

Interview Guide

1. What do you know about health research?
2. What is your experience of health research?
3. What do you know about research methods?
4. What methods do you use to access literature for evidence-based practice?
5. What type of support do you get from peers and professionals to engage in research activities?
6. Have you ever initiated change in the hospital based on research findings?
7. We intend to develop training programme for nurses on health research. What competencies do nurses require to conduct health research?
8. Are there any barriers that affect your use of research in supporting evidence-based practice? If yes, please provide examples.
9. What can be done to promote research by the nurses in the hospitals?