REVEREND FRANK CHIKANE:

THIS WEEKEND, THIS WEEKEND WE SAY IN PARTICULAR I DEMONSTRATE THE GROUP AREAS AND ALL THEIR PUPPET LAWS THERE

(Inaudible) we say no to Bantustans repression. Bantustans and repression and murder particularly in the Ciskei.

We are saying no to the policy of brutalities in Lamontville of our people.

We are saying no to the inclusion of Lamontville by force to KwaZulu we are saying no to the American (inaudible) internationalist terrorism that is being committed against the world especially Granada.

(Audience applaud)

But we are saying (video interruption)

B - YES

But we are saying yes to a democratic non-racial South Africa, based on the will of the people. We call on all our people to reject the coming election of the Black local authorities. Do not vote for those (video interruption) our concern and protest against our people.

B - YES

AND WE HAVE A . . . . . THAT ARE GROWING UP FROM ALL THE, THE, THE PARTS OF THE COUNTRY, CONCERNING THAT PEOPLE ARE BEING DE-DETAINED CHARGE (CASSIM SALOJEE and DESMOND TUTU can be seen sitting on the stage (Video interruption)).

(Inaudible) . . . ~~parts of the country~~ (inaudible) continue communicating.
At this stage I want to call the first speaker in the program (video interruption) (audience applauds).

BISHOP DESMOND TUTU addresses audience:

Mr MC and friends, I have come to open this meeting (video interruption)

(Audience applauds)

(Video interruption)

DESMOND TUTU continues: The attributes the quality of a true leader listen (video interruption) ~~(inaudible)~~ <sup>"To a King's Son is THAT"</sup> justice to the poor and suffering (video interruption) ... suffering

C - AMANDLA

(Video interruption)

For we ~~are~~ <sup>Amall Rexkae</sup> rescuing the needy from their rich oppressors ~~(inaudible)~~ <sup>THE DISTRESSED WHO HAVE</sup> no protector (video interruption) ... we offer all of this in the name of he who died for us.

Our father who art in Heaven

A human being, the thing that determines your ~~(inaudible)~~ <sup>VALUE</sup> as a human being calls us ~~(inaudible)~~ <sup>CONTRARY TO WHAT THE SCRIPTURE SAYS.</sup> Is a biological total irrelevance, the colour of your skin, it says that that is going to determine where you're born. It says that is going to determine ~~(inaudible)~~ it is going to determine who your parents must be (audience laughs) <sup>VIDEO INTERRUPTION</sup> discriminatory education. It is the violence that seeks to make our fathers our fathers bachelors by law (audience giggles). It says that you are married, but eh, no you are not actually married.

AND My friends, if a system is violent, even those of us who don't know logic, will realise that in order to defend a violent system you must use violence.

(Audience applauds and shouts TUTU)

Then why are we surprised that it will use, logic demands that it will use immoral methods. If a system is totally evil as apartheid is evil without remainder (laughter). Then why are you surprised, that it will use methods that are evil to defend it. If a system is fundamentally illegal it is going to use laws that are laws yes, but they are illegal evil (last two words uttered simultaneously by audience).

(Audience applauds)

(Video interruption)

ELLIOT TSHABANGU is visible next to CASSIM SALOOJEE on the stage.

(Inaudible) ... violent system and I want to say to you as I finish if this constitution is approved. Actually you know we made a mistake. The constitution has already been approved (audience applauds) (video interruption) ... and I say to you, going to be party to the kind of thing that happens at Crossroads, they are going to be party to the kind of thing that happens at <sup>KATLEHONG</sup> ~~Crossroads~~. Can you imagine people who say they've got an iron fist. <sup>AND</sup> You remember in Pretoria there was that wonderful eh parade, parade, parade and they told us they've not yet used their iron fist. Their iron fist is to wake-up at 2 am in the morning (someone in audience shouts YES) for the liberation of this country.

Actually it is not to liberate Blacks as much as to liberate those who are oppressors. Those who (audience applauds) ... those who dehumanise themselves (audience laughs) <sup>LOD WHERE DO THEY COME FROM, WHERE DO THEY COME FROM</sup> (inaudible) ... they say.

(Video interruption)

Audience applauds

<sup>WE ARE HERE TO STAY</sup>

(Video interruption)

Audience applauds

DR NTATHO MOTLANA addresses audience:

Congratulations to the UDF and all those who support it, for having brought this cardinal fact of South African life namely the voteless masses of GHANDI to the centre stage of this present debate. We have <sup>forced</sup> fought those who thought they could do <sup>without us.</sup> (inaudible) ... We have fought those who thought (inaudible) <sup>they could decide without consulting us.</sup> ... designed our (inaudible) we have forced them in the last two weeks of this campaign to come face to face with reality.

We have said to them in the famous words of one MARTIN BALLANGER that all South African politics is about native politics (video interruption) ... and there are among us here outside this hall <sup>very many of</sup> (inaudible) ... our colour (inaudible). <sup>captured</sup> BROTHERS.

Who say that the group areas act should not be repealed and I know this (video interruption) ... confused about some of the provisions of the Black Authorities Act which appeal to them (video interruption) ... but I want to repeat as strongly as I can that the little platform they are looking for, that the platform created by Pretoria as the CRC learnt <sup>of course</sup> also, many, many a years ago, can never serve the purpose of the oppressed and that therefore you must reject those platforms created for your oppression. When Pretoria <sup>planned.</sup> planned, Pretoria does not plan for your comfort, when Pretoria planned it plans for the perpetuation of White control for the perpetuation of, White rule, White power, White privilege. You must always <sup>REMINDS</sup> (inaudible) ... yourself <sup>THAT</sup> even as some of you accept and hope as we know some of you will, as you vote in the new dispensation, that, that dispensation is intended pure to ensure White rule in perpetuity (inaudible) .. again by reminding all of us that the struggle is going to be long and costly. It is easy for us to assemble here and raise <sup>sacrifice</sup> our fists in defiance (video interruption) ... who will suffer (inaudible) freedom demands of us all.

PROFESSOR ISMAEL MOHAMMED addresses audience:

By the growing fact of unity of struggle that is sweeping our country from Lamontville, Kwamashu, Mdantsane and our Eastern Coast up to Vryburg and Kuruman and Zeerust on our borders with Botswana. (Video interruption) ... Southern Coast right to the complexes of the Reef, Soweto, Mamelodi, Lenz, Western Townships and others to Pietersburg, Tzaneen and right up to our most northern borders. That flame of freedom is spreading all the time. That the signs are clear for those who want to see it, like the heaving and swelling mighty ocean, that the oppressed are rising. When those waves roll more and more in unison, they will amplify each other into a raging storm. The signs are clear for those who want to see that that storm shall sweep away the racialism and oppression exploitation under which we have suffered for so long. They will sweep away those sufferings and the kind of system that we live under onto the rubbish dump of history and it will bring forth a new South Africa. A South Africa of which we shall all be proud. But I must warn you all I must warn our people. We must understand things clearly.

(M J NAIDOO can be seen sitting on the stage)

That if we are going to work our own separate ways, we are engaged in a struggle (video interruption) that the ruthless understand that situation. They spare no effort, and they have never done so, to try and destroy the growing unity, the setting of White workers against Black workers; of skilled workers against unskilled workers, of urban workers against the rural workers, of one <sup>RELIGIOUS GROUP AGAINST</sup> (inaudible) another, of students against parents and of one community against another. That has been their task over all these many years, and they are proceeding in that task. You know we've been driven into so many (video interruption) in our struggle <sup>FOR NEW SCHOOLS HAVE</sup> (inaudible) brought us together and has made us understand the power of that united force. It has brought us together in the national struggle for total liberation. We have also had the lessons of Angola (video interruption)

~~BY THE ELMS, THE SABBATH AND THE MIRAGES~~

(Inaudible) are not enough to contain us. They have to look for collaborators, traitors of our land, so that the vast majority of our people will live and sell their cheap labour to produce the wealth to make their guns with and to give them the power to throttle us. Their attempting and quoting of bills to co-opt sections of urban Black workers against the vast majority of the oppressed in our country. We must understand that we are being offered. What is it that we are being offered.

We are offered a few crumbs from BOTHA's table, moreover those are poisonous crumbs (audience applauds) ... We are offered those crumbs in exchange for what? We are offered those crumbs in exchange for our birth right to rule this country of ours; to determine its destiny and to determine our own lives ourselves. We are offered those crumbs in exchange for what is really ours. But the vast majority of our people have spoken with one voice. (TVL INDIAN CONGRESS is visible). That voice has said we shall not be betrayed by the HENDRICKSE'S, the CURRY's, the RAJBANSI's, the THEBAHALI's and the like (audience applauds). We shall not trade our birthright for your miserable poisoned crumbs. We shall not let you divide our struggle for total liberation.

That voice of our people has said we shall not let our children be conscripted into the hated army to impose the will of our oppressor on us.

We shall not allow our children to fight on the borders against our children who have fled this country (video interruption) ... we have understood very clearly the evil system that we are up against. You might have witnessed in the days even more and more recently, the banning of our meetings, the detaining of our leaders. (RAJBANSI and another speaker has said that at this moment (video interruption) (inaudible) ... to a united trade union federation that can address itself to the problems of capital and labour in this country.

(Applause)

(Video interruption)

(Inaudible) ... we must fight this problem (inaudible) community organisations into a massive organisation that can address itself to many of the problems facing us. But we must also (video interruption) We must regularly link hands across the boundaries of youth organisations of the various SRC's and of the various schools and those and youth organisations that can address itself to the problems of the youth of our country (inaudible).

We must also remember that above that there is in fact a much more major issue. You know, if we are not going to dissipate our energies (Video interruption).

Go forward from this day, let this meeting and the meetings elsewhere of our people, whether it be in large areas or small, let them aspire with a new determination to fight for our liberty. In our day to day struggle let those of our people who are in oppressors prisons, MANDELA, SISULU, MBEKI, MLANGENI, KATHRADA, GOLDBERG and so, many others (someone in audience shouts "MANDLA")

... let them serve as a constant reminders that we are <sup>her/ots</sup> ~~her/ots~~ in the land of our birth. Let those who in their many thousands had to flee our borders and who are now hounded from their place of refuge, let them serve as constant reminders. That they yet have to win our freedom, let those who were so cruelly robbed of life and I want to mention just a few: MAHLANGU, MOGOERANE, MOTSOALEDI, MOTAUNG and those thousands who were massacred and murdered at Cassinga, at Matola and Maseru and in so many other places, let them inspire us with new courage, with strength and determination to grasp our freedom and we shall see the new dawn of a South Africa come shining through until then AMANDLA (raises right clenched fist)

(Inaudible) We must all play our part in the struggle for democracy. After 1981 when P W won his election that year, it showed him that there was a rightward sweep in all constituencies; A swing to the CP. And one thing (video interruption)

... this is a country which portrays its enemies as being foreigners under the influence of Soviet (Eastern) Russia or Cuba. It calls these people terrorists. But you know and I know that what we have are people who in the years of 1976 and those that followed, could no longer <sup>TAKE THIS</sup> (inaudible) ... and ventured as exiles and are now returning to try to fight for their homeland (audience applauds).

The tragic effect of today is that this government puts White school children of this year off into the fields to places like Angola and Namibia and to our borders to fight against the school children of '76 who are coming home instead of welcoming our friends and our students of '76 broken hearts, they're killing them (video interruption).

(Video interruption) (The following is a summary and not a transcript)

A meeting progress appears on viewer with a unknown person leading a discussion about day to day community issues such as salaries, electricity costs, overtime, lack of opportunities, repression, housing et al. (Presumably about Western Township according to answers given).

A question is posed asking for a solution which elicits an answer that the people should be organised in trade unions, civic bodies to campaign for the alleviation and possible eradication of the problems.

A further point discussed is the problem of getting the residents of Western Township to unite under WRAC (WESTERN RESIDENTS ACTION COMMITTEE) due to the negative attitude prevailing because of the CMC (COLOURED MANAGEMENT COMMITTEES) actions over a span of 22 years.

They further plan a strategy to be used to activate the community through the use of house-meetings etc to bring about unity in action.

Video scene changes to piles of rubbish purported to be in the living areas and focusses attention on the housing and dirt found in Western Township. It then further gives an overhead scene of a well kept township with workers doing maintenance and neat buildings (Presumably Westdene).

Video scene changes to interviews iro church and other organisations role in the struggle for "freedom" by overthrowing the existing government.

(Video interruption)

A person giving a statement on how the problem came into existence (Definitely a staged interview). (The person interviewed repeats the lines of couple of times)
