

1895

LIFE AND CORRESPONDENCE OF
SIR BARTLE FRERE.

M^r Padanjo of Poona, Photo.

Walker & Boutwell Ph. Sc.

Sir Bartle Frere.
(1867)

THE
LIFE AND CORRESPONDENCE OF THE RIGHT HON.
IR BARTLE FRERE
BART., G.C.B., F.R.S., ETC.

BY JOHN MARTINEAU.

Τὸ εὐθεές, οὐ τὸ γενναῖον πλείστον μετέχει.
THUCYDIDES, iii. 83.

IN TWO VOLUMES.

VOL. II.

SECOND EDITION.

LONDON:
JOHN MURRAY, ALBEMARLE STREET.

1895.

CHAPTER XVII.

THE PRINCE OF WALES IN INDIA.

Preparations for the tour—Presents—Special correspondents—Athens—Egypt—Bombay—Baroda—Ceylon—Calcutta—Peshawur—Policy towards the Ameer—Return to England—Proclamation of Empress of India—Correspondence with Lord Lytton

CHAPTER XVIII.

THE CAPE.

Appointed to the Cape—Arrival at Capetown—President Burgers—Defencelessness of Capetown—Retrospect—Disintegration and Confederation—Condition of the Transvaal Republic—Its annexation—Damaraland and Namaqualand—Eastern and Western Colonists—Frere goes to King William's Town—The Galekas attack the Fingoes—Outbreak of War—Confidence restored—The Gaikas rebel—Conduct of the Ministry—Frere dismisses them—Mr. Gordon Sprigg forms a Ministry—The war ended—School Kaffirs—Meeting of the Legislature

CHAPTER XIX.

THE ZULU WAR.

Native combination—The Zulus—Cetywayo's installation—Slaughter of girls—Daily victims—Frere goes to Natal—The disputed territory—Cetywayo's threatening attitude—The Ultimatum—Reinforcements asked for—Confidence of British Staff Officers—Isandhlwana—Panic—Piet Uys—Frere's journey to the Transvaal—The Boer Camp—The Memorial—Shepstone as an administrator—The Camp breaks up—Censure of Frere—His unpopularity in England and popularity at the Cape

CONTENTS.

vii

CHAPTER XX.

SUPERSESSION AND RECALL.

	PAGE
The High Commissionership divided—Sir Garnet Wolseley—Ulundi—Cetywayo a prisoner—Basutoland and Pondoland—The Zulu Kinglets—Missionaries—Sir Garnet Wolseley in the Transvaal—Secocoeni taken—Special correspondents—Colonial defence—Sir George Colley succeeds Sir Garnet Wolseley—Dutch feeling—The Midlothian speeches—Mr. Gladstone in office—South African policy unchanged—The Aborigines Protection Society—The Basuto disarmament—Confederation postponed—Attacks on Frere—The “Unity of the Party”—Frere’s salary—His recall—General indignation—Loyalty of Colonists	337

CHAPTER XXI.

THE BREACH OF FAITH.

The Boer Emissaries at Capetown—Outbreak of the Rebellion—Aylward — The Surrender — Sufferings of Loyalists — Bechuanaland—Zululand—Cetywayo restored—Frere policy in South Africa	406
---	-----

CHAPTER XXII.

THE RECALLED GOVERNOR.

Frere lands at Southampton—Visits the Queen and the Prince of Wales in Scotland—Correspondence with Mr. Gladstone—The occupation of Candahar—The Ilbert Bill—Irish Police—Gordon—Press attacks—Last illness and death	433
--	-----

LIST OF ILLUSTRATIONS.

	PAGE
SIR BARTLE FRERE, 1867. From a photograph by Mr. Padamjee Frontispiece
ITALIAN SKETCHES. By Sir B. Frere To face 34, 36
ROUTE MAP OF SIR BARTLE FRERE'S ZANZI- BAR MISSION, JANUARY TO APRIL, 1873 ,, 88
SKETCH MAP OF SOUTH AFRICA IN 1878 At End	