Web page vs repository

Web page

- ☐ If a researcher leaves the institution, the web page's content is deleted
- ☐ Web pages are less discoverable
- ☐ Cannot always generate statistics

Repository

- ☐ Content in a repository is not deleted after a researcher leaves
- ☐ Easier discovery by search engines, due to indexing of Open Access repositories and exposure of metadata
- ☐ Generation of usage statistics

Benefits to Prof Jansen

- ☐ Central archive of his research output
- ☐ Showcase of his work and research at UP
- ☐ Increased visibility, usage & impact
- ☐ Dissemination of previously hidden material
- ☐ Increases communication among scholars
- ☐ Wide range of materials
- ☐ Highly retrievable via Google
- ☐ Long-term, safe preservation in digital format

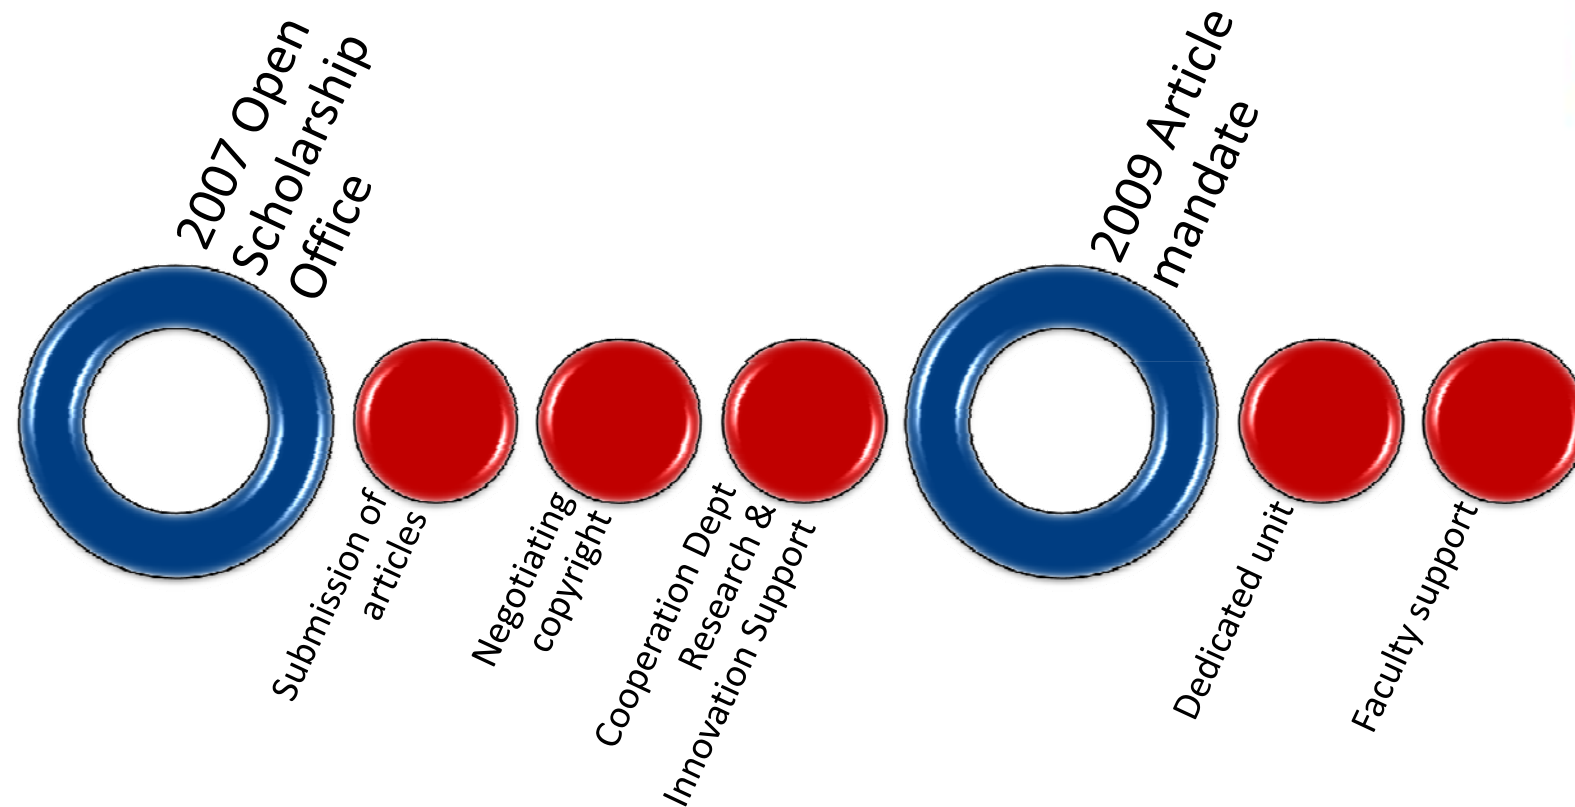

Benefits to University of Pretoria

- ❑ Long term archiving & preservation of research output
- ❑ Showcases UP's wealth of knowledge
- ❑ It can serve as an indicator of the University of Pretoria's quality, visibility, prestige and public value
- ❑ Can act as advertisement for funding and sponsors

Beyond the Jonathan Jansen Collection

Open Scholarship Office's primary goal

Change scholarship practice at the University of Pretoria towards becoming an open scholarship institution

Open Scholarship characteristics

- ☐ Theses and dissertations are available online - policy based
- ☐ Research and conference papers are available - policy based
- ☐ Researchers and students actively use Open Access material
- ☐ Researchers publish in available Open Access journals and the institution has policy and financial support in place for that
- ☐ Researchers actively manage the copyright of their publications, inter alia with addenda to their contracts/Creative Commons contracts
- ☐ Publications from the institution's press/publishing house are available in Open Access based on policy
- ☐ The institution publishes its own online Open Access journals OR provides infrastructure and support for members
- ☐ Dissemination forms part of its publication strategies

Copyright is a major concern...

- ❑ Open Access archives or repositories (green route)
 - Traditionally authors sign Copyright Transfer Agreement
 - SHERPA/RoMEO website
 - 64% of 1022 publishers allow some form of self-archiving
 - ❑ 8% allows archiving of the pre-print
 - ❑ 30% allows archiving of the post-print
 - ❑ 26% allows archiving of the pre-print and post-print
- ❑ South African journal publishers do not have policies
- ❑ Open Scholarship office takes responsibility for clearing copyright & interpreting archiving conditions
