I do not say take up your guns and bayonets and fight, but put on your thinking caps and realise that matters will not be improved until you are governed by a Labour party.—Mr. W. Madeley, M.P.

The time is past when a "home born" Town Council can use South Africa as a preserve to be exploited by mediocrity from elsewhere.—Mr. G. Moerdyk.

The Temperance Alliance is the direct outcome of a growing conviction in the Christian mind that there is no single instrument for evil in our civilisation which can be compared with strong drink.—Dr. Wm. Nicol.

Our maternal ancestors were probably, on the whole, more beautiful than their present descendants.—Miss Mary Brian.

The good class silent film will return and take its place side by side with the good talkie.—Mr. H. Brenon.

Riches can in themselves bring no true happiness to any man, but I do not consider the pursuit of them wrong.—Mr. John D. Rockefeller.

The organisation of natives into trade unions is full of menace to agriculture, and should be prohibited by law.—Colonel A. Fawcus.

Many intelligent women wear jewellery with the barbaric taste of the early cave-woman.—Mrs. J. Nesbitt.
