7.2. Formal development that facilitates informality (Author, 2015) ................................. 130
Figure 7.3. Structural shell allows for informal self-organisation (Author, 2015) .......................... 130
Figure 7.4. Existing simple roof structure allowing self-organisation (Author, 2015) ..................... 131