DEDICATED to all who want to know the Truth, whether in South Africa or elsewhere; and who are not afraid to read, mark, and digest, when facts and truths are made known to them.

No historian hitherto has dared to speak the Truth. I offer no apology for doing so; neither do I ask for mercy if I offend. Other writers have given their views. I, as a South African resident for ten years, dare to give mine, in the hope that if not appreciated, they will at least be respected. I profess no great literary talent, being simply a hard worker for the food that perisheth; and it is with all humility that I record my experiences, suggestions and hopes, in the belief that the thoughts contained therein, and in my other works, will prove beneficial to the country of my adoption (South Africa) and the World generally.

THE AUTHOR,
