

The number of corpora lutea that represent pregnancies (CLP) and ovulation (CLO) as a function of age in false killer whales.

Additional file 3. There were only 13 individuals in each age group ($n = 26$) from the combined dataset from Japan and South Africa so it was not possible to say anything conclusive about the trend in the corpora lutea of pregnancy and ovulation as function of age.